

The new Straws are on display and we have, without a doubt, the greatest hat values we have ever presented.

Prices $2.00 to $5.00

For the sake of your pocketbook and your appearance come in and pick out one today.

G. W. Johnson & Co. 469 State St.

BEN SEZ

He has a 1925 Two Door Ford Sedan with all manner of equipment including Ruxtel axle. This Ford cost with present equipment a boat $900. Our price $685, including new car guarantee.

VICK BROS.

who is in charge of the field work of the OAC student memorial union building, is in Salem closing the campaign for funds in Marion county.

Headquarters for Camping Outfits. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. 123

One Hundred Register. Registration at Willamette summer session approached the 100 mark and indications point to a greater registration the last year.

500 Pounds of Ice. Free with each refrigerator purchased at H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. 125

Marriage Performed. Charles Woodruff, Reedsport farmer, and Florence Forrest, of Silverton, were married yesterday by J. T. Hunt, Marion county judge.

Church to Picnic. Thursday afternoon the members of church school of St. Paul's Episcopal church and their parents will hold their annual picnic at the fair grounds.

Yesterdays by the Use of. Medicine, Dr. Stone removed a large cancer from the forehead of Mrs. W. H. Doyel, Waldport, Oregon. 123

Attend Lions Convention. Frank E. Neer, district governor of the Lions club, and Lloyd T. Reynolds, Salem's representative, will leave Wednesday for the national Lions convention to be held at Cedar Point, Ohio.

Births Are Reported. May Ellen is the name given to a six-pound daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barker, corner of Parkdale and Mary Jane Bostick, of Parkdale; Frank Emerson Needham, 740 South Commercial, and Doris Jane England, 1590 Hines street; Claude G. Skeels, of Silverton, and Bessie L. Hendrix, of Alsea.

American Legion Auxiliary. Dance Tuesday evening, new West Salem pavilion. Admission, $1 couple. 123

Three Licenses Issued. Three marriage licenses were issued by the county clerk Saturday. Three of the six people are Salem residents.

You Are Cordially Invited. To attend a series of cooking lectures and demonstration of electric cookery, to be conducted by Miss Grace Bogue, home economics instructor of Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company, June 23 to 26, inclusive, from 2 to 4 o'clock p. m. Portland Electric Power Company, 237 No. Liberty, phone 85. 126

Pupils Make Map. A map of the United States, embroidered on linen, with twelve colors of thread, and denoting all the products of each state in the Union, is now on display in the office of Mary L. Fulkerson, Marion county school superintendent. The map was made by Thelma Dillard and Rose Anna Nairz, sixth grade pupils of the Oak Glen school, district 81.

Summer House Cleaning Sale. John J. Rottle, State and Liberty. 123

Plans Are Approved. Plans for a new two-room school to be built in the Sunnyside district were approved by Mary L. Fulkerson, Marion county school superintendent. Bids for constructing the building will be let immediately. Mrs. Fulkerson also approved of the building of a play shed in the Bridge Creek district. 123

Furniture Packing a Specialty. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. 123

Birth Is Reported. Mr. and Mrs. Charles William Barker, 705 South Nineteenth, report the birth of a six-pound daughter, Miss Barker has been named Evelyn May.

500 Pounds of Ice. Free with each refrigerator purchased at H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. 125

Get Vancouver License. A marriage license has been issued in Vancouver, Wash., to Laurence Orth, 29, Portland, and Maxine Abst, 21, Salem.

Auction Specials. Universal all blue enamel wood and gas range, like new; electric range with water heater and switch-board; William and Mary walnut table and six blue leather seated diners; 2 Axminster rugs, all leather rockers, 6 good beds, set, book case, Hoosier cabinets, dishes, refrigerator and furnishings of four Salem homes, and many articles of interest to the buying public. Sale at opening of F. N. Woodry's new auction market on Thursday, 10 a. m. Free lunch at noon. Free dance at night. Located on N. Summer and Norway. Everybody welcome. Music by Orloles 5-piece orchestra. 123

Neer To Take Office. Frank E. Neer, successful candidate at the school election to succeed Curtis Cross, will take oath of office and become a full-fledged member of the school board tonight. Mr. Neer leaves for the east the following morning and will not be able to attend another meeting of the board for about a month.

Lealie to Build. Everett Lealie of 1755 South Cottage has obtained a permit for a one-story dwelling to cost $2200. Carl Swanson, a local contractor, will have charge of construction.

Opens New Auction Market. F. N. Woodry, the auctioneer, opens his new auction market, opposite his residence, on N. Summer and Norway Sts., this Thursday, June 25, 10 a. m. Free lunch at noon. Free dance and entertainment at night. Everybody cordially invited. 123

Adding Building Fund. William E. North, Portland,

Piano Recital. Advanced pupils of Frank E. Churchill tonight at First Christian Church. Public Cordially Invited. 123

Officer On Vacation. Officer Louis Olsen, of the Salem police department, started his annual vacation Monday and with his wife, leaves today for a motor trip north. Mr. and Mrs. Olsen will spend a few days visiting in Seattle and then will proceed north as far as Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., before returning to the city.

American Legion Auxiliary. Dance Tuesday evening, new West Salem pavilion. 123

Will Plead Today. Bill Brown, negro, arrested on a charge of possessing liquor mash, will be heard in justice court this morning at 10 o'clock. He is now out on $100 bond. Brown was arrested by Roy Bremmer and Bert Smith, deputy sheriffs.

500 Pounds of Ice. Free with each refrigerator purchased at H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. 125

Marriage Performed. Charles Woodruff, Reedsport farmer, and Florence Forrest, of Silverton, were married yesterday by J. T. Hunt, Marion county judge.

Auction, Entertainment and. Free dance; opening of new auction market, corner N. Summer and Norway streets, by F. N. Woodry, on Thursday, June 25. Music by Orloles 5-piece orchestra and other attractions. You are invited. 123

Graduate Finds Place. Miss Violet Ely, who was graduated from Salem high school this spring, is now employed in the office of W. F. Krueger, realtor.

Silverton Man Sues. The City of Silverton is made defendant in an action brought by Otto Palleneger, a resident of that city, in papers filed with the county clerk, asking a restraining order, preventing Silverton from paving Cherry street until a sewer Travelers Are Arrested. Because two men and two women tallied to a description of four persons wanted for embezzlement in Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Williams, Harry Van Gilder and Miss Mary Bligh are being held without bail. The party was arrested by State Traffic Officer Reinhart and were traveling in an Oakland coupe.

Reduced Prices Prevail at. John J. Rottle shoe store. 120

Lighting School Attended. One of the first schools for instruction in the new state lighting law, which goes into effect September 1, was held last night with a large number of automobile dealers and others interested in the law and its enforcement present. Several Dallas men came to Salem for the school.

500 Pounds of Ice. Free with each refrigerator purchased at H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. 125

Get Vancouver License. A marriage license has been issued in Vancouver, Wash., to Laurence Orth, 29, Portland, and Maxine Abst, 21, Salem.

Auction Specials. Universal all blue enamel wood and gas range, like new; electric range with water heater and switch-board; William and Mary walnut table and six blue leather seated diners; 2 Axminster rugs, all leather rockers, 6 good beds, set, book case, Hoosier cabinets, dishes, refrigerator and furnishings of four Salem homes, and many articles of interest to the buying public. Sale at opening of F. N. Woodry's new auction market on Thursday, 10 a. m. Free lunch at noon. Free dance at night. Located on N. Summer and Norway. Everybody welcome. Music by Orloles 5-piece orchestra. 123

Neer To Take Office. Frank E. Neer, successful candidate at the school election to succeed Curtis Cross, will take oath of office and become a full-fledged member of the school board tonight. Mr. Neer leaves for the east the following morning and will not be able to attend another meeting of the board for about a month.

Lealie to Build. Everett Lealie of 1755 South Cottage has obtained a permit for a one-story dwelling to cost $2200. Carl Swanson, a local contractor, will have charge of construction.

Opens New Auction Market. F. N. Woodry, the auctioneer, opens his new auction market, opposite his residence, on N. Summer and Norway Sts., this Thursday, June 25, 10 a. m. Free lunch at noon. Free dance and entertainment at night. Everybody cordially invited. 123 has been laid and connections made in that street. According to the complaint, petitions have been filed asking for sewers in that district, but they have not been acted on. It would be impossible to put them in after the street has been surfaced, says.

Adding Building Fund. William E. North, Portland,

Two Receive Licenses. Two marriage licenses were issued by the county clerk yesterday. They were taken out by John Krupicks, of Aurora, and Mary Slaby, of Mount Angel, and Charles Woodruff, of Reedsport.

Woman Is Injured. F. Palm of Salem reported an auto collision Sunday with a car driven by Mrs. Leon Jack of Portland. Mrs. Jack was slightly injured but will be able to return to her home in Portland today.

Picnic at Spongs. St. Paul's church young people will hold their annual picnic at Spongs' landing tonight. They will assemble at the rectory between 5:30 and 6 o'clock.

Small But Speedy. An auto weighing 560 pounds, with a 60-inch wheel base and standing but two feet high, stopped in Salem yesterday on its way from New York to San Francisco. Gus Petzel, the owner, claims it is the smallest car in the world, yet it can travel 80 miles an hour.

Church to Picnic. Thursday afternoon the members of church school of St. Paul's Episcopal church and their parents will hold their annual picnic at the fair grounds. The picnic will start at 2:30 o'clock and anyone wishing transportation should call Rev. H. D. Chambers.

City Collects Cash. Fifty-one dollars was contributed to the city yesterday through Judge M. Poulsen's court. Speeders were the chief offenders, and in most cases no appearance was made to claim deposited bail. Marshall Newport of Portland and Fred Baker of Eugene each forfeited $10 for speeding; H. J. Arthur, Portland, Ben Williams, Salem, and Truman, Salem, paid $5 on similar charges. Delbert Iverson of Silverton was fined $10 for disorderly conduct. Ralph

Geobly left a dollar for riding his bicycle without a light. Q. M. Shuett, Salem, forfeited $5 for driving his car with a concealed license plate.

Plan House Warming. People interested in furnishing the community house at the Salem auto camp are urged to attend a meeting at the public library at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when a final effort will be made to place the house in condition for the tourist season, which has already commenced.

Hot Five-Day Trip. Dr. Henry E. Chase and Mrs. Chase were in Salem Saturday, at the Argo hotel, and may remain over part or all of today. They drove up by auto from Los Angeles, and they found a lot of hot weather in the Sacramento valley and in southern Oregon. Dr. Chase was formerly a practicing dentist in Salem. He is a dentist in Los Angeles now. He will look after his 15-acre walnut and cherry orchard in the Hillcrest tract near Amity and will visit their daughter, Mrs. F. W. Catlett in Seattle, and there will be a family reunion in Seattle, for their other daughter, Mrs. W. E. Shaw, Brockton, Mass., has just gone to Seattle, after visiting with them in Los Angeles. Mr. Shaw is a shoe manufacturer, a director of the Walkover Shoe company. He owns Shaw Acres, with 130 acres planted to walnuts, filberts and prunes, a mile east of the cottage (asylum) farm. Mrs. Shaw has never seen this orchard, and she expects to come to Salem and look at the property before her return home. Mr. Shaw has seen the property twice.

Legion Holds Meeting. A small group of members attended the special meeting last night of Capitol Post No. 9, American Legion. The session was short and was confined chiefly to instructions to delegates to the state convention at Prineville. A suggestion that an effort be made to bring the state convention to

Marshall Newport of Portland and Fred Baker of Eugene each forfeited $10 for speeding; H. J. Arthur, Portland, Ben Williams, Salem, and Truman, Salem, paid $5 on similar charges. Delbert Iverson of Silverton was fined $10 for disorderly conduct. Ralph

Geobly left a dollar for riding his bicycle without a light. Q. M. Shuett, Salem, forfeited $5 for driving his car with a concealed license plate.

Plan House Warming. People interested in furnishing the community house at the Salem auto camp are urged to attend a meeting at the public library at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when a final effort will be made to place the house in condition for the tourist season, which has already commenced.

Hot Five-Day Trip. Dr. Henry E. Chase and Mrs. Chase were in Salem Saturday, at the Argo hotel, and may remain over part or all of today. They drove up by auto from Los Angeles, and they found a lot of hot weather in the Sacramento valley and in southern Oregon. Dr. Chase was formerly a practicing dentist in Salem. He is a dentist in Los Angeles now. He will look after his 15-acre walnut and cherry orchard in the Hillcrest tract near Amity and will visit their daughter, Mrs. F. W. Catlett in Seattle, and there will be a family reunion in Seattle, for their other daughter, Mrs. W. E. Shaw, Brockton, Mass., has just gone to Seattle, after visiting with them in Los Angeles. Mr. Shaw is a shoe manufacturer, a director of the Walkover Shoe company. He owns Shaw Acres, with 130 acres planted to walnuts, filberts and prunes, a mile east of the cottage (asylum) farm. Mrs. Shaw has never seen this orchard, and she expects to come to Salem and look at the property before her return home. Mr. Shaw has seen the property twice.

Legion Holds Meeting. A small group of members attended the special meeting last night of Capitol Post No. 9, American Legion. The session was short and was confined chiefly to instructions to delegates to the state convention at Prineville. A suggestion that an effort be made to bring the state convention to

Marshall Newport of Portland and Fred Baker of Eugene each forfeited $10 for speeding; H. J. Arthur, Portland, Ben Williams, Salem, and Truman, Salem, paid $5 on similar charges. Delbert Iverson of Silverton was fined $10 for disorderly conduct. Ralph

Geobly left a dollar for riding his bicycle without a light. Q. M. Shuett, Salem, forfeited $5 for driving his car with a concealed license plate.

Plan House Warming. People interested in furnishing the community house at the Salem auto camp are urged to attend a meeting at the public library at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when a final effort will be made to place the house in condition for the tourist season, which has already commenced.

Hot Five-Day Trip. Dr. Henry E. Chase and Mrs. Chase were in Salem Saturday, at the Argo hotel, and may remain over part or all of today. They drove up by auto from Los Angeles, and they found a lot of hot weather in the Sacramento valley and in southern Oregon. Dr. Chase was formerly a practicing dentist in Salem. He is a dentist in Los Angeles now. He will look after his 15-acre walnut and cherry orchard in the Hillcrest tract near Amity and will visit their daughter, Mrs. F. W. Catlett in Seattle, and there will be a family reunion in Seattle, for their other daughter, Mrs. W. E. Shaw, Brockton, Mass., has just gone to Seattle, after visiting with them in Los Angeles. Mr. Shaw is a shoe manufacturer, a director of the Walkover Shoe company. He owns Shaw Acres, with 130 acres planted to walnuts, filberts and prunes, a mile east of the cottage (asylum) farm. Mrs. Shaw has never seen this orchard, and she expects to come to Salem and look at the property before her return home. Mr. Shaw has seen the property twice.

Legion Holds Meeting. A small group of members attended the special meeting last night of Capitol Post No. 9, American Legion. The session was short and was confined chiefly to instructions to delegates to the state convention at Prineville. A suggestion that an effort be made to bring the state convention to

Marshall Newport of Portland and Fred Baker of Eugene each forfeited $10 for speeding; H. J. Arthur, Portland, Ben Williams, Salem, and Truman, Salem, paid $5 on similar charges. Delbert Iverson of Silverton was fined $10 for disorderly conduct. Ralph

Geobly left a dollar for riding his bicycle without a light. Q. M. Shuett, Salem, forfeited $5 for driving his car with a concealed license plate.

Plan House Warming. People interested in furnishing the community house at the Salem auto camp are urged to attend a meeting at the public library at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when a final effort will be made to place the house in condition for the tourist season, which has already commenced.

Hot Five-Day Trip. Dr. Henry E. Chase and Mrs. Chase were in Salem Saturday, at the Argo hotel, and may remain over part or all of today. They drove up by auto from Los Angeles, and they found a lot of hot weather in the Sacramento valley and in southern Oregon. Dr. Chase was formerly a practicing dentist in Salem. He is a dentist in Los Angeles now. He will look after his 15-acre walnut and cherry orchard in the Hillcrest tract near Amity and will visit their daughter, Mrs. F. W. Catlett in Seattle, and there will be a family reunion in Seattle, for their other daughter, Mrs. W. E. Shaw, Brockton, Mass., has just gone to Seattle, after visiting with them in Los Angeles. Mr. Shaw is a shoe manufacturer, a director of the Walkover Shoe company. He owns Shaw Acres, with 130 acres planted to walnuts, filberts and prunes, a mile east of the cottage (asylum) farm. Mrs. Shaw has never seen this orchard, and she expects to come to Salem and look at the property before her return home. Mr. Shaw has seen the property twice.

Legion Holds Meeting. A small group of members attended the special meeting last night of Capitol Post No. 9, American Legion. The session was short and was confined chiefly to instructions to delegates to the state convention at Prineville. A suggestion that an effort be made to bring the state convention to

Marshall Newport of Portland and Fred Baker of Eugene each forfeited $10 for speeding; H. J. Arthur, Portland, Ben Williams, Salem, and Truman, Salem, paid $5 on similar charges. Delbert Iverson of Silverton was fined $10 for disorderly conduct. Ralph

Geobly left a dollar for riding his bicycle without a light. Q. M. Shuett, Salem, forfeited $5 for driving his car with a concealed license plate.

Plan House Warming. People interested in furnishing the community house at the Salem auto camp are urged to attend a meeting at the public library at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when a final effort will be made to place the house in condition for the tourist season, which has already commenced.

Hot Five-Day Trip. Dr. Henry E. Chase and Mrs. Chase were in Salem Saturday, at the Argo hotel, and may remain over part or all of today. They drove up by auto from Los Angeles, and they found a lot of hot weather in the Sacramento valley and in southern Oregon. Dr. Chase was formerly a practicing dentist in Salem. He is a dentist in Los Angeles now. He will look after his 15-acre walnut and cherry orchard in the Hillcrest tract near Amity and will visit their daughter, Mrs. F. W. Catlett in Seattle, and there will be a family reunion in Seattle, for their other daughter, Mrs. W. E. Shaw, Brockton, Mass., has just gone to Seattle, after visiting with them in Los Angeles. Mr. Shaw is a shoe manufacturer, a director of the Walkover Shoe company. He owns Shaw Acres, with 130 acres planted to walnuts, filberts and prunes, a mile east of the cottage (asylum) farm. Mrs. Shaw has never seen this orchard, and she expects to come to Salem and look at the property before her return home. Mr. Shaw has seen the property twice.

Legion Holds Meeting. A small group of members attended the special meeting last night of Capitol Post No. 9, American Legion. The session was short and was confined chiefly to instructions to delegates to the state convention at Prineville. A suggestion that an effort be made to bring the state convention to

Marshall Newport of Portland and Fred Baker of Eugene each forfeited $10 for speeding; H. J. Arthur, Portland, Ben Williams, Salem, and Truman, Salem, paid $5 on similar charges. Delbert Iverson of Silverton was fined $10 for disorderly conduct. Ralph

Geobly left a dollar for riding his bicycle without a light. Q. M. Shuett, Salem, forfeited $5 for driving his car with a concealed license plate.

Plan House Warming. People interested in furnishing the community house at the Salem auto camp are urged to attend a meeting at the public library at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when a final effort will be made to place the house in condition for the tourist season, which has already commenced.

Hot Five-Day Trip. Dr. Henry E. Chase and Mrs. Chase were in Salem Saturday, at the Argo hotel, and may remain over part or all of today. They drove up by auto from Los Angeles, and they found a lot of hot weather in the Sacramento valley and in southern Oregon. Dr. Chase was formerly a practicing dentist in Salem. He is a dentist in Los Angeles now. He will look after his 15-acre walnut and cherry orchard in the Hillcrest tract near Amity and will visit their daughter, Mrs. F. W. Catlett in Seattle, and there will be a family reunion in Seattle, for their other daughter, Mrs. W. E. Shaw, Brockton, Mass., has just gone to Seattle, after visiting with them in Los Angeles. Mr. Shaw is a shoe manufacturer, a director of the Walkover Shoe company. He owns Shaw Acres, with 130 acres planted to walnuts, filberts and prunes, a mile east of the cottage (asylum) farm. Mrs. Shaw has never seen this orchard, and she expects to come to Salem and look at the property before her return home. Mr. Shaw has seen the property twice.

Legion Holds Meeting. A small group of members attended the special meeting last night of Capitol Post No. 9, American Legion. The session was short and was confined chiefly to instructions to delegates to the state convention at Prineville. A suggestion that an effort be made to bring the state convention to

Marshall Newport of Portland and Fred Baker of Eugene each forfeited $10 for speeding; H. J. Arthur, Portland, Ben Williams, Salem, and Truman, Salem, paid $5 on similar charges. Delbert Iverson of Silverton was fined $10 for disorderly conduct. Ralph

Geobly left a dollar for riding his bicycle without a light. Q. M. Shuett, Salem, forfeited $5 for driving his car with a concealed license plate.

Plan House Warming. People interested in furnishing the community house at the Salem auto camp are urged to attend a meeting at the public library at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when a final effort will be made to place the house in condition for the tourist season, which has already commenced.

Hot Five-Day Trip. Dr. Henry E. Chase and Mrs. Chase were in Salem Saturday, at the Argo hotel, and may remain over part or all of today. They drove up by auto from Los Angeles, and they found a lot of hot weather in the Sacramento valley and in southern Oregon. Dr. Chase was formerly a practicing dentist in Salem. He is a dentist in Los Angeles now. He will look after his 15-acre walnut and cherry orchard in the Hillcrest tract near Amity and will visit their daughter, Mrs. F. W. Catlett in Seattle, and there will be a family reunion in Seattle, for their other daughter, Mrs. W. E. Shaw, Brockton, Mass., has just gone to Seattle, after visiting with them in Los Angeles. Mr. Shaw is a shoe manufacturer, a director of the Walkover Shoe company. He owns Shaw Acres, with 130 acres planted to walnuts, filberts and prunes, a mile east of the cottage (asylum) farm. Mrs. Shaw has never seen this orchard, and she expects to come to Salem and look at the property before her return home. Mr. Shaw has seen the property twice.

Legion Holds Meeting. A small group of members attended the special meeting last night of Capitol Post No. 9, American Legion. The session was short and was confined chiefly to instructions to delegates to the state convention at Prineville. A suggestion that an effort be made to bring the state convention to

Marshall Newport of Portland and Fred Baker of Eugene each forfeited $10 for speeding; H. J. Arthur, Portland, Ben Williams, Salem, and Truman, Salem, paid $5 on similar charges. Delbert Iverson of Silverton was fined $10 for disorderly conduct. Ralph

Geobly left a dollar for riding his bicycle without a light. Q. M. Shuett, Salem, forfeited $5 for driving his car with a concealed license plate.

Plan House Warming. People interested in furnishing the community house at the Salem auto camp are urged to attend a meeting at the public library at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when a final effort will be made to place the house in condition for the tourist season, which has already commenced.

Hot Five-Day Trip. Dr. Henry E. Chase and Mrs. Chase were in Salem Saturday, at the Argo hotel, and may remain over part or all of today. They drove up by auto from Los Angeles, and they found a lot of hot weather in the Sacramento valley and in southern Oregon. Dr. Chase was formerly a practicing dentist in Salem. He is a dentist in Los Angeles now. He will look after his 15-acre walnut and cherry orchard in the Hillcrest tract near Amity and will visit their daughter, Mrs. F. W. Catlett in Seattle, and there will be a family reunion in Seattle, for their other daughter, Mrs. W. E. Shaw, Brockton, Mass., has just gone to Seattle, after visiting with them in Los Angeles. Mr. Shaw is a shoe manufacturer, a director of the Walkover Shoe company. He owns Shaw Acres, with 130 acres planted to walnuts, filberts and prunes, a mile east of the cottage (asylum) farm. Mrs. Shaw has never seen this orchard, and she expects to come to Salem and look at the property before her return home. Mr. Shaw has seen the property twice.

Legion Holds Meeting. A small group of members attended the special meeting last night of Capitol Post No. 9, American Legion. The session was short and was confined chiefly to instructions to delegates to the state convention at Prineville. A suggestion that an effort be made to bring the state convention to

Marshall Newport of Portland and Fred Baker of Eugene each forfeited $10 for speeding; H. J. Arthur, Portland, Ben Williams, Salem, and Truman, Salem, paid $5 on similar charges. Delbert Iverson of Silverton was fined $10 for disorderly conduct. Ralph

Geobly left a dollar for riding his bicycle without a light. Q. M. Shuett, Salem, forfeited $5 for driving his car with a concealed license plate.

Plan House Warming. People interested in furnishing the community house at the Salem auto camp are urged to attend a meeting at the public library at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when a final effort will be made to place the house in condition for the tourist season, which has already commenced.

Hot Five-Day Trip. Dr. Henry E. Chase and Mrs. Chase were in Salem Saturday, at the Argo hotel, and may remain over part or all of today. They drove up by auto from Los Angeles, and they found a lot of hot weather in the Sacramento valley and in southern Oregon. Dr. Chase was formerly a practicing dentist in Salem. He is a dentist in Los Angeles now. He will look after his 15-acre walnut and cherry orchard in the Hillcrest tract near Amity and will visit their daughter, Mrs. F. W. Catlett in Seattle, and there will be a family reunion in Seattle, for their other daughter, Mrs. W. E. Shaw, Brockton, Mass., has just gone to Seattle, after visiting with them in Los Angeles. Mr. Shaw is a shoe manufacturer, a director of the Walkover Shoe company. He owns Shaw Acres, with 130 acres planted to walnuts, filberts and prunes, a mile east of the cottage (asylum) farm. Mrs. Shaw has never seen this orchard, and she expects to come to Salem and look at the property before her return home. Mr. Shaw has seen the property twice.

has been laid and connections made in that street. According to the complaint, petitions have been filed asking for sewers in that district, but they have not been acted on. It would be impossible to put them in after the street has been surfaced, says.

Two Receive Licenses. Two marriage licenses were issued by the county clerk yesterday. They were taken out by John Krupicks, of Aurora, and Mary Slaby, of Mount Angel, and Charles Woodruff, of Reedsport.

Woman Is Injured. F. Palm of Salem reported an auto collision Sunday with a car driven by Mrs. Leon Jack of Portland. Mrs. Jack was slightly injured but will be able to return to her home in Portland today.

Picnic at Spongs. St. Paul's church young people will hold their annual picnic at Spongs' landing tonight. They will assemble at the rectory between 5:30 and 6 o'clock.

Small But Speedy. An auto weighing 560 pounds, with a 60-inch wheel base and standing but two feet high, stopped in Salem yesterday on its way from New York to San Francisco. Gus Petzel, the owner, claims it is the smallest car in the world, yet it can travel 80 miles an hour.

Church to Picnic. Thursday afternoon the members of church school of St. Paul's Episcopal church and their parents will hold their annual picnic at the fair grounds. The picnic will start at 2:30 o'clock and anyone wishing transportation should call Rev. H. D. Chambers.

City Collects Cash. Fifty-one dollars was contributed to the city yesterday through Judge M. Poulsen's court. Speeders were the chief offenders, and in most cases no appearance was made to claim deposited bail. Marshall Newport of Portland and Fred Baker of Eugene each forfeited $10 for speeding; H. J. Arthur, Portland, Ben Williams, Salem, and Truman, Salem, paid $5 on similar charges. Delbert Iverson of Silverton was fined $10 for disorderly conduct. Ralph

Geobly left a dollar for riding his bicycle without a light. Q. M. Shuett, Salem, forfeited $5 for driving his car with a concealed license plate.

Plan House Warming. People interested in furnishing the community house at the Salem auto camp are urged to attend a meeting at the public library at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when a final effort will be made to place the house in condition for the tourist season, which has already commenced.

Hot Five-Day Trip. Dr. Henry E. Chase and Mrs. Chase were in Salem Saturday, at the Argo hotel, and may remain over part or all of today. They drove up by auto from Los Angeles, and they found a lot of hot weather in the Sacramento valley and in southern Oregon. Dr. Chase was formerly a practicing dentist in Salem. He is a dentist in Los Angeles now. He will look after his 15-acre walnut and cherry orchard in the Hillcrest tract near Amity and will visit their daughter, Mrs. F. W. Catlett in Seattle, and there will be a family reunion in Seattle, for their other daughter, Mrs. W. E. Shaw, Brockton, Mass., has just gone to Seattle, after visiting with them in Los Angeles. Mr. Shaw is a shoe manufacturer, a director of the Walkover Shoe company. He owns Shaw Acres, with 130 acres planted to walnuts, filberts and prunes, a mile east of the cottage (asylum) farm. Mrs. Shaw has never seen this orchard, and she expects to come to Salem and look at the property before her return home. Mr. Shaw has seen the property twice.

Legion Holds Meeting. A small group of members attended the special meeting last night of Capitol Post No. 9, American Legion. The session was short and was confined chiefly to instructions to delegates to the state convention at Prineville. A suggestion that an effort be made to bring the state convention to

Marshall Newport of Portland and Fred Baker of Eugene each forfeited $10 for speeding; H. J. Arthur, Portland, Ben Williams, Salem, and Truman, Salem, paid $5 on similar charges. Delbert Iverson of Silverton was fined $10 for disorderly conduct. Ralph

Geobly left a dollar for riding his bicycle without a light. Q. M. Shuett, Salem, forfeited $5 for driving his car with a concealed license plate.

Plan House Warming. People interested in furnishing the community house at the Salem auto camp are urged to attend a meeting at the public library at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when a final effort will be made to place the house in condition for the tourist season, which has already commenced.

Hot Five-Day Trip. Dr. Henry E. Chase and Mrs. Chase were in Salem Saturday, at the Argo hotel, and may remain over part or all of today. They drove up by auto from Los Angeles, and they found a lot of hot weather in the Sacramento valley and in southern Oregon. Dr. Chase was formerly a practicing dentist in Salem. He is a dentist in Los Angeles now. He will look after his 15-acre walnut and cherry orchard in the Hillcrest tract near Amity and will visit their daughter, Mrs. F. W. Catlett in Seattle, and there will be a family reunion in Seattle, for their other daughter, Mrs. W. E. Shaw, Brockton, Mass., has just gone to Seattle, after visiting with them in Los Angeles. Mr. Shaw is a shoe manufacturer, a director of the Walkover Shoe company. He owns Shaw Acres, with 130 acres planted to walnuts, filberts and prunes, a mile east of the cottage (asylum) farm. Mrs. Shaw has never seen this orchard, and she expects to come to Salem and look at the property before her return home. Mr. Shaw has seen the property twice.

Legion Holds Meeting. A small group of members attended the special meeting last night of Capitol Post No. 9, American Legion. The session was short and was confined chiefly to instructions to delegates to the state convention at Prineville. A suggestion that an effort be made to bring the state convention to

Marshall Newport of Portland and Fred Baker of Eugene each forfeited $10 for speeding; H. J. Arthur, Portland, Ben Williams, Salem, and Truman, Salem, paid $5 on similar charges. Delbert Iverson of Silverton was fined $10 for disorderly conduct. Ralph

Geobly left a dollar for riding his bicycle without a light. Q. M. Shuett, Salem, forfeited $5 for driving his car with a concealed license plate.

Plan House Warming. People interested in furnishing the community house at the Salem auto camp are urged to attend a meeting at the public library at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when a final effort will be made to place the house in condition for the tourist season, which has already commenced.