American Opera Draws Big Attendance at Auditorium

PORTLAND, Ore., June 9.—(By Associated Press.)— Portland's municipal auditorium with a seating capacity of about 5,000 was sold out for the premiere tonight of the American Opera "The Echo," which had its first performance here in connection with the fourteenth biennial convention of the National Federation of Music clubs.

Musical critics from all parts of the country were present to pass judgment on the offering. The words and music of the opera were by Frank Patterson of New York. It is one act, with incidental ballet. The story is symbolical of the struggle of humanity against evil, the "echo folk" of the opera. The music is described as conservative modernistic.

Soft, Feminine Beauty Replaces Boyish Flapper

HOLLYWOOD, Cal.—The manish, boyish type of beauty which last year reigned favorite has been replaced by the slim, youthful and decidedly feminine creature, it was indicated by a contest in which 500 of the "most beautiful" girls here participated.

An average height of five feet three inches predominated among the 30 most winsome misses who were selected from the 500 candidates for appearance in a forthcoming film production. The weight of this "ideal 1925 girl" is slightly less than 118 pounds. She has gray-blue eyes and hair of golden chestnut color, bobbed of course, shingled in back but not extreme.

This slender representative fo the film center's beauty, who has seen only 20 birthdays, measures 26 inchs around the wgist; her bust is 34 inches and her hips 35. She wears slipper sized four and a half.

Jargon of Camel Drivers Pervades Speech of Arabs

LONDON.—In the Arabic language there are nearly 6,000 words descriptive of the camel and its various offices, according to Lieut. Col. H. F. Jacob, formerly in Cairo as political adviser to Lord Allenby, British high commissioner in Egypt, who lectured recently before the London chamber of commerce on his experiences in Egypt.

Col. Jacob told of being captured by tribesmen while proceeding to Santa, capital of the Iman Yahya, as government envoy to that monarch. The tribesmen kept the colonel prisoner four months. They feared he intended completing a treaty which would place the entire country under the Imam's sway. The British government offered $250,000 for his ransom which the tribesmen scorned, and eventually he got away by concluding a temporary agreement with them.

In his description of Arabic and its connection with the camel Col. Jacob asserted the guttural sounds of that language were said by scientists to have been derived from the gurglings of the beast of burden of the deserts.
