BOYS REQUIRE TRAINING

INMATES SHOULD HAVE INDIVIDUAL ATTENTION

"The first privilege and duty of every boy received at the state training school for boys is to become a social creature," said L. M. Gilbert at the weekly luncheon of the Lions club. "Most of the boys are shy at becoming acquainted, due to early training, and every individual presents a different problem."

Mr. Gilbert stated that the new home north of Woodburn for boys who have not reached the criminal stage, would be ready October 15. The home will consist of the main building, a power plant and four cottages.

Music at the club meeting was furnished by John W. Orr, former sheriff of Polk county. R. E. Campbell, well known California agricultural specialist, was a special guest.
