WEDDING SAID ILLEGAL

GUARDIAN OF MINOR SEEKS TO ANNUL CONTRACT

Declaring that the marriage of Volvie Grier and Ruby Morris, who were wedded in Vancouver, Wash., in 1921, is illegal, Maude Morris, guardian of the girl, has filed papers asking that their marriage be declared null and void. She declares that she did not give her consent to the union. The girl was but 14 years of age when the marriage took place.

According to the complaint, Maude Morris was named guardian of Ruby Morris on August 4, 1921. On June 14, 1921, Grier and the girl are said to have gone to Vancouver, where the marriage took place.

Maude Morris declares that the girl did not understand the nature of the ceremony, and was abducted and "taken to Washington for purposes of committing a fraud upon the laws of the state of Oregon."

Ruby Morris is said not to have intended to become the wife of Grier, and they are said never to have lived together as man and wife.

Leake's Orchestral Entertainers

Versatile Musical Entertainment Company to Appear Here.

The big American Marimbaphones, which have become exceedingly popular with the musical public, are featured by Leake's Orchestral Entertainers appearing on the program of Salem Chautauqua on Friday, July 10. Other instruments used by this extraordinary organization of musical entertainers include piano, violin, saxophone, cornet, xylophone, and drums of every variety, all augmented by vocal numbers, and the inimitable whistling and polyphonal numbers of H. J. Leake, leader.

The Leake Orchestral Entertainers appeared daily to an audience of 12,000 to 18,000 tourists at St. Petersburg, Fla., during their recent engagement there, Mr. Leake being song director of the Rotary Club and other members appearing with various hotel orchestras during the same season. Mr. Leake has also been on the Keith vaudeville circuit and with the A. I. G. Field's Minstrels, being featured as a xylophone artist and eccentric drummer. Artistry is not sacrificed for novelty in the program of this organization, but pep and stirring action predominate throughout, balanced by a happy combination of personality and musicianship. Four star entertainers make up the personnel of the orchestra, including both Woodward-Leake, whose singing is a distinctly favorite feature of each program.

Season tickets for Salem Chautauqua are on sale at Patton's, Hartman's Jewelry Store, Will's Music House, Commercial Book Store, Bishop's Clothing House, Shafer Harness Store, Buster Brown Shoe Store, Opera House Pharmacy, Miller's Store.

PEOPLE AND EVENTS SILVERTON

LILLIE L. MADSEN, Stateman Correspondent

SILVERTON, Ore., June 22.—(Special to the Statesman).—The wrestling matches scheduled to take place at the Hippodrome last night drew a good size crowd. The main event was between "Kid" Banks and Bruce Wheeler. The first fall went to Wheeler while Banks took the second. Neither getting the advantage again the match ended in a draw. The second bout was between Ray Able and Harvey Wells. Able won a quick victory taking the first fall in six minutes and the second in nine minutes. The third match was won by "Micky" Cobba from "Stub" Wheeler. Cobba taking the first fall at the end of thirty minutes.

Silvertion radio listeners were given an opportunity to hear a former resident of Silvertion Friday evening during the program given by Sherman, Clay & Co., from station KGW. Helen Wolcott Beals, pianist, whose home was Silvertion until her marriage to Russell E. Beals, of Portland, played several numbers. She not only played the accompaniments for soloists but she and her husband also gave a two piano number, this number being the first movement of the Greig A-minor concerto. Mrs. Beals is a daughter of R. L. Wolcott of Silvertion.

The recent change in the train schedule for Silvertion has made necessary a number of changes in the mail service also. No difference is made with regard to evening mail to Salem, that being sent over by stage as usual. Parcels, however, too large to be put in mail pouch, must now go by way of Albany on the morning train which leaves at 10:20 as the afternoon train north at 2:05 has been discontinued. A number of other changes were also made since connection at Woodburn is now made by stage in the afternoon.

Crops in the vicinity of Silvertion took particularly well at the present time. Due to the sunshine of the past week having been gotten well under way and grain has grown rapidly. One farmer reports finding winter oats which measured six feet and four inches in a field in which the grain is in general much taller than is usual. Wheat is not only very tall but the heads are well filled, giving promise of an especially good yield if weather conditions continue favorable. Heads have been found which contained over ninety kernels of grain but it is too early to know if all will mature.

A number of Silvertion people motored to Eugene Saturday to visit over the week end with relatives and friends. Among those making the trip were: Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Moe, Ludwig Moe, Mrs. Hans Jensen, Norman and Marvin Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. J. Moe, Harlan and Robert Moe, Mrs. B. Furrus and Lorene Furrus. The party planned to stop at the Eugene auto park Saturday night.

Sunday at one o'clock, at the home of her parents, Miss Blanche Esther Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Larson, became the bride of Alvin Legard, son of Mrs. A. B. Legard. Rev. George Henriksen officiating, before a group of relatives and intimate friends.

An altar of vine maple and Indian arrowwood, banked with lilies, sweet peas, canterbury bells, mock orange blossoms and foxgloves, was improvised in the living room, where the ring ceremony was performed.

The bride entered alone while Miss Ethel Larson, a cousin of the bride, played Mendelssohn's Wedding March from "Midsummer Night's Dream." Miss Larson also played "O, Promise Me" during the ceremony. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Gilbert Benton sang "I Love You Truly" and following she sang "At Dawning." She was accompanied by Mrs. Gertrude Cameron.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle over which a full length tulle veil edged with point lace fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and pearls. Her shower bouquet was of bride's roses, sweet peas and Cecil Brunner roses.

She was attended by Miss Lillie Madsen and Miss Myrna Sather. Both of the attendants were gowned alike, wearing gold lace gowns over a pink satin slip. Their headresses were bands of gold caught with pink rose buds. They carried shower bouquets of pink roses and sweet peas. The little flower girl was Lucile Benson, who wore pink and scattered pink rose petals before the bride. The groom was attended by Harold Larson and John Larson, brothers of the bride.

Tents can be rented at a nominal sum on the ground. A boarding tent will provide for the people's hunger at a reasonable rate. The very best of well water on the ground. A pleasant grove where people can keep cool and enjoy a real feast of good things provided.

A hearty welcome to all who will come. Sunday, June 28, will be a big day. Sunday school at 9:45 o'clock, followed by preaching. In the afternoon will be held the district Sunday school convention and preaching, while in the evening Christian Endeavor and the closing sermon will be delivered.

SALEM IS LABORATORY FOR HEALTH MOVEMENT

NEW YORK CITY DEMONSTRATION DIRECTOR HERE

Success in County Determines Work in World Declares Courtney Dinwiddie

That Salem and Marion county is the laboratory for the greatest child health movements in the world is the opinion of Courtney Dinwiddie, director of health demonstrations of New York City.

"The success of our campaign in Marion county is a deciding factor in the world campaign and at present time you are leading the other stations throughout the United States by a substantial margin," said Mr. Dinwiddie in his talk at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Monday.

Accompanying Mr. Dinwiddie were Dr. E. E. Fisher, president of the Yamhill-Polk-Marion County medical association, Dr. Walter H. Brown, director of the Marion County Child Health association and his staff of 12 assistants, who will carry out the work in the county.

Dr. Brown commented chiefly on the support already given his staff by the local people. "As a general rule, but 50 percent of the people asked to assist us in our work do," said Brown, but Marion county has responded wonderfully, 95 percent of the people asked are doing their utmost to make the demonstration a success."

The personnel of Dr. Brown's staff includes Estella F. Waser, director of Medical Service, Portland; Elnora E. Thomas, director of nurses, Illinois; Evelyn E. McKay, statistician, Elensburg, Wash.; Anne Simpson, director of health education, Salem.

The research unit consists of Lucy Gunderandson, M. D., pediatrician, Mich.; Alma Lupo, field worker, South Carolina, and Catherine Williamson, clinic assistant, Athens, Ga. The clerical staff includes Edna Lee Beatonette, Cora Plank, Mile Miller and Agnes Smith, all of Salem.

QUINABY SESSION OPENS

EVANGELICAL CAMP MEETING STARTS WEDNESDAY

The Evangelical camp meeting will open at Quinaby park, at Quinaby station on the Oregon Electric line, north of Salem, Wednesday night of this week. The first service will be at 8 p. m. with Rev. G. L. Lovell in charge.

A number of ministers will be present besides the men located in this immediate vicinity. Dr. A. A. Winter, superintendent of the Evangelical old people's home of Lewisburg, Pa., will be present and preach. Dr. Winter served the Cottage Street church a number of years and is no stranger to Salem. He is a strong preacher.

Rev. F. P. Culver, C. P. Gates, H. H. Farnham, of Portland, will be present as well as other outside ministers of the Salem district.

Tents can be rented at a nominal sum on the ground. A boarding tent will provide for the people's hunger at a reasonable rate. The very best of well water on the ground. A pleasant grove where people can keep cool and enjoy a real feast of good things provided.

A hearty welcome to all who will come. Sunday, June 28, will be a big day. Sunday school at 9:45 o'clock, followed by preaching. In the afternoon will be held the district Sunday school convention and preaching, while in the evening Christian Endeavor and the closing sermon will be delivered.

SETTLE SCHOOL AFFAIR

CHARGES OF ILLEGAL VOTES TO BE HEARD TODAY

Charging that several votes in the election to disband the union high school at Gervais are illegal, the matter has been referred to the Marion county court for settlement. A boundary meeting will be held this morning at 10 o'clock in the county courtroom, and a canvass of votes taken. In the election the move to disband the school carried by only one vote.

For several months a fight has been in progress relative to the Union high school. Two factions formed, and the contest has been bitter. It is understood that which ever side loses in the fight, the matter will be contested.

The union district comprises six other districts, Mannins, St. Louis, Elderidge, Fairfield, Parkersville, and Gervais. The illegal votes are declared to have been cast in the St. Louis section.

The reason for disbanding the school is given as high taxes. Several districts are planning new schools, and feel they cannot afford to pay for a union school, and at the same time assume the new burden.

In order to discontinue a union school, it is necessary for all the districts to cast votes favorable to the proposition.

RESORT ROAD IS ROUGH

LOGGING TRUCKS DAMAGE SILVER CREEK ROUTE

Both routes to Silver Creek Falls are in the poorest condition that they have been for years, according to several Salem people who spent part of the week-end at the famous resort. The shortest route, via Macleay is said to be the best of the two, though both are extremely rough.

Earlier in the season the roads were in fine condition but logging trucks have wrecked havoc with the roads. The rains of last month softened the roads and the heavy loads were too much for them. Work is expected to be done in the near future and the roads placed in good condition once more.

MANY WIDOWS REMARRY

200 LISTED; AGES RANGE FROM 15 TO 73 YEARS

More than one-third of the 200 women widowed by the 581 fatal industrial accidents under the workmen's compensation law between July 1, 1924 and April 30, 1925, have remarried, according to a survey completed by the state industrial accident commission. The percentage was 34.42.

At the time of the death of their husbands, the ages ranged from 15 to 73 years, 35.46 percent being under 30 while 63.8 percent were under 40 years.

Of the widows under 20 years, 87.5 percent remarried, 56.34 percent of all those under 30 years and 48.65 percent of all those under 40 years.

The oldest widow to remarry was 58 at the death of her husband and 63 at the date of her remarriage. The youngest widow was 15 when her husband died and 17 when she remarried. During this period 14 widows have died.

REPORT AUTO ACCIDENTS

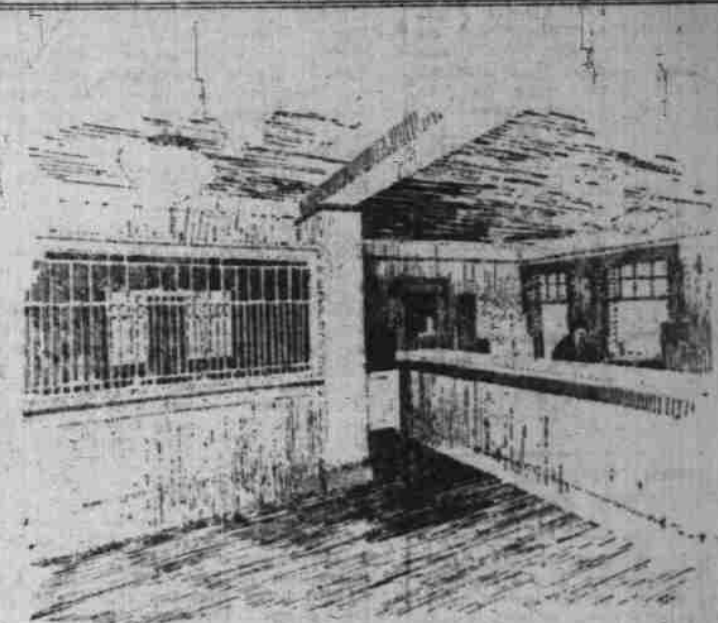

TWO ARE KILLED AND 246 INJURED DURING MAY

Two persons were killed and 246 injured in the 2,073 accidents reported by state and county traffic officers and the City of Portland during May, according to a report of T. A. Raffety, chief state traffic officer. Carelessness caused the greater number or 1,134. Fifty-five persons were arrested for driving while intoxicated. Inspectors spent a total of 352 days in the field, visited

1,162 towns and cities and traveled 24,367 miles during the month. There were 197 persons arrested and 999 warnings issued. Five jail sentences were given.

The resale value of stolen cars recovered amounted to $2,250; delinquent fees collected, $4,418.95; fines imposed for other than motor vehicle violations, $181 and a total of $3,436.85 for motor vehicle law violations.

Meeting the Borrower's Circumstances

Many times mortgages fall due at an inopportune moment when the borrower is unable to meet it, and the old terms are unsatisfactory for a renewal.

In cases such as these, we often find it possible to remove the old mortgage and put into effect a new one, made on terms which more nearly meet the requirements of the borrower.

Before renewing your old mortgage, it will profit you to see us.

Is a Lion afraid of a cock?

Medieval wiseacres used to wag their heads and tell tales like this in the village marketplace. An amusing superstition, of course, but is it any more absurd than the belief that there is something mysteriously "better" about eastern motor oils just because they cost more and come from eastern crudes?

Professional drivers and economy-run experts out after records don't share this superstition—why should you pay tribute?

Zerolene—the choice of Western Motorists. Zerolene lubricates more cars in the Pacific Coast states than any other oil made—a better oil if it does cost less. Zerolene increases the gasoline mileage, reduces the carbon removal and maintenance costs and lengthens the life of any car in which it is used.

Zerolene checked fifteen times for quality. As a matter of fact, the best crude so far discovered for the manufacture of mo-
