

SALE

The fur will fly now—for we have determined to carry over no Spring Suits. How very anxious we are to sell, the deeply cut prices will tell.

See Our Windows for Prices on Suits

Act at once for we assure you that these garments will not have to wait long for buyers at our low prices. Early choosing will be best.

G. W. JOHNSON & CO.

469 State St.

BEN SEZ

He has a 1925 Ford Coupe with so many accessories on it that it is hardly a "Ford." Equipped with Sixteen Valve Head and capable of making seventy-five miles an hour.

Speed Lovers—Here's Your Chance

VICK BROS.

Multnomah county, stopped in Salem yesterday on their way to Portland from Medford where they attended the review of Oregon national guard. Senator Staples stopped at his branch optical office. Both men attended the review in their capacity as members of the ways and means committee of the legislature.

All Elks Report—At club room, 7:30 p. m. Wednesday. Drill for Portland parade. 124

Men! Buy That Suit Now—Any suit in stock, value to $50, now $25. Four days only. The Man's Shop. 124

Leaving for Convention—Mrs. Avis White and Mrs. Allen Cleveland will leave today for the state convention of the American Legion auxiliary at Prineville. They are delegates from Capitol post auxiliary.

Women Wanted—At Starr Fruit Products Co., Church and Mill Sts. Phone 439. 124

Forester in Portland—F. A. Elliott, state forester, was in Portland Tuesday conferring with Col. W. B. Greeley, federal forester, relative to state forest policies. The federal man will spend several days in Portland, meeting with various Oregon forestry men.

Ladies' Trio—Hattie Parrish Hinges, Margaret Hodje Rosencrans, Ruth Bedford, La Rue East Ross accompanist; viola, Vercler Holman, obligato. Cong. church, tonight, 8:15. 124

Governor Pierce III—Suffering from an attack of Lumbago, Governor Pierce did not remain in Medford for the annual review of the Oregon National Guard, but returned to Salem by train. Part of Tuesday was spent on the lounge in the executive's office, and later in the day he was forced to go home. Sam A. Kozar, secretary of state, I. H. Van Winkle, attorney general, and Col. Carle Abrams, secretary of the board of control, remained over and stopped in Roseburg yesterday to visit the old soldiers' home.

Reduced Prices Prevail at—John J. Rottle shoe store. 130

Portable Phonographs—For your camping trip. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. 124

Camp Meetings Start—The opening of the annual Evangelical camp meetings at Quinaby, six miles north of Salem on the Oregon Electric, will be observed with the first service at 8 o'clock tonight. This service will be in charge of Rev. G. N. Lovell. The convention closes Sunday.

Women Berry Pickers Wanted—2 blocks east four corners, Penn road. Mrs. G. E. Sears. 124

Auto and Wall Tents—H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. 124

Wreck Victim Very Low—Reports from the hospital are to the effect that E. L. Briggs, Civil War veteran, is very low. Mr. Briggs was struck by a hit and run motorist a few weeks ago while crossing the street in the east part of the city. He received a fractured skull. Due to his advanced age his injuries were such that it is doubtful if he will recover. The identity of the motorist was not learned, neither was the license plate number remembered.

Summer House Cleaning Sale—John J. Rottle, State and Liberty. 130

Wanted to Buy—Twenty tons good loganberries. Telephone 229. 126

Soloists Pay Visit—Senator I. E. Staples and Representative J. E. Bennett, both of Wareham Back on Job—Dave I. Wareham, former pool hall proprietor at Gates, who recently returned to this section of the country several months, is a salesman for the Kennell-Ellis photo studio and in addition is handling products for the Purcell Hosiery company of Seattle.

Wanted to Buy—Twenty tons good loganberries. Telephone 229. 126

Crystal Gardens McELROY MAJESTIC ORCHESTRA Saturday Night Ladies Free Come Early!

WOODRY Buys Furniture Phone 511

LADD & BUSH, Bankers Established 1866 General Banking Business Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Short Route Proposed—Under a proposal made by Lincoln county commissioners to Polk county, the distance from the Salem district to the coast at Newport would be shortened 48 miles. The suggested route would be from Dallas through Falls City and the Vaisets valley and would eliminate the round-about route via Albany and Corvallis. Cooperation between the two counties would be necessary, both county courts having to prepare roads through their respective districts.

A Real Buy for Men—And young men, any suit in stock, value to $50, four days only, $25. See our windows. Come early. The Man's Shop. 124

Women Wanted—At Starr Fruit Products Co., Church and Mill Sts. Phone 439. 124

Harold Ware Back—Harold Ware, Boy Scout executive, has returned from a trip to Corvallis and went to that city yesterday where he will spend several days teaching a series of Boy Scout classes. The Salem Lions' club is sponsor of the Boy Scout movement here, and several members of the club visited the Lebanon organization Monday night. Those making the trip were Carl F. Giese, Rev. H. D. Chambers, Frank Neer and Rex Sanford. The Lebanon Lions are interested in the Boy Scout movement.

Hat Sale Continues—Other hats added to our offerings. Don't fail to take advantage of these reductions. The French Shop, M. Huff Morrison, Masonic Temple, 115 N. High. 124

"Audible Ring" in Use—The Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company has completed the installation of what is known as the "audible ringing." When you have given the desired number to the operator and the connection is completed to the desired line, you will hear a burring sound in the receiver, caused by mechanical operation of the ringing machine. This is an indication to you that the operator's ringing your party.

Home For Dog Wanted—Two beautiful dogs, now in care of the Humane Society, are in need of homes. Both will have to be killed if someone will not undertake to give them a good home. One of them is a little fox terrier, white, with brown ears. The other is a large, young Shepherd, coal black, with four white feet. Anyone wanting to "adopt" the dogs may call Dr. Moorehouse, at 1510.

Frozen Fruits Demanded—Barreled frozen fruit is in great demand in the east, is the report of local buyers. Their explanation for the present demand is based on eastern and mid-western weather conditions. The heat wave has ended the prematurely develop crop thus causing a decided shortage in the eastern fresh berry crop.

Big Time Tomorrow—F. N. Woody's new auction house will have its big opening all day and evening tomorrow. There will be an all day auction, with free lunch at noon, and in the evening a dance and entertainment, with music by the Oriole orchestra. This new auction house is at the corner of North Summer and Norway streets, opposite the home of Mr. Woody.

Two Under Arrest—Pat Riley and Billy Farnier were picked up and given lodgings in the city jail last evening. Farnier will be held pending investigation.

Frank G. Deckabach will leave tomorrow for Cincinnati, Ohio, where he will visit his mother. Mrs. E. J. Snyder and mother, Mrs. Edith Hirt, of Aurora, were in Salem Tuesday.

Dr. W. L. Pemberton and family are spending their vacation at the coast.

Mrs. Lawrence Haufman returned to her home in Hubbard Tuesday after being discharged from a local hospital.

Don Pybus, Willamette university student, has returned to Salem from a motorcycle trip to Tia Juana, Mexico. A companion, Hal Wittenberg, stopped in Los Angeles.

Miss Shoemaker, a teacher in the Salem schools, will spend the summer with relatives in Oskaloosa, Ia. She will return for the fall term.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Johnson, of Silverton, were Salem visitors yesterday.

Salem is still the hop center of the world, for quality hops, and for the marketing from first hands. Help the Slogan man, if you can.

LABOR LEADER COMING
B. C. MARSH WILL SPEAK IN SALEM ON JULY 10
Benjamin C. Marsh, managing director of the farmers' national council and former president of the Washington State Federation of Labor, will be in Salem Friday night, July 10, to speak before the Salem Trades and Labor council, the labor group voting to accept his invitation last night.

At the first meeting in July officers will be elected and installed, while a delegate will be chosen for the Oregon State Federation of Labor, which holds its annual convention in Marshfield next August.

S. B. Davidson, business agent, reported a busy two-week period.

Summer is the Time to Get AUTO TOP and UPHOLSTERY WORK DONE
Let Us Estimate On Your Next Job
GOOD WORK AT THE RIGHT PRICES
A Trial Will Convince You

McALVIN 545 NORTH CHURCH

AUCTION-DANCE Entertainment

This Thursday, June 25, 10 a. m. until Midnight, Opening of F. N. Woody's New Auction Market

Corner N. Summer and Norway Sts., opposite his residence, 1610 N. Summer Street.

Four households of Real Good Furniture, including all blue enamel Universal gas and coal range, electric range, Home Comfort range, walnut dining table and chairs, oil stoves, 140 leather bound law books, 5 new white enamel breakfast tables, farm stock and machinery, 25 Fyrer's tools, etc.

Free Lunch and Coffee at noon—Free dance and entertainment at night

Music by the Orioles 5-piece orchestra and other entertainers. Everybody welcome

F. N. WOODY, Auctioneer
Residence 1610 N. Summer. Phone 511

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Our Weather Man

Fair
Continued warm; light northwest winds. Max. 85; Min. 49; River 3, stationary; Rainfall none; Atmosphere clear; Wind North.

At The Theaters Today

Oregon—Raymond Grit fifth, Louise Fazenda, Wallace Berry in "The Night Club."

Liberty—Jack Holt and Betty Compson in "Eye's Secret," taken from "The Moon Flower."

Bligh—"Out of the Dust," depicting the memorable paintings of Frederic Remington.

Gets A-1 Rating

The Alfred M. Best Co., of New York, an organization which reports the financial standing and reputation of insurance companies of all classes, rates the Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville, as "A-1" as to loss-paying record and excellent management. This is the highest rating that may be given to a company.

Men! Buy That Suit Now—Any suit in stock, value to $50, now $25. Four days only. The Man's Shop. 124

Musicals—Piano Students—Of Miss Beatrice Shelton tonight at 8:15, Cong. church. Public cordially invited. 124

Picnic Plans Progress—Plans are now completed for the annual Salem picnic that will be held for former Salemites in Laurelhurst park in Portland June 27 from 2:30 until 6 o'clock. A large number of Salem families plan to attend the picnic to renew old acquaintances. A short program of speaking and music will be provided. The most of the time however will be given to a general get-together. The committee announces that the only requirements for a good time is a big lunch basket, coffee will be furnished free. Any one have extra room in their car is asked to call Mrs. W. E. Anderson or Hal D. Patton, as there are a number of older people that will be unable to attend unless transportation is furnished.

Aluminum Camp Cooking—Outfits. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. 124

500 Pounds of Ice—Free with each refrigerator purchased at H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. 125

Speeders Pay Fines—Three speeders paid homage to Judge M. Poulsen despite the unpopularity of the Salem traffic officers with tourists. Garlen Simpson of Salem and Jack Schaler of Portland paid $5 and $7.50 respectively. J. Rutledge appeared before the court but the charge of speeding was dismissed.

Public Invited to Musicals—Tonight, Cong. church, 8:15, by students of Miss Beatrice Shelton. 124

DeMolays To Meet—Chemeketa chapter of DeMolay will hold their last meeting of the year Thursday night at the Masonic temple, according to Ellis Von Ecken, master councillor. Besides the regular meeting degree work will be given. Dr. Carl G. Doney, president of Willamette University will speak and special music is to be furnished by the Blue Boys orchestra. After the meeting the entire chapter will go to the Spa for a feed.

Good Shoes at Lower Prices—John J. Rottle. 130

Extra Special—Meadowbrook hats, $5, $7.50 and $10; nothing in our stock over $10. The French Shop, 115 N. High, Masonic Temple. 124

Two Drunks Jailed—Dan McGraw and Sherman Wheeler will spend five days each under Chief of Police Minto's protection and supervision for being drunk. Frank Bergstrom was arrested on the same charge, but was able to produce the necessary $10 asked by Judge M. Poulsen.

A Real Buy for Men—And young men, any suit in stock, value to $50, four days only, $25. See our windows. Come early. The Man's Shop. 124

Berry Growers To Meet—G. T. Heckert, president of the Loganberry Growers' Exchange has called the annual meet of the members on July 11, at 2 o'clock in the club room of the Chamber of Commerce. There will be a general business meeting and election of officers.

You Are Cordially Invited—To attend a series of cooking lectures and demonstration of electric cookery, to be conducted by Miss Grace Bogue, home economics instructor of Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company, June 23 to 26, inclusive, from 2 to 4 o'clock p. m. Portland Electric Power Company, 237 No. Liberty, phone 85. 126

Guarantors To Meet—R. A. Harris, chairman of the local chautauqua committee announces a meeting of all guarantors at the Chamber of Commerce at 8 o'clock tonight. A representative of the Ellison-White chautauqua will be present and speak.

Men! Buy That Suit Now—Any suit in stock, value to $50, now $25. Four days only. The Man's Shop. 124

Eagles to Entertain—Open house, featuring an entertainment and dance for members and friends, will be held by the Salem Aerie of Eagles at the Elks' Temple tonight.

Women Wanted—At Starr Fruit Products Co., Church and Mill Sts. Phone 439. 124

Signatures Wanted—The Statesman again requests all its correspondents to attach their signature to regular communications. This will insure better service to them from the office. Names of correspondents are not published except by special arrangement.

Kenneth Allen Will Assist—Tonight with vocal numbers at musicale, Cong. church, at 8:15. 124

Signatures Wanted—The Statesman again requests all its correspondents to attach their signature to regular communications. This will insure better service to them from the office. Names of correspondents are not published except by special arrangement.

REDUCED SUMMER RATES TO CALIFORNIA BY PICKWICK STAGES
San Francisco, one way, $15.50
Round Trip, $30.00
Los Angeles, one way, $27.25
Round Trip, $50.00
Special Rates to Parties of Eight or More
For information and Reservations phone 686, or call at CENTRAL STAGE TERMINAL, Salem, Oregon

PERSONALS

Frank G. Deckabach will leave tomorrow for Cincinnati, Ohio, where he will visit his mother.

Mrs. E. J. Snyder and mother, Mrs. Edith Hirt, of Aurora, were in Salem Tuesday.

Dr. W. L. Pemberton and family are spending their vacation at the coast.

Mrs. Lawrence Haufman returned to her home in Hubbard Tuesday after being discharged from a local hospital.

Don Pybus, Willamette university student, has returned to Salem from a motorcycle trip to Tia Juana, Mexico. A companion, Hal Wittenberg, stopped in Los Angeles.

Miss Shoemaker, a teacher in the Salem schools, will spend the summer with relatives in Oskaloosa, Ia. She will return for the fall term.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Johnson, of Silverton, were Salem visitors yesterday.

Salem is still the hop center of the world, for quality hops, and for the marketing from first hands. Help the Slogan man, if you can.

Evans
At Gooch, Linn county, Oregon, June 23, Mrs. Ethel J. Evans, wife of Fred A. Evans; daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Benson of Gervais, and sister of Mrs. John Schulte of Shedd, and Miss Minnie Benson of Gervais. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, June 24, at 10 a. m. from the Pioneer church. Interment in Pioneer cemetery under the direction of Rigdon & Son.

Hill
In this city, June 22, Sterling Hill, age 59. The remains will be forwarded by the Rigdon & Son mortuary to Portland, where funeral services and interment will be held.

Obituary
Evans
At Gooch, Linn county, Oregon, June 23, Mrs. Ethel J. Evans, wife of Fred A. Evans; daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Benson of Gervais, and sister of Mrs. John Schulte of Shedd, and Miss Minnie Benson of Gervais. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, June 24, at 10 a. m. from the Pioneer church. Interment in Pioneer cemetery under the direction of Rigdon & Son.

Hill
In this city, June 22, Sterling Hill, age 59. The remains will be forwarded by the Rigdon & Son mortuary to Portland, where funeral services and interment will be held.

Obituary
Evans
At Gooch, Linn county, Oregon, June 23, Mrs. Ethel J. Evans, wife of Fred A. Evans; daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Benson of Gervais, and sister of Mrs. John Schulte of Shedd, and Miss Minnie Benson of Gervais. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, June 24, at 10 a. m. from the Pioneer church. Interment in Pioneer cemetery under the direction of Rigdon & Son.

Hill
In this city, June 22, Sterling Hill, age 59. The remains will be forwarded by the Rigdon & Son mortuary to Portland, where funeral services and interment will be held.

Obituary
Evans
At Gooch, Linn county, Oregon, June 23, Mrs. Ethel J. Evans, wife of Fred A. Evans; daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Benson of Gervais, and sister of Mrs. John Schulte of Shedd, and Miss Minnie Benson of Gervais. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, June 24, at 10 a. m. from the Pioneer church. Interment in Pioneer cemetery under the direction of Rigdon & Son.

Hill
In this city, June 22, Sterling Hill, age 59. The remains will be forwarded by the Rigdon & Son mortuary to Portland, where funeral services and interment will be held.

Obituary
Evans
At Gooch, Linn county, Oregon, June 23, Mrs. Ethel J. Evans, wife of Fred A. Evans; daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Benson of Gervais, and sister of Mrs. John Schulte of Shedd, and Miss Minnie Benson of Gervais. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, June 24, at 10 a. m. from the Pioneer church. Interment in Pioneer cemetery under the direction of Rigdon & Son.

Hill
In this city, June 22, Sterling Hill, age 59. The remains will be forwarded by the Rigdon & Son mortuary to Portland, where funeral services and interment will be held.

Obituary
Evans
At Gooch, Linn county, Oregon, June 23, Mrs. Ethel J. Evans, wife of Fred A. Evans; daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Benson of Gervais, and sister of Mrs. John Schulte of Shedd, and Miss Minnie Benson of Gervais. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, June 24, at 10 a. m. from the Pioneer church. Interment in Pioneer cemetery under the direction of Rigdon & Son.

Hill
In this city, June 22, Sterling Hill, age 59. The remains will be forwarded by the Rigdon & Son mortuary to Portland, where funeral services and interment will be held.

Obituary
Evans
At Gooch, Linn county, Oregon, June 23, Mrs. Ethel J. Evans, wife of Fred A. Evans; daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Benson of Gervais, and sister of Mrs. John Schulte of Shedd, and Miss Minnie Benson of Gervais. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, June 24, at 10 a. m. from the Pioneer church. Interment in Pioneer cemetery under the direction of Rigdon & Son.

Hill
In this city, June 22, Sterling Hill, age 59. The remains will be forwarded by the Rigdon & Son mortuary to Portland, where funeral services and interment will be held.

Obituary
Evans
At Gooch, Linn county, Oregon, June 23, Mrs. Ethel J. Evans, wife of Fred A. Evans; daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Benson of Gervais, and sister of Mrs. John Schulte of Shedd, and Miss Minnie Benson of Gervais. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, June 24, at 10 a. m. from the Pioneer church. Interment in Pioneer cemetery under the direction of Rigdon & Son.

Hill
In this city, June 22, Sterling Hill, age 59. The remains will be forwarded by the Rigdon & Son mortuary to Portland, where funeral services and interment will be held.

Obituary
Evans
At Gooch, Linn county, Oregon, June 23, Mrs. Ethel J. Evans, wife of Fred A. Evans; daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Benson of Gervais, and sister of Mrs. John Schulte of Shedd, and Miss Minnie Benson of Gervais. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, June 24, at 10 a. m. from the Pioneer church. Interment in Pioneer cemetery under the direction of Rigdon & Son.

Hill
In this city, June 22, Sterling Hill, age 59. The remains will be forwarded by the Rigdon & Son mortuary to Portland, where funeral services and interment will be held.

Gifts That'll Please the June Bride!

WHAT deeper appreciation can be shown any bride than anything we have to offer in the Jewelry selection? For here is everything that is charming and new to greet you and her.

Whether it be a precious ring, silverware or plateware, we have it in a varied selection—so extensive in fact as to make choice comparatively easy. Prices that please.

Introducing the New Bassett Cuff Link
In Platinum and Green Gold Tops
A regular $4.50 Button and for the next ten days at the special price of
$1.80
250 designs to choose from

(Convenient Credit)
It is easy to pay the Hartman Way
HARTMAN BROTHERS CO.
Jewelers and Silversmiths
399 State, corner Liberty Street Salem, Oregon