INFORMATION has been received that Archie McGill and Dr. Angeline McCulloch were married at the Second Presbyterian church on Michigan avenue and Twentieth streets, Chicago, at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, June 10, 1925, by the Rev. A. S. C. Clark. The bride was attended by Miss Flora Case, formerly a Salem librarian. Mr. McGill is a nurseryman engaged in business at Toppenish, Wash. Miss McCulloch has been associated with the firm of Morris Optical company of this city. Mr. and Mrs. McGill are now traveling in the eastern states and Canada. They expect to be in Salem about the middle of July on their way to Yakima, Wash., their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley and children were guests in Portland for the Rose festival yesterday.

On Tuesday and Wednesday Miss Conifed Hard, 1215 Marion street, who has recently returned from her school work in Seattle, entertained a party of teachers from the Sound cities. Among the guests were Miss Edith Shquist and Miss Ruth Hallin of Tacoma and Miss Randall and Miss Mansard of Seattle, who are motoring to Berkeley and Stanford for special work in the summer schools.

The children of the First Presbyterian church primary department will enjoy their annual picnic on Saturday afternoon in Marion square. They will meet first at the church to practice for the Children's day program, and then will adjourn to the park for games and refreshments. Each child is asked to bring half a dozen cookies, while the ice cream will be furnished. The cradle roll tots, as well as the older children from 3 to 9 years, are invited for the picnic. Mrs. L. R. Chambers being at the head of the cradle roll department, and Mrs. John W. Har-bison primary department superintendent. Mothers of the children will also be welcome.

Delightful among the June recitals was that of Wednesday evening at the First Presbyterian church at which Miss Margaret Fisher presented a large group of her pupils before a full house. The stage was a garden of gladioli, roses and ocean spray. Mrs. T. E. McCroskey, reader, and Miss Gladys McIntyre, assisted in the success of the evening.

The following program of numbers was appreciatively received by parents and friends:

- Playing With Kitty, Renard Betty Utter. My Old Dog Jack, Gardner Charles Roblin. Barn Dance, Anthony Julia Johnson. Dance of the Wood Sprites, Forman Esther Miller. Enchanted Woods, Becker Letha Madison. Rippling Waters, Anthony Robert Utter. Pixies Good Night Song, Brown Kathleen Lindbeck. Dragon Flies, Becker Beatrice Evans. Reading, Selected Mrs. McCroskey. Fireflies on Parade, Bennett Karline Rice. Skating, Krogman Josephine Evans. The Fountain, Bohm Mary Hickman. Polka Caprice, McClymont Blair Foley. The Silver Nymph, Heins Madelyn McKillop. The Merry Trumpeter, Morrison Madeline Molt. Marjorie Moir Sounds of Springtime, Wenzel Audrey Ashby. Mazurka Impromptu, Lack Norman Wright. Dawn Light and Bird Song, Speaks You Will Forget, Stickle Gladys McIntyre.

Mr. and Mrs. Harwood Hall are anticipating an interesting six weeks' vacation in southern California for a little later in the summer. While the Halls had really planned on leaving last Saturday, it was found it will now be necessary for them to wait until July 7, following the official visit at the Chemawa Indian school of the secretary of the interior.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall, who will make this interesting trip by motor, will be in Los Angeles and Hollywood, as well as at Riverside. Their former home, for a period of 25 years, was in southern California. While gone they will have the pleasure of visiting with their daughter, Miss Lylah Hall. For their return trip they plan to make stops at points that bear connection with work at the Indian school.

Mrs. C. F. Brethaupt is enjoying a vacation at Newport.

The U. D. Bridge club closed the season with an unusually delightful luncheon on Tuesday with Mrs. E. Eckerlin, Sr., Mrs. T. M. Barr and Mrs. E. Eckerlin, Jr., the hostesses. After the luncheon at the Godfrey home the group assembled at the home of Mrs. E. Eckerlin, Sr., for bridge. Mrs. G. E. Schuneman won the guest prize, while the club prize was awarded Mrs. Harry Weis. Ocean spray, foxgloves and roses were lovely with the luncheon appointments, in a floral way. At the Eckerlin home delphinium, roses, California poppies and marigolds gave a charming color note.

In the group were Mrs. G. E. Schuneman, Mrs. James Heenan, Mrs. Frank Jaskoski, Mrs. M. J. Petzel, Mrs. Herbert Stitt, Mrs. Ray Hartman, Mrs. B. Forbes, Mrs. John Rand, Mrs. T. D. McClaine, Mrs. A. A. Mickel, Mrs. E. A. Skelley, Mrs. Fred Brock, Mrs. A. E. Hucklestein and Miss Eleanor Hucklestein, and the following club members: Mrs. J. C. Nadon, Mrs. C. J. Healy, Mrs. John B. Nathan, Mrs. S. Breitenstein, Mrs. Henry Hiltzen, Mrs. C. D. Thomas, Mrs. E. A. Prull, Mrs. F. G. Brock and the hostesses.

Prof. and Mrs. W. E. Kirk were guests in Portland Wednesday, attending "Romeo and Juliet" with Jane Cowl, at the Hellig.

A charming hostess for members of the Writers' club at their second June meeting was Mrs. C. A. Kells, who entertained Tuesday. The early part of the evening was spent in the fragrant garden with its profusion of blossoms and shrubs. Later the guests adjourned to the house for a program that devoted itself mainly to prose, with Mrs. W. F. Fargo, in the absence of Miss Grace Elisabeth Smith, presiding.

Albert Rol, after an absence in California, met on Tuesday with the club and read a short story, "A Detour of Destiny." Mrs. Blanche M. Jones pleased with her sketches, "Father," and "If We Would Be Helped." The Resurrection of Quigg" was titular for the story, published in the People's Home Journal, which Perry Reigelman read.

Clara Virginia Barton read two poems, "Song" and "The Winds of Happiness." Mrs. Viola Price Franklin read interesting items from the Portland Journal "book" page, while the hostess, Mrs. C. A. Kells, won a ready audience with her published poem, appearing in the American Friend, "War—When Will It End?"

Charles J. Lisle read a story, "Dad," written in his more characteristic vein. Miss Edna Garfield contributed a group of timely sketches, after which Mrs. C. J. Lisle read two recently written

Sailstad and "Sunshine Girl" Bury Past and Begin Life Anew

Have E. J. Sailstad and Dorothy Anderson found happiness at last? The "sunshine girl" who shared his two-year western flight while insurance companies fought over payments of his "death claims" to his wife, back in Eau Claire, Wis., is now Sailstad's wife, and they have begun life anew, free at last from imprisonment. Mrs. Sailstad No. 1 is silent. She married Ross T. Richardson, after her husband was officially declared "dead."

poems, "A Mother's Work" and "Two Boys." Mrs. Elizabeth Sherwood completed the interesting program with her story, "The Way of a Dog With a Man." At a late hour Miss Lillian Applegate, a special guest, and Miss Edna Garfield assisted the hostess with the refreshments. Mrs. Molly Brunk will entertain for the club at its first meeting in July.

The residence studio of Bertha Junk Darby at 679 North Cottage street, was the scene of a pleasing student musicale on Wednesday evening when a talented group of young people appeared with the following numbers: Cavalry Ride, F. von Suppe. Lillian Lynam and Lillian Scott. Duet: Early Morning, Bilbro Dorothy Kent and Mrs. Darby. A Day Dream, Bilbro Margaret Kent and Mrs. Darby. Buttercups, Mayor Dream of a Rosebud, Bodds Mary Hackett. Duet: A Shady Dell, Bilbro Dorothy and Margaret Kent. Pixies in the Menagerie, Brown Suzi Fukuda. Dance of the Honey Bees, Richmond Edith Clement. Duet: Robins Return, Fisher Jessie and Suzi Fukuda. Shepherd's Idyl, Hoins The Music Box, Poldin Jeannette Scott. Scherzino, Op. 54, No. 1, Handrock Jessie Fukuda. E. A. E. shurdoupuu Air De Ballet, Lemont Elizabeth Clement. Butterfly, Markel Eula Harrington. Duet: A Perfect Day, Bond Edith and Elizabeth Clement. The Roarery, Charminade Lillian Scott. To Spring, Grieg In the Hall of the Mountain King, Grieg Lillian Lynam. Marie Fire Scene, Wagner Playska Irma Keefe. Miss Eunice Truax, bride-elect.

whose marriage to Wilbur Sedore of Falls City will be an event of June 28, was the inspiration for a miscellaneous shower on Tuesday when the members of the Loyal Fifty class of the Court Street Christian church entertained in her honor. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with pink roses, ocean spray, and mock orange blossoms. Various games were enjoyed, with light refreshments following. The bride-elect was made the recipient of many lovely gifts, a table being completely laden with the host of presents. Immediately preceding the presentation Mrs. R. L. Putnam sang "Love's Old Sweet Song."

Mrs. U. G. Shipley was a Portland visitor early in the week.

Salem friends of Everett Craven will be interested to know that he sings this week in the Rosarian chorus in Portland during the rose festival. Mr. Craven is a W. U. graduate in the class of '22 and since his graduation has held the position as membership secretary in the Portland Y. M. C. A.

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Palmer and Edwin Thomas which took place at the First Methodist church Tuesday morning, June 16, was a brilliant affair in every detail. These popular young people are graduates of Medford high school, also students of Willamette university. They will be at home after July 1st at Salem, Ore., where Mr. Thomas is employed in the advertising department of The Statesman-Medford Mail-Tribune.

Three bride-elects of the coming few weeks were honored at the delightful luncheon of yesterday noon at which Mrs. F. A. Baker was the hostess. The honor guests included Miss Joy Turner, whose wedding to William E. Moses will be an event of June 28; Miss Eunice Truax, who has chosen the same wedding day, and Miss Ethel Wykoff, whose marriage to Mr. Gronke will be on July 5. Additional guests were those who will be among the attendants at the three weddings—Mrs. Ivan Martin, Mrs. Claire Vibbert, Miss Marcella Caspell and Miss Gladys Kelley. A decorative motif in yellow was used on the luncheon table. Yellow butterflies, with names of the brides-elect and the fiancé of each inscribed on the wings, were used as place cards. Yellow bonbon baskets were used, while the napkins were tied with yellow ribbon. A rose basket of cathedral lilies centered the luncheon table.

Chapter G of the PEO Sisterhood met for the closing meeting of the year yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. M. Hughes on Hansen avenue. The rooms throughout were lovely with a profusion of sweet william and syringa. The guests particularly enjoyed viewing the attractive gardens at the Hughes and the Selee homes, which adjoin Mrs. Harold Hughes was a special guest for the day, and at the tea hour assisted the hostess in serving. Mrs. E. J. Huffman presided at the urn.

Rev. G. L. Lovell was the officiating clergyman at the ceremony performed yesterday morning at 11 o'clock which united in marriage Essie Savare and Fred Perrin at 257 South Winter street. The bride wore a beaded gown of satin crepe in the sandalwood shade. The house was attractively decorated with marguerites, roses and ocean spray. Mr. and Mrs. Perrin left for a wedding trip to the coast. Next fall they will return to Salem to make their home. Mrs. Perrin was in the dressmaking business with Mrs. Georgina McClain. Mrs. McClain will continue the establishment.

One of a number of pleasing pre-nuptial affairs honoring Miss Joy Turner was the miscellaneous shower at which Mrs. Herbert Hale and Mrs. Ralph Howard were hostesses at the Entre Nous club house. A second entertaining evening was afforded when the club entertained for William E. Moses, the fiancé. Guests for the evenings were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smart, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hummel, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. George Wenderoth, Miss Joy Turner, Miss Dorothy Smart, Miss Annabelle Lawrence, Charles Muston, George Johnson and William Moses, with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Amsherry, Miss Evelyn Hale and Aubrey Crawford as special guests.

Registration at Willamette starts Saturday. Registration for the first of two summer terms at Willamette university will begin Saturday with the term opening Monday. This term ends August 1 and will be immediately followed by the second, which ends September 21. Approximately 150 students are expected on the campus this summer in comparison with 130 last year. Inquiries have been received from a great many students who are regularly enrolled at the university of Oregon and Reed college. A majority of these are interested in organic chemistry. There will be 12 on the faculty this summer, with Prof. Frank M. Erickson in charge of the two sessions. Credits for a maximum of six semester hours each term will be possible.

PAPER SUED FOR LIBEL. OLMPIA, June 18—A libel suit for $5,000 was filed this afternoon in Thurston county court by C. H. Hansen, Olympia, chief of police, against C. E. Parks, owner of the Tenino Independent, a weekly newspaper published in Tenino. The complaint alleges that the defendant published in his newspaper on May 15 a statement charging Chief Hansen with having broken into the plant of the publisher in the middle of the night without a warrant and with damaging the plant, which allegations are denied by the plaintiff. The defendant has filed a demurrer, asking for a bill of particulars, on which arguments will be heard here at 10 a. m. June 22. Filed as an exhibit in the case is a copy of the Tenino Independent setting forth that Chief Hansen, in company with two others, one an employee of the paper, entered the publishing plant after midnight, Saturday, May 9, and took away "copy" for a poster printed by C. E. Parks in connection with a recall election in Olympia.
