WE HAVE BEEN TRYING TO SELL what we consider the best 15-acre bargain in Marion county and because we believe in it so much we persist in trying through advertising to get in touch with some one who can and will appreciate it. Its out about 5 miles and only one mile from the new pavement and on a good gravel road. The buildings are big and old—cost a lot of money and are still serviceable—2 acres of strawberries and 1 acre of logan berries—there is a beautiful view, 10 acres of as good soil as there is in the valley and 2 neverfailing brooks that make the place a delight, great shade trees and a splotch of wood—the price is only $2650 with $700 down and $500 down might buy it; Then again we have 5 acres nicely improved for $1500 that ought to sell.
