NEWS BRIEFS

Four Boys Held—
Emile Lambert, Maurice Nelson, King Fransisio and Earl Ester, all of Santa Rose, Cal., are being held in the city jail for investigation. The youths appeared at the police station late last evening and applied for a temporary permit to operate their car in Oregon. On being questioned it was found that the car in Lambert's possession was not paid for and no permission had been obtained from the dealer to take the car from the state of California.

Miss Taylor Resigns—
Grace Taylor, a member of the Salem hospital board, resigned Tuesday. The resignation, it is said, is out of sympathy for the forced resignation of Miss Gladys Steele.

Patient Is Suicide—
Mrs. Mary Johnson, patient at the asylum, committed suicide on Monday night. The body was discovered in the bath room where she had fastened a sheet to overhead pipes and hung herself. She had made several previous attempts to take her life before being received at the hospital. She leaves a husband and four children at Eagle Point, in Jackson county. Five children are dead.

Speeder Arrested—
Paul Patton, taxi driver, was arrested on State street last night when he was driving 31 miles an hour. He was cited to appear in the city police court this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Annual Reports In—
Two more county school districts have filed their annual reports with Mary L. Fulkerson, county school superintendent. Districts filed yesterday were: White, district 38, H. D. Moore, chairman; Elmer R. Stauffer, J. E. Taylor, J. H. Hugill clerk. McKee, district 46, George Ballweber, chairman, P. W. Owre, B. H. Johnson, J. C. Owre clerk.

Tourist Is Nabbed—
B. F. Clocksin of North Bend, Wash., was arrested last night by Officer Edwards for traveling 31 miles an hour on Court. He was released under $10 bail.

Teachers Hear of Health—
At a meeting in the public library yesterday more than 60 teachers of the Monmouth normal school were addressed by health workers of the state. Dr. Walter Brown, Dr. Estella Ford Warner, Elenor Thompson and Ann Simpson were the speakers. The cooperation of teachers in the work of the health program was urged.

Kiwanis Favors Defense—
The Kiwanis club cast a unanimous ballot at their weekly luncheon yesterday in favor of National Defense day and all members present pledged their support to the movement. Charles Archerd, Rotarian, was the luncheon speaker. Peter Eitzen of the Emanuel male quartet of Los Angeles gave a bass solo and an imitation of a trombone.

Terrill No Cusser—
Through an error in transcribing his notes, a reporter turned in an item that H. H. Terrill was fined $5 for using profane language on the city streets. Mr. Terrill was fined $5 for placing boxes on the sidewalk in such a manner as to obstruct traffic and not for using profane language.

Tax Case Argued—
Arguments were heard by the supreme court yesterday in the case of State vs. Coos County, in relation of Governor Pierce and the tax commission, original mandamus proceedings relative to the right of the state to collect certain taxes. Coos county was represented by J. B. Bedingfield, of Bandon, district attorney; Tom T. Bennett, former state representative and John D. Goss, both of Marshfield. The state was represented by J. B. Hosford, of the attorney-general's office.

Mullen to Study Law—
How California makes practical application of the law enabling witnesses appearing for real estate hearings to take oath and be subject to the same treatment and privileges accorded witnesses in other proceedings will be studied by W. A. Mullen, deputy real estate commissioner, who leaves for the south today. Under the new law, proposed by Representative German, assisted by Will Moore and Mr. Mullen, the real estate commissioner is empowered to subpoena all witnesses. The law is equipped with "teeth" and is said to be a great improvement over the previous law. Mrs. Mullen will accompany Mr. Mullen on his trip.

Divorce Is Sought—
Declaring that her husband called her vile names and accused her falsely, Mary Sanders is seeking a divorce from H. P. Sanders. They were married in Vancouver in 1921. A divorce was granted to Leona Cleo Rettig from Herman Rettig yesterday in Judge L. H. McMahan's court. The couple was married in Oregon City in 1919. Desertion was charged.

Orders Are Issued—
Orders issued by the public service commission yesterday demand that the Southern Pacific maintain an agent and station at Alpine; modify the regulations covering automotive transportation regarding liability insurance policies; close a crossing at Bean station and reconstruct a crossing on the Portland-Corvallis branch of the Southern Pacific in Clackamas county.

Wilbur Not Coming—
Word was received yesterday by Governor Pierce that Secretary of the Navy Curtis D. Wilbur will not be able to attend the ceremonies in connection with the formal acceptance of the battleship Oregon in Portland Friday. He has appointed as his personal representative Rear Admiral Chase, commandant of the 13th naval district at Puget Sound.
