BEN SEZ

The 1925 Oakland advertised yesterday sold early today. Here is a car that should find a new owner at once. Just as real a bargain as the Oakland—A 1924 Willys-Knight touring—quite a number of good accessories. Cost new with equipment nearly $1600. Going and going quick at $1000. Who will be the lucky buyer? "LET'S GO!"

VICK BROS.

the church of Milton, Mass., will be erected on the local grounds soon, according to Rev. Martin Fereshtetian, pastor of the Salem church. The new pulpit will be erected by the Laymans' league and be used to post various scriptures and mottoes.

Hay Outlook Good—
Charles R. Archerd, local buyer of oats and vetch hay, reports good prospects for an unusual heavy crop in the Willamette valley. Clover is much lighter than usual and a general shortage is expected due to small acreage this year.

Flax Pullers Needed—
About 500 men will be needed to harvest the flax crop within the next few days, according to Robert Crawford, state flax expert. The impression that machine pullers would do away with all hand pulling is false. There are between 75 and 100 fields in the vicinity that are too small for the mechanical pullers and all of this must be harvested by hand.

He is a son of Andre and Therese Clemenceau Gattineau. Gattineau was personal secretary to his grandfather, the Tiger of France, until he joined the French army in 1915. He served in many major engagements near Verdun. After the war, Gattineau narrated he spent an inheritance of more than a million francs in gambling resorts in Western and Southern Europe. When his money was gone, he worked his way to Singapore, back to Paris, to New Orleans, Boston, Central and South America and Seattle. Here he has taken out first papers to become an American citizen.
