

BEE INDUSTRY HELD AID TO FRUIT MEN

ORCHARD BOLLERIZATION IS OF VITAL IMPORTANCE

Money in Different Sections Has Distinct Flavors, Declares H. M. Mead

"Bees of Drunk's Corner" was the subject of an interesting talk by Harrison M. Mead, keeper of bees, who addressed the Rotary club at their regular meeting Wednesday noon.

"The work of the honey bee is an important factor in the fruit industry here. The process of pollenization is aided by stands of bees and the fruit product is increased. From this standpoint alone, bee-keeping in Marion and Polk counties is necessary. Fully $1,000,000 is produced by honey growers in the Salem district.

"If we were to develop the industry it would be on a par with the fruit industry. A little management and cooperation would help increase the bee industry materially."

"It is an interesting matter to watch a hive where 100,000 bees are working harmoniously together," he continued.

"One half of this number are working outside the hive, and the balance inside, cleaning up, storing the honey, and other details. They all know what to do, and each one performs his task, each one doing a work according to his age.

"People should eat more honey, if no more than from a health viewpoint. Medical men state that many of the ills of the body could be combated easier if honey was consumed instead of the sugar of the factory. Many persons do not realize that there is a variety in the taste of honey. Maple, grains, and the product of the mountain-side differ materially."

There are one hundred million bees in Marion and Polk counties, Mr. Mead said. There should be 6,000 stands, which would bring the number of bees up to three million, necessary to bring about a proper pollenization of the berry and fruit crops.

"The foul brood should be combated in this district, if the promotion of the bee industry is to be carried on. One thing the Rotary club can do, which will be of great benefit, is to secure the proper enforcement of the bee law here. With the enforcement of the law the dreaded destroyer of bee hives can be quelled," declared the speaker in closing.

CLARION ANNUAL TODAY

YEAR BOOK TO BE DISTRIBUTED LATER IN WEEK

The 1925 Clarion annual is to make its appearance at the high school the last of next week, and will be the crowning event of the year. Keen interest and enthusiasm has been shown in the design and publication of the official school record, as the Salem high school has captured the state championship for two years, and they plan to secure it the third time in order to retain possession of the trophy offered.

Cecil Edwards, as editor, and Jack Minto as manager, have worked out clever ideas in this year's publication. One feature of the grouping of clubs near some civic point of interest and incorporating it in the picture. In this manner Salem beautiful is brought out in the Clarion annual.

The issue for 1925 is 700 copies, two of which are to be used in a state and national exhibit.

Silverton

SILVERTON, June 3.—(Special)—Very enjoyable was the Pythian Sister party at the home of Mrs. Helen Wrightman Tuesday afternoon when fifty guests dined between the hours of two and five. The affair was in honor of the drill team of Home Temple 21 and its captain, Mrs. Ella McCleary and the Pythian sisters who will spend the summer in the East. The latter two are Mrs. Lawrence Larson and Mrs. Ida Robenalt. Mrs. Larson and Mrs. Robenalt were each presented with a box of handkerchiefs and Mrs. McCleary was the recipient of a black satin glass vase. The drill team and its captain was honored because of the beautiful and impressive manner in which they put on the initiatory work at the independence convention last week.

The Wrightman home was artistically decorated with sweet williams, cornflowers and roses. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Carl Speck, Mrs. Fannie Hyatt, Mrs. Charles Hartley, Mrs. William Hope and Mrs. Ben Gifford.

The high school alumni association of Silverton held a business meeting Tuesday night at the high school. Officers elected were as follows: president, George Lukens; vice president, Helen Kleeb; secretary, Gladys Larson; treasurer, Kenneth Benton; sergeant at arms, Harry Larson. Initiation of seniors will be held Friday night of this week at the Eugene Field auditorium. It was also announced that the alumni play given last Monday night would be repeated again on June 17th.

Miss Marietta Kemper was the inspiration of a happy little kitchen shower at the Kemper home Friday evening. Miss Kemper's wedding to Virgil Kruschki will be an event of the near future. Those present at the Friday evening party were Miss Kemper, Mr. Kruschki, Mrs. S. W. Hall, Robert Kemper, Allison Bristol, John Elches, Arthur Shiffe, Vernon Day, Lucretia Day, Frank Alfred, Gladys Whitlock, Ina Harold, Miss Clarice Steen.

The rifle range which Company I of the Oregon National Guards recently built on the Hugh Small ranch is proving an inspiration to the Guards. It is stimulating interest in their work and every day sees a group of men going in that direction. Captain Henry Hutton says that the boys are making good records and are all working hard to qualify for the team which will be picked before June 11. This will be composed of four men who make the highest average of scores between now and then. On June 11 the Guard leaves for Camp Jackson at Medford.

CAMP REUNION SUPPER WILL BE HELD FRIDAY

YMCA BOYS TO GATHER FOR BANQUET AND TALKS

A boy's camp reunion supper is to be served at the YMCA Friday at 6:15 o'clock to the fellows that have attended some of the YMCA summer camps. A large number will be on hand from all indications, and a good time is expected. A charge of 25 cents is to be made to defray the cost of eats.

Discussion will be made of the camp for the coming year, which is to be held on the ocean beach. Lots of swimming, fishing and hunting is promised the boys who attend.

Other interesting features of the camp is the proximity to wrecks of steamships, and to an old sailing vessel that went on the rocks many years ago, and the hull left to rot away on the shore. Other interesting camping places are to be picked out and excursions made to them, according to camp leaders.

Two well known YMCA workers are to be in charge of the camp this year. They are Bob Boardman, physical director at the YMCA, and Benjamin J. Kimber, director of the Marion county Y. Both men are of wide experience in this work and a great time is to be provided for the boys.

Boys' Golf Team Will Play in Eugene Sunday

BOOK STORE CELEBRATES

PATTON BROTHERS OBSERVE FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Celebration of the 40th anniversary of the founding of the Patton Brothers book store was observed June 1 by a general get-together of employees. The business has been conducted in the same location all this time, the building being erected on State street, where E. Cooke Patton was born in 1859.

Before the Patton brothers took over the management of the store it was operated by H. D. Boon. Hal and Cooke were away at school, and they were called back to Salem to take charge of the business.

One of the first changes they made was to trade some stock of the early transportation company here to the light company, which was just starting here, which enabled them to install electric lights in their shop.

Old timers predicted the two boys would go broke in a fortnight, but the well established business of today belies that statement.

They have the record of being the first firm in Salem to take a full page ad in the Oregon Statesman.

DAMAGED BOAT BOUGHT

INSURANCE COMPANY GETS 'RELIEF' FOR $2100

The steamship "Relief" which has been made a center of litigation since the freeze over the Willamette river last winter passed into the hands of the insurance company Wednesday for a total of $2100, which was offered by the highest bidder, when put up for sale by Federal officer Reed, of Portland, according to local reports.

When the controversy opened the "Relief" was at the bottom of the Willamette river after the ice had crushed the hull and caused the boat to sink. The owners wanted to collect a total of $22,000 insurance, which the insurance men refused to pay. They did, however, snake the boat from the river and towed it to the island near the Spaulding mill, where it has been under guard.

Experienced rivermen state that the vessel is not injured to a great extent. With a few minor repairs, a plank across the hole in the hull, the boat would be in running order.

Reports are that the vessel will be sold by the insurance company as they do not care to go into the river transportation business.

REBEL FORCES THREATEN ACTIVITIES IN MOROCCO ZONE WATCHED CAREFULLY

TETUAN, Spanish Morocco, June 3.—(By The Associated Press)—Although tranquillity prevails generally in the Spanish zone, there is evidence that unruly elements in the Anjera tribe have renewed their agitation for a continuance of the rebellion against Spain and are endeavoring to prevent the submission of several villages in the Anjera region to the rule of the native government set up by the Spaniards.

To counteract the new activities of the tribesmen, Spanish air warfare against the Anjeras has been intensified. Fire bombs are being dropped in their territory. The Spanish blockade forces have captured several convoys destined for the enemy.

JUDGE OLSON IS RAPPED

SHEPHERD COUNSEL LAUNCH VINDICTIVE TIRADE

CHICAGO, June 3.—Efforts to obtain a jury in the Shepherd murder trial today were enlivened by a defense attack on Harry Olson, chief justice of Chicago's municipal courts and chief figure in the investigation which resulted in Shepherd's indictment and trial.

In questioning Carl Bjelland, a young volunteer of Norwegian extraction, William Scott Stewart, chief of Shepherd's counsel, accused Judge Olson of being vicious, vindictive and back of the prosecution. After objections had halted his examination, Stewart said to Judge Thomas J. Lynch, "we intend to show by testimony of witnesses that Judge Olson wanted to be made guardian of Billy McClintock."

"We intend to show by another witness that Judge Olson has made a deal with the McClintock heirs whereby he hopes to get a part of Billy's money for the widow of Dr. Oscar Olson."
