BEN SEZ

He has a dandy 1924 Overland coupe sedan, just nicely broken in. Very fine equipment such as bumpers, spotlight, etc. This car has original tires and they show very little wear.

Priced to move quickly. See it today.

VICK BROS.

born and raised here. He was a brother of Joe G. Fontaine, well known merchant of Jefferson, of the firm of Smith & Fontaine. Fred had made an enviable record at Yakima, and he was said to have been the most popular man in that city. Tribute was paid by the community there in services held at St. Joseph's Catholic church. Members of the Yakima County Bar association and of the Kiwanis club, marched from the Shaw & Sons' chapel, where the body had been in state, to the church. All law offices of the city were closed during the hour of the services, as a mark of respect. The Rev. Fr. Conrad Brusten sang the solemn requiem mass and the Rev. Fr. Robert Armstrong delivered the eulogy. Interment was in Tahoma cemetery, Yakima.

Sun Becomes Editor
Hem Sun of Salem was elected to succeed Miss Kathryn Kirk of Oregon City as the editor of next year's Wallulah year book of Willamette university. Miss Kirk resigned recently, giving as her reason that she did not expect to return to Willamette next year. Mr. Sun is a graduate of Salem high school and edited the 1923 year book there that was awarded the prize as being the best in Oregon. Mr. Sun is a member of the Sigma Tau fraternity and of the Websterian Literary society.
