

WOODMEN DEFEAT PEP TEAM BY 11-7 SCORE

GAME IS PUNCTUATED BY MANY COSTLY ERRORS

Legion Meets Valley Motor Tonight While Eagles Play Papermen Thursday

The Woodmen of the World defeated the Portland Electric Power company nine last night by a score of 11 to 7, in a game which was punctuated with costly errors on both sides, and in which the WOW used three pitchers in a successful attempt to stem a rally by their opponents. Errors by both teams were frequent and costly.

Dee was started in the box for the Woodmen, but was knocked out in the first inning. He was followed by Busick, and later by Walker, who finished up the game. Merritt hurled for the PEP nine, and toward the last part of the game was relieved by Bolton. Rickman caught for the Woodmen, with Travis doing the receiving for the electricians.

Tonight the Legion team will meet the organization from the Valley Motor company, with the Eagles playing the Oregon Pulp & Paper company on Thursday night.

First American Sailless Sailing Vessel, Rotor Ship, Is Given Tests

The first Rotor ship built in America is now being given preliminary tests at Boston. It is the work of W. W. Hastings and J. M. Kiernan of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and differs in design in some respects from the rotor ship invented by Flettner, German. Rotor ships are wind-driven vessels without sails. The huge cylinder in the center is revolved by the wind, turning the propellers.

Howell Prairie Team Beats Papermen Twice

The Howell Prairie team are rejoicing over the two defeats handed the Pulp & Paper company's baseball team recently. The papermakers have been going strong in Salem, leading the Sunday league, but have been unable to take a contest from the suburban aggregation. The first game resulted in a 5 to 4 victory for Howell Prairie while the second game ended 7 to 5 in their favor. The impression was gained from a recent sport item that the papermakers had not been defeated this season.

INVENTORS CLUB MEETS NUMEROUS APPLIANCES ARE EXHIBITED AT MEET

SEATTLE, June 16.—The national association of inventors got under way here today with its first annual convention to adjourn Thursday. All the exhibitors and most of the delegates live hereabouts, but A. C. Clark, Seattle, treasurer, explained that a start had to be made, and more were expected next year.

Exhibits included:

"A small gilded pistol, 'a device making it a pleasure to exterminate flies.' This pistol affords 'the best indoor hunting game for young and old.' It discharges a chemical to kill flies and ants. A Seattle policeman invented it.

A large tub in which floated a boat designed to sink submarines.

An aluminum coil to make a flivver run 32 miles on a gallon of gasoline.

A phonograph to play one record perpetually so that "only half a dance step is lost in transition from the end back to the beginning of the record."

A chair that is a table—for apartment dwellers.

SENATOR WHITNEY LEADS RACE FOR GOVERNOR OF NEW JERSEY IS NOT CLOSE

NEWARK, N. J., June 17.—(By Associated Press.)—Returns from nearly two-thirds of the state in yesterday's primary gave Senator Arthur Whitney a commanding lead in the race for republican gubernatorial nomination.

Former County Judge Doremus of Ridgewood appeared eliminated with less than half as many votes as Whitney, while former Attorney General Thomas F. McCran was unable to rally his strength in Hudson, Essex, Atlantic and Passaic counties which had been expected to overcome the Morris county senator's strength in rural districts.

It was generally predicted that McCran could not overcome Whitney's lead of 18,000. Returns from 384 election districts out of 2776 for the republican nomination for governor give: Doremus 29,752; McCran 67,136; Whitney, 85,615.

PROPERTY VALUE SHOWN

SEATTLE, June 16.—Testimony intended to show that the value of properties of the Pacific Telephone company in Washington was $36,000,000 on December 31, 1922, and had increased to $42,085,127 on December 31, 1924, was offered by telephone officials in the telephone rate hearings here

MOTOR TRIP ENJOYED BY BOYS FROM CITY

PORTLAND AUTO DEALERS ARE FINE HOSTS

Winners in Song Sales Contest Are Taken Over Columbia River Highway

Several boys from Salem were the guests of Portland automobile dealers on a trip over the Columbia river highway last Saturday. The boys were given the trip as a reward for their assistance in selling the song, "That Beautiful Home of the Rose," which was put on sale in Salem a few months ago. This is the song which is being sold as a benefit for the blind people of the state who are outside of the state institutions.

The Salem boys were accompanied by a number of boys from Portland who have assisted in the sale of this song in the Rose City. Cars were furnished by the J. H. Graham Hudson and Essex agency, 19th and Morrison, Portland, and by the John K. Leander Studebaker agency.

The Salem group were under the supervision of Stewart Kibby of the YMCA, and included the following: Kalmin Vadney, Clyde

Strangler Pins 'Mann to Mat'

Stanislav Zbyzsko and Ed "Strangler" Lewis will meet in a finish bout to decide their dispute over the heavyweight wrestling championship, which both claim by virtue of victories over Weyan Munn, youthful Nebraska. Lewis is seen pinning Munn to the mat for the third fall in their "championship."

QUARTIER RAID LEGAL SUPREME COURT HOLDS CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS ARE SAID NOT VIOLATED

Deposition For Warrant Not Necessary; Other Decisions Are Rendered

A raid upon the residence of Albert Quartier and his wife in Portland March 21, 1924, at which time a still was seized, did not infringe upon the constitutional rights of the defendant, according to an opinion handed down by the supreme court Tuesday. It was written by Justice Bean and affirms Judge T. E. J. Duffy, of the Multnomah court.

Claims made by Quartier that the affidavit upon which the search warrant was issued was defective in that no deposition was taken and that the search was illegal in that it was not made by officers to whom the warrant was issued were not upheld by the supreme court.

Other opinions handed down Tuesday were:

H. R. Tulloch vs Harry B. Cochran, appellant; appeal from Malheur county; replevin action. Opinion by Justice Bell; Judge Dalton Biggs affirmed.

In the matter of the petition of Pearl M. Davenport for writ of habeas corpus; appeal of Ollie H. Olson, sheriff of Crook county; appeal from Crook county. Opinion by Justice Bell; Judge George W. Stapleton affirmed.

James C. Fred vs. J. P. Schall, appellant; appeal from Malheur county; action to recover money. Opinion by Justice Bell; Judge Dalton Biggs affirmed.

Orby C. Craven, appellant, vs. John Charles Wright, appeal from Multnomah county; action to recover money. Opinion by Justice Rand; Judge Robert Tucker affirmed.

Crowell Elevator company, appellant, vs. Kerr Gifford & Co., Inc., appeal from Multnomah county; action to enforce payment of alleged arbitration award. Opinion by Justice Rand; Judge George W. Stapleton affirmed.

City of Athena, appellant, vs. Marion Jack, administrator of estate of T. J. Kirk, deceased, et al; appeal from Umatilla county; suit to enforce lien. Opinion by Justice Rand; Judge Gilbert W. Phelps affirmed.

State of Oregon vs. Julius Bailey, appellant; appeal from Multnomah county; appeal from conviction of crime of non-support and six months imprisonment. Opinion by Justice Brown; Judge George Tarwell affirmed.

W. P. Phy, appellant, vs. Winifred W. Phy, appeal from Union county; appeal from order denying motion to modify divorce decree. Opinion by Justice Brown; Judge J. W. Knowles reversed.

Paul Frank, appellant, vs. John Mathieson, appeal from Multnomah county; appeal from order vacating judgment based on jury verdict and granting new trial. Opinion by Justice Coshaw; Judge George Rossman reversed.

John Hayes vs. John H. Cummings, appellant; appeal from Deschutes county; suit to recover money. Opinion by Justice Burnett; Judge T. E. J. Duffy affirmed.

George W. Holcomb, appellant, vs. Midway Oil company, et al; appeal from Multnomah county; suit to require recording of certificates of stock. Opinion by the court; Judge Gilbert W. Phelps affirmed.

Oxman & Harrington vs. Baker county, appellant, appeal from Union county; motion to dismiss appeal granted in opinion by Justice Burnett.

UNITS OF ARTILLERY READY FOR PRACTICE

PREPARATIONS COMPLETE TO FIRE FIRST SHOTS

Salem Detachment Now At Fort; Local Officers and Men Are Kept Busy

FORT BARRY, Calif., June 14.—(Special)—All preparations are now practically complete for the firing of the initial shots of the annual two weeks of target practice in which the Oregon men will engage. The lines of communication about the post are now open to the batteries to be used and to the observation stations. The guns and other post equipment are in very good shape this year as a number of the regular army men are stationed at the post.

Two batteries will be used by the Oregon men this year, Mendel which is composed of two 12" rifles of the disappearing type, and Gutherie which is composed of two stationary 6" pieces. It is not definitely decided which batteries will use the large guns although Ashland and Albany both made very good records with them two years ago.

But three Salem men and one Salem officer are at the post at the present time although the two Salem detachments are now on the road and will be in camp before the target practice is started. Captain Irwin, of Salem, is in direct charge of most of the preparations now being made. Sergeant Mulcher, Salem, is at present handling the supplies under Lieutenant Washum. Sergeant Star, Salem is in charge of a number of motor trucks and is handling most of the post transportation relative to the Oregon detachment, and Sergeant Crawford is working under Lieutenant Danford, of Ashland, in charge of the telephone and radio installations now being made.

IMPERSONATOR CHARGED

YAKIMA, June 8.—As he stepped from the county jail today after serving six months on a charge of impersonating an officer, M. M. Hoyt was arrested by deputy United States marshal on a similar charge, alleged to be based on activities of Hoyt in Stanfield and in Arlington, Oregon.

He is said to have served time in the Oregon state prison.

MURDER CASE IS ON

VICTORIA, B. C., June 16.—With thirteen crown witnesses, called to the stand in the first afternoon, the trial of Owen Baker and Harry Sowash, charged with the murder of Captain W. J. Gillis and his son William in a midnight hijack raid on the rum runner Geryl G. September 15, got under way today.

SKELETONS UNCOVERED RELICS OF PREHISTORIC AGE FOUND IN HOQUIAM

HOQUIAM, June 16.—Surpassing the discovery of the Dinosaur skull and its identification by University of Washington scientists recently, J. H. Geoghegan, Hoquiam man, brought to light yesterday fossils and massive forms of saurians on an expedition of the hills adjacent to Sagnaw Logging company's camp No. 12.

Several forms visible on the sides of a grade for the logging company's railroad were easily identified by Geoghegan. Each measured close to 100 feet in length and were slightly flattened at the center by the pressure of the earth. Parts of the creature's limbs and all of the ribs were visible, and samples identified as teeth and a rib were brought to town by Geoghegan last night. The animal was lying on its side, according to the explorer, and the ends of the ribs stuck out of the hillsides, some of them falling on the roadbed from the dredging work.

The composition resembled sandstone, retaining perfect shape, and were very heavy. Scientists from several sections are expected here in less than one week to make investigations of the country.

Geoghegan will travel to Lake Quinalt some time this week to identify another mastodon formation, reported as being there by campers and residents.

Previous discoveries made by Geoghegan near Hoquiam consisted of well preserved bone, while the new fossil is petrified, showing different types of the saurian family to be in preserved condition in this section.

MAY CALL OFF STRIKE

SHANGHAI, June 17.—(By Associated Press.)—The representatives of the foreign legations sent from Peking and the Chinese officials who have been carrying on negotiations with a view to a settlement of the strike situation here have reached a basis for discussion, an authoritative statement announced. There are prospects of an early adjustment of the difficulty and the calling off of the strike.

LIQUOR CASE CONTINUED

TACOMA, June 16.—A sealed verdict in the case of the government against Clinton Finney of Olympia, charged with the possession and sale of liquor, was returned by a jury in the United States district court this evening. The verdict, reached after three hours deliberation by the jury, will not be announced.

High School Production Offered by Professional

To the interests of those who are planning to attend the chautauqua, it might be announced that on the fourth night, July 12, there will be the production of Gilbert & Sullivan's comic opera, "The Mikado," which scored such a success at the high school when produced by amateurs. Those people who attended the superb performance at the high school will be able to go and gain a professional perception and interpretation of this, the greatest of all Sullivan operas.

The part of Ko Ko, lord high executioner, which was taken by Gerald Mero for the amateurs, will be interpreted by A. W. Cannon in the chautauqua performance, and Miss Grace Bernhardt will take the part of Yum Yum, the beautiful Japanese maiden.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

The Cleveland Indians once more seem to be in sore need of something or other—from a new manager to a flock of pitchers, a good infielder and an outfielder who can field and hit.

The other day, in a vain effort to find a winning combination, Manager Speaker shifted Joey Sewell from shortstop to second base. Sewell is the dapper chap with the foghorn voice who saved the pennant for the Indians in 1920 by stepping into the shoes of Ray Chapman and playing phenomenal ball from August to the end of the campaign.

Sewell went into the lineup with practically no pro experience. He had shown his baseball brain, however, at the University of Alabama. He lacked fielding finesse, but Speaker labored to teach him that. He is now one of the greatest shortstops in the game.

Speaker moved him to second and put Spurgeon, young infielder, in short. Both Chick Fewster and Klugman had proved weak at the keystone sack.

Another sad blow to the Indians has been the failure of the popular and willing outfielder, Jamieson, to hit his stride at bat. Jamie, one of the best ball bawks in the game today, has been a vital spark in the attacking machine of the Indians for the last five campaigns. Up to this spring he had been a real contender for league batting honors. He is unable himself to account for his failure to find his batting eye.

And, the worst of it is, Manager Speaker and Owner Barnard fail to see anybody right now who can help them out of the dilemma. They sent Riggs Stephenson, demon slugger to the minors firm in the belief that he was of no real value to the team despite his slugging. He couldn't carry the fielding end of an infield or outfield job.

Harvey Hendrick couldn't earn his salt as a pinch hitter, so he was given the air. Two or three pitchers, counted on in the spring to deliver the goods, have been farmed out under option in the thought that they need another year of minor league work.

The Indians still have a batting power which once aroused and backed by some fairly consistent pitching might put them into the pennant race for a time. But right now they seem to have shot their bolt.

TUNNEY KNOCK OUT TOMMY GIBBONS

Tunney knock out Tommy Gibbons—the man who stayed 15 rounds with Dempsey.

Hinkel had little to say of Gibbons, but was enthusiastic about the young conqueror of the veteran heavy.

"Give Tunney another year and he will be ready for Jack Dempsey. And when they meet Tunney will beat Dempsey."

That was Hinkel's opinion of Gene.

Hinkel was one of the men who early saw in Jess Willard the youth and endurance that would defeat the crafty, dissipated Jack Johnson. He has "had the dope" on many other coming fighters, and has given many of them a lift on their road to fame in his fight shows.

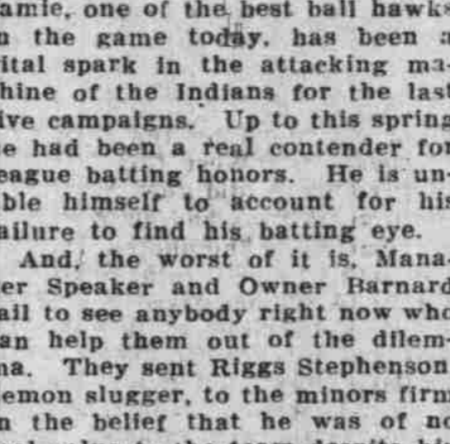

"Tunney is a good boxer. He is a cool, heady fighter. And he does not know the meaning of dogging it. That is what hurts many a good fighter—his willingness to crawl into a shell when the going gets rough.

"Gene hits hard and with a knowledge of how to hit. None of his blows are wide, swinging
