Interesting news received in Salem is that telling of the marriage of Miss Helen Bernetta, the only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Mercer, to Mr. Dwight Vernon West of San Francisco. The service was quietly solemnized at the First Congregational church in San Francisco on Saturday, June 6, at 11 o'clock in the morning, with Dr. D. V. Gordon officiating. The young couple will be at home at 1020 Bush street in San Francisco, where Mr. West, a graduate of Sargent's normal in Massachusetts, is engaged in radio work. Mrs. West is a graduate of Oregon Agricultural college, having also attended Willamette university one year.

Dr. and Mrs. Mercer, accompanied by their daughter, motored to California early in the month, the doctor and his wife returning home Saturday, after a three-weeks' stay. Dr. and Mrs. Mercer had the pleasure of meeting both Ivan Schoemaker and Dr. Henry E. Clay, both former Salem residents, during their vacation period

Mr. and Mrs. Al Krause celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary on Sunday with an enjoyable reunion. Many flowers and gifts were received in token of the day. In addition to the Portland guests, many Salem friends called and extended their greetings throughout the afternoon. Those coming down from Portland for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. John Deller and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Krause, Mr. and Mrs. L. Krause, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Werthheimer and Dr. I. Deller.

* *

Mrs. H. N. Newman of Rainier was the house guest over the week end of Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford. Mrs. Blatchford has gone to Scappoose for a time.

* *

Mrs. Ralph H. Kletzing entertained on Saturday evening with a delightfully appointed birthday dinner honoring her husband. An elaborate birthday cake centered the table where covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Francis Neer, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Anunsen, and Mr. and Mrs. Newell Williams. Rook was chosen as the diversion for the after-dinner hours.

All the young people in the Christian Endeavor of Marion county have been invited to attend a gypsy party at the home of Miss Margaret Orr, two miles south of Woodburn, on Thursday, June 25, at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Each is asked to bring a basket lunch which will be served at 2:30 o'clock. Miss Orr's home may be reached by following the Pacific highway to the service station, and then turning and following the red arrows. Those who cannot come in the afternoon are invited to come for the evening.

Miss Jessie Starr was a guest over the week-end of her sister, Mrs. C. S. Beecroft, in Portland, going down for the last days of the Rose festival.

* *

Mr. and Mrs. George Codding and son, George Jr., and Mrs. Everett McArthur, as well as Miss Helen Ramsden, are among a number of Salem folk who are guests in Medford this week. Mr. and Mrs. Codding are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Corlies, while Miss Ramsden is with a school friend, Miss Jean Vilm.

* *

Mrs. Harry Rowe and daughter Kathryn, and Mrs. Grace Thompson and daughter, Faye Louise, spent the week-end in Portland as guests of Mrs. Ella Jones. The Salem folk were in attendance at the Rose festival.

* *

Mrs. R. A. Kletzing of Portland is spending a few days as a house guest at the country home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Kletzing.

Many Salem friends of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Thomas (Dorothy Palmer) will be interested in the following account of their marriage which appeared in the Sunday edition of the Medford Sun:

At the First Methodist Episcopal church, Tuesday morning, June 16, at 11 o'clock, Miss Dorothy Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Palmer, became the bride of Mr. Edwin E. Thomas, son of Mrs. J. I. Thomas. A large number of friends were present.

The bride was a creation of loveliness in white pin-tucked net, lace trimmed over white satin with the long court veil and orange blossoms. The bride carried a beautiful shower bouquet of rosebuds and lilies of the valley. Miss Laura Best, a graduate of Willamette university, as maid of honor, was beautifully gowned in pale green pink tucked net, trimmed in lace and satin roses of pastel shades, and carried a lovely pink bouquet. Misses Esther and Eleanor Palmer, sisters of the bride, and the Helen and Elizabeth Thomas, sisters of the groom, as bridesmaids, were daintily gowned in pastel shades of organdy in orchid yellow, pink and coral, with hats to match, each carrying a French basket of sweet peas and snapdragons.

Master Richard Burton Isaac, a nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Mr. Lucien Cobb of Roseburg was groomsman. Mr. Cobb is a Willamette university student and Sigma Tau fraternity brother of the groom.

The church was exquisitely decorated with Dorothy Perkins roses, blue delphinium and ferns, with several canary birds placed artistically to lend their notes of praise.

Mrs. C. E. Carpenter, at the organ, played softly the prelude, "Calm As the Night." Following, Miss Eunice Parrott sang "O Promise Me," accompanied by Mrs. Carpenter. The wedding march from Lohengrin was used for the processional. Through its stately strains the bridal party marched to the altar, where Dr. J. D. Lewellen of Grandview, Wash., a brother of Mrs. J. I. Thomas, officiated, using the ring ceremony. Throughout the service, "I Love You Truly" was softly played and Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played for the recessional.

The four young men ushers who so ably assisted at this event were Messrs. Frank Van Dyke, Elton Waldron, Reginald Parrott and Cecil Evans.

Following the ceremony a four-course breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents on Oakdale avenue to 40 guests. The color scheme of pink and yellow was cleverly carried out in decorations, favors and menu. The flower girls served the tables. Many beautiful gifts were received. Through showers of rice and confetti the bride and bridegroom were driven away.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Thomas are graduates of Willamette university. Many good wishes go with these popular young people to their home at 1825 Fir street, Salem, Or., where Mr. Thomas is connected with the advertizing department of the Statesman Publishing company.

THE SECOND annual floral show will open to the public this afternoon at the Armory under the auspices of the Salem Floral society of which Mrs. W. E. Anderson is the president, and continue open until 10:30 o'clock this evening.

All entries must be in place by 1 o'clock this afternoon, with Mrs. H. T. Love, secretary, in charge of the entries. Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Miss Edith Hazard, Miss Oda Chapman and Mrs. W. E. Anderson will supervise the placing of exhibits. E. Gillingham, Homer Smith and Earl Pearcy will be in charge of the judging.

A particularly interesting feature will be Dr. J. H. Fairchild's talk on lilies, at 4 o'clock this afternoon. At 7:30 o'clock this evening the children's floral parade will take place. Children eligible to participate are those between the ages of four to six inclusive. Each child who enters must carry a basket of flowers as he passes before the judges in competition for one of numerous attractive prizes—candy, balloons, balls, books — which have been offered through courtesy of Salem merchants. Any additional details may be secured from Mrs. Max O. Buren or Mrs. F. G. Myers. Orchestra music will add to the further pleasure of the evening as will a one-act play to be given by Helen Barrett and Benita Edwards. The play is entitled "Making the City Beautiful."

Misses Ruth Eichelberger, Thelma Shepherd and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rogers motored from Portland to visit Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Laflar Sunday. Miss Eichelberger and Miss Shepherd are visiting for several days and Mr. and Mrs. Rogers return to Portland. Miss Eichelberger is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Laflar and is quite an accomplished pianist, studying under Malen Burnett. Miss Shepherd is a voice student under Howard Pratt. Both girls are from Walla Walla, visiting friends and relatives in Portland.

The last meeting of the Eastern Star social club will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Masonic temple. The members will bring sewing. This will be a "no hostess" meeting.

England Lacks Its Quota Of Marriageable Males

COWES, England—Many thousands of English girls wish to marry, but because of the shortage of men have not been able to fulfill their desire, declared Dr. A. T. Schofield, a well known London nerve specialist, lecturing in Cowes recently on the question of marriage. "There is no other place in the world where such a state of things exist," he said.

Continuing Dr. Schofield asserted: "It is unfortunate to find in a family in London, for instance, five or six girls, every one of whom would make a splendid wife and mother, unable to marry for the want of legitimate opportunity."
