After 43 Years
Elmer Starr is visiting Salem, after being away for 32 years. He lived for six years in this city, from 1880 to 1885, and again for two years, from 1891 to 1893. He was employed in the Capital flouring mills—the brick mills on North Front street. In all the time since Mr. Starr left Salem he has been in Los Angeles. In the flouring mill business. He retired last year. He is a cousin of J. Benson Starr, of Pasadena, formerly of Salem, and of Prof. Albury Starr, formerly of Williamette university, and of Mrs. Mary Starr, formerly Miss Mary Starr, on Oak street, Salem. He is accompanied by Mrs. Starr, and they are at the home of Julius Nelson. Mrs. Nelson is an aunt of Mrs. Starr. After an absence of 32 years, Mr. Starr finds very many changes in Salem, and of course, and he finds very few people here whom he knew here in the old days. But he does find a few still sticking around.

Gladys Willifong, who filed divorce proceedings against Charles A. Willifong, on the grounds that one pair of stockings and one pair of shoes, even when, to this generous allotment is added the magnificent sum of three dollars, is not sufficient apparel and money to properly clothe a young lady, from March, 1924, to the present date, she asserts that these are all of the things that her husband has given her since that date, and that not only has she been improperly clothed, but forced to go for days at a time without eating. On one occasion she was forced by hunger to sell her only pair of shoes. She also states in her complaint that at one time in Bellingham, Wash., her husband burglarized a store to secure food and tobacco.

Seek Vessel Sale
A Portland insurance firm, said to be connected with Lloyds of London, is endeavoring to dispose of the river steamer Relief, which it purchased at public auction recently, after having received a judgment in court for damages sustained by the boat when it sank to the bottom of the Willamette river during the last winter's freeze. The boat was purchased for the sum of $2100, and the judgment against it amounted to $3500. It was proposed to take the craft to Portland for repairs some time ago, but as yet it remains at the dock at Spaulding's lumber mill, and with the river sinking rapidly, it will probably remain there until fall. It is known that at least one prospective buyer has been dickering for the boat with the supposed intention of opening up a freight service.

LOOTING IS NOT SEVERE

FEW CASES OF BANDITRY NOTED IN SANTA BARBARA

LOS ANGELES, July 2.—(By Associated Press.)—Captain Clyde E. Plummer, in charge of the detail of Los Angeles police being to maintain order at Santa Barbara following the earthquake last Monday who returned from the Channel City confirmed reports of looting there, which have been denied by the chief of police of Santa Barbara.

Captain Plummer said that several of his men reported cases of looting to him, one being in the Guadalupe church, whose altar the report said, had lost several silver and gold vessels.

He said he further understood that several men had been turned over to the Santa Barbara police suspected of looting.

Captain Plummer said his men did not investigate various reports as their duty was to help maintain order and that investigation of the reports was left entirely to Chief of Police Des Grandchamp's men.

COOLIDGE NOW RESTING

PRESIDENT ENJOYS OCEAN BREEZE AT BEACH

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., July 2.—(By Associated Press.)—The rest that President Coolidge had sought when he left Washington he found at White Court when he remained in seclusion enjoying the bracing sea air, wonderful view from the summer White House and the quiet surroundings.

There were no callers and the executive did not leave his summer residence except for a short stroll about the grounds.

Tomorrow the president will motor to Cambridge to speak at the celebration of the 150th anniversary of Washington's assuming command of the Continental army.

Mr. Coolidge's plans for the Fourth of July which will be his 53rd birthday, have not been formulated, but it is likely he and Mrs. Coolidge will take a cruise on the Mayflower, perhaps remaining at sea overnight.

DELEGATES REACH CITY

HUNDREDS IN PORTLAND FOR ENDEAVOR CONVENTION

PORTLAND, Ore., July 2.—(By The Associated Press.)—Delegates to the International Endeavor convention which will open here Saturday morning were swarming into the city tonight by train, automobile and on foot from every section of the country. It was estimated that several hundred delegates from a two weeks' trip to California.

E. L. Gray, manager of the Gray & White Publishing company, returned Wednesday from a three months' business trip to Kansas City, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude C. Moon will spend the week-end at Newport.

Warren Welton, an employe at the Salem postoffice, together with his family, left Thursday morning by auto for Newport. Mr. Welton will motor down the coast, fishing on the way, to Yaquina and hence to Waldport.

John Ulrich, an employe at the Salem postoffice, will leave tonight for a few days' visit in Centralia, Wash.
