AN OUT-OF-TOWN wedding of particular interest in Salem was that which took place in Wallawa on June 18, when Miss Faye McKinnis became the bride of Dr. Robbin Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Fisher, 790 N. Church street.

The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. McKinnis, with Dr. G. H. Feene officiating. An improvised altar was arranged of pink roses and pink sweet peas, immediately preceding the ceremony Miss Mae Hamilton sang "Oh, Promise Me," Miss Constance McKenzie played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the bridal party took their places at the altar.

Salem friends of Philip Elliott, son of Rev. and Mrs. Carl Elliott, will be interested to know, according to a letter received from Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Barnes (Es-ther Paroungian) that he was ordained last Sunday and has received a scholarship to Oxford university in England. Mr. Elliott is a graduate of Union seminary.

Miss Pearl Macy of Portland arrived in Salem last Thursday and is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Macy of South Salem. She will also visit her brother, Mr. H. W. Macy and wife and her sister, Mrs. Edmund May. She will return to Portland the first of next week.

Mrs. George A. White and two daughters, Henrietta and Dorothy, arrived home yesterday from Medford where they spent the ten days of the national guard encampment. From the Sunday society section of the Medford Sunday school they were fettered, both formally and informally. As her house guests Mrs. White entertained Major General and Mrs. Charles T. Menoher of San Francisco, Major Menoher being the commander of the Ninth corps area.

Items from the Medford paper follow: "On Monday noon General and Mrs. George A. White entertained at mess, guests of honor being Major General and Mrs. Charles T. Menoher and Governor Walter M. Pierce. Other guests included Sam Kozar, secretary of state; Henrietta and Dorothy White and Mrs. S. Sumpter Smith. After an inspection of the troops from the reviewing stand in the afternoon the party enjoyed a drive around the valley, stopping at the Oregon experiment station near Talent, in charge of F. C. Reimer.

"Tuesday afternoon Mrs. George A. White was the honored guest at the ladies' day at the Elks club. Several other officers wives were also guests, as well as a number of out of town visitors.

"Wednesday afternoon Mrs. A. B. Cunningham entertained a number of friends at bridge, honoring Mrs. White, at her attractive new home on South Oakdale. Mrs. H. M. Chadwick of Salem was another out of town guest.

"Wednesday evening the officers and their wives to a number of 20 enjoyed a picnic at Lithia park, followed by a swim at Jackson Hot Springs.

SOCIAL CALENDAR TODAY

Social tea. Old People's home, Center and Sixteenth streets, 2:30 to 5 o'clock. Writers' club, Mrs. Molly Brunk, 1545 Highland avenue, hostess. Wednesday Leisure Hour club, Mrs. Chas. Weller, 110 Luther street.

day started with a breakfast at which Mrs. Ivan G. Martin was hostess at her home, 392 South High street. At 1 o'clock Miss Turner gave a luncheon at the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe honoring her attendants. In token of the occasion she presented each with a charming Fastoria vanity set.

The luncheon was followed with a line party at the Oregon theater to see Gloria Swanson in "Madame Sans Gene," her new Parisian film. Hostesses were Mrs. C. W. Neimeyer (Blanche Liston) of Seattle, Miss Ethel Liston and Mrs. George Warner (Murah Hatch) of San Francisco.

Following the line party refreshments were enjoyed at the Gray Belle. Dr. and Mrs. M. P. Mendelsohn entertained at their guest over the week-end their son, Philip Mendelsohn, of Hollywood.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Doughton entertained at their guests during the Woodman convention Mr. and Mrs. A. J. C. Schroeder of Astoria. Judge Peter H. D'Arcy and his sister, Miss Teresa D'Arcy returned yesterday from an extended journey to the eastern states and Canada. They traveled 8,000 miles and passed through 35 states and a portion of Canada.

At one of the attractive home weddings of the season, Miss Eunice Truax, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Truax, became the bride at 2 o'clock Sunday, June 28, of Mr. Wilbur Sedore of Falls City. Reverend R. L. Putnam performed the ceremony in the presence of forty close relatives and the most intimate friends. An improvised archway of Caroline Test-out roses, ocean spray, fern, and shasta daisies was arranged across one corner of the room. The bride wore a charming gown of orchid crepe with hat to harmonize. She carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses and pink and orchid sweet peas. Miss Katie Truax, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing green crepe. Mr. Sedore was attended by Floyd Hamilton as best man.

Immediately preceding the ceremony, Mrs. R. L. Putnam sang "Oh, Promise Me." Miss Gladys Kelley played the wedding march. At the reception which followed, Mrs. Chris Kowitz presided at the punch bowl, while Mrs. L. C. Paul cut the cakes.

DE. and Mrs. Robbin Fisher (Faye McKinnis) were houseguests over the week-end of Dr. Fisher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Fisher. Mrs. L. M. Kletzing of Portland spent the week-end at "Playmour," the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Kletzing.

The Mothers' class of the First M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. R. K. Ohling on Friday, June 26. Devotions were led by Mrs. F. L. Shanks, after which the regular monthly business meeting was held. During the social hour the Misses Caroline and Gladys Wilson favored the group with two piano numbers. The rooms were lovely with sweet peas and roses. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Chas. Lisle, Mrs. C. F. Thielson, and Mrs. M. C. Williams. Those present were: Mrs. L. R. Peck, Mrs. C. Pessenon, Mrs. J. R. Robbins, Mrs. Charles Lisle, Mrs. A. A. Lee, Mrs. J. T. Moore, Mrs. A. R. Hanson, Mrs. N. S. Savage, Mrs. H. L. Shanks, Mrs. J. W. Phenice, Mrs. E. A. Lebold, Mrs. G. Gutekuntz, Mrs. F. L. Miller, Mrs. G. H. Quigley, Mrs. C. R. Wilson, M. C. Williams, Miss Gladys Wilson, Miss Caroline Wilson, and the hostess, Mrs. R. K. Ohling.
