Meetings are held every Sunday in Derby building corner 7th and High Sts. Bible study 10 to 12 a. m., Eekel's Temple study 3 p. m., Funerals served free in Salem and vicinity. "Are Present Nations God's Kingdoms?" When we speak of Christendom some have wondered whether that implies that Christendom is now in operation. Certain it is that much strife and perplexity and confusion are in the world resulting from the disorder caused by the world war. Many statesmen frankly admit their inability to restore order out of the confused condition. Believing that a proper solution of the present chaotic conditions will relieve the perplexity of many minds and restore confidence and hope for the future the local branch of the I. B. S. A. has arranged for a free public lecture on the above subject Sunday, June 28, 8 p. m., by W. W. Flynn.

DR. PRICE'S LETTER
I have known the Rev. E. B. Parrott, Baptist Evangelist, for the past five years, and have followed his ministry very closely. He is a safe, sane, scriptural preacher and teacher of the four square Gospel of our blessed Lord, and he will prove a great blessing to any church cooperating in his meetings. Brother Parrott has a forceful, magnetic personality, and a pleasing, loving manner of delivery, and has been greatly used of God in the salvation of souls and the healing of bodies. I unhesitatingly recommend him to the church and communion of God's children everywhere, with the assurance that his ministry will be greatly blessed. Yours in the name of Jesus.

CHARLES S. PRICE,
Evangelist.

THE FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
The Community Church
First and Gibbs Streets,
Portland, Ore.

REV. E. B. PARROTT:
My Dear Brother—I want you to know that you and your good wife were an object lesson to us in your daily ministrations of the campaign just closed. Never have I known such meetings where, in the songs, sermons and prayers, Jesus was made so real, so near, so wonderful in saving power. JESUS IS HERE—Could be seen and felt at every service. To Mrs. McFarlane and myself your joint ministry has been a great inspiration to us and we are so grateful to our Heavenly Father for the privilege and blessing. Gratefully yours,
J. M. McFARLANE, D. D.

EVANGELIST TO SPEAK TONIGHT

Society

Rev. E. B. Parrott, nationally known evangelist, will make his first appearance in Salem tonight at the big tent located at South Commercial and Oak. Services will be held daily at 7:45 o'clock. Rev. Parrott is a disciple of Dr. Charles S. Price and Aimee Sample McPherson, who are reported to have accomplished much in several Oregon and California cities with divine healing services.

He received the guests at the door. A dainty two course luncheon was served on a long porch which was banked with lattice of greenery and blue and gold early summer flowers. Small tables were used and each table was centered with flowers to carry out the color scheme of the decorations. Miss Martin is a graduate of the 1925 class of Salem high school. About forty relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. Mrs. Frank Snedecor and Mrs. Charles A. Gray are on a two weeks' motor trip over the Redwood highway in northern California. An interesting feature of the trip will be a visit to the Yosemite National park. Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Brock will be hosts today at a ten-cover dinner party on the occasion of their third wedding anniversary. Mrs. W. H. Wood is a guest in Roseburg of her daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bestal, Mrs. Wood's granddaughter, Miss Isabel Bestal, will be united in marriage today to Mr. Clarence O. Baker of Roseburg who is in the moving picture industry at Hollywood. Miss Bestal is a former Salem girl and was popular here among members of the younger set. The Little Light Bearers of the First Methodist church and their mothers and friends are anticipating an enjoyable time next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when they will assemble in the park near Cottage street for games and stories. At 3:45 the group will march to the church, the children carrying flags for a short patriotic pageant. Afterward refreshments will be served. Mrs. Walter Miner and Mrs. J. S. Murray will assist Mrs. A. A. Lee. Professor William Wallace Graham will present a talented group of violin students in recital tomorrow evening in Walden hall. In the group will be: Mildred Roberts, Marie Frame, Helen Selig, Albert Garret, Ruth Kuhn, Virginia Wilson, Alexander Bowes, Tommy Livesley, Cleo Serley, John Heitzel, Marcus Yates, Kenneth Allen, Christine Constler, Katherine Kirk, and Austin Mack. Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith are spending the week-end at their new summer cottage at Nye Beach. Mrs. W. I. Northup of Portland who was a house-guest at the home of Mrs. H. H. Olinger this week left Friday for her home.

motoring back with Mrs. William Cutlers and Mrs. Sampson, who are prominent golf enthusiasts. Twenty members of the Mothers' class of the First Methodist church met on Friday afternoon for the regular June meeting at the home of Mrs. R. K. Olinger. Pink roses and sweet peas were used attractively about the rooms where a business meeting was held followed by a social time. Mrs. J. W. Phenece presided at the meeting. Delightful special musical numbers were the piano duets by the Misses Gladys and Carolyn Wilson. At the close of the afternoon refreshments of cake and fruit punch were served. The committee assisting the hostess, Mrs. Olinger, included: Mrs. C. F. Wilson, Mrs. Williams, and Mrs. C. J. Lisle. Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Barr have been guests during the past week in Portland. Of interest to her Salem friends is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Sarah Dolof to Samuel Leon Blocker in Los Angeles. Miss Dolof is a graduate of Salem high school. An attractive bridge and Mah Jongg luncheon of the past week was that given by Mrs. E. Gillingham complimenting Mrs. W. L. Northup of Portland, the house-guest of Mrs. H. H. Olinger. A bowl of June flowers centered the table where covers were placed for Mrs. Northup, the honor guest; Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mrs. John Gaughill, Mrs. L. F. Griffith, Mrs. O. C. Longenecker, Mrs. Ercei Kay, and the hostess, Mrs. E. Gillingham. Mrs. L. F. Griffith won the high bridge score while the Mah Jongg honor went to Mrs. Olinger. Two of the week's interesting recitals were those in which the pupils of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Churchill participated, pupils of Mr. Churchill appearing the first night at the First Christian church and pupils of both Mr. and Mrs. Churchill on the night following. On Tuesday the high school male quartette, Lola Schulz, reader and Leonard Chadwick, violin, assisted, while on Wednesday the assisting artists were: Leonard Chadwick, Stanley KINE, reader, and the high school double quartet. The first night's program follows: "Dragon Fighter"—Hoffman, Mildred Robertson Brooks will be the house-guest over the week-end of Mrs. Giles Curtis (Bessie Caroline Foster) in Portland. Mrs. Curtis' marriage was an interesting event of last Saturday, June 13, at the First Christian church. Rev. H. H. Griffith officiating. Mrs. Curtis who lived in Salem for a number of years, later spending a year and a half in the Orient, and since that time having been a popular teacher in the Portland schools, has always been a particularly welcome guest in Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis are living in the Kingsbury apartments, on Vista Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Paulus, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin, Mrs. F. S. Barton, Gertrude Robinson Ross, and Miss Edna Garfield were among those motoring to Portland for the June meeting of the Northwest Poetry society last night at the home of Ethel Romig Fuller. The Willamette valley is the center of all farm crops in Oregon and Salem is the heart of the valley. Come to Salem to live, and bring all your friends.
