Noted Cartoonist Here—
Rev. Ray Vincent will assist in the services at the First Baptist church tonight. Mrs. Vincent will accompany her husband at the piano and with the Hawaiian guitars. Both are excellent singers and entertainers. They were here in the Baptist church last election day, in November and gave a splendid entertainment that was enjoyed by all. Sunday evening Mr. Vincent will draw a picture of the crucifixion as he sings "Calvary." Mrs. Vincent accompanying. Other pictures will be drawn to the accompaniment of music. The Vincents are Christian people who have high ideals, and present a great chautauqua program, with the evangelistic message always in evidence. They are entering the Theological Seminary in Chicago in the fall for further training in distinctively pastoral evangelistic methods and Bible training. All who heard them last November will want to hear them again in all new pictures and songs.

Business Record Good—
The business record for May of this year is the greatest in the history of the county, according to the records of the county court, which showed that 804 instruments were filed. Of these 280 were deeds and 194 mortgages.

As a rule the record for May business is below par, according to the records of the court. This month, however, was ahead of the banner business year of 1920, which was considered the biggest one of all up to that time.

Studio Will Entertain—
Members of the February and June graduating classes of the Salem high school will be guests of the Gunnell & Robb studio at a studio dance party Tuesday night.
