called "Exultation." Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre, Miss Marie Roberts, and Mrs. Blanche M. Jones, each read articles and poems which, while not original, they were interested in bringing before the group.

Charles J. Lisle read an article ingeniously written around the title, "Spinsters' Schools."

The living room was lovely with its bowls of garraldia and blue larkspur.

Miss Dorothy Evangelina Duncan became the bride of Mr. Alfred W. Hammit at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, June 30. The ceremony was performed at the First Methodist church parsonage in the presence of only the closest relatives, with Rev. Fred C. Taylor the officiating clergyman. The bride wore a charming ensemble of navy blue and tan crepe worn with a hat to harmonize. The bride's flowers were pink sweet peas and bride's roses with gypsophylla. A wedding breakfast for ten followed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. George Duncan, at 640 N. Summer street.

After a week's honeymoon trip to Portland and Seaside, Mr. and Mrs. Hammit will return to Salem to make their home at 326 Union street.

The bride came to Salem two months ago from the east. Mr. Hammit is a salesman at Busick's.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stover of Freewater, Ore., are visiting in Salem, they will attend the C. E. convention in Portland and return to Salem the last of next week. Mr. Stover will fill the pulpit of Central Congregational church both morning and evening of July 12.

Miss Mabel Dotson and Miss Doris Neptune motored to Portland on Tuesday to spend the day.

Mrs. T. G. Bligh and little granddaughter, Margaret Ann Bligh, left yesterday for Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, for a visit with relatives. They are planning on a month's absence. Mrs. Bligh and little granddaughter were accompanied as far as Portland by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bligh.

The Salem branch of the Oregon State Music Teachers' association closed the season with a picnic gathering on Monday evening in the garden surrounding the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Churchill, with a business meeting following the picnic supper.

The same group were: Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts; Mrs. Walter Denton, Mrs. Harry Styles, Mrs. Henry Lee, Miss Elizabeth Levy, Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Miss Beatrice Shelton, Miss Elma Weller, Miss Alle Chandler, Miss Ruth Bedford and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Churchill.

Friends of Dr. and Mrs. L. O. Clement are anticipating their arrival home from Europe on Sunday. Dr. and Mrs. Clement have been absent for more than three months in Austria, Holland, France, Switzerland, and England. Dr. Clement spent six weeks of the period in clinic work at Vienna.

The formal opening of the new headquarters of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs at Gladstone chautauqua park will take place Saturday, July 11. From 3 until 5 open house will be observed. Mrs. Saldie Orr-Dunbar, president of the federation; Mrs. Rosina Pouts Evans of Oregon City, chairman of the chautauqua committee; Mrs. Leander Martin, Mrs. G. J. Frankel, and other members of the state board, will receive the guests and tea will be served, this feature being in charge of department and division heads and members of the Oregon City Woman's club.

From 5 until 6 p. m. the state federation will be in charge of the symposium hour at which time delegates to the state convention at Marshfield will report. At 8 o'clock a basket supper will be served to which all club women and "club husbands" are invited.

The new headquarters will be the meeting place for club women from all sections of the country and each afternoon during the chautauqua assembly tea will be served by one or more clubs of the federation. The last indoor meeting of the Writers' club for the summer was held on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Byron P. Brunk on Highland avenue. In the absence of Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, the chairman, Mrs. W. F. Fargo presided. The program opened in a pleasing manner with Clara Virginia Barton's two poems, "Purpose" and "Immune." Two poems by Isabel Gray Clifford, "A Day Is This" and "Oregon, Our State," likewise delighted. Probably the feature of the evening was Miss Florence Jones' short story, "The Frayed Edges." Lena Lisle read a poem entitled, "Two Boys" and Anna Van Horsen Nelson, a prose bit

LADIES' DAY on the Illheer golf course was probably yesterday's most outstanding event. Particularly interesting was the putting contest in which Mrs. Gus Hixon was proclaimed the winner. Mrs. Farrar and Mrs. Ercel Kay of the "beaten eight," played a tie. Mrs. Orris Fry defeated Mrs. Donald Young and Mrs. H. H. Olinger won from Mrs. E. Gillingham in the championship matches. The success of these Wednesdays is assured for the entire summer, with summer feature planned for each week.

This morning a group of five from Salem will motor to Carlton to go over the course preparatory to the state tournament. In the group today are Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. Ercel Kay, Mrs. E. Gillingham and the captain, Mrs. H. H. Olinger.

168,000 CANS OF FRUIT PUT UP IN ONE DAY BY ONE SALEM CANNERY

This Was the Run That Was Made by the Two Shifts at the Hunt Cannery Yesterday, on Loganberries, Cherries and Black Raspberries—All the Canners and Packers Are Busy

The Hunt Bros. Co. cannery put up in Salem yesterday, in two 8-hour shifts, 7,000 cases of fruit. That means 168,000 cans of fruit; 24 cans to the case.

The fruit was loganberries, cherries and black raspberries. That is the record for this cannery, and it is believed for any Salem cannery. The Hunt cannery, a few years ago, put up 5,000 cases in one day; and that would have been 120,000 cans, 24 to the case. But the fact was that most of the cans of that run were of larger size. All the cans of yesterday's run were of the size going 24 to the case.

The 5,000-case run was the record for the Hunt cannery up to last year, when there was a day with a run of 5500 cases—

And that was the record till Monday of this week, when the output was 5600 cases.

The 7,000 cases of yesterday will likely stand for this year; though in future years no doubt it will not look like a big day's pack for one cannery in Salem.

All the canneries are also getting a lot of Royal Ann cherries, and red and black raspberries. Most of all these are being canned, but the Hunt people are putting their red raspberries into barrels, though most of the red raspberries coming now would be suitable for canning.

Some Strawberries Yet
The canneries are not getting any strawberries now, to speak of. But Baker, Kelly & McLaughlin (Continued on page 11)
