VICK BROS.

say it is a nice, pleasant kind of a warm spell, and they do not mind it. They just think of home, and keep cool. They are having good training, that will amount to a beneficial vacation for most of the boys. The Salem company has a bunch that is just a shade finer than any other outfit down there; and the boys as a whole are a great crowd, worthy of their state.

Boys' Attention!—Boys bringing 10 full page Gold Seal Congoleum ads of any date will be given the privilege of fishing at Willow lake. The boy bringing most will have the privilege all summer. Contest closes June 22nd. Phone 29F4. j19

School Ground Broken—Construction of the new St. Vincent de Paul parochial parish school began Thursday with the breaking of ground at Myrtle and Columbia. Work will be rushed in order to have the building ready for the fall term which begins in September. The cornerstone will be laid July 19. The building will be of Mission style, 110 by 60 feet and fireproof. The work is personally planned and supervised by Father T. V. Keenan. A formal program will mark the dedication.

Enamelled Ware—$1.25 values, 98c, Saturday only. Ray L. Farmer Hdw Co. j19

Canneries Kept Busy—The local canneries are beginning to realize the fact that the fruit season is in full swing. In fact the strawberry pack is nearly over and the loganberry run has well begun. Loganberries have been received at the canneries for the last week. Cherries, because of the scarcity of the crop as well as the fact that they will be barreled and shipped fresh extensively this year, have not been received to any great extent at the canning plants.

Strawberries Wanted—Small berries acceptable. Ward K. Richardson. Phone 2184. j19

Joins State Office—E. A. Collier, formerly of Albany, is now connected with the state highway department here, specializing in research work to determine the exact amount of damage done to the paved highways by truck traffic. He will assist the state market engineer, Mrs. Collier is with her husband.

Supervisor on Trip—Miss Carlotta Crowley, general supervisor of the Salem elementary school, accompanied by her mother and Miss Betty Hileman, principal of the Cook school at McMinnville, left for Berkeley, Cal. Thursday morning. The trip is being made by automobile.

Kiwians Coming—A large delegation from the McMinnville club will be in Salem Tuesday to attend the luncheon of the Salem Kiwanis club at the Marion hotel. The visitors will have charge of the entire program.

See Our South Show Window—For 98c and 58c bargains, Saturday only. Ray L. Farmer Hdw. Co. j19

Fire Department Called—The fire department was called to Sixteenth and Center early last night to extinguish a roof blaze. Shingles ripped from the roof in order to get at the source of the blaze constituted the greatest damage to the property.

Camp Jackson Warm—Members of Salem's own Company F who are down at Camp Jackson, a short walk of about three miles from the downtown district of Medford, on the annual encampment of the state's troops, are writing to their home folks that it is warm in that particular spot of southern Oregon. EX-MINNESOTANS PICNIC

I. L. McADAMS NAMED PRESIDENT OF ASSOCIATION

Former Minnesota people gathered together at the Fair Grounds for their annual get-together and picnic luncheon Thursday afternoon. A large crowd was present, re-newing old acquaintances and recalling the Minnesota that they left, some many years ago.

The speakers of the afternoon included I. L. McAdams, who was elected president of the association for the coming year; Mr. Elwell who was elected vice president, and Mrs. W. J. Linfoot who will be the new secretary.

The principle topic of discussion other than Minnesota itself was the reunion that is planned to be held next winter.

FIRST-AID TALK STARTS
FIRST SESSION FOR POLICE, FIREMEN TONIGHT

The opening meeting of the course in first aid for policemen and firemen of the city, will be held in the council chamber of the city hall tonight at 8 o'clock. Dr. Lee Wood will address the class on the subject of "First Aid and Shock."

This will be the first of a series of ten lessons, two of which will be given each week, with an examination at the end of the course. It is a form of Red Cross work, and will cover all branches of first aid, such as resuscitation, gas poisoning, auto accidents, fire, drowning, and other more common phases.

Other speakers who will address the meetings in the future are Dr. J. O. Mathis, and Dr. William B. Mott, city health officer.

The movement has the endorsement of the mayor, the police chief, the fire chief, and the city council.

Ad Club Organized
Ten local advertising men met at the Gray Belle Thursday noon and perfected the Salem Ad club. Officers elected were E. A. Brown, president; W. H. Paulus, vice-president and G. E. McAfee, secretary-treasurer. The board of directors consists of the three officers and S. E. Keith and J. J. King. Thursday noon was selected as the time of meetings. A constitution and by-laws are being drawn and will be acted upon at the next meeting. The purpose of the organization is to bring advertising to a high standard of useful information and to better advertising in general. The organization will follow the general movement throughout the country where Ad clubs are already in existence and where they have proven to be helpful in their service to the community.

Berry Men Will Meet
A general meeting of loganberry growers of the Red Hill district will be held at the Liberty hall Saturday night to form plans for an organization to secure the aid of Willamette valley dealers and consumers and to discuss methods of advertising and marketing as well as the problem of pickers. There are nearly 200 growers in the district. A small group met this week; feeling the need of an organization where growers could discuss problems without cooperative marketing. After the organization in the Red Hill section it is hoped to extend the same form of organization in other districts in the valley.
