Ode to Lower Silver Creek Falls

By Raymond Carl

Oh! majestic waterfalls, in thy solemn solitude caressed,
Tinkling merrily, giving way to thoughts suppressed,
The silver gleam,
Radiated by sunbeam,
All wonderously do attest
The beauty thou dost manifest.

Who can on thee gaze, and high thoughts forbear?
All by thee can thy great ideals deign to share,
Falls so dramatic;
Scents aromatic,
Peace, tranquility the very air do permeate,
Free and grand, shared by the lowly and the great.

TWO OF SALEM'S MOST prominent, as well as most artistic, younger musicians—Miss Ruth Bedford, pianist and Mary Taljadge Hendricks, violinist, will be presented in an outstanding joint program on Tuesday evening, June 16, by their respective teachers, Miss Beatrice Shelton and Professor William Wallace Graham.

Mrs. Hendrick as a violinist and Miss Bedford as a pianist have long played a notable part in the musical activities of the city. Miss Bedford, for four years accompanist for the Apollo club, won unstinted praise from visiting artists every season, while Mrs. Hendrick is consistently in demand as a favored soloist. She specializes not only in her teaching but in theatre work and conducting as well. A host of friends of these two gifted musicians are anticipating their appearance a week from Tuesday at the First Presbyterian church.

Invitations for the event will be issued early in the week.

Mrs. Donald Young entertained on Thursday for the final spring meeting of her bridge club with a 1 o'clock luncheon followed with an afternoon of bridge. Vivid French bouquets were used on the luncheon table where covers were placed for: Mrs. John H. Carson, Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. Hollis Huntington, Mrs. Alan Carson, Mrs. Clifton Irwin, Mrs. Orris F. Fry, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. Homer Egan and hostess, Mrs. Donald Young.

Mrs. Clifford Farmer won the high bridge score of the afternoon.

Salem friends of Miss Bruce Putnam are extremely interested in the plans which she has completed for a trip abroad both for study and travel. Miss Putnam will divide her time between Germany, France and Italy.

Leaving Salem on Tuesday she will sail on June 25 from New York harbor on the Deutschland. Miss Putnam is a talented young composer whose musical work has won much attention.

One of the most delightful numbers in Miss Lenore Preston's dance art recital of Wednesday evening was the Punctello dance by Virginia Bright, given in a sprightly manner by this graceful young danseuse who wore a coquettish costume of green and yellow with the peaked cap and curled feather and orange trousers.

Miss Preston as well as every participant in the program of the evening has received lavish mention for the artistic quality of the performance.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moores are entertaining as their house-guests for a few days their daughter, Mrs. Robert Kinney and little grandson, Gordon, of Astoria.

Salem delegates to the state convention of Federated Woman's clubs held this week in Marshfield arrived home Friday evening with unanimous enthusiasm over every session. The convention was considered the most outstanding of any ever held with, probably two hundred official delegates registered for the event, not including the throngs of townspeople who gathered.

The sessions were held in the Armory which was transformed into a veritable wonderland with rows of young girls and cedars until, as the members felt, it looked "as if the forest had been moved in." Japanese lanterns transformed every light.

Of particular note, aside from the general convention harmony that prevailed, was the quality and the organization of the special music provided by the Chamade club under the direction of Mrs. A. T. Myers, president of the Marshfield Civic club. The Beach Frolic proved one of the most unique diversions ever planned for such a large convention delegation, with salmon barbecued in the sand.

The hospitality throughout the four days of the convention was all that could have been asked for, the visitors feeling that the keys of the city had actually been turned over to them.

Salem's delegation included:

Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Mrs. Harry J. Weidner, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. J. H. Albert and Mrs. J. A. Churchill.

Miss Dorothy Livesley, Miss Helen Beverley Roberts, Miss Mildred Roberts, Miss Nancy Thielsen and Henry Thielsen were guests at Miss Dorothy Cannon's dance last night at the Laurelhurst club in Portland.

Mrs. Paul H. Hauser was a delightful hostess of Friday afternoon when she entertained for the members of the Kensington club. The rooms were attractively decorated with Canterbury bells and roses. Mrs. J. H. Krebs was a special guest of the group and at the tea hour assisted the hostess in serving. A pleasant time was had sewing and chatting.

In the group were: Mrs. F. N. Anusson, Mrs. George P. Griffith, Mrs. C. E. Crandall, Mrs. Herbert Hauser, Mrs. Frank Power, Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, Mrs. George M. King, and the hostess, Mrs. Paul H. Hauser.

Cards were issued to over 200 of the most prominent women in Salem for the tea on Wednesday afternoon at which Mrs. J. H. Lauterman and Mrs. R. J. Hendrick were hostesses at the Lauterman home. A number of affairs, similarly delightful, are planned for the approaching summer. Little Miss Barbara Pierce greeted the guests at the door, while Mrs. Hendricks and Mrs. Lauterman received in the attractive living room decked with a profusion of June roses. Miss Margaret Cosper assisted the hostesses throughout calling hours.

The azure blue of delphinium combined with the deep pink of snapdragons in the silver baskets that centered the tea table lovely with its gleaming service. Blue candles were used in silver holders. Pink gladioli and orchid stock continued the pleasing floral note throughout the rooms.

Mrs. R. P. Boise, Mrs. Frank Snedecor, Mrs. William Brown and Mrs. C. A. Park presided graciously at the urns. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Breyman Boise, Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. John H. Carson and Mrs. Karl Becke.

The Merry-Go-Round club met for a delightful evening of five hundred on last Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Thielsen. Mr. and Mrs. John Simonton were entertained as special guests. A profusion of early summer flowers decked the rooms where, after an evening of cards, delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. John McNary and Mrs. R. B. Fleming won the honors of the evening.

In the group were the following club members: Mr. and Mrs. John McNary, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Allen, Mrs. Henry W. Thielsen, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin K. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Max O. Buren, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fleming, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Boise, Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moores and Mrs. Frank Snedecor.

Exceptionally attractive in the week's calendar of events was the country club dance of Thursday evening at which Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts were hosts for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Guy S. Sargent of San Francisco. The ball room was made into an attractive summer garden with lattices and immense baskets of vivid flowers. At midnight a delicious buffet luncheon was served to the fifty couples who were guests.

The vivacious Dutch dance specialty by Miss Maxine Myers and Miss Mildred Roberts added to the charm of the evening.

A number of out-of-town guests were present for the occasion, including: Mr. and Mrs. Percy Young of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cusick of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Powell of Woodburn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMurray of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. William Ball of Portland, Mrs. A. C. Marsh of Portland, Miss Katherine Slade of Eugene and Kenneth Bailey of Eugene.

An interesting program has been arranged for the annual Children's day of the First Congregational church, Sunday evening at 7:30, June 7. The program called "The Lamp of Life" is in the nature of a pageant depicting the work of the church at home and in foreign fields.

Miss Leora Marris as religion in appropriate costume is the central figure of the pageant. Each department of the Sunday school comes before her and at the close of the work of each division the beautiful candle lighting service is used.

The primary and intermediate sections show the work at home, while the junior department dressed in the costumes of far-away India, Japan, China and Africa show the missionary endeavors in foreign fields.

The last number will be beautiful pantomime put on by a score of high school girls of the "Friendly Girls" class, with Mrs. John J. Roberts singing the solo.

The quartette of the church will give a special number during the evening, with Mrs. Frank Zinn at the organ.

All will be welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy S. Sargent of San Francisco, after stopping a few days as house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley on their way home from Spokane, left Friday morning for California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bear assisted by their daughter Miss Hazel entertained Thursday evening in honor of Turner's large eighth grade class. The seventh grade was present also, as well as Prof. John Bidgood and family, Mr. and Mrs. England and daughter of Salem, and a few others totaling 34.

Six Living Women Real Daughters of Revolution

To these six women, whose fathers were soldiers in the Revolution, the current exercises commemorating the 150th anniversary of early events in the war, doubtless have a greater appeal than to any other living persons. The father of Mrs. Louisa K. Thiers, 110, of Milwaukee, was with Washington during the entire struggle. The fathers of the other women were privates. Mrs. Abigail Strong, 92, lives in Grundy county, Ill.; Mrs. Caroline Randall, 76, at Springfield, Vt.; Mrs. Helen Barrett, 92, at Richland, Mich.; Mrs. Lydia Henry, at Poolville, N. Y.; Mrs. Maria S. Allen, 84, at New Lexington, O.

Lunch was served after games and music. As Mrs. Ella England the teacher sat at the head of a long table with 15 eighth graders, a few appropriate verses were sung, all rejoicing that but few scars of the late battle with state examinations were visible. The return home was made with a feeling that a very happy evening had been spent.

The Willing Workers' class of the First Christian church met on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. B. Simpson. Mrs. Chester Lee was in charge of the program. A clever feature was the one-act play, "Selecting a Pastor for Strintown." Miss Vivian Whistler sang two numbers, "For He Loved Her" and "The Owl." Ocean spray and honey suckle was used in decorating the rooms. At the tea hour delightful refreshments were served.

Special guests for the afternoon were: Mrs. W. Cooley, Mrs. C. A. McLeurdy, Miss Gertrude Wagner of La Grande, Miss Vivian Whistler, and Rev. J. J. Evans.

The members present included: Mrs. W. P. Ellis, Mrs. Chester Lee, Mrs. Edith Simpson, Mrs. C. A. Lewis, Mrs. J. L. Copp, Mrs. H. H. Stanton, Mrs. C. N. Ruggles, Mrs. B. W. Macy, Mrs. Will May, Mrs. C. R. Lester, Mrs. E. H. Dickinson, Mrs. J. O. Chamberlain, Mrs. A. A. Carper, Mrs. J. C. Perry, Mrs. Clifford Elgin, Mrs. Ralph Cooley,

Mrs. Clara Patterson entertained at a charmingly appointed dinner last night at her home planned for the pleasure of the members of Chapter AB of the PEO sisterhood. Candles, place-cards and flowers in tones of yellow adorned the table where covers were placed for: Bessie Barrett, Louise F. Brickell, Eva Howard Kirk, Cora McCroskey, Angeline McCullough, Eva L. Myers, Grace Osborne, May Rauch, Mary Reeves, Myrtle M. Richards, Dr. Mary C. Rowland, Grace Elisabeth Smith, Dorothea Steusloff, a guest, Miss Letha Hawley of McMinnville, Mollie Hill Styles, Lena Belle Tartar, Alice Thompson and the hostess of the evening, Mrs. Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lamport are spending the weekend at their summer home at Nesko-win.

Mrs. John R. Sites, Mrs. William McClellan, Jr., Mrs. T. S. Mesch, Mrs. G. Crater, Mrs. G. O. Niles, Mrs. Fred Ellis, Mrs. C. J. Green and Mrs. G. L. Newton are among those who plan to attend the ceremonial of Nydia Temple, Daughters of the Nile, in Portland tomorrow.

Miss Joy Turner will present a group of forty music students, in piano and in violin, on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week at the First Christian church. On Thursday evening the advanced students will be presented. An assisting number will be given by Donald and Glen Wodry. On Friday evening the intermediate group will give the program. Miss Oral Violette of Independence will assist with a group of songs.

Mrs. Curtis Cross entertained at an informal tea on Friday afternoon complimenting a group of out-of-town visitors who are prominent house-guests of Salem folk. During calling hours, Virginia Cross greeted the guests at the door. The rooms were lovely in their color scheme of lavender and gold. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. Russell Catlin and Mrs. Milton Myers. Mrs. W. Connell Dyer assisted Mrs. Cross in the rooms.

On next Sunday, June 14th, at 10:30, Rev. Cyril Lebold, O. S. B., a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lebold will sing the first solemn high mass in St. Joseph's church, in Salem and extensive preparations are being made for the event. A choir of men and boys from Mount Angel college and seminary will sing the Gregorian music for the occasion and Father Lebold will be assisted at the altar by an arch-priest, a deacon and a sub-deacon. Rev. Father Buck, the pastor will preach the sermon. A luncheon will be served by the visiting clergy at noon and a reception will be given the young priest in the evening at St. Joseph's auditorium. Everyone will be welcome to the mass and reception.

Willamette University alumni are anticipating with pleasure the annual banquet of Tuesday, June 9 at 6:30 o'clock.

A delightful social affair planned for a group of the Salem delegates to the state convention of
