

NEWPORT PLANS FIGHTS

OPEN AIR ARENA AVAILABLE FOR JULY 4 EVENTS

Salem and Astoria are furnishing the greatest portion of the entertainment for the big boxing card at Newport July 4, according to H. H. Schocker, matchmaker, who was in the city yesterday. The events will be staged in an open-air arena with a seating capacity of 2000 and are under the sanction of the American Legion. It is estimated that between 25,000 and 30,000 people will spend the week-end at this beach.

In the main event Frankie Lewis, Salem, meets George Ingersoll, Astoria, both in the 140-pound class. The match is for 10 rounds. Lewis is well-known here while Ingersoll has won a decision over Billy Gardeau and a draw with Spec Woods, both of whom are familiar to Salem fight fans.

Billy Welch of Astoria meets John Boyce of Spokane in the semi-finals, a 6-round event. Buss Greene, Salem and Harry Davis, Astoria, are matched for four rounds with a snappy preliminary as a curtain raiser.

PAPERMAKERS DEFEATED

EOLA RIVER RATS WIN CONTEST BY 6 TO 4 SCORE

The Eola River Rats substituted for the WOW team last night and defeated the Pulp & Paper ball tossers 6 to 4. Edwards, pitching for Eola, was easily the star of the game. The Gross brothers and Blankenship for the Papermakers handled the bat well and featured at base stealing. "Doc" Scott, the diminutive first baseman from Eola, forgot his rabbit's foot, but managed to get a three-bagger.

Joe Formick, giant manager of the Frozen Sucker league, acted as umpire, and rumor says much of the River Rat's victory was due to his impartial umpiring.

DENNEY & COMPANY ARE NOW READY FOR FRUIT

He says Denney & Co. have a selling organization second to none; that they have been in business 22 years and are proud of their record and have no idea of being different in the future than in the past; that they are not a fly-by-night concern, but have good connections in every way and expect to come back year after year.

Denney & Co. bought 14 cars of black cherries here last year, for spot cash. They did it in order to test the shipping qualities of our cherries, and they were ready to take the loss themselves, if any. They figure that if they should take cherries here on consignment and make a loss to the growers the first year, they would have a had introduction. It happened that they did well; but they took the risk themselves.

Now they are here to make some money for the growers, and at the same time to make some money for themselves, in an open, legitimate way. Their contracts read two and a half cents a pound advance. But they are ready to pay the whole guarantee, 5 cents a pound in each case—and they hope to make as good final returns as any.

They are already receiving flings from parties with whom they have contracts, and they were organized and at work last night, and will soon begin to roll cars of cherries; perhaps one car today.

G. W. Johnson, Jr., works for Denney & Co. and says they are a good, straight firm. All the people in Salem know he would not work for them if he did not think so. The same may be said of Earl Percy, who is also working for them.

They are taking flings, Lamberts and Black Republicans; the latter only of large sizes.

O. E. Brooks, for the association pool, was pretty well organized by last night, and will roll a car of flings either today or tomorrow.

REVOLT OVERTURNS GREEK GOVERNMENT

for a few blank cartridges fired, nothing that seemed like war happened. Revolutionary troops occupied public buildings.

The populace seems strangely unmoved by the event and is evidently becoming accustomed to such coups.

Pangalos issued a manifesto declaring that in acting as he did he was merely carrying out the wishes of the people who demanded the redemption and purification of the country.

The discontent of the officers, to which the movement was chiefly due, was by the feeling the Michalakopoulos cabinet had not paid sufficient attention to the reorganization of the military forces and had neglected to de-country, while its foreign policy veyed the national riches of the had achieved only failure, notably with regard to Serbia and Turkey.

The officers further complained that too great concessions had been accorded foreign capital, making Greece financially tributary to foreigners.

MITCHELL IS NAMED

PORTLAND, June 25.—Hugh C. Mitchell, removed last week as director of hatcheries of the state fish commission today was named to head an extensive investigation of the salmon industry in the Columbia river for the United States bureau of fisheries.

FISHING IS GOOD OVER WEEK-END

Where to Go and How to Get There is Told by George E. Cadwell of Anderson's Sporting Goods Store.

Little North Fork Santiam—via Turner, Stayton and Mehama.—This stream is now at its best stage for fishing. Several good catches were made this week. Flies and salmon eggs being the best baits. Royal coachman, blue upright and flying caddis are under the sanction of the American Legion. It is estimated that between 25,000 and 30,000 people will spend the week-end at this beach.

In the main event Frankie Lewis, Salem, meets George Ingersoll, Astoria, both in the 140-pound class. The match is for 10 rounds. Lewis is well-known here while Ingersoll has won a decision over Billy Gardeau and a draw with Spec Woods, both of whom are familiar to Salem fight fans.

Billy Welch of Astoria meets John Boyce of Spokane in the semi-finals, a 6-round event. Buss Greene, Salem and Harry Davis, Astoria, are matched for four rounds with a snappy preliminary as a curtain raiser.

Thomas Creek, via Jefferson and Scio—Reports from this stream are very favorable; some nice catches being made below Jordan. The best fishing, however, is above Jordan, about three miles, the roads being in good shape. The best flies are blue upright, professor caddis, McGinty, Butte Creek and Abiqua, via Silverton—Fishing on these two streams continues to be good and a few good catches were made this week, including two limit catches by O. A. Mosher and his son. The flies bringing the best results are blue and red upright, black gnat and caddis. Salmon eggs will also bring home the fish.

South Fork Santiam River—via Albany, Lebanon to Cascadia. Open July 1st above Cascadia. This stream has been closed for the past four years and was stocked heavily with rainbow trout at the time it was closed. It should be no trouble even for the amateur angler to get a limit of fish. Spinner and flies both can be used with good success. Some suggestions for flies would be: Royal coachman, blue and red upright, caddis and McGinty.

Local Bass Fishing—Bass fishing, according to several of our local fishermen, has been very good the past few days, the best time for fishing being in the morning and the late afternoon. Downglare minnows and bucktail spinners seem to be the favorite lures. Several small lakes within a radius of 15 miles from Salem offer excellent fishing, both for bass and crappies. Sunfish are also abundant.

Two good lakes that are out about 10 miles north of Salem are the lake at Wheatland ferry and Clear lake.

MORE BONDS ARE FILED

SALEM DEPOSITS FIVE TIMES OTHER DISTRICTS

A bond of $20,000 was filed with the county school superintendent yesterday by W. H. Burghard, clerk of the Salem schools. The law requires that each district clerk must file a bond, equal to twice the amount of school money he will handle at any one time during the year. The Salem bond exceeds by five times the amount of any other district.

Bonds filed by other clerks yesterday are as follows:
Fairview, John S. Turnbull, clerk, $1,000; Hazel Dell, Mrs. Oza A. Thomas, clerk, $2,500; Bethany, Henry Torvond, $4,000; Stayton, W. H. Hobson, $4,000; Union, A. M. Van Cleave, $4,000; Riverview, W. C. Pettyjohn, $2,500.

The Bank's Responsibility

It has long been the wish of the United States National to assist both morally and financially in the business and agricultural development and progress of Salem and Marion and Polk counties. In fact, we consider it a responsibility we are only too glad to assume.

The more depositors and less hoarders of money there are here, the more good we will be able to do. Are you helping us help you and the community by maintaining a growing bank account?

HEAT WAVE STILL GRIPS NORTHWEST

Where to Go and How to Get There is Told by George E. Cadwell of Anderson's Sporting Goods Store.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., June 25.—All heat records in the history of the Sacramento weather bureau founded 47 years ago were shattered today, when the mercury registered at 112 degrees. The same was recorded at Fresno and Red Bluff.

Heat Record Broken
VICTORIA, B. C., June 25.—Victoria broke a 51-year record today with the thermometer recording 95 degrees.

Hot at Lewiston
LEWISTON, Idaho, June 25.—Lewiston's maximum temperature today was 105 degrees, which was recorded at 4:15 o'clock this afternoon. Farmers and grain dealers reported crops too far advanced to be injured by the severe heat.

Olympia Sweaters
OLYMPIA, June 25.—(By Associated Press.) With the thermometer registering 98 degrees in the shade this afternoon, Olympia sweated through the hottest day recorded here in several years while the brisk west wind which sprang up late in the day materially reduced discomfort from the heat, a society orchestra expressed apprehension because of the numerous small fires which are burning in western Washington some of which might assume menacing proportions if fanned by heavy winds, it was pointed out.

Seattle Record Broken
SEATTLE, June 25.—All weather records in the 35 years of the United States weather bureau here were broken today when a temperature of 98 was registered at 4 p. m.

Spokane Has 97.2
SPOKANE, June 25.—The weather bureau here reported 97.2 degrees, the year's highest, at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

102.5 at Yakima
YAKIMA, June 25.—All records for heat for the month of June were broken here this afternoon when the mercury climbed to 102.5 degrees at 5 o'clock. The range of temperature for the day was 50 degrees. At 3 a. m., the reading was 52 degrees.

Hoquiam Is Cooler
HOQUIAM, Wash., June 25.—Shifting of the wind from northeast to northwest made it cooler today, with a maximum temperature of 89. Yesterday's high mark was 95. One small forest fire in cutover land is reported as burning but under control near Aloha.

Walla Walla Hot
WALLA WALLA, June 25.—The Walla Walla valley sweltered today in the hottest day of the year, the temperature reaching a maximum of 103 degrees.

Tacoma Also Warm
TACOMA, June 25.—Today was the hottest day in the history of Tacoma. The record was 98.4 at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The highest previous mark was 97.6 on July 10, 1906.

PORTLAND, June 25.—Oregon towns sweltered today, with temperatures ranging from 83 degrees at Tillamook to 108 degrees at Rainier Pass. Throughout most of the Willamette valley, the mercury hovered around 100 degrees. Portland sizzled with the mercury at 100 for two hours and the heat was marked by two slight earthquakes this morning. The shocks were not recorded officially, however.

FINANCE PLAN PUSHED

FRANCE MAY UNDERTAKE NEW ISSUE OF BANK NOTES

PARIS, June 25.—(By The Associated Press.)—The issuance of four billion or five billion francs in bank notes or something equivalent is accepted by parliamentarians and financial experts as the gist of M. Caillaux's plan to meet the July and September reimbursements of several billions

FLAX SOIL IS PRAISED

CLARKE COUNTY CAN RAISE GOOD QUALITY FIBRE

All doubt as to the establishment of a linen industry has been removed and the money has been sent to Beloit, Wis., to pay for pulling and scutching machinery, which will be shipped at once, officials of the company say. Additional funds are being raised in Seattle and the work of preparing buildings and installing machinery will proceed.

Flax sown here this spring is doing well and a heavy yield of fiber is predicted. P. E. Thomson, field man for the Washington-Oregon Linen Mills company, declared the soil of Clarke county to be the best adapted in the world for raising flax.

SPEEDERS "KNEW" CITY

PORTLANDERS THREATEN TO REPORT OFFICERS

Two speeders were picked up on North Capitol traveling 40 miles an hour early yesterday morning. No sooner had Officer Edwards and Sergeant Edwards approached the car they were informed that Salem's reputation was known and the officers would be reported to the Portland Chamber of Commerce of which they claimed to be leading members.

On the way to the station they told their family history. Both were prominent Portland transfer men and were on their way to Lebanon to get their wives, they said.

When questioned about the car they replied that it belonged to a brother in Portland, who was kind enough to loan it. At the station a pilot of first class moonshine was produced.

A call to Portland revealed the new Jewett sport touring car they were driving belonged to B. M. Brown, and was stolen some time during the night.

Late yesterday Portland authorities arrived and took the offenders, Joe Seader and Joe Andrews, back to Portland. The liquor was left in Salem.
