

County News in Brief

Mill City

A high school play, "And Home Came Ted," was given by the Mill City high school student body in Hammond hall Friday night, May 29. It was enjoyed by a large crowd and everyone was pleased with the work done by the high school students. Those who carried out their parts exceptionally well were Louise Dawes, the right-ful heir; St. Flack as Skeet Kelly, the hotel clerk; LaVelle Hill as the spinster; Aunt Jubilee, the colored cook who was hearing spooks and burglars, which was taken by Frances Olin; Jim Ryker, Robert Olin, the lawyer, which was a very difficult part; Mollie Macklin, the housekeeper, played by Zenith Perdue, who won the audience by her simple manner and fitness for the part, and Elsie the nervous bride, which was taken by Lulu Bell Dunivan. Other characters were Diana Garwood, the heiress, Martha Sarpola; Ira Stone, the villain, Arthur Mason; Henrietta Darby, the widow, Lola Rambo; Ted, the groom, Verl Gooch; Senator McCormick, the father, Anton Moravec.

A hot and close election, only to be compared by national ones, was held in Mill City high school for the election of student body officers for the coming year. The outcome of the election was as follows: President, Frank Smith; vice president, Edna Pecksky; secretary, Lola Rambo; treasurer, Anton Moravec; censor, Bessie Wells; sergeant at arms, Clayton Baltimore; reporter, Myrtle McLane. After the election a picnic was given in honor of the new officers.

A banquet tendered by the Juniors to the Seniors, Thursday evening June 4th ushered in an annual event. This is to be followed by the Senior Breakfast given by Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Beck to the members of the graduating class Sunday morning June 7th.

In the evening of June 7th the Baccalaureate service will be held in the Presbyterian church. Rev. D. V. Poling of Corvallis will deliver the sermon. The Commencement programme will be held in Hammond Hall on the evening of June 12th. The following program has been arranged: Music Procession—Santiam Strollers. Invocation—Rev. C. Stanley Knott. Piano Selection, "Four Hundred"—Mrs. Milsp and Mr. Heit-house.

Vocal Solo—Mrs. F. Beck. Commencement Address, "Age of Communication"—Dr. Peter C. Crockett. Vocal Solo—Margaret Flatland. Presentation of Class Diplomas—Dr. W. W. Allen.

The members receiving diplomas this year are: Ruth Ferris, Frances Olin and Anna Glenn. Marguerite Flatland, who will be with us Commencement is a former Mill City girl, who is now advancing very rapidly in the singing world. She now sings for radio and also many social activities of Portland.

A large number of Mill City people attended the O. A. C. military tournament. Forty tickets were distributed to school children.

A large delegation from the M. E. church attended the graduation exercises at Kimball college last Tuesday afternoon. Miss Alice Hensch who completed a successful term of school in Woodburn high came home with her brother, Adam, when he returned from eastern Oregon Friday evening.

Although the Menonite church has no regular pastor at present, they still have a record attendance at the Sunday school. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bryant and small son from Evanpville, Ind., arrived here last week and are visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. O. J. Beidler. They spent the last two days together at Ocean Side.

A large number from here attended the commencement exercises at Chemawa Monday and Tuesday evening. Fred De Vries sent out one hundred and ten parcels of picnic posters yesterday announcing the County Sunday school picnic, June 26.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batchelor on Monday were Mr. and Mrs. William Frederickson and son, Mr. and Mrs. Bales of West Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Gay and son of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Frederickson of Gannett, Idaho.

The ball game between Hazel Green and Brooks Sunday resulted in the visiting team being defeated, 8 to 7. Mrs. Ellen Aspinwall, who has been staying with her son, Ray, near Sublimity, was home for the week-end. John Cery has returned home from a visit with relatives in San Francisco Monday. The Brooks Community club will meet Wednesday, June 10, at the home of Mrs. Vera Ramp in Independence, as a farewell party to Mrs. Vera Ramp, who with her family is going to move to Marshfield, Or., in the near future. Mrs. Mary Mathews and daughter of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Stevens were visiting her mother, Mrs. Charles Martin, Sunday. Mrs. Dan Cronan had as her guest Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wood of Portland. Dan Cronan is tearing down his house with the intention of building a six-room bungalow. Miss Mamie Leith of Gervais was a guest of Marie Dunlay on Monday evening. She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlay and family to Chemawa and attended the operetta, "Paul Revere," which was presented in the school auditorium by the school.

Miss Tressa Zelinski of Portland was a week-end visitor at her sister's, Mrs. May Woods. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Mason and Robert Williams of Portland were week-end visitors at F. O. Johnson's. Miss Edna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Davis was married in Salem Wednesday to R. Slater of Roseburg. After a trip to the beaches they will make their home in Roseburg. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dunigan of Astoria were week-end visitors at Edward Dunigan, Sr., and W. G. Davis. Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Zelinski and children, a number of others attended drill at Chemawa Sunday. J. C. Schneider and G. G. Looney accompanied F. A. Doerfler on a visit to a number of alfalfa farms Tuesday. C. F. Worden of Turner was a Sunday visitor at J. R. Worden's. Joe Van Cleave of Monitor was a caller at his brother's, Lester Van Cleave's, Sunday. George Zelinski's son Daniel has been sick for the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mason of Portland were Sunday visitors at F. O. Johnson's. Mrs. N. P. Williamson and sons Willis and Victor went to Stayton Decoration Day. Grandpa Peterson, who was visiting his daughter returned with Mrs. Williamson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woelke of Parkville visited his brother Peter Woelke Sunday. C. A. Van Cleave and family and G. G. Looney and family spent Decoration Day at Macleay. Mr. and Mrs. William Rickman and niece Gladys Kerns were Sunday visitors at Mrs. Rickman's brother's, Louis Kobov. Mr. and Mrs. William Hawkins of Salem were week-end visitors at Mrs. Hawkins father's, N. P. Williamson.

The new two story hardware building is fast nearing completion and Mr. Paddock expects to occupy it the first of July. The Baccalaureate sermon of the high school will be held Sunday evening, June 17, in the church. Harvey McAtee and George Vlahos have purchased the grocery store from Oscar McAtee. Game Warden F. A. Stelmacher won the prize of a fishing tackle last week, catching a Dolly Varder weighing three and one-half pounds. A very serious accident happened at Field's saw mill on last Thursday, when Wilbur A. Rardin backed into a trimmer saw, costing him his life. He was brought to Dr. Wilson's hospital here, was due to the loss of blood. He died Saturday, May 30. The remains were sent to Centralia, Washington, for interment.

Anyone interested in viewing a fine producing herd of pure bred Jerseys should take a good look at J. G. and C. O. Whitman's herd. The Mill City ball team came over and played the married and unmarried men at Wintel. Wintel beat Mill City, 11 to 7. There was a large crowd out and they enjoyed the game too. W. H. Scott was a visitor at the home of Charles Clark and family of Aumsville Friday and his nephew came home with him.

A. M. Work of the Portland Damascus Cream Co., stopped at Johnson's house to confer with the local creamery board. Col. Cole and daughter Mrs. Zella Gittings of Portland were up for Memorial Day. L. D. Roberts and family of Marcola spent the week-end at the parental's small home. Miss Elsa Eagens of Portland teacher in Salem, spent Friday night with her friend Miss Hazel Bear. Children's Day exercises will be held at the Christiana church next Sunday. The Vincent entertainers were at the M. E. church Wednesday evening. R. L. Putman of Salem will give the Baccalaureate sermon for Mrs. S. H. Bond next to Salem Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ota Binger are the proud parents of a new baby boy who arrived Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Water of Portland were guests of Mr. and

Mrs. W. T. Riches was called to Woodburn Saturday to see her sister Mrs. Clara Canarmack, who was seriously ill. She returned home Monday evening. Mrs. David McVicker and son Roy and wife of Portland were at Twin Oak cemetery Saturday. Lawrence Robertson of California is visiting Turner relatives. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Edwards and Mrs. Esther Neal of Monmouth were over Saturday. The former are leaving the farm in care of their son Neal, and are building a new home in Monmouth. The new train schedule service is working a hardship on the local cream station, as the cream has to be trucked to Salem to catch the one p. m. through train to Portland. Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bear entertained Frank Millett and family and Mrs. R. M. Kiser and daughters, all of Salem. Monday Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bones and Mr. and Mrs. Art Cornelius started to New York to attend the Yeoman conclave.

Bill Herons and family of Portland, Bill Dart and family of Woodburn, and Clarence Overholt spent Sunday at George Sanders. Irvine Parberry and Mrs. Bowsley made a call at Ben Darby's last Wednesday evening. Maude Darby spent last week at the Claude Darby home at Stayton. Farmers in this vicinity are cultivating their corn fields. Joe Hora and Harley Darby made a trip to Mill City Sunday forenoon. Charles Cole of Oregon City is visiting with friends in this vicinity for a short while. Mrs. Bowsley of central Oregon has been spending some time with her friends, the Parberry family. She expects to return to her home in the near future. Mrs. Don McKnight of Scio spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Ray, doing some sewing. Max and Lee Shelton spent Saturday and Sunday with their grandparents, Mrs. Esther Ray. Joe and Frank Hora, Theodore Belcoe, Louie Ray, wife and son Lyle, and Charley Peters were Sunday visitors at the Ben Darby home. Mr. and Mrs. Krum and Mr. Krum's father and mother of Salem spent Monday at the John Sandner, Sr., home. Mrs. Krum was formerly Miss Margaret Sandner. Joe and Frank Hora, Theodore Belcoe, Charley Peters and Louis Ray and family spent Sunday afternoon at Ben Darby's. Mary Hora spent Tuesday afternoon with Maude Darby. Mary Hora and Maude Darby are employed at the Stayton cannery. Charles Cole of Oregon City spent several days visiting among friends in this vicinity. Bill Herons and family of Portland and Bill Dart and family all spent Sunday at the George Sandner home. Mr. Krum and wife and Mr. Krum's father and mother of Salem spent Monday at the John Sandner, Sr., home. Mrs. Krum was formerly Miss Margaret Sandner. Jay Shanks is laid off from the Senz Bros. sawmill for a few days on account of a severe cold. Alex Minten was trading in Stayton Wednesday evening. T. E. Flemming was a Stayton caller Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Hora and son, Joe, were in Albany on business Wednesday morning.

Mr. Foren, a brother of Mrs. H. Deakins, his family and Mr. Savage, a brother-in-law, all from Lake View, stopped over for a visit on their way to Knappa where they are to locate. Perry Doyd, who suffered a fracture at the base of the skull as a result of falling from his father's hay loft, is improving. No further injuries have been reported. Rev. Poling preached at the schoolhouse Sunday and will hereafter preach every second Sunday following Sunday school. The hour for Sunday school is now 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Wirth, who underwent an operation, is reported improving. Miss Katherine Perlich of Portland spent Memorial day with her father, Mr. A. Perlich. Many were disappointed when there were no services at "Jason Lee" cemetery, and again when they parked their cars on State and Commercial and missed seeing the parade. The Friday paper bringing the last received on the rural routes, too early for the program.

A petition was presented to the school board, by A. C. Parsons and W. Sheridan, Wednesday evening signed by a large number of voters, asking that the voters be given the privilege of voting on building a new school house at the annual school election. H. De Guire who had a tumor removed from his leg is able to be moved to his home. Mr. and Mrs. Ota Binger are the proud parents of a new baby boy who arrived Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Water of Portland were guests of Mr. and

Mrs. W. T. Riches was called to Woodburn Saturday to see her sister Mrs. Clara Canarmack, who was seriously ill. She returned home Monday evening. Mrs. David McVicker and son Roy and wife of Portland were at Twin Oak cemetery Saturday. Lawrence Robertson of California is visiting Turner relatives. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Edwards and Mrs. Esther Neal of Monmouth were over Saturday. The former are leaving the farm in care of their son Neal, and are building a new home in Monmouth. The new train schedule service is working a hardship on the local cream station, as the cream has to be trucked to Salem to catch the one p. m. through train to Portland. Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bear entertained Frank Millett and family and Mrs. R. M. Kiser and daughters, all of Salem. Monday Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bones and Mr. and Mrs. Art Cornelius started to New York to attend the Yeoman conclave.

Bill Herons and family of Portland, Bill Dart and family of Woodburn, and Clarence Overholt spent Sunday at George Sanders. Irvine Parberry and Mrs. Bowsley made a call at Ben Darby's last Wednesday evening. Maude Darby spent last week at the Claude Darby home at Stayton. Farmers in this vicinity are cultivating their corn fields. Joe Hora and Harley Darby made a trip to Mill City Sunday forenoon. Charles Cole of Oregon City is visiting with friends in this vicinity for a short while. Mrs. Bowsley of central Oregon has been spending some time with her friends, the Parberry family. She expects to return to her home in the near future. Mrs. Don McKnight of Scio spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Ray, doing some sewing. Max and Lee Shelton spent Saturday and Sunday with their grandparents, Mrs. Esther Ray. Joe and Frank Hora, Theodore Belcoe, Louie Ray, wife and son Lyle, and Charley Peters were Sunday visitors at the Ben Darby home. Mr. and Mrs. Krum and Mr. Krum's father and mother of Salem spent Monday at the John Sandner, Sr., home. Mrs. Krum was formerly Miss Margaret Sandner. Jay Shanks is laid off from the Senz Bros. sawmill for a few days on account of a severe cold. Alex Minten was trading in Stayton Wednesday evening. T. E. Flemming was a Stayton caller Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Hora and son, Joe, were in Albany on business Wednesday morning.

Mr. Foren, a brother of Mrs. H. Deakins, his family and Mr. Savage, a brother-in-law, all from Lake View, stopped over for a visit on their way to Knappa where they are to locate. Perry Doyd, who suffered a fracture at the base of the skull as a result of falling from his father's hay loft, is improving. No further injuries have been reported. Rev. Poling preached at the schoolhouse Sunday and will hereafter preach every second Sunday following Sunday school. The hour for Sunday school is now 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Wirth, who underwent an operation, is reported improving. Miss Katherine Perlich of Portland spent Memorial day with her father, Mr. A. Perlich. Many were disappointed when there were no services at "Jason Lee" cemetery, and again when they parked their cars on State and Commercial and missed seeing the parade. The Friday paper bringing the last received on the rural routes, too early for the program.

A petition was presented to the school board, by A. C. Parsons and W. Sheridan, Wednesday evening signed by a large number of voters, asking that the voters be given the privilege of voting on building a new school house at the annual school election. H. De Guire who had a tumor removed from his leg is able to be moved to his home. Mr. and Mrs. Ota Binger are the proud parents of a new baby boy who arrived Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Water of Portland were guests of Mr. and

Mrs. W. T. Riches was called to Woodburn Saturday to see her sister Mrs. Clara Canarmack, who was seriously ill. She returned home Monday evening. Mrs. David McVicker and son Roy and wife of Portland were at Twin Oak cemetery Saturday. Lawrence Robertson of California is visiting Turner relatives. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Edwards and Mrs. Esther Neal of Monmouth were over Saturday. The former are leaving the farm in care of their son Neal, and are building a new home in Monmouth. The new train schedule service is working a hardship on the local cream station, as the cream has to be trucked to Salem to catch the one p. m. through train to Portland. Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bear entertained Frank Millett and family and Mrs. R. M. Kiser and daughters, all of Salem. Monday Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bones and Mr. and Mrs. Art Cornelius started to New York to attend the Yeoman conclave.

Bill Herons and family of Portland, Bill Dart and family of Woodburn, and Clarence Overholt spent Sunday at George Sanders. Irvine Parberry and Mrs. Bowsley made a call at Ben Darby's last Wednesday evening. Maude Darby spent last week at the Claude Darby home at Stayton. Farmers in this vicinity are cultivating their corn fields. Joe Hora and Harley Darby made a trip to Mill City Sunday forenoon. Charles Cole of Oregon City is visiting with friends in this vicinity for a short while. Mrs. Bowsley of central Oregon has been spending some time with her friends, the Parberry family. She expects to return to her home in the near future. Mrs. Don McKnight of Scio spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Ray, doing some sewing. Max and Lee Shelton spent Saturday and Sunday with their grandparents, Mrs. Esther Ray. Joe and Frank Hora, Theodore Belcoe, Louie Ray, wife and son Lyle, and Charley Peters were Sunday visitors at the Ben Darby home. Mr. and Mrs. Krum and Mr. Krum's father and mother of Salem spent Monday at the John Sandner, Sr., home. Mrs. Krum was formerly Miss Margaret Sandner. Jay Shanks is laid off from the Senz Bros. sawmill for a few days on account of a severe cold. Alex Minten was trading in Stayton Wednesday evening. T. E. Flemming was a Stayton caller Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Hora and son, Joe, were in Albany on business Wednesday morning.

Mr. Foren, a brother of Mrs. H. Deakins, his family and Mr. Savage, a brother-in-law, all from Lake View, stopped over for a visit on their way to Knappa where they are to locate. Perry Doyd, who suffered a fracture at the base of the skull as a result of falling from his father's hay loft, is improving. No further injuries have been reported. Rev. Poling preached at the schoolhouse Sunday and will hereafter preach every second Sunday following Sunday school. The hour for Sunday school is now 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Wirth, who underwent an operation, is reported improving. Miss Katherine Perlich of Portland spent Memorial day with her father, Mr. A. Perlich. Many were disappointed when there were no services at "Jason Lee" cemetery, and again when they parked their cars on State and Commercial and missed seeing the parade. The Friday paper bringing the last received on the rural routes, too early for the program.

A petition was presented to the school board, by A. C. Parsons and W. Sheridan, Wednesday evening signed by a large number of voters, asking that the voters be given the privilege of voting on building a new school house at the annual school election. H. De Guire who had a tumor removed from his leg is able to be moved to his home. Mr. and Mrs. Ota Binger are the proud parents of a new baby boy who arrived Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Water of Portland were guests of Mr. and

Mrs. W. T. Riches was called to Woodburn Saturday to see her sister Mrs. Clara Canarmack, who was seriously ill. She returned home Monday evening. Mrs. David McVicker and son Roy and wife of Portland were at Twin Oak cemetery Saturday. Lawrence Robertson of California is visiting Turner relatives. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Edwards and Mrs. Esther Neal of Monmouth were over Saturday. The former are leaving the farm in care of their son Neal, and are building a new home in Monmouth. The new train schedule service is working a hardship on the local cream station, as the cream has to be trucked to Salem to catch the one p. m. through train to Portland. Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bear entertained Frank Millett and family and Mrs. R. M. Kiser and daughters, all of Salem. Monday Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bones and Mr. and Mrs. Art Cornelius started to New York to attend the Yeoman conclave.

Bill Herons and family of Portland, Bill Dart and family of Woodburn, and Clarence Overholt spent Sunday at George Sanders. Irvine Parberry and Mrs. Bowsley made a call at Ben Darby's last Wednesday evening. Maude Darby spent last week at the Claude Darby home at Stayton. Farmers in this vicinity are cultivating their corn fields. Joe Hora and Harley Darby made a trip to Mill City Sunday forenoon. Charles Cole of Oregon City is visiting with friends in this vicinity for a short while. Mrs. Bowsley of central Oregon has been spending some time with her friends, the Parberry family. She expects to return to her home in the near future. Mrs. Don McKnight of Scio spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Ray, doing some sewing. Max and Lee Shelton spent Saturday and Sunday with their grandparents, Mrs. Esther Ray. Joe and Frank Hora, Theodore Belcoe, Louie Ray, wife and son Lyle, and Charley Peters were Sunday visitors at the Ben Darby home. Mr. and Mrs. Krum and Mr. Krum's father and mother of Salem spent Monday at the John Sandner, Sr., home. Mrs. Krum was formerly Miss Margaret Sandner. Jay Shanks is laid off from the Senz Bros. sawmill for a few days on account of a severe cold. Alex Minten was trading in Stayton Wednesday evening. T. E. Flemming was a Stayton caller Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Hora and son, Joe, were in Albany on business Wednesday morning.

Mr. Foren, a brother of Mrs. H. Deakins, his family and Mr. Savage, a brother-in-law, all from Lake View, stopped over for a visit on their way to Knappa where they are to locate. Perry Doyd, who suffered a fracture at the base of the skull as a result of falling from his father's hay loft, is improving. No further injuries have been reported. Rev. Poling preached at the schoolhouse Sunday and will hereafter preach every second Sunday following Sunday school. The hour for Sunday school is now 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Wirth, who underwent an operation, is reported improving. Miss Katherine Perlich of Portland spent Memorial day with her father, Mr. A. Perlich. Many were disappointed when there were no services at "Jason Lee" cemetery, and again when they parked their cars on State and Commercial and missed seeing the parade. The Friday paper bringing the last received on the rural routes, too early for the program.

A petition was presented to the school board, by A. C. Parsons and W. Sheridan, Wednesday evening signed by a large number of voters, asking that the voters be given the privilege of voting on building a new school house at the annual school election. H. De Guire who had a tumor removed from his leg is able to be moved to his home. Mr. and Mrs. Ota Binger are the proud parents of a new baby boy who arrived Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Water of Portland were guests of Mr. and

Mrs. W. T. Riches was called to Woodburn Saturday to see her sister Mrs. Clara Canarmack, who was seriously ill. She returned home Monday evening. Mrs. David McVicker and son Roy and wife of Portland were at Twin Oak cemetery Saturday. Lawrence Robertson of California is visiting Turner relatives. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Edwards and Mrs. Esther Neal of Monmouth were over Saturday. The former are leaving the farm in care of their son Neal, and are building a new home in Monmouth. The new train schedule service is working a hardship on the local cream station, as the cream has to be trucked to Salem to catch the one p. m. through train to Portland. Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bear entertained Frank Millett and family and Mrs. R. M. Kiser and daughters, all of Salem. Monday Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bones and Mr. and Mrs. Art Cornelius started to New York to attend the Yeoman conclave.

Bill Herons and family of Portland, Bill Dart and family of Woodburn, and Clarence Overholt spent Sunday at George Sanders. Irvine Parberry and Mrs. Bowsley made a call at Ben Darby's last Wednesday evening. Maude Darby spent last week at the Claude Darby home at Stayton. Farmers in this vicinity are cultivating their corn fields. Joe Hora and Harley Darby made a trip to Mill City Sunday forenoon. Charles Cole of Oregon City is visiting with friends in this vicinity for a short while. Mrs. Bowsley of central Oregon has been spending some time with her friends, the Parberry family. She expects to return to her home in the near future. Mrs. Don McKnight of Scio spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Ray, doing some sewing. Max and Lee Shelton spent Saturday and Sunday with their grandparents, Mrs. Esther Ray. Joe and Frank Hora, Theodore Belcoe, Louie Ray, wife and son Lyle, and Charley Peters were Sunday visitors at the Ben Darby home. Mr. and Mrs. Krum and Mr. Krum's father and mother of Salem spent Monday at the John Sandner, Sr., home. Mrs. Krum was formerly Miss Margaret Sandner. Jay Shanks is laid off from the Senz Bros. sawmill for a few days on account of a severe cold. Alex Minten was trading in Stayton Wednesday evening. T. E. Flemming was a Stayton caller Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Hora and son, Joe, were in Albany on business Wednesday morning.

Mr. Foren, a brother of Mrs. H. Deakins, his family and Mr. Savage, a brother-in-law, all from Lake View, stopped over for a visit on their way to Knappa where they are to locate. Perry Doyd, who suffered a fracture at the base of the skull as a result of falling from his father's hay loft, is improving. No further injuries have been reported. Rev. Poling preached at the schoolhouse Sunday and will hereafter preach every second Sunday following Sunday school. The hour for Sunday school is now 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Wirth, who underwent an operation, is reported improving. Miss Katherine Perlich of Portland spent Memorial day with her father, Mr. A. Perlich. Many were disappointed when there were no services at "Jason Lee" cemetery, and again when they parked their cars on State and Commercial and missed seeing the parade. The Friday paper bringing the last received on the rural routes, too early for the program.

A petition was presented to the school board, by A. C. Parsons and W. Sheridan, Wednesday evening signed by a large number of voters, asking that the voters be given the privilege of voting on building a new school house at the annual school election. H. De Guire who had a tumor removed from his leg is able to be moved to his home. Mr. and Mrs. Ota Binger are the proud parents of a new baby boy who arrived Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Water of Portland were guests of Mr. and

Mrs. W. T. Riches was called to Woodburn Saturday to see her sister Mrs. Clara Canarmack, who was seriously ill. She returned home Monday evening. Mrs. David McVicker and son Roy and wife of Portland were at Twin Oak cemetery Saturday. Lawrence Robertson of California is visiting Turner relatives. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Edwards and Mrs. Esther Neal of Monmouth were over Saturday. The former are leaving the farm in care of their son Neal, and are building a new home in Monmouth. The new train schedule service is working a hardship on the local cream station, as the cream has to be trucked to Salem to catch the one p. m. through train to Portland. Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bear entertained Frank Millett and family and Mrs. R. M. Kiser and daughters, all of Salem. Monday Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bones and Mr. and Mrs. Art Cornelius started to New York to attend the Yeoman conclave.

Bill Herons and family of Portland, Bill Dart and family of Woodburn, and Clarence Overholt spent Sunday at George Sanders. Irvine Parberry and Mrs. Bowsley made a call at Ben Darby's last Wednesday evening. Maude Darby spent last week at the Claude Darby home at Stayton. Farmers in this vicinity are cultivating their corn fields. Joe Hora and Harley Darby made a trip to Mill City Sunday forenoon. Charles Cole of Oregon City is visiting with friends in this vicinity for a short while. Mrs. Bowsley of central Oregon has been spending some time with her friends, the Parberry family. She expects to return to her home in the near future. Mrs. Don McKnight of Scio spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Ray, doing some sewing. Max and Lee Shelton spent Saturday and Sunday with their grandparents, Mrs. Esther Ray. Joe and Frank Hora, Theodore Belcoe, Louie Ray, wife and son Lyle, and Charley Peters were Sunday visitors at the Ben Darby home. Mr. and Mrs. Krum and Mr. Krum's father and mother of Salem spent Monday at the John Sandner, Sr., home. Mrs. Krum was formerly Miss Margaret Sandner. Jay Shanks is laid off from the Senz Bros. sawmill for a few days on account of a severe cold. Alex Minten was trading in Stayton Wednesday evening. T. E. Flemming was a Stayton caller Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Hora and son, Joe, were in Albany on business Wednesday morning.

Mr. Foren, a brother of Mrs. H. Deakins, his family and Mr. Savage, a brother-in-law, all from Lake View, stopped over for a visit on their way to Knappa where they are to locate. Perry Doyd, who suffered a fracture at the base of the skull as a result of falling from his father's hay loft, is improving. No further injuries have been reported. Rev. Poling preached at the schoolhouse Sunday and will hereafter preach every second Sunday following Sunday school. The hour for Sunday school is now 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Wirth, who underwent an operation, is reported improving. Miss Katherine Perlich of Portland spent Memorial day with her father, Mr. A. Perlich. Many were disappointed when there were no services at "Jason Lee" cemetery, and again when they parked their cars on State and Commercial and missed seeing the parade. The Friday paper bringing the last received on the rural routes, too early for the program.

A petition was presented to the school board, by A. C. Parsons and W. Sheridan, Wednesday evening signed by a large number of voters, asking that the voters be given the privilege of voting on building a new school house at the annual school election. H. De Guire who had a tumor removed from his leg is able to be moved to his home. Mr. and Mrs. Ota Binger are the proud parents of a new baby boy who arrived Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Water of Portland were guests of Mr. and

Mrs. W. T. Riches was called to Woodburn Saturday to see her sister Mrs. Clara Canarmack, who was seriously ill. She returned home Monday evening. Mrs. David McVicker and son Roy and wife of Portland were at Twin Oak cemetery Saturday. Lawrence Robertson of California is visiting Turner relatives. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Edwards and Mrs. Esther Neal of Monmouth were over Saturday. The former are leaving the farm in care of their son Neal, and are building a new home in Monmouth. The new train schedule service is working a hardship on the local cream station, as the cream has to be trucked to Salem to catch the one p. m. through train to Portland. Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bear entertained Frank Millett and family and Mrs. R. M. Kiser and daughters, all of Salem. Monday Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bones and Mr. and Mrs. Art Cornelius started to New York to attend the Yeoman conclave.

Bill Herons and family of Portland, Bill Dart and family of Woodburn, and Clarence Overholt spent Sunday at George Sanders. Irvine Parberry and Mrs. Bowsley made a call at Ben Darby's last Wednesday evening. Maude Darby spent last week at the Claude Darby home at Stayton. Farmers in this vicinity are cultivating their corn fields. Joe Hora and Harley Darby made a trip to Mill City Sunday forenoon. Charles Cole of Oregon City is visiting with friends in this vicinity for a short while. Mrs. Bowsley of central Oregon has been spending some time with her friends, the Parberry family. She expects to return to her home in the near future. Mrs. Don McKnight of Scio spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Ray, doing some sewing. Max and Lee Shelton spent Saturday and Sunday with their grandparents, Mrs. Esther Ray. Joe and Frank Hora, Theodore Belcoe, Louie Ray, wife and son Lyle, and Charley Peters were Sunday visitors at the Ben Darby home. Mr. and Mrs. Krum and Mr. Krum's father and mother of Salem spent Monday at the John Sandner, Sr., home. Mrs. Krum was formerly Miss Margaret Sandner. Jay Shanks is laid off from the Senz Bros. sawmill for a few days on account of a severe cold. Alex Minten was trading in Stayton Wednesday evening. T. E. Flemming was a Stayton caller Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Hora and son, Joe, were in Albany on business Wednesday morning.

Mr. Foren, a brother of Mrs. H. Deakins, his family and Mr. Savage, a brother-in-law, all from Lake View, stopped over for a visit on their way to Knappa where they are to locate. Perry Doyd, who suffered a fracture at the base of the skull as a result of falling from his father's hay loft, is improving. No further injuries have been reported. Rev. Poling preached at the schoolhouse Sunday and will hereafter preach every second Sunday following Sunday school. The hour for Sunday school is now 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Wirth, who underwent an operation, is reported improving. Miss Katherine Perlich of Portland spent Memorial day with her father, Mr. A. Perlich. Many were disappointed when there were no services at "Jason Lee" cemetery, and again when they parked their cars on State and Commercial and missed seeing the parade. The Friday paper bringing the last received on the rural routes, too early for the program.

A petition was presented to the school board, by A. C. Parsons and W. Sheridan, Wednesday evening signed by a large number of voters, asking that the voters be given the privilege of voting on building a new school house at the annual school election. H. De Guire who had a tumor removed from his leg is able to be moved to his home. Mr. and Mrs. Ota Binger are the proud parents of a new baby boy who arrived Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Water of Portland were guests of Mr. and

Mrs. W. T. Riches was called to Woodburn Saturday to see her sister Mrs. Clara Canarmack, who was seriously ill. She returned home Monday evening. Mrs. David McVicker and son Roy and wife of Portland were at Twin Oak cemetery Saturday. Lawrence Robertson of California is visiting Turner relatives. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Edwards and Mrs. Esther Neal of Monmouth were over Saturday. The former are leaving the farm in care of their son Neal, and are building a new home in Monmouth. The new train schedule service is working a hardship on the local cream station, as the cream has to be trucked to Salem to catch the one p. m. through train to Portland. Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bear entertained Frank Millett and family and Mrs. R. M. Kiser and daughters, all of Salem. Monday Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bones and Mr. and Mrs. Art Cornelius started to New York to attend the Yeoman conclave.

Bill Herons and family of Portland, Bill Dart and family of Woodburn, and Clarence Overholt spent Sunday at George Sanders. Irvine Parberry and Mrs. Bowsley made a call at Ben Darby's last Wednesday evening. Maude Darby spent last week at the Claude Darby home at Stayton. Farmers in this vicinity are cultivating their corn fields. Joe Hora and Harley Darby made a trip to Mill City Sunday forenoon. Charles Cole of Oregon City is visiting with friends in this vicinity for a short while. Mrs. Bowsley of central Oregon has been spending some time with her friends, the Parberry family. She expects to return to her home in the near future. Mrs. Don McKnight of Scio spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Ray, doing some sewing. Max and Lee Shelton spent Saturday and Sunday with their grandparents, Mrs. Esther Ray. Joe and Frank Hora, Theodore Belcoe, Louie Ray, wife and son Lyle, and Charley Peters were Sunday visitors at the Ben Darby home. Mr. and Mrs. Krum and Mr. Krum's father and mother of Salem spent Monday at the John Sandner, Sr., home. Mrs. Krum was formerly Miss Margaret Sandner. Jay Shanks is laid off from the Senz Bros. sawmill for a few days on account of a severe cold. Alex Minten was trading in Stayton Wednesday evening. T. E. Flemming was a Stayton caller Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Hora and son, Joe, were in Albany on business Wednesday morning.

Mr. Foren, a brother of Mrs. H. Deakins, his family and Mr. Savage, a brother-in-law, all from Lake View, stopped over for a visit on their way to Knappa where they are to locate. Perry Doyd, who suffered a fracture at the base of the skull as a result of falling from his father's hay loft, is improving. No further injuries have been reported. Rev. Poling preached at the schoolhouse Sunday and will hereafter preach every second Sunday following Sunday school. The hour for Sunday school is now 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Wirth, who underwent an operation, is reported improving. Miss Katherine Perlich of Portland spent Memorial day with her father, Mr. A. Perlich. Many were disappointed when there were no services at "Jason Lee" cemetery, and again when they parked their cars on State and Commercial and missed seeing the parade. The Friday paper bringing the last received on the rural routes, too early for the program.

A petition was presented to the school board, by A. C. Parsons and W. Sheridan, Wednesday evening signed by a large number of voters, asking that the voters be given the privilege of voting on building a new school house at the annual school election. H. De Guire who had a tumor removed from his leg is able to be moved to his home. Mr. and Mrs. Ota Binger are the proud parents of a new baby boy who arrived Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Water of Portland were guests of Mr. and

Mrs. W. T. Riches was called to Woodburn Saturday to see her sister Mrs. Clara Canarmack, who was seriously ill. She returned home Monday evening. Mrs. David McVicker and son Roy and wife of Portland were at Twin Oak cemetery Saturday. Lawrence Robertson of California is visiting Turner relatives. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Edwards and Mrs. Esther Neal of Monmouth were over Saturday. The former are leaving the farm in care of their son Neal, and are building a new home in Monmouth. The new train schedule service is working a hardship on the local cream station, as the cream has to be trucked to Salem to catch the one p. m. through train to Portland. Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bear entertained Frank Millett and family and Mrs. R. M. Kiser and daughters, all of Salem. Monday Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bones and Mr. and Mrs. Art Cornelius started to New York to attend the Yeoman conclave.

Bill Herons and family of Portland, Bill Dart and family of Woodburn, and Clarence Overholt spent Sunday at George Sanders. Irvine Parberry and Mrs. Bowsley made a call at Ben Darby's last Wednesday evening. Maude Darby spent last week at the Claude Darby home at Stayton. Farmers in this vicinity are cultivating their corn fields. Joe Hora and Harley Darby made a trip to Mill City Sunday forenoon. Charles Cole of Oregon City is visiting with friends in this vicinity for a short while. Mrs. Bowsley of central Oregon has been spending some time with her friends, the Parberry family. She expects to return to her home in the near future. Mrs. Don McKnight of Scio spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Ray, doing some sewing. Max and Lee Shelton spent Saturday and Sunday with their grandparents, Mrs. Esther Ray. Joe and Frank Hora, Theodore Belcoe, Louie Ray, wife and son Lyle, and Charley Peters were Sunday visitors at the Ben Darby home. Mr. and Mrs. Krum and Mr. Krum's father and mother of Salem spent Monday at the John Sandner, Sr., home. Mrs. Krum was formerly Miss Margaret Sandner. Jay Shanks is laid off from the Senz Bros. sawmill for a few days on account of a severe cold. Alex Minten was trading in Stayton Wednesday evening. T. E. Flemming was a Stayton caller Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Hora and son, Joe, were in Albany on business Wednesday morning.

Mr. Foren, a brother of Mrs. H. Deakins, his family and Mr. Savage, a brother-in-law, all from Lake View, stopped over for a visit on their way to Knappa where they are to locate. Perry Doyd, who suffered a fracture at the base of the skull as a result of falling from his father's hay loft, is improving. No further injuries have been reported. Rev. Poling preached at the schoolhouse Sunday and will hereafter preach every second Sunday following Sunday school. The hour for Sunday school is now 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Wirth, who underwent an operation, is reported improving. Miss Katherine Perlich of Portland spent Memorial day with her father, Mr. A. Perlich. Many were disappointed when there were no services at "Jason Lee" cemetery, and again when they parked their cars on State and Commercial and missed seeing the parade. The Friday paper bringing the last received on the rural routes, too early for the program.

A petition was presented to the school board, by A. C. Parsons and W. Sheridan, Wednesday evening signed by a large number of voters, asking that the voters be given the privilege of voting on building a new school house at the annual school election. H. De Guire who had a tumor removed from his leg is able to be moved to his home. Mr. and Mrs. Ota Binger are the proud parents of a new baby boy who arrived Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Water of Portland were guests of Mr. and

Mrs. W. T. Riches was called to Woodburn Saturday to see her sister Mrs. Clara Canarmack, who was seriously ill. She returned home Monday evening. Mrs. David McVicker and son Roy and wife of Portland were at Twin Oak cemetery Saturday. Lawrence Robertson of California is visiting Turner relatives. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Edwards and Mrs. Esther Neal of Monmouth were over Saturday. The former are leaving the farm in care of their son Neal, and are building a new home in Monmouth. The new train schedule service is working a hardship on the local cream station, as the cream has to be trucked to Salem to catch the one p. m. through train to Portland. Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bear entertained Frank Millett and family and Mrs. R. M. Kiser and daughters, all of Salem. Monday Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bones and Mr. and Mrs. Art Cornelius started to New York to attend the Yeoman conclave.

Bill Herons and family of Portland, Bill Dart and family of Woodburn, and Clarence Overholt spent Sunday at George Sanders. Irvine Parberry and Mrs. Bowsley made a call at Ben Darby's last Wednesday evening. Maude Darby spent last week at the Claude Darby home at Stayton. Farmers in this vicinity are cultivating their corn fields. Joe Hora and Harley Darby made a trip to Mill City Sunday forenoon. Charles Cole of Oregon City is visiting with friends in this vicinity for a short while. Mrs. Bowsley of central Oregon has been spending some time with her friends, the Parberry family. She expects to return to her home in the near future. Mrs. Don McKnight of Scio spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Ray, doing some sewing. Max and Lee Shelton spent Saturday and Sunday with their grandparents, Mrs. Esther Ray. Joe and Frank Hora, Theodore Belcoe, Louie Ray, wife and son Lyle, and Charley Peters were Sunday visitors at the Ben Darby home. Mr. and Mrs. Krum and Mr. Krum's father and mother of Salem spent Monday at the John Sandner, Sr., home. Mrs. Krum was formerly Miss Margaret Sandner. Jay Shanks is laid off from the Senz Bros. sawmill for a few days on account of a severe cold. Alex Minten was trading in Stayton Wednesday evening. T. E. Flemming was a Stayton caller Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Hora and son, Joe, were in Albany on business Wednesday morning.