testify. Date of plea was set for June 19.

Edward King, investigator for the district attorney centered his activities on "a certain young girl" who de declared he had evidence administered the gas to Mrs. Young. King also announced his interest in the deaths of two women, said to have been formerly associated with Dr. Young. One death he sald was in connection with an illegal operation in Penn-3rd annual session of Oregon sylvania, prior to Young's first Yearly Meeting of Friends ad- marriage in 1905. The other occurred in a Los Angeles hotel prior to the dentist's marriage to the olive king's widow two years ago, he said. The investigators also searched for $100,000 worth of bonds, which he said he obtained from ering. The meeting was adjourn- John Leonard, father of his fored to the regular meeting house mer wife in Pennsylvania. The officers proceeded on the belief that the bonds belonged formerly to Mrs. Young.

A search for her jewels occupied the attention of a squad of oificers. The deposit box, in the name of the dentist, was to be opened tonight by the district attorney as the first move in the search. One of the witnesses to appear before the grand jury and consid-

French Voters' Protests

Voiced by Strike Method PARIS, Voter's strikes as a means of protest were resorted to on two occasions recently in France. The inhabitants of the commune of Pujols-Sur-Ciron felt aggrieved because the courts refused to confirm the right claimed by the commune to call its wine "sauterne." When an election was held to select a mayor and a municipal council in place of those who had resigned, the people remained away from the polls. The people of the commune of Meudon, near Paris, adopted similar tactics to protest against the

ting into power. MURDER CHARGE DISMISSED
