Reverend J. J. Evans, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Margaret Evans, returned yesterday from a two weeks' vacation in California, attending the commencement exercises at the San Jose teachers' college, from which Miss Evans was graduated this month. Mrs. George Warner (Vera Hatch) of San Francisco, who will be one of the attendants tomorrow at the Turner-Moosa wedding, arrived in town yesterday.

Mrs. Walter Denton presented pupils in two recitals as interesting as they were delightful, on Monday and Tuesday evening of this week, at the Center street Methodist church. The younger pupils appeared Monday evening assisted by Stanley King, a talented young reader, who gave two delightful readings. The program was of exceptional interest, showing marked talent and development in such young performers. An outstanding number, deserving special mention was the clever work of Elizabeth Lewis, who is only eleven years old.

At one o'clock yesterday Mrs. Claire Vibbert entertained at a delightful pre-nuptial luncheon for Miss Turner and her attendants, placing covers for Mrs. Ivan Martin, Mrs. George Warner, Mrs. Blanche Liston Neimeyer, Mrs. F. A. Baker, Mrs. Henry Lee, Miss Joy Turner, and the hostess, Mrs. Vibbert. Salem friends of Edith Carter Kuney, a former Salem girl, will be interested to know that she will receive her master's degree in roman language from Stanford University in August, and during the coming year will hold an assistant professorship at the Oregon Agricultural college in her chosen subjects.

Miss Norma Stamp of Portland is a guest at the O. H. Brewer home. Miss Stamp is a niece of Mrs. Brewer and was a student at the U. of O. during the school year. Harry Humphreys, proprietor of the Stayton hotel, left the first of the week for Prineville where he went to attend the annual session of the soldiers' convention. Mrs. Eugene Ware has enrolled as a pupil and will attend the summer school for teachers which is being held in Salem. Mrs. Ware went over Saturday to make the necessary arrangements. Mrs. F. H. Down, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Davis, for the past month, left Sunday for Portland where she will spend a couple of weeks with her brothers, V. L. and Norman Davis.

George Davis and family also drove to Portland Sunday where they spent the day. They saw the battleship Oregon while there. Leo J. Rock, mail carrier on route 2, is taking his annual vacation. George Anderson is substituting for him during his absence. Mrs. R. R. Yeoman, who is under-estimating an operation at a Salem hospital Sunday night for the removal of the appendix, is getting along nicely. It is reported, and an early recovery is hoped for by her friends.

The fifty-two place, just west of the city limits, was sold last week to Dr. Paul Fehlen who recently returned to Stayton from California. The doctor and his wife formerly lived here. Thos. H. Taylor with Mrs. Taylor, Miss Helen Holford, Mrs. Ward Holford and two small sons, visited in Lebanon Sunday with John K. Crabtree and wife. A wandering swarm of bees found a resting place on the eaves of the Fred Rock home Monday morning. Thinking they were soon to move on, Mr. Rock did not molest them. Some time during the day a hole in the rustic was discovered and the swarm moved inside where they are comfortably housed, between the walls. Mr. Rock is now at a loss to know just how to get rid of the unwelcome guests.

The roundup party with their retinue of horses and equipment arrived in Stayton Sunday morning, arrived in town yesterday. At one o'clock yesterday Mrs. Claire Vibbert entertained at a delightful pre-nuptial luncheon for Miss Turner and her attendants, placing covers for Mrs. Ivan Martin, Mrs. George Warner, Mrs. Blanche Liston Neimeyer, Mrs. F.
