Five Brothers Win Fame in Variety of Athletics

PIERRE, S. D., June 2.—Five brothers who have won fame in athletics give the Cooper family of Pierre claim to distinction, Kenneth Cooper, eldest of the brothers, after winning first places in rodeo exhibitions throughout the northwest for several seasons, went to the British Empire Exposition at Wembley, England, with the American rodeo delegation last summer and proved himself the outstanding artist of the troupe. He repeated his triumphs at the Madison Square Garden rodeo in New York, and then turned to polo, being a member last season of the Ak-Sar-Men team of Omaha, Neb.

Norval, a younger brother, was deemed Kenneth's equal in rodeo competition until the latter eclipsed him at the Wembley and Madison Square Garden events, where both were participants. Norval has a long record of victories in state rodeo events.

Conrad is center on the University of Minnesota football team and is rated as one of the best centers in the country. Also he is heavyweight boxing champion of the University of Minnesota, a title he has held during two of his three years in school there.

Arthur, fourth of the Cooper brothers, was middleweight boxing champion at the University of Minnesota last year and is second ranking middleweight boxer this year. Leslie, the fifth, won mention last season with the best high school football players of South Dakota as center for the Pierre high school team, and made his debut this season as a sprinter on the track team, with creditable high school marks in the dashes.

Coiffeuse to Film Stars Never Could Abide the Bob

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., June 2.—Hattie Wilson Tabourne, negro hair dresser of film stars, died here recently, bearing to the last a hatred for bobbed hair that was overshadowed only by the love of her work.

This woman, creator of gorgeous head dresses that were admired throughout the feminine world, was virtually unknown until her death. It was her fate to see the bobbed hair she detested become a fixture during the nine years of her association with the film industry. She used to stay up nights figuring out ways to combat the encroachments of the bob among film women. Failing in this, she evolved the most elaborate methods of disguising it. This motive was responsible for some of the unique coiffure effects that adorned the heads of movie stars, and caused many women to wonder who the designer was.

Bill for Reorganization of French Army Shelved

PARIS, June 2.—The bill calling for the reorganization of the French army introduced by General Nollet during the last hours of the Herriot government's tenure of office, has been abandoned by the Painleve cabinet and has become a dead issue.

The work of experts at the ministry of war during the past two years, it provided for a gradual decrease of French effectives until the 12 months military service could be definitely installed.

Marshal Foch was reported to have been an opponent of the bill from the start and his opposition, parliamentary experts say, was what finally killed the bill before it was even reported upon by the army committee of the chamber.

Until another system is adopted French military service will remain at 18 months and the effectives of the troops in peace times at 618,000.
