

FIELD MICE WINNERS OVER OREGON JOURNALS

SCORE OF 5 TO 0 FEATURES OPENING SERIES

Second Game to Be Played Tonight; If Mice Win Again so More Necessary

After much delay the Junior Twilight League championship series is well under way. In a snappy five-inning game Monday evening the Field Mice blanked the Oregon Journals 5 to 0.

Both teams played the ball, but errors in the fourth gave the game to the Mice. It was a fast game with no crabbing. The second game of the series will be played tonight. If won by the Field Mice it will be the last game, otherwise a third game will be necessary. Both teams will be out for blood tonight and the contest should be keen.

Field Mice—Rainy 3b, Benner c, Marr rf, Gillespie lf, Lutz 2b, Kafoury cf, Heath p, Hageman ss, Harris lb.

Oregon Journals—Linn 1b, Seagan 2b, Duffy 3b, Hill ss, East c, Ashby p, Bowen lf, Alley rf, Waters cf.

Umpires—R. Bishop and Carpenter. Scorekeeper—C. Dishop.

PUBLIC SCHOOL LAW DEFEATED IN COURT

by the 14th amendment. The property of the two opposing the law was threatened with destruction "through the unwarranted compulsion," which the state was exercising "over present and prospective patrons of their schools," the court found and it considered the injury "present and very real. As a mere possibility in the future," since if relief should be postponed until the law took effect, the injury would be irreparable. While it is generally true that no person in any business has such an interest in possible customers as to enable him to restrain exercise of proper power of state on the ground that he will be deprived of patronage, the opinion stated that the injunction sought in the present cases was not against the exercise of proper power, but sought protection against "arbitrary, unreasonable and unlawful interference with their patrons and the consequent destruction of their business and property."

WILL PRESENT TROPHY WINNERS RECEIVE CUP AT COURT OF HONOR SOON

The presentation of the Burnett trophy to the winner of the Boy Scout track and field meet held last week will be held at the next Court of Honor, on June 26. In addition the pennants won by other competing troops and individuals will be presented at the same meeting.

The location of the presentation will be given at a later time, when arrangements have been fully completed. About 20 boys who were winners in the contest will be the guests of honor at the court.

BANKERS MEET DEFEAT BY LEGION TEAM 5-4

GAME LISTLESS AT START BUT OFFERS THRILLS

Money-Takers Fail to Score Main Until Fourth Inning When Two Register

The American Legion clamped a victory from the U. S. Bankers by a score of 5 to 4 in a baseball contest waged on the Oxford field diamond Monday. At first the game was listless, but the Legion opened up in the second inning and put across five runs, the only scoring they did during the game.

The Bankers never scored until the fourth inning when Barrick sent the apple across the fence, and let in Weeks, making two scores. In the next inning Fish and Bloomerberg made a run apiece when Cooper's overthrow enabled them to chase across the plate.

In the fourth Jenkins of the Legion replaced Cooper. At first he was wild, but settled down when he began to heat the pill across the plate. Mason did fine work as umpire and his efforts are to be commended.

Line up of the teams: American Legion—Sullivan, Parker, Acton, Gibson, Cooper, Ruggles, Laird, Pearline, Jenkins. U. S. Bankers—Humphrey, Weeks, Barrick, Wilkinson, E. Compton, G. Compton, Lucas, Fish, Bloomerberg.

SIX SALEM STUDENTS PLEDGED TO SOCIETY

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY ANNOUNCES DECISIONS

Eight Made Members of Alpha Kappa Nu by Faculty; Requirements Listed

Members of the Willamette university graduating class to receive membership to the Alpha Kappa Nu, honorary scholastic fraternity, were announced yesterday. Eight members of the class will receive the honor, six boys and two girls. Six of the students are from Salem.

Those elected are Rawson Chupin, Wallace Griffith, Grace Jasper, Victor Hicks, Paul Pemberton, Trevor Powers, all of Salem; Caroline Tallman, Gresham, and Daniel Taylor, Cottage Grove.

In the talk by Dr. Carl Gregg Doney, president of the university, in which he made the announcement, he stated that the scholastic standing of the student in college was a very good index to the type of success he would achieve after graduation.

The four characteristics of the educated person as given by Dr. Doney were: character, the mastery of a language, a store of knowledge, and imagination.

AMENDMENT APPROVED

ANNUAL STAFF DENIED COMPENSATION FOR WORK

Three amendments of primary importance were acted upon by the Willamette University student body at the regular student meeting yesterday.

The first provided that no compensation be given to Collegian Staff members, other than those specified by the constitution, except with the supervision of the student executive committee.

The second was proposed to take all over $300 from the permanent Collegian fund and to apply the surplus to the athletic debt.

The third amendment provided that the students take over the present campus book store controlled by the Willamette board of trustees, and to run the store on the profit sharing basis.

GOLF PLAY POSTPONED

QUALIFYING ROUNDS WILL BEGIN SUNDAY, JUNE 7

Qualifying rounds for the president's cup and the second flight for the Man's Shop trophy at the Illheee Country club has been postponed until Sunday, June 7. The press of activities during the last week was the reason assigned for the delay.

New members have been secured for the club, due to the fact that the membership fee is advancing from $50 to $100 on July 1.

The greens committee has been busy during the last week, and the bunkers are to be cleaned of grass, sand put on, in order to improve the condition of the course.

Five of the Illheee club members are to represent the local unit here in the dedicatory exercises of the Coos Bay club on June 6 and 7.

Cartoonist Cargill Boardman's Classmate

Jess Cargill, whose daily cartoons are featured in the Statesman is a schoolmate of Bob Boardman, director of physical training at the Salem YMCA. The two entered the Academy of Fine Arts in Chicago, and worked together for a period of time. When Cargill and Boardman first arrived in Chicago they studied together over some of the cartoons that were later featured by Cargill, while he was employed on the eastern papers.

It is interesting to note that Mr. Cargill served in the United States navy during the recent war and following upon the close of the World War entered the publishing business as a cartoonist.

His works are appearing in the Literary Digest, Review of Reviews and other famous publications.

MAIL ROUTE SHORTENED

CARRIER F. L. SOUTH ON JOB FOR LAST 24 YEARS

Forty families will not have to walk a quarter of a mile, or one mile to get to the mail box since the rearrangement of rural route No. 8, effective Monday. As a result the families will have the mail brought to their front gates, thus saving much time.

The rearrangements of the route has eliminated a retrance of four miles, thus making a considerable saving of time for the mail carrier.

Freemont L. South, who has been on the route since April 1, 1901, is in charge. He was one of the first carriers to be put on the rural delivery when the service was inaugurated in this city.

ed declaring the intention of erecting a high tension electric cable across the Willamette river, below the Marion-Polk county bridge. Six sidewalk resolutions, two petitions to bond property, a petition to erect an electric light sign at 252 South Liberty, a petition to pave North Fourteenth from Marlon to D.

The matter of transferring of surplus money from the specific improvement funds is to be looked into by the proper committee.

Two resolutions were passed transferring property deeds to Henry W. Zobel and Fay B. Rice, while the bid for the Oregon gravel company was accepted for sewer pipe.

The street committee reported a petition for a pavement on Richmond avenue, improvement of north Fourth, from Columbia to Norway, and a pavement on Oak street to Commercial.

CLIMBS STEEP INCLINE

Cody Evans, local motorcycle rider, won first place in the professional entry at the annual motorcycle hill climbing contest at Cottage Grove Sunday. Evans, riding a Harley-Davidson, took the entry in the 61 cubic inch division, climbing Mt. David, one of the steepest hills near the city.

Cody won much comment by expert work in getting up the grade of 85 per cent, and set one of the records of hill climbing events. Nine of the 12 places were captured by the Harley-Davidson machines.

Production of Bicycles

For those people who have a liking for statistics, the following table, which shows the rise and decline in popularity of the bicycle in the United States, will be of interest. These figures are compiled from the census reports:

Table with columns: Year, Number, Value. Data points for 1890, 1900, 1904, 1909, 1914, 1919, 1921, 1922.

The foregoing figures will illustrate that, with the exception of the year 1921, which was marked by general business depression throughout the country, production has been steadily on the increase since 1909.

The Days of Real Sport

Harking back to Eugene Field's famous column in the Chicago Daily News of August 19, 1895, we find the following account of what bicycling meant 30 years ago:

"The bicycle brings health and happiness to very many people and at the same time it is threatening certain industries with ruin. The Sunday theater has been a losing proposition ever since bicycling has become a popular passion. It would not surprise us at all if a year from this time the theaters of Chicago would close their doors on Sundays, compelled to do so by the lack of patronage."

Cyclist Has Road Rights

Recently a bicyclist of Manchester, Conn., was awarded $400 and costs for injuries received when he was knocked from his bicycle by a man driving an automobile. It was found that the bicyclist gave a signal that he was about to turn in the road and the defendant was driving his car at an excessive rate of speed under the conditions.

"The auto operator," said Judge Hinman in his decision of the case of George Crockett vs. Clifford Kief and others, all of Manchester, "who assumes that he may merely blow his horn and proceed at will, leaving the disregarded rider of the bicycle to make the best of it, assumes the consequences—legally accruing from such a course."

"The bicycle is entitled to rights and privileges as a vehicle, but lacks the capabilities of offense and defense inherent in the automobile. A bicycle operated according to the standards prevailing since bicycling ceased to be an accomplishment and became a matter of utility only is an object which should give the prudent motorist pause."
