

MEDFORD MAN IS GOLF NORTHWEST CHAMPION

H. CHANDLER EGAN VICTORIOUS AT TACOMA MATCH

Forest Watson Defeated by 3 Up and 2 to Play; Match is Brilliant

TACOMA, June 27.—(Associated Press.)—H. Chandler Egan of Medford, Ore., holder of many titles and veteran golf player, added to his laurels today by capturing the Pacific northwest amateur championship in a hotly contested match with Forest Watson, young Spokane player and Inland Empire champion 3 up and 2 to play.

The Oregon star went through the week's play for the amateur title with a handicap, his back bent so badly injured that he was forced to wear a harness.

A large gallery saw the contest between Egan and Watson and the spectators were rewarded by seeing some scintillating golf.

NAVIGATOR TAKES RACE

WINNING HORSE, WITH SANDE UP, WINS $10,000 PURSE

NEW YORK, June 27.—(By Associated Press.)—Navigator, with Earl Sande up, won the $10,000 great American stakes at Aqueduct today, with Sarmaticus second and Powhatan third. The time for the five furlongs was one minute.

The Brookdale handicap, valued at $6,850 to the winner, went to the Glen Riddle farm's filly, Whitestone, with the Rancocas stable's Mad Play second, and Aga Khan third.

The time for the mile and one-eighth was 1:42 2-5.

CHINESE SITUATION DEFENDED BY BORAH

people and deal with them in justice; if they will even give them the rights and respect the rights as they were defined in the disarmament conference, there would be no trouble in China with foreign powers.

"In making the former statement, I expressed my personal views, but I am prepared with the facts to disclose a condition of affairs which would be exceedingly distant in my opinion to the American chamber of commerce."

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—The current anti-foreign movement in China entered its fifth week today with every indication that it would continue indefinitely.

Starting with a student demonstration in Shanghai May 30 that ended in a fatal riot, the agitation against foreigners, principally against British and Japanese, has spread the length of the China coast and resisted all attempts of settlements.

Many foreigners who last month were located in the interior have made their way to the coast centers, particularly to Shanghai and Hong Kong, fearing for their safety.

The anti-foreign movement has taken several forms, the most effective being a strike of all Chinese workers. This first was attempted in Shanghai, but reports today showed that shops there had reopened, and that only the harbor and the mills continued to be affected.

The water side strike there is still considered serious, although trans-Pacific liners still are keeping a regular schedule of arrivals and departures.

This is not so true in Hong Kong, where the start of the strike is more recent. One American line of steamships is omitting Hong Kong from its schedules altogether for the time being, because of the desertion or feared desertion of their crews if they touch that port.

Filipino crews are being recruited at Manila to take the places of Chinese already on strike. Industrial strikes at Hong Kong appeared in dispatches today to be spreading, while walkouts of domestic workers have disrupted foreign life in the British crown colony.

Efforts of Chinese to keep foreigners from getting food, thus "starving them out," have thus far proved unsuccessful. The only food shortage reported today was at Chung King, in the Yangtze river valley.

Demonstrations against foreigners are reported continuing at many centers. The only violence reported today was at Shanghai, where a group of Japanese sailors riding in an automobile was stoned. Police rescued the sailors.

Golfers Will Vie At Illihee Club Today

Two golf contests for trophies are slated for the Illihee club today. The semi-finals for the president's cup will be played. Orris Fry will meet H. H. Olinger and George Hug will tangle in the other. But two contestants have entered the tournament for the Man's Shop trophy.

as we had planned. I have always been for law enforcement.

"I have studied law and I always wanted to test out the machinery of the law. That was our purpose in this little affair. It was an experiment. We wanted to see how it would work out."

"Baker and I evolved this plan three weeks ago. We picked on Jackling as the kind of a subject we needed in our experiment of the 'perfect crime'. He was first a very rich man. He was known as a go-getter—a man who would give us a run for our money."

"We were a couple of young fellows with a lot to learn and out to get all of the experience we could. Our theory seemed puncture proof. Now I know that we made a mistake. But not one man in a million could have got as far as we did, at that."

"Red" Grange Keeps Cool on the Job

Harold "Red" Grange, All-American football hero of the University of Illinois, is keeping in trim for further exploits on the gridiron as an iceman in Wheaton, Ill., his home town. He rejected numerous attractive offers from movie producers, real estate and insurance firms, etc., in favor of this job, which he has held during several vacations.

German Educators Return To Insistence Upon Classics

BERLIN.—Nine years of Latin and six years of Greek are again to be required of all boys who complete the course in German gymnasiums. The amount of classics taught in these schools was reduced after the conclusion of the war, but now the pre-war amount of Greek and Latin has been re-established.

There have also been many changes in the schools that prepare girls for the universities; special emphasis is laid upon German history and culture.

In the opinion of German educators other European countries have done more to create a national feeling in their schools than has Germany, and the Germans are endeavoring to make good this shortcoming in their education by lessening the amount of foreign language study and introducing courses in German literature, art and history.

TWO ARMEN KILLED
DENVER, Colo., June 27.—(By The Associated Press.)—Casey Tyrell, an aviator, and an unidentified soldier were killed late this afternoon when a wing of their plane crumpled and the plane crashed to the earth east of the city.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

"Wid" Mathews, rated a year or so ago as one of the most promising young outfielders in the game, may never reach the dizzy heights selected as a landing place for him. But he will have done considerable traveling—and travel is broadening, the R. R. circles say.

Mathews, at this writing, is with the Indianapolis club. He was sold outright to that club the other day by Washington.

While Mathews had ridden around the American Association circuit and knows the tall buildings in the Indiana metropolis he had never seen much of the suburbs.

When Griffith grabbed Mathews from Milwaukee two years ago the Old Fox held out great hopes for him. Mathews started out like a house afire. Fielded like a natural born ball hawk and hit sensationally.

First his hitting fell off and then, when Griffith attempted to get him going on the right track the young man failed to take kindly to the suggestions made.

Last season Griff, grasping for players who might help his team carry on to its first pennant, got a chance to grasp Earl McNeely from the Pacific coast. The Sacramento club, however, demanded something in the way of an outfielder in exchange and Griff sent them Mathews.

The move was questioned by Washington fans and scribes—until McNeely socked that base hit in the 12th inning of the final game of the world's series.

Mathews should prove a star with Donnie Bush's team. And in Wait, at last reports, was fighting it out with Sammy Gray for the honor of leading in winning percentage.

The dope is that Johnson is receiving a salary of $25,000 for this season. If his pitching spells the difference between another pennant and losing the one the team now boasts he will be worth twice that much to the Washington owners.

Walter Johnson still deserves the title of King.
