

MEN'S SUIT SALE

Our Semi-Annual Suit Sale is now on. We are giving you the best of clothing in the new styles and models.

Prices $17.85, $24.85 to $34.85

See Our Windows

Pick your's out while our stock is complete

G. W. JOHNSON & CO.

469 STATE STREET

BEN SEZ

Here is a real bargain—1925 Oakland touring run 4754 miles with following equipment: Stop light, motorometer and bar cap, automatic wiper, rear sight mirror, bumpers front and rear, balloon tires, extra tire, tube and rim, glass enclosure. Cost new $1450 with this equipment. We will sell for $1050. New car guarantee. Folks, come early, it's too good to last long.

VICK BROS.

representative of the Portland Realty board, explained the work of the association and the coming convention to be held at Spokane. W. H. Ross, Portland realtor, made a short address on "Contentment," and traced the evolution of the vocation of real estate selling from its infancy to the present development.

A Radio or Portable—Phonograph adds to the pleasure of your outing. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. j26

Men! Buy That Suit Now—Any suit in stock, value to $50, now $25. Today and tomorrow only. The Man's Shop. j26

More Students Register—Registration for Willamette summer session approached 100 students on Thursday. The most popular courses offered are chemistry, education, sociology and economics. Over 50 per cent of the students registered are from Oregon; OAC, Reed and Oregon state normal.

Opening Dance—Stayton Community club, Sat. night, June 27. Open air pavilion at the grove. Talmage orchestra. Join us and keep cool. j27

Many Going to Picnic—More than 30 cars of local people will attend the annual Salem picnic to be held in Laurelhurst park in Portland Saturday, June 27, from 2:30 until 5 o'clock. All persons who have no way of going should call Hal D. Patton. Most of the people that have signified their intention of going are old residents of Salem.

Factory Demonstration at Stiffs—Of the Haag Voortex Washer. j26

Sign Is Erected—A party of Salem boosters spent Thursday on the West side highway erecting signs directing traffic to Salem. The sign is just south of the Dallas-Salem-West side highway intersection at Rick-reall.

Canvass Reclining Chair—See windows, H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. j26

Lions To Hear Gilbert—L. M. Gilbert, superintendent of the boys' training school, will address the Lions at their weekly luncheon today noon. Some phases of the activities of the institution will be discussed. John Orr will be the soloist.

Men! Buy That Suit Now—Any suit in stock, value to $50, now $25. Today and tomorrow only. The Man's Shop. j26

Ewing Funeral Held—Funeral services were held in Portland this week for Mrs. Helen Macon Ewing, 70, a native of Oregon. Of the seven children who survive, two live in Salem. These are Archie R. Ewing and Fred C. Ewing.

Rev. Duff To Speak—Arrangements have been completed for the appearance at the First Baptist church Sunday morning of Rev. W. H. Duff, missionary at Rangoon, Burma. The visitor comes to Oregon under the management of the state convention board of the Baptist church, of which Dr. O. C. Wright, of Portland, is secretary. Rev. Duff speaks in Corvallis Sunday night. A special musical service will be offered at the church here Sunday night, with artists from Portland assisting local musicians in the prelude.

A Real Buy for Men—And young men; any suit in stock, values to $50—today and tomorrow only $25. See our windows. Come early. The Man's Shop. j26

Boys Visit Salem—A group of youths from the Corvallis Methodist church were shown the sights of the city yesterday. The tour included various industrial plants, the state house, supreme court and state institutions.

Factory Demonstration at Stiffs—Of the Haag Voortex Washer. j26

After Parole Violator—J. V. Starrett, state parole officer, left yesterday for Pendleton to bring back Asa Trindall, parole violator, who was arrested for possession of liquor. The officer and the prisoner are expected back today.

The Chautauqua Programs—Are being distributed this week. It looks like a treat is in store for Chautauqua goers this year. j26

Apollo Club Elects—Harry Weis will continue as president of the Apollo club, was the decision of the club members in a meeting held at the Commercial Club. Other officers chosen were Tom Williams, vice president; Ivan Corner, secretary; J. L. Teed, librarian. Additional directors elected were Dr. L. Barwick and H. W. Bross.

Portland Claims Pair—Joe Seeder and Joe Andrews, arrested Wednesday for speeding, possession of liquor and auto theft were turned over to the Portland police yesterday.

Much Water Used—Reports from the water company show the use of 5,688,800 gallons of water Wednesday. Although this is a record for the year, it is not a record for the local pumping station. Paul Wallace, head of the company, says there will be no shortage as long as the water users cooperate as they have in the past.

A Real Buy for Men—And young men; any suit in stock, values to $50—today and tomorrow only $25. See our windows. Come early. The Man's Shop. j26

One License Issued—Only one marriage license was applied for in the county clerk's office yesterday. It was taken out by John Jelderks and Katherine Marshall, both of Gervais. Jelderks is an insurance man. Miss Marshall was formerly employed in the county clerk's office.

Dance! Dance! Tonight—DuBois' popular dances, Crystal Gardens. Music by Bliss' Novelty orchestra. j26

"Biddy" Laying Ball—"Biddy" Bishop, former manager of the local baseball team is now playing ball in the southern Minnesota league. Bishop is with the Fairbault club, which is holding its own in the mid-western league.

Men! Buy That Suit Now—Any suit in stock, value to $50, now $25. Today and tomorrow only. The Man's Shop. j26

A Real Buy for Men—And young men; any suit in stock, values to $50—today and tomorrow only $25. See our windows. Come early. The Man's Shop. j26

Start Pulling Flax—The annual flax harvest in the Willamette valley will get under way Monday when pulling machines start operations for Ball Brothers, three miles southeast of Salem. There are nearly 4,000 acres of flax to be pulled this season and only 13 machines available.

Salem Woman Elected—At the second annual encampment of the Oregon division of the Sons of Veterans auxiliary in Oregon City, Helen O. Olin, Portland, former secretary, was elected president. Salem women elected to office are Norma N. Terwilliger and Lizzie W. Smith, trustees; Florence Shipp, inspector. Delegates to the national convention will be Lizzie Smith and Marion F. McKay of Portland, with Louise Ding as alternate.

Keep Cool—With G. E. electric fans, Halik & Eoff Electric shop, 337 Court St. j28

Makes Best Comic—Words for the daily comic feature of the Oregon Journal for the issue of June 25 were furnished by Curtis B. Ferguson of Salem.

FUNERALS
Butler
The funeral of Frederick Butler will be held at the Webb Funeral parlors today at 10 a. m. Rev. Mr. Taylor will have charge of the services. Interment will be in City View cemetery.

Classified Ads in The Statesman Bring Results

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Our WeatherMan

Fair and continued warm; light variable winds and low humidity. Maximum, 99; minimum 68; river 0.3, falling; rainfall, none; atmosphere clear; wind southwest.

At Theaters Today

- Oregon—Raymond Griffith, Louise Fazenda, Wallace Beery in "The Night Club."
- Liberty—"Daughters of the Night," with star cast.
- Grand—"The Air Mail," the supreme 1925 melodrama.
- Bligh—"Beloved Vagabond" and 5 acts Vaudeville.

Births Are Reported

Birth reports filed at the city health office included a daughter, Alice Fay, to Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Daugherty, 1550 Court and a son, Harry Ross, to Mr. and Mrs. H. R. McDowell, 1515 Belview.

Camp Furniture

Of all kinds. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. j26

Professor Gatke Back

R. M. Gatke, former Willamette university professor, has returned from Washington, D. C. where he has been studying in the American university. Mr. Gatke was awarded his Ph.D. while in Washington and will now take charge of the history department at Willamette.

Reduced Prices Prevail at

John J. Rottle shoe store. j30

Clinic Is Established

The Marion county child health demonstration established a temporary clinic at Aurora yesterday under the direction of Dr. Walter H. Brown.

Opening Dance

Stayton Community club, Sat. night, June 27. Open air pavilion at the grove. Talmage orchestra. Join us and keep cool. j27

Traffic Violators Fined

Three traffic violators were arrested and appeared before Judge Martin Poulsen yesterday. Ross Harris, 701 Capitol, was fined $5 for speeding and cutting corners. T. O. Foster, Seattle, forfeited $5 for speeding. Fred Duffy of Salem paid $1 for parking over two hours.

A Radioux Chiffon Assortment

Of frocks came yesterday and go on sale today and tomorrow at $5.95. A new artificial silk fabric that has wonderful style. Millers. j26

Silverton Is Enjoined

A temporary restraining order was granted to Otto Pallinger in Judge L. H. McMahan's court yesterday against the City of Silverton, of which Pallinger is a resident. Silverton is now prohibited from completing hardsurfacing of Cherry street until sewer connections are laid on that street. Pallinger brought action, seeking relief, as it is declared that once the street is paved the cost of putting in the sewer would be prohibitive.

Vacation Luggage—H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. j26

Men! Buy That Suit Now—Any suit in stock, value to $50, now $25. Today and tomorrow only. The Man's Shop. j26

Good Shoes at Lower Prices—John J. Rottle. j30

Two Men Released—Harry Welp and Joseph Larsen were released yesterday from the city jail. Welp had completed his 10-day sentence and Larsen finally produced $200 bail for possession and transportation of liquor.

Keep Cool—With G. E. electric fans. Halik & Eoff Electric snop, 337 Court St. j28

One Dollar Special—Starts Sat. 10 a. m. Any cut glass article for one dollar. C. A. Luthy, jeweler. j27

Get Building Permits—Herb T. Ford obtained a building permit for a $4500 dwelling to be erected at 290 Lafelle, in Fairmount Park addition. A permit was also issued to Ed S. Kubovius for a one-story dwelling at 1237 Marion, to cost $3,000.

Moss Kiwanis Head—John H. Moss of Milwaukee.

REDUCED SUMMER RATES TO CALIFORNIA BY PICKWICK STAGES
San Francisco, one way, $15.50
Round Trip, $30.00
Los Angeles, one way, $27.85
Round Trip, $50.00
Special Rates to Parties of Eight or More
For Information and Reservations phone 698, or call at CENTRAL STAGE TERMINAL Salem, Oregon

GABRIEL
Powder and Supply Co.
Paints and Varnishes
175 South Commercial — Phone 728

Crystal Gardens
McELROY MAJESTIC ORCHESTRA
Saturday Night
Ladies Free
Come Early!

WOODRY
Buys Furniture
Phone 511

LADD & BUSH, Bankers
Established 1868
General Banking Business
Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m.

Wis. was yesterday elected head of the Kiwanis International at the annual convention being held in St. Paul. He has held many important offices in the organization. Five club objectives have been unanimously endorsed. These are a continuance of cooperative relations between the United States and Canada; selected and directed immigration; conservation of natural resources; study of tax-exempt securities and greater economy in governmental operations.

Wanted to Buy—Twenty tons good loganberries. Telephone 229. j26

Patton in Seattle—E. Cooke Patton left yesterday for Tacoma to attend the 15th annual convention of Northwest Stationers and Booksellers. A number of nationally known speakers are booked for the program, besides numerous entertainment features. Mr. Patton took a trunk full of magic equipment along and will appear on the program.

Summer House Cleaning Sale—John J. Rottle, State and Liberty. j30

Elks Start Drill—Seventy-five members of the local Elks lodge turned out last night for the first preliminary drill for the big parade to be held in Portland July 16. There are 275 members of the Salem lodge who have already signified their intention of turning out in full uniform for the affair. All business houses may be closed to enable Salem people, who desire to attend the national convention.

You Are Cordially Invited—To attend a series of cooking lectures and demonstration of electric cookery, to be conducted by Miss Grace Bogue, home economics instructor of Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company, June 23 to 26, inclusive, from 2 to 4 o'clock p. m. Portland Electric Power Company, 237 No. Liberty, phone 85. j26

Realtors to Picnic—A picnic at Woodland park next Thursday evening, was the announcement made by the Marion Polk County Realtors at their last meeting, following an informal luncheon at the Marion hotel, where the men folks removed their coats to find relief from the heat. T. W. Zimmerman, repre-

Sign Is Erected—A party of Salem boosters spent Thursday on the West side highway erecting signs directing traffic to Salem. The sign is just south of the Dallas-Salem-West side highway intersection at Rick-reall.

Canvass Reclining Chair—See windows, H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. j26

Lions To Hear Gilbert—L. M. Gilbert, superintendent of the boys' training school, will address the Lions at their weekly luncheon today noon. Some phases of the activities of the institution will be discussed. John Orr will be the soloist.

Men! Buy That Suit Now—Any suit in stock, value to $50, now $25. Today and tomorrow only. The Man's Shop. j26

Ewing Funeral Held—Funeral services were held in Portland this week for Mrs. Helen Macon Ewing, 70, a native of Oregon. Of the seven children who survive, two live in Salem. These are Archie R. Ewing and Fred C. Ewing.

Rev. Duff To Speak—Arrangements have been completed for the appearance at the First Baptist church Sunday morning of Rev. W. H. Duff, missionary at Rangoon, Burma. The visitor comes to Oregon under the management of the state convention board of the Baptist church, of which Dr. O. C. Wright, of Portland, is secretary. Rev. Duff speaks in Corvallis Sunday night. A special musical service will be offered at the church here Sunday night, with artists from Portland assisting local musicians in the prelude.

A Real Buy for Men—And young men; any suit in stock, values to $50—today and tomorrow only $25. See our windows. Come early. The Man's Shop. j26

Boys Visit Salem—A group of youths from the Corvallis Methodist church were shown the sights of the city yesterday. The tour included various industrial plants, the state house, supreme court and state institutions.

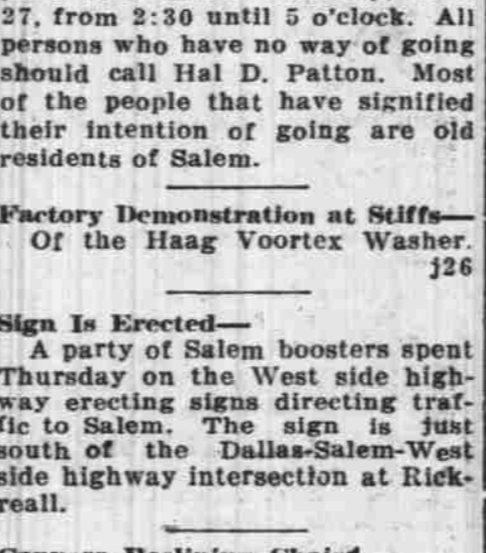

Factory Demonstration at Stiffs—Of the Haag Voortex Washer. j26

After Parole Violator—J. V. Starrett, state parole officer, left yesterday for Pendleton to bring back Asa Trindall, parole violator, who was arrested for possession of liquor. The officer and the prisoner are expected back today.

The Chautauqua Programs—Are being distributed this week. It looks like a treat is in store for Chautauqua goers this year. j26

Apollo Club Elects—Harry Weis will continue as president of the Apollo club, was the decision of the club members in a meeting held at the Commercial Club. Other officers chosen were Tom Williams, vice president; Ivan Corner, secretary; J. L. Teed, librarian. Additional directors elected were Dr. L. Barwick and H. W. Bross.

Portland Claims Pair—Joe Seeder and Joe Andrews, arrested Wednesday for speeding, possession of liquor and auto theft were turned over to the Portland police yesterday.

Spotless!
"AND BACK IN SUCH A HURRY TOO!"
"Why, only a couple of days ago I sent these blouses to the Standard Cleaners & Dyers 360 North Commercial—and here they are back—as smart looking and clean as the day I bought them!"
May we give YOU a demonstration of our clothes transformation?
Phone 1433
and we'll call for your garments

Standard Cleaners & Dyers
360 North Commercial
—and here they are back—as smart looking and clean as the day I bought them!"
May we give YOU a demonstration of our clothes transformation?
Phone 1433
and we'll call for your garments

Ewing Funeral Held—Funeral services were held in Portland this week for Mrs. Helen Macon Ewing, 70, a native of Oregon. Of the seven children who survive, two live in Salem. These are Archie R. Ewing and Fred C. Ewing.

Rev. Duff To Speak—Arrangements have been completed for the appearance at the First Baptist church Sunday morning of Rev. W. H. Duff, missionary at Rangoon, Burma. The visitor comes to Oregon under the management of the state convention board of the Baptist church, of which Dr. O. C. Wright, of

OUT THEY GO!

Last Call!

To get a Good Straw Hat at our low price and they'll go quickly for the price is only $1.49 Values to $4.00

Athletic Union Suits For quick sale, per pair 69c

Corner Court and Commercial Director's DEPARTMENT STORE Corner Court and Commercial

GROCERIES

AT REMARKABLY LOW PRICES

FOR THREE DAYS ONLY---FRIDAY, SATURDAY, MONDAY

Pure Cane Sugar SUGAR ADVANCING—BUY NOW! 100 lb. bag$6.28 10 lb. bag63c Margarine BUY THE BEST 3 lb. Nutola69c Pork and Beans 4 cans special39c Citrus Powder Citrus Washing powder, 2 pkgs. 47c	Try Our Fresh Roasted Coffee (Fresh Roasted every day) Roy's Best, per lb.45c Overland Special39c 3 lb. bag$1.15 Soap Cream Oil soap, 4 bars.25c 22 bars White Wonder soap.90c 2 Refined Borax20c Value$1.10 Shopping bag free with each deal. Our price98c	Jars Buy Your Jars at These Savings Mason quarts69c Mason pints53c Mason half-gallons98c Kerr Self-Sealing quarts.85c Kerr Self-Sealing pints65c Kerr Self-Sealing half-gallons $1.10 Kerr Self-Sealing wide-mouth quarts98c Sardines American Sardines, special, 4 cans25c	Snowdrift Shortening No. 4 pail98c No. 8 pail$1.95 CRISCO No. 3 lb. pail75c No. 6 lb. pail$1.48 No. 9 lb. pail$2.20 Certo Sure-Jell Bottle30c Ginger Ale Table Rock, large bottle14c
---	---	---	---

Orders Above $5.00 Delivered Free—Except Sugar

DIRECTOR'S Grocery Dept.

174 NORTH COMMERCIAL STREET

C. O. D. Orders Given Prompt Attention