Favors Button Shoes

O. E. Price, proprietor of the Price Shoe store, carries all the latest and most up to date shoes in his store, but he wears button shoes himself. Button shoes have been out of style for some time, but Mr. Price has stayed with them, although lately he has had to have them specially made. It has been reported that the button shoe is coming back in style, and that they would soon be worn again in the west. If such a thing happens Mr. Price stated he would surely have to change, as it would not do for him to be in style.

Auto Wreck Hurts Two

A Dodge sedan driven by C. V. Kennedy of Alliance, Neb., collided with an Overland sedan driven by Mrs. A. T. Reed of Oreno, at the Chemawa four corners, five miles north of Salem on the Pacific highway yesterday forenoon. Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Nikety, who were riding in the Kennedy car, were slightly cut by broken glass. Mr. Kennedy was crossing the highway coming from Chemawa at the time of the accident and the Reeds were traveling north on the highway, returning from a vacation trip to Newport. Although the Kennedy car was turned on its side, little damage was done to either car.

Seeks Place of Birth

"Can you tell me where I can find the location of the city that used to be known as Plety Hill," asked a woman tourist at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday. She gave the name of Mrs. Lillian Walker and said she was the daughter of Dr. Charles Abbott Smith. All that she could remember of her early childhood was the name of the locality and that there was a church nearby. A huge willow tree was also remembered. An appeal to old residents of the city was made with the result that the location of the city immediately north and east of the present state house used to be known as Plety Hill. Mrs. Walker spent 17 years in New York city and is now a resident of San Francisco. This is her first trip back to Salem and she admitted that she would like to return to the city some time.

License Is Issued

Leo L. Kent of Vernonia and Alice M. Kent, 365 North High, were granted a marriage license in the county clerk's office yesterday.

Divorce Is Asked

Charging cruel and inhuman treatment, Sarah Agnes Brown has filed a divorce action against David Brown. They were married in Vancouver, Wash., in 1920. Mrs. Brown declares her husband calls her vile and profane names and uses intoxicating liquor. She asks for $50 alimony, $100 attorney fees, and $50 suit money.

Rev. Crowder Back

Rev. U. S. Crowder, wife and daughter, are in Salem for their vacation. Having sold their home at 1016 Marion, they are moving to 1083 Shipping. Rev. Crowder was for two years in Salem where he still has all his property interests. He is now pastor of the First M. E. church of Manville, Wyo. He is such a booster for his home city, declaring it and the Willamette valley the best place in the world in which to live. He will remain here until Monday next when with his family he will return to Manville. He is most emphatic in his declaration that Salem is and will continue to be his residential city.

Visiting With Parents

C. J. Pugh and wife are visitors at the home of Mr. Pugh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pugh, at Clear Lake. It is the son's first visit home for 10 years, during which time he has been in nearly all the states of the union, and he declares that Oregon is the best state he has ever seen, in matters of climate, productiveness, beautiful scenery, etc. Mr. Pugh is chief field division deputy of internal revenue for Shreveport, La., United States service. At present they are visiting at the beach for a few days, after which they will visit again with the parents before leaving for their home in the south.

Delegates to Report

Northern Baptist convention delegates to Seattle last week will report this evening at the First Baptist church at 8 o'clock. The reports will cover the whole convention and the several departments of the denominations' activities. There was a total registration of 1600 delegates from 34 states in the northern convention. There were many visitors from all parts of the United States and Canada, in addition to the regular delegates. Reports from the various associated boards of the convention showed progress, and the outlook for the coming year as mirrored in the proposed programs is the brightest in many years past. The denomination will put greatest emphasis on the evangelistic program the coming year. The local church will participate in all Baptist activities.

INJURED MAN IS FOUND

BOYS HEAR GROANS OF MAN WHO FELL OFF BRIDGE

TACOMA, Wash., July 8.—Groans heard by two boys fishing in the Nisqually river near the Northern Pacific railroad bridge at the Pierce county-Thurston county line led to the discovery late tonight of a badly injured man lying on a small island in the river. He was taken to Yelm where he revived sufficiently to give his name as Tom Edwards, 45, of Seattle, and say that he had fallen into the river from the railroad bridge, a height of 60 feet early in the day. He was able to drag himself to the island despite a dislocated hip and a severe scalp wound. His condition is said to be critical.
