

County News in Brief

Pringle

The annual school meeting will be held Monday, June 15, at 8 p. m.

The Pringle road between the school and the feeble minded institution is now being prepared for paving.

Mrs. Ina Haifner and infant son of Campo, Colo., are visiting the H. E. Stewart family.

Arday Stewart, who for two years has been in Colorado, has returned to the home of his parents. He says that the Williams country looks good to him.

Perie Allen and family, ofaines, Alaska, who have been visiting friends in California, visited with the Stewarts Friday and Saturday. They are returning to their Alaska home.

J. M. Coburn visited friends in McMillinville Sunday.

Marion

A lecture will be given at the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening, June 10, by Mr. Buchanan of Albany, illustrated by stereopticon views taken by him in Alaska. No admission will be charged but a collection will be taken proceeds to be used for buying song books for the church.

The Marion county health clinic will be held at the schoolhouse all Thursday and until Friday noon for the examination of the children of Marion district. Dr. Goldbrandson will be in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reeves of Salem visited at the S. E. Roland home Sunday.

John Palmer, Jr., and family of near Corvallis visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Palmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hall.

C. A. George is suffering with an infection in one of his fingers, in which an operation was performed.

Cloverdale

Mrs. Fred Schifferer and baby, Edith Mary, were brought home from Salem Friday.

Orville Thomas and Mildred Schifferer passed their eighth grade tests, both with an average of 92.5-12.

Mrs. M. Pifflet, Mrs. Anna Kunke and Mrs. Helen Butzky were shopping in Salem Saturday.

Mrs. Jennie Farr reports that they are getting a big yield from their strawberry patch this year.

Mrs. May Hadley was hostess for the WCTU Wednesday. There were about nine members present and two visitors from Turner.

Mrs. Jennie Moore and Mrs. Pogue.

Mrs. Marie Garner and children are down at Keizer picking strawberries.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas and little boys of Salem spent Sunday here with Mrs. Ella Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spicer and daughters Miss Georgina and Miss Laura, of North Santiam, spent Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Butzky.

Mrs. Rachel Reeder of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. George Hurst of Silverton visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hamilton Sunday.

Mrs. Helen Butzky spent Wednesday at Dallas attending the state grange convention there.

Rosedale

Several from Rosedale attended the picnic at Liberty last Friday. On Friday evening the Red Hill Birthday club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Trick for an outdoor party.

The children's day program was held at the church last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Cammack and Forrest Cammack went to Portland last week. Miss Laura Cammack returned home from Portland where she has been attending school.

R. D. Tetter and T. D. Trick at

Chosen Special Envoy to China

Silas H. Strawn (above), Chicago attorney, will represent the U. S. at the special conference in Peking on Chinese customs provided for in the nine-power treaty.

tended the State Grange at Dallas last Thursday.

Max Burris, who underwent a minor operation, is doing nicely.

Turner

The Vincent entertainment Wednesday evening was very fine.

A very amusing stunt program was put on by the Junior high students at 7 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Turner school children have always been known for their ability in acting and singing.

F. C. Gunning and wife and Miss Eleanor Moore were in Salem Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Lois Palmer of near Corvallis visited her friend Miss Hazel Bear Sunday, also E. B. Stroud and family of Salem were dinner guests.

S. A. Riches and parents and Mrs. R. Hasslett went to Silverton Sunday, guests at the Golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Masher.

Mrs. Fisher, primary teacher spent the week end with Mrs. A. E. Robertson.

Prof. Biggood and family were in Salem Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hill were in Salem Saturday afternoon.

C. A. Bar was a business visitor in Portland Friday.

The Robertson clan will hold their family reunion next Sunday.

Hazel Green

The Children's Day program will be given at 11 o'clock, June 14. There will be special music and a pageant.

Mr. and Mrs. William McMorris and Mrs. McMorris' mother, Mrs. Matilda Van Cleave and her sister, Mrs. Bertha Ann Cleave of Salem were visitors at C. A. Van Cleave's Sunday.

Louis Wanpfer had a valuable horse die of lock-jaw last week.

Mrs. W. B. Davis has as guests her mother, Mrs. Kirkpatrick of Kansas City and her sister, Mrs. Helen Hopkins of California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Luckey and daughter of Woodburn were visitors at his brothers', James Luckey's Tuesday. Mr. John Luckey has recently come from Kansas City to spend the summer in Oregon with the intention of locating in Willamette valley.

The Women's Missionary association will meet with Mrs. C. A. Van Cleave Thursday afternoon.

There will be a program and business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustrie and daughter and son and wife of Portland were Sunday visitors of Rev. Lella Luckey at the parsonage.

Mrs. De Witts and children of Salem were callers at B. C. Zelinski's Sunday.

W. A. Dunigan went to Portland Wednesday.

Ernest Scott of Aumsville is visiting his sister, Mrs. Ben Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bess Clemens and daughter, Ellen, and son, Arthur, visited friends in Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Zelinski and children were visitors at Louis Kobow's Sunday.

Sidney

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Simpson were selected as delegates from the Ankeny Grange to attend the state grange convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hartley have returned to Lewiston, Idaho, after a nice long visit with his parents and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hatley took a trip to Newport and other small towns. They reported a nice trip and some good views.

E. Todd and E. E. Cochran motored Thursday to the Warren Gray farm to inspect the Graymore herd of Jerseys and report seeing an especially fine looking herd and from the udders carried by the cows they are a herd that pays well at the pail.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Jones and family motored to Mouthouth to visit her father at her sisters' home. Her father is not very well.

home of her mother, Mrs. W. A. Riggs.

Henry Mustchler and son Harry drove to Portland Sunday, where they enjoyed a day outing and took in the Frisco-Portland ball game.

Walter Heater and wife spent Saturday in Stayton, looking after business matters. The Heaters live in the Silver Creek neighborhood, and report a big Fourth of July celebration is being arranged for at the falls this year.

John Mielki and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fisher left this morning for Corvallis, where they will attend the commencement exercises at the college. James Mielki and Norval Fisher are graduating from college with the 1925 class.

Florence Murphy, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Murphy, has been quite ill the past week, suffering a light attack of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Faugman of Sublimity, were business visitors in Stayton Saturday.

William O. Cooper left Sunday for Mill City, where he will spend some time, having secured a painting contract in that city.

Five to eighteen was the resulting score of the ball game Sunday, when the Mill City nine went down to defeat at the hands of the home town team, on the local field.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tweedie and their small children have moved into the Nebert house on Second street. Some two years ago they were residents here and Stayton people are glad to welcome them back.

B. F. Oakley and family have moved from Sidney. They have moved on the other side of Jefferson.

Mr. Ray, the butcher was buying beef around the valley and Sidney one day last week.

V. C. Beaty sheared some sheep for E. E. Cochran and Mr. Beaty said they were nice yearlings as he had sheared any place.

Miss Clara Scott is a visitor at the W. H. Scott home for a few days.

The Scotts were visitors at the Hammon home in Polk county Sunday.

Stayton

Stayton citizens are up in arms over the mail situation, since the change of time on the Southern Pacific railroad went into effect; and a petition, with practically all the mail patrons in town as signers has been filed asking for a return of the old schedule with a morning and afternoon mail, as was formerly the rule. One mail a day in a community as progressive as this is, is not to be tolerated.

Saturday was strawberry shortcake day at the grange and a goodly number of members of the organization were present to partake of the bounteous feast which was spread at the noon hour. The business session was held in the forenoon. Miss Ella Williams, who was a delegate to the state grange held in Dallas last week, arrived home on the noon stage and the afternoon was passed in listening to her reports of the state meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lesley and son Wilbur are leaving on Thursday of this week for Pendleton, where they will visit their son, Oliver P. Lesley and wife. From there they will go to Hiway Springs for the remainder of the month for an outing at that popular resort. Last year the Lesleys spent several weeks at the springs and are anticipating an enjoyable outing.

Mrs. Mary Allen went to Silverton Sunday, where she attended the celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mascher, who have passed the 50th mile stone of their wedded life. Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Mascher are sister-in-laws.

The new and attractive bungalow being constructed by the Albert S. Watters is nearing completion and is one of the pretty new homes being built in that part of town. It is of the hollow tile and will be finished in stucco.

George H. Bell of the First National bank has broken ground for a new bungalow on his lots north of the J. T. Kearns home. Excavation for the basement was begun last week. The structure is to be modern in every respect and will be one of the most up-to-date homes in the city when completed.

Another pretty bungalow which is rapidly assuming shape is the one under course of construction on the Lee Brown estate, and being erected by Mrs. Charles E. Brown. The building fronts the east and will be an attractive addition to second street homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Van Erman are moving into their sight new home which has just been completed in the east end of town. The cozy attractiveness and pretty setting of this modern structure is the envy of the entire populace.

Mr. and Mrs. Josephine H. Brewer came over from Tillamook Sunday, spending the day here. Their 12 year old son Robert Keith, who has been attending school here returned home with them.

Gilbert S. Stayton and family of Washougal, Washington, were spending the week-end here as guests at the home of Mr. Stayton's mother, Mrs. Anna Stayton.

Frank Stupka and Ed Kerber expect to leave within a few days for an extended trip through the eastern states, visiting friends in Iowa and Minnesota. They plan to be away about six weeks.

Mrs. A. G. Myers and little daughter are here visiting at the Mrs. Dallas, president; Mrs. D. Cunningham, vice president; Mrs. O. T. Dencer, secretary and treasurer.

Dorman's strawberry patch was busy as a bee hive Thursday, when an extra force was employed, so as to get over the field so all could attend the picnic on Friday.

E. L. Dorman of Jefferson was visiting here with his parents Friday and attended the picnic.

Mrs. Rae, who has been quite ill, is much improved.

The little Misses' Belva and Verla Hill are visiting with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Dencer left last Friday with the caravan of United Artisans for a convention to be held at Grants Pass on Saturday. Roseburg gave the caravan a royal reception and entertainment on Friday evening. After the Artisan meeting Mr. and Mrs. Dencer visited relatives at Medford and Ashland Sunday and Monday, returning home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dencer returned home this week, having visited in Portland with relatives.

Mrs. Pearce and children left Friday for her home at Seaside, the children have been attending school here.

The Liberty school held its closing and graduation exercises at the community hall Thursday June 4. Those leaving the 8th grade were: Lela Fox, Sabina Schmidt, Cecil Dencer and Leland Scott. An excellent programme was rendered by pupils of the school and was much enjoyed by a large audience.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Scott of Salem, attended the graduation exercises here Thursday evening.

Mrs. Kelso of Imperial valley, Cal., is expected here about the 15th, at the Brooks home.

Deputy state fire marshal, George W. Stokes and two inspectors were at school last week. They stated that the building is decidedly unsafe for those on the top floor and said that it would be necessary to have fire escapes and extinguishers. They were gratified to learn that the fire drill was given as required by law.

Mr. Roy V. Ohmart will leave soon for Milson, eastern Oregon, where she will visit her parents for a month.

Miss Caroline Krubets, who is teaching in the Salem high school, will leave for British Columbia as son as school closes and spend her vacation there.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Judd of Norwich, Conn., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Judd last Monday. This is the first time the brothers have seen each other for over thirty years.

Mr. Henry Gilbert, has as her guests this week, her sister and baby of Hillsboro.

Mr. Bert Dougherty and baby of Oregon City are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Newsom.

The Liberty Woman's club held a short business session Friday afternoon. Officers of the ensuing year were elected as follows:

LOW ROUND TRIPS EAST this Summer

Let us plan your vacation trip!

ROUND TRIP FARES

St. Paul $74.05 St. Louis $ 83.55

Chicago $88.05 New York $149.45

Other Points in Proportion

Sale May 22 to Sept. 15; Return Limit Oct. 31 your choice of

Two of America's Finest Trains

North Coast Limited via S. P. & S. N. P. C. B. & Q.

Oriental Limited via S. P. & S. G. N. C. B. & Q.

Tickets: Further Details: Etc., of

I. F. KNOWLTON J. W. BITCHIE, Agents

Trav. Pass. Agts. Phone 767 or 157

OREGON ELECTRIC RY.

GRAND Theatre

One Night Only

MONDAY, JUNE 15

Stewart and French Present

The treat of the year!!

The COMEDY NEW YORK HAS LAUGHED AND WENT OVER FOR TWO YEARS

THE SHOW STOP

NO PLAY CAN BE FUNNIER!!

Best of all American Comedies

Reynaud Brown, New York World

Mail Orders Now

Prices (Tax Included) $2.20 and $2.75; Gallery $1.10

Livesley

The G. L. club members met with Mrs. George Higgins on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. B. D. Fidler assisted the hostess in serving a delicious luncheon. Those present were Mrs. S. C. Davenport, Mrs. C. D. Query Mrs. W. V. Johnson, Mrs. N. P. Kugel, Mrs. F. J. Lanson, Mrs. Alice Cooledge, Mrs. Harry Tracey, Mrs. J. A. Pearson, Mrs. William Meier, Mrs. H. B. Carpenter, Mrs. C. Schwab, Mrs. L. F. Clymer, Mrs. A. T. Macklin, and Miss Janice Higgins.

Mrs. A. Ashby and Mrs. Flora Holley of Salem, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Alice Cooledge.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McAbee, Rev. and Mrs. W. Bowman and Miss Dorothy McAbee of Seattle were guests of Rev. and Mrs. E. McAbee the first three days of this week. They attended the commencement exercises at Kimball College.

Rev. E. Ranton and son, Leonard spent Monday and Tuesday nights with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Carpenter. Mr. Ranton was up from Gresham to attend the Kimball College commencement and alumni events.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Clevinger and Misses Fredrica and Ellen Bradbury are at Brooks for the berry season.

Mrs. E. J. Jasper of Westport, spent the week-end with her aunt Mrs. H. B. Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Hayden left Thursday for their trip to Germany to visit relatives. They intend to be gone several months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bressler moved to their farm on the river bottom last week.

A reorganization of the telephone lines took place last Wednesday night. The new organization is called the Riverside Incorporated Telephone company. The officers elected were J. O. Walker, president; William Meier, secretary and N. N. Carpenter, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Meier and family attended a family reunion Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Kruse at Oregon City.

Mrs. B. Stutesman and niece, Marie, are visiting with relatives in Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Clymer were Sunday visitors in Salem at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Kugel.

A. Williams of Bellingham was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Clymer Thursday night.

C. D. Query is hauling logs to Spauldings.

Jefferson

Miss Ethel Klampe was in Salem Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Longcor and family of Portland visited Mrs. Longcor's sister, Mrs. Joe McKee Saturday evening.

There were no services held in the M. E. church Sunday evening because of the program at the Evangelical church. The musical program that was to be given at the M. E. church was postponed. Prof. T. O. Davis and family left Friday to spend the week-end in Oregon City and Portland.

Bedford Smith of Flag is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Smith of this city.

W. E. Smith and family motored to Alsea Sunday to spend the day.

Lindsay Doty, a Jefferson high school graduate who is now attending U. of O. at Eugene spent Saturday and Sunday visiting his brother and family, Melvin Doty.

Sunday was the day that the Eastern Star members of Marion county were to visit the Masonic Eastern Star home at Forest Grove. Jefferson people who visited there were Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Looney, Mr. and Mrs. George Looney and Mr. B. T. George.

The majority of the high school

LAURETTE TAYLOR

Star of "PEG O' MY HEART" and "HAPPINESS" in this new picture goes from the rags of the little Irish colleen to the silks and furs of the great Duchess of Marenco; from light-hearted comedy to tense, startling drama.

Tom Moore
Alan Hale

Miss Du Pont
Warner Oland

LAURETTE TAYLOR

Starts Thursday

One Night in Rome

At St. John in "His New Car"

NEWS OREGON

CLASSIFIED COLUMNS

THE OREGON STATESMAN

HELP WANTED SITUATIONS WANTED FOR SALE

THE PERFECT NUT!

"CHARLEY'S AUNT"

The Modern Town Crier

In a bygone era, before the advent of newspapers, men communicated news of the day as well as trade wants by means of the Town Crier. The open center of the city or village was also a place for the barter and exchange of wares. Wandering merchants in picturesque garb often came together for mutual profit.

But today, in Salem there is a far more effective method of barter and exchange—the classified advertising columns of

OREGON STATESMAN

Hundreds of worth-while things are offered for sale or exchange in The Statesman Classified columns. Here, indeed, is a real market-place where many kinds of people come with many kinds of property to sell and buy—many kinds of wants to be fulfilled.

Turn to the Classified pages now for information of both things and people which they give you

The Oregon Statesman

A Bear of a Show

World's Famous "Rawlins California Happy Bear Family"

The World's Greatest Educated, Performing BEARS

Harry Carey in "Flaming Forties"

TODAY—TOMORROW

BLIGH

