

SUITS THAT SUIT

Here are spring suits that will be sure to put "a smile that won't come off" on the face of the men who wear them.

COME IN AND TRY ON SOME OF THE NEW COMERS

G. W. Johnson & Co 469 State St.

BEN SEZ VICK BROS. He now has several snap jobs in the Overland touring as follows: 1920 model touring 1922 model touring 1923 model touring ing place. Police were notified and an attempt was made to find the owner, who had parked the car over the time limit.

10 Membership AAA— Cars and drivers at fairgrounds speedway tomorrow 2 p. m. No dust. Adequate police. J6

Return to Salem— Dr. and Mrs. George E. Lewis, who have been attending the Oregon State Dental association, returned to their home late last night, following the close of the conference in Portland.

Row Boat for Sale— No better on the river. F. M. Langlois, 1635 State. J6

Can Use A Few More— Governor Wood cherries. Phone 396. J7

Manager Is Injured— R. L. Stewart, manager of the Salem branch of the National Cash Register company, suffered severe internal injuries yesterday when he attempted to move a large 250 pound machine.

10 Membership AAA— Cars and drivers at fairgrounds speedway tomorrow 2 p. m. No dust. Adequate police. J6

Homes on Terms— Three to nine rooms. $100 to $500 down balance just like rent. Your rent can be buying your home in the best place we know to own real property.

The Masonic and Eastern Star— Bodies of Marion county will conduct the services at the home near Forest Grove, Ore., Sunday June 7th at 2 p. m. All visiting members welcome. J6

Children's Day Services— The Evangelical church, under the direction of Rev. F. W. Lauer, will hold a children's day service Sunday evening.

Garagemen Attention— Let us take care of your liability insurance. Get our rates. Stanley & Foley. J6

Today Last Day— To get a Sellers kitchen cabinet at our special offer, $1 down places it in your home. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. J6

Gov. Pierce Will Speak— Governor Pierce will address the Presbyterian Sunday school at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning.

Services at Rural Chapel— Dr. W. C. Kantner will preach at Rural Chapel Congregational church east of the Fairgrounds on Sunday at 11 a. m. A cordial invitation to the public.

Salem Art and Beauty Parlor— Expert marbling, paper curl, hemstitching, 6c and 8c. J6

Picnic Planned— The Men's Bible class of the First Presbyterian church will hold a picnic dinner at the home of G. L. Adams, who is a resident of Polk county.

10 Membership AAA— Cars and drivers at fairgrounds speedway tomorrow 2 p. m. No dust. Adequate police. J6

Chiropractors to Meet— The local organization of the Oregon Chiropractic association are to meet for their bi-monthly meeting at Independence Monday night.

Tickets Now on Sale— For Marie-Louise D'arc Kiger concert, June 10, at the following places: Moore's Music House, Geo. C. Will Music House, Pattons Book Store and the French Shop, 115 N. High. "A Dollar and a Dime." J10

Police Officers Busy— A Ford touring car, bearing Oregon license 149-527, caused a disturbance on the downtown streets yesterday when the owner backed into the curbing in such a manner that he prevented a truck to pull away from the parkis so far from the city that the boys will not be bothered by visitors and strange tourists who often infest the territory.

10 Membership AAA— Cars and drivers at fairgrounds speedway tomorrow 2 p. m. No dust. Adequate police. J6

Trucks Are Active— Many trucks and conveyances are coming into the city daily with their loads of strawberries, which the pleasant weather has allowed the growers to pick.

Last Opportunity Today— To get a Sellers kitchen cabinet at our special offer. Place your order today. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. J6

10 Membership AAA— Cars and drivers at fairgrounds speedway tomorrow 2 p. m. No dust. Adequate police. J6

Zulu Worker Here— Miss Nellie Reed, a missionary from Africa, who has spent 20 years working among the Zulu tribes is to be a speaker at the Market Street Free Methodist church Sunday night.

80c Box Candy 39c— And it's fresh homemade. The Spa. J6

Lands Behind Bars— D. Woreham, a resident of Albany drank too deep of the biters in a bottle and landed in the police court, where he fell into the lap of Dame Morpheus, according to the record of the police court.

10 Membership AAA— Cars and drivers at fairgrounds speedway tomorrow 2 p. m. No dust. Adequate police. J6

Funerals— Remains of Anna Hanseth were forwarded to Grants Pass, accompanied by her brother, J. L. Hanseth, for funeral services and interment.

The funeral of Harry McCluskey, who died June 4, was held Friday morning at 11 o'clock from the Rigdon chapel.

Funeral services for Alfred Utecht, who died June 5 at Chemawa, were held Friday from the Rigdon chapel.

OBITUARY Kletko At the residence, 1110 Center street, Woodrow E. Kleinke, age 12 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Kleinke, brother of Lawrence, Elmer, Emmett and Wesley, and Lila Kleinke. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. from the Rigdon mortuary. Interment in City View cemetery, Rev. Putnam in charge.

Schafer Frank L. Schafer died June 3 at a local hospital at the age of 52 years. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Catherine Schafer, his father, Frank Schafer, two brothers, W. E. Schafer of Bethel, Or., and J. B. Schafer of Amity; three sisters, Anna Holtride of Dayton, Susie Stoddard of McMinnville, and Bessie Schultz of San Francisco. Funeral services will be held Monday, June 8, 9:30 a. m. from Rigdon's chapel. Interment at Bethel, Or.

To Visit With Chanceller— Prof. F. M. Erickson, head of the educational department of Willamette university is to visit with his friend, Chanceller Brannon, M. A. of the University of Montana, at Corvallis during the week-end. Chanceller Brannon is to deliver the commencement exercises at the Oregon Agricultural college.

Winston Is Happy— "Yoh goin' to the races tomah," asked Winston McDonald, ten year old colored boy to a friend yesterday afternoon. "I's goin' 'cause I got a pass. I handed out a lot of bills and I am sure glad I'm goin'."

New Hydrants Installed— Two new fire hydrants have been installed by the city fire department, one at Fifth and Pine and the other at Oak and Winter, giving added fire protection to these portions of the city. Several new hydrants are to be put in during the summer months, which will greatly improve the efficiency of the local department in case of a fire.

Crystal Gardens McElroy's Orchestra Wednesday Night

Dreamland McElroy's Majestic Orchestra Saturday Night

HIGH SCHOOL GOLFERS IN TOURNAMENT TODAY

SALEM, CORVALLIS AND EUGENE VIE AT ILLIHEE

Each School Has Eight Entrants; Eugene Will be Host the Following Week

The inter-city scholastic golf tournament, which is being staged between the Salem, Eugene and Corvallis high schools will start today at 10 o'clock on the Illihee Country club course. Eight players from each school will enter.

Players representing the Salem high school are Harold Ohling, H. Thielen, W. Viesko, Earl Viesko, F. Schafer, Edward Fischer, Chas. Brown and Kenneth Webb. Corvallis is sending J. Herron, W. Walker, James Ohson, John Allen, Tom Stevenson, Edward Wilson, Robert Du Prest and L. Carpenter. Harry Yundt is captain of the Eugene team but the names of players were not sent.

The teams will play next Saturday at Eugene and the following week at Corvallis.

Bits For Breakfast

Fair weather predicted— And that has a pleasant sound.

What so rare as a day in June: like the one of yesterday in this valley?

Floriculture is the Slogan subject for next Thursday. The Oregon editor is asking for a lot of help, and expects it. If you have

Funerals

Remains of Anna Hanseth were forwarded to Grants Pass, accompanied by her brother, J. L. Hanseth, for funeral services and interment.

The funeral of Harry McCluskey, who died June 4, was held Friday morning at 11 o'clock from the Rigdon chapel.

Funeral services for Alfred Utecht, who died June 5 at Chemawa, were held Friday from the Rigdon chapel.

OBITUARY

Kletko At the residence, 1110 Center street, Woodrow E. Kleinke, age 12 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Kleinke, brother of Lawrence, Elmer, Emmett and Wesley, and Lila Kleinke. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. from the Rigdon mortuary. Interment in City View cemetery, Rev. Putnam in charge.

Schafer Frank L. Schafer died June 3 at a local hospital at the age of 52 years. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Catherine Schafer, his father, Frank Schafer, two brothers, W. E. Schafer of Bethel, Or., and J. B. Schafer of Amity; three sisters, Anna Holtride of Dayton, Susie Stoddard of McMinnville, and Bessie Schultz of San Francisco. Funeral services will be held Monday, June 8, 9:30 a. m. from Rigdon's chapel. Interment at Bethel, Or.

To Visit With Chanceller— Prof. F. M. Erickson, head of the educational department of Willamette university is to visit with his friend, Chanceller Brannon, M. A. of the University of Montana, at Corvallis during the week-end. Chanceller Brannon is to deliver the commencement exercises at the Oregon Agricultural college.

Winston Is Happy— "Yoh goin' to the races tomah," asked Winston McDonald, ten year old colored boy to a friend yesterday afternoon. "I's goin' 'cause I got a pass. I handed out a lot of bills and I am sure glad I'm goin'."

New Hydrants Installed— Two new fire hydrants have been installed by the city fire department, one at Fifth and Pine and the other at Oak and Winter, giving added fire protection to these portions of the city. Several new hydrants are to be put in during the summer months, which will greatly improve the efficiency of the local department in case of a fire.

Crystal Gardens McElroy's Orchestra Wednesday Night

Dreamland McElroy's Majestic Orchestra Saturday Night

not been asked, please consider this as asking you in particular for your help.

A Salem family had a kitten, which was named Ben. But it transpired that the name was not appropriate—for the kitten turned out to be a female. So they renamed it Ben Hur, because it had been her all along.

Another Salem woman talking to her neighbor remarked that she had just paid the doctor another monthly installment on her baby. "Fine," remarked the neighbor; "another installment and the baby will be yours."

A new resident here says the people of Salem ought to help the tourist and the stranger, by seeing that all streets are named at intersections, and all houses numbered. This p. r. says there is much laxity here in both these respects.

Salem and the Salem district have the strawberry mark more generally than any other city and section of the United States. This is the strawberry center of this country, and becoming more so every year.

because it makes an instant and lasting appeal.

That the public appreciates the service of advertising and are ever ready to take the advantages offered them.

That advertising gives the public the faith and confidence in the advertisers which is so necessary to their success.

That business concerns who seek a steady business, must be steady advertisers.

Bright, Snappy Ads Have a Fascinating, Irresistible Appeal Which Wins Business.

SAVE with SAFETY at your Rexall DRUG STORE

Individual tastes in personal stationery vary greatly, and to gratify them is an easy matter. The quest for "something different" in style often leads, however, into a selection that is of doubtful quality.

Symphony Lawn and Symphony Charm Writing Papers cover a wide variety from which you may choose any one of several shapes and sizes—white or tints—plain or fancy finish—plain or bevelled gold-edge. And the quality is always the same—always the best that money can buy.

Perry Drug Store The Rexall Store 115 South Commercial Salem, Oregon

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Our WeatherMan

Fair; moderate temperature; moderate northwest winds. Max 52; Min. 47; River 3.5, rising; Rain-fall none; Atmosphere partially cloudy; Wind west.

AT THE THEATERS TODAY

Oregon—"Reckless Romance" taken from "What is Your Wife Doing?" With Wanda Hawley, Harry Myers, T. Roy Barnes. Liberty—"The Last Man On Earth," with Earle Foxe and 1000 international beauties. Grand-Allice Terry, Lewis Stone, John Bowers in "Confessions of a Queen." Bligh—"The Pride of Sunshine Alley"—5 acts vaudeville.

Lions Receive Invitation

The Lebanon Lions have invited the Salem organization to attend their Strawberry Festival, having set aside Friday as the special day for Salem visitors. Due to the regular meeting here Friday the local den could not accept the invitation, but the plan to attend the festival today and tonight. One of their members, H. R. White, is featured in the big open-air entertainment.

10 Membership AAA

Cars and drivers at fairgrounds speedway tomorrow 2 p. m. No dust. Adequate police. J6

Two Lots—$450

Trees and view, south near schools. Good soil etc. Why pay more. Becke & Hendricks, U. S. Bk. Bldg. J4f

Delegates to Report

The delegates to the Lions Convention at Longview recently will report at the next meeting of the Salem Den. Several of the members of the club attended the conference in addition to the regular appointed delegates. They report a successful and enthusiastic meeting.

Special Cooked Food Sale

Delicious home made cakes, pies and salads from our own kitchen at Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe, Saturday, 165 N. Liberty. J6

Klamath Attorneys Visit

Three attorneys from Klamath county were in the city on legal business Friday. These were J. H. Carnahan, Charles O'Neill and Charles F. Stone. They called upon W. A. Delsell, private secretary to Governor Pierce, a former resident of Klamath Falls.

Special Price on Wrist

Watches and pearls for graduation. C. A. Luthy, Jeweler. J7

Governor in Dallas

Governor Walter M. Pierce was in Dallas Friday to attend the barbecue in connection with the state convention of the Grange. He returned early in the afternoon.

ties. These were Wilford A. Rardin, Centralia, Wash., trim Sawyer; Elsie W. McBee, Penn logger; Cornelius Newhouse, Klamath Falls, off bearer and Benjamin McRoberts, Gales Creek, landing chaser. Of the total number reported to the state industrial accident commission 502 were subject to the provisions of the workmen's compensation act; 72 were from firms having rejected the act and three from public utility corporations not subject to the provisions of the act.

10 Membership AAA— Cars and drivers at fairgrounds speedway tomorrow 2 p. m. No dust. Adequate police. J6

The Violin and Piano— Pupils of P. F. and Zena Thomas will be presented in recital Saturday, June 6, at 8:15 p. m. at First Evangelical church, corner Center and Liberty. J6

Divorce Is Granted— Viola Lheureux was given a divorce from L. C. Lheureux in Judge L. H. McMahan's court yesterday on grounds of desertion. They were married in Portland in March, 1918. According to the complaint, Lheureux abandoned her in December, 1922. The plaintiff was also given her maiden name of Viola Dixon. J4f

Yesterday By The Use Of— Medicine Dr. Stowe removed a cancer from the temple of William Steinbach, of Aurora, Oregon. J6

Case Is Dismissed— The suit for divorce instituted by John M. Guthrie against Mary H. Guthrie was ordered dismissed in Judge L. H. McMahan's court yesterday.

Tickets Now on Sale— For Marie-Louise D'arc Kiger concert, June 10, at the following places: Moore's Music House, Geo. C. Will Music House, Pattons Book Store and the French Shop, 115 N. High. "A Dollar and a Dime." J10

Dr. Mary Putnam— Who formerly conducted the Hydro-Electric Therapeutic Institute 253 1/2 Cottage, is now located at 1010 Leslie, corner of S. Capitol and Leslie. We wish to thank our patrons for their past patronage and hope you will continue with us at our new location. J9

Mrs. Hunt Ill— Mrs. J. T. Hunt, wife of County Judge Hunt, is ill with the influenza, but is not in a serious condition. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt returned a few days ago from a trip to Pendleton where they visited their son. J9

Radio Half Price— All parts go at half price. Radical reductions on sets. It will pay you to buy this week. Salem Electric Co., Masonic Temple. J7

Paving Starts Soon— Paving operations in the county will not get under way before June 15 according to James Culver, roadmaster. Repair and grade work is going ahead at present on the Salem-Champoeg; Brooks-Labish and the Skyline-Liberty road. The Salem-Silverton highway is undergoing repairs. J10

Irrigation Bills Now Due— Flat rate irrigation bills are subject to a discount of 10 per cent if paid on or before June 10. Residences with even numbers will irrigate Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Sunday. Residences with odd numbers will irrigate Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday. Hours 8 to 8 a. m. and 5 to 9 p. m. 0-10

Vets Select Team— The Veterans of Foreign Wars have selected a team of six men and four alternates to represent the local organization at the department encampment at Island Inn, near Lebanon, on the H. H. Kearns ranch. Those selected to represent the local post are Edward Rowland, Bryant Conley, C. W. Brant, Robert Aiken, J. S. Baker and Harry Miller. Dr. Geo. E. Lewis, Roy Remington, J. M. Panek and D. G. Haltsman were selected as alternates.

10 Membership AAA— Cars and drivers at fairgrounds speedway tomorrow 2 p. m. No dust. Adequate police. J6

Homes on Terms— Three to nine rooms. $100 to $500 down balance just like rent. Your rent can be buying your home in the best place we know to own real property. Three new listings today in $2000 to $3800 class. Immediate possession on many. Phone us today and you will never pay another rent. Becke & Hendricks, U. S. Bk. Bldg. J4f

Children's Day Services— The Evangelical church, under the direction of Rev. F. W. Lauer, will hold a children's day service Sunday evening. Appropriate music and program have been arranged.

Garagemen Attention— Let us take care of your liability insurance. Get our rates. Stanley & Foley. J6

Today Last Day— To get a Sellers kitchen cabinet at our special offer, $1 down places it in your home. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. J6

Gov. Pierce Will Speak— Governor Pierce will address the Presbyterian Sunday school at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning. He will talk on the Bible. Every one is cordially invited.

For Your Picnic Lunch— Try our homemade cakes, pies and salad, on sale Saturday at Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe. J6

Services at Rural Chapel— Dr. W. C. Kantner will preach at Rural Chapel Congregational church east of the Fairgrounds on Sunday at 11 a. m. A cordial invitation to the public.

Salem Art and Beauty Parlor— Expert marbling, paper curl, hemstitching, 6c and 8c. J6

Picnic Planned— The Men's Bible class of the First Presbyterian church will hold a picnic dinner at the home of G. L. Adams, who is a resident of Polk county. The picnic dinner is an annual affair and as a rule is well attended. J9

10 Membership AAA— Cars and drivers at fairgrounds speedway tomorrow 2 p. m. No dust. Adequate police. J6

Chiropractors to Meet— The local organization of the Oregon Chiropractic association are to meet for their bi-monthly meeting at Independence Monday night. The meeting will be in charge of Dr. H. W. Beal.

Tickets Now on Sale— For Marie-Louise D'arc Kiger concert, June 10, at the following places: Moore's Music House, Geo. C. Will Music House, Pattons Book Store and the French Shop, 115 N. High. "A Dollar and a Dime." J10

Police Officers Busy— A Ford touring car, bearing Oregon license 149-527, caused a disturbance on the downtown streets yesterday when the owner backed into the curbing in such a manner that he prevented a truck to pull away from the park-

Crystal Gardens McElroy's Orchestra Wednesday Night

Dreamland McElroy's Majestic Orchestra Saturday Night

WOODRY Buys Furniture Phone 511

LADD & BUSH, Bankers General Banking Business Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m.

REDUCE SUMMER RATES TO CALIFORNIA BY PICKWEST STAGES San Francisco, one way, $15.50 Round Trip, $30.00 Los Angeles, one way, $27.35 Round Trip, $50.00 Special Rates to Parties of Eight or More For information and Reservations phone 696, or call at CENTRAL STAGE TERMINAL Salem, Oregon

Chocolate Peanut Clusters, Caramel and Chips Special for Saturday and Sunday 36c lb. 2 lbs. 70c Limit 2 lbs. to a Customer Only at SCHAEFER'S DRUG STORE "The Yellow Front" 135 North Commercial Phone 197 The Pendar Store

Special Saturday Only 5-Quart Aluminum Tea Kettle 98c A fine colonial panel tea kettle of highly polished aluminum. It is not every day you can buy tea kettles of this quality at such a low price. This is a special big purchase offer and will be sold out quick. Come early! Look for Our New Special Every Week

When You Are Ready To Move Call on us, for we have padded Vans and Fleece-lined covers for your furniture and piano. First class piano and furniture movers. We also handle Brooder Stoves, Furnace Coals and Diamond Briquettes Larmer Transfer & Storage Co. Phone 930