THE EIGHTH COMMANDMENT:—Thou shalt not steal. Exodus 20:15.

SALEM A SWINE BREEDING CENTER.

Salem has become a swine breeding center; has done this in the past six years; the Salem district has increased its swine breeding industry in this time to about five times its size at the beginning of the period—

And this growth is going right on. The Valley Packing company three years ago was going east of the Cascades and the Rockies for about a third of the 20,800 hogs it was annually using, and outside the Salem trading district for part of the two-thirds.

Well, this company has increased its packing operations, and is now able to get all its hogs locally.

What is more, this plant has been more than doubled in capacity, and brought right down to date; to the last minute; and it will before long be using 52,000 hogs a year, and getting them all from the Salem district.

This growth of swine breeding is bringing about an increase in the number of dairy cows; helping to develop a large poultry industry; has made Marion the leading corn county of the Pacific Northwest—

And it has added to the productivity of the soil in this district in many ways; aided the legume industry; put more silos on the farms, more paint on the barns and dwellings, and in many other ways helped in the thrift and prosperity and general well being of the people on the land here in Salem's patronizing territory.

The people of Salem and of the whole Salem district owe a great deal to the home men with enterprise and vision who put up the capital for the Valley Packing company, and have managed it and kept it growing and prosperous.

All this means more hogs, more corn, more cows, more poultry, more money, and still more and more; and more progress and prosperity generally.

There can be no over advertising of the fact that the Salem district is a good swine breeding country. The facts should be spread far and wide. The growing of a continually increasing acreage of Grimm alfalfa here is helping. The building of a beet sugar factory here, which is coming, will wonderfully help the swine breeding industry. It will make it boom; along with dairying, the poultry and bee keeping industries, and many others.

Swine breeding is one of the basic industries on the land in this section to make and keep this the most prosperous country in the wide world.

A FORE-RUNNER

Group insurance is making rapid growth. Recently under this plan several southern railroads insured their entire sixty thousand employees. No one of the employees was excluded on account of age or physical defects. In fact no medical examination was required. All pay the same premium regardless of age.

The breadwinner and those dependent upon him are encouraged in this assurance of protection in case of death. And by this means large numbers of those who on account of age or physical disability could not obtain protection from the regularly constituted companies, are protected.

The railroads and other industries providing this protection usually pay a portion of the premium thus bringing the amount required to keep the insurance in force within reach of the individual insured.

While the altruism of the companies plays a certain part in these contracts of insurance the fact that it is good business policy is obvious. It makes for contentment and for loyalty of the employees and it prevents poverty in case of death. It means better service through contentment and appreciation. And this group insurance and the retirement system of part pay to faithful, longtime employees now practiced by great industrial organizations are incentives to state-wide and even national application of old age pensions as a feature of our future economic system.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

Christian Endeavors of the nation are in session in Oregon's metropolis. These young people—representative of high ideals of life and service—are among America's most valuable assets.

Rallied together under the banner of the Cross and guided by the Golden Rule they have neither time nor desire for discussions or quibblings over the theory of evolution. Their efforts are directed unerringly to the betterment, the happiness of the present and future generations. Their ideal for the work and requirements of life is the Savior of men. They are among the country's most virile, sincere and hopeful young men and women.

The Convention members are tremendously busy with worth-while things of life. Their enthusiasm for Christian work, their splendid optimism for the future and their trust in the Creator as the guardian of their hopes and destinies, are an inspiration to other men and women everywhere.

CHAUTAQUA

Chautauqua is the people's great outdoor university. It offers a program that is educational, inspirational and recreational. Here may be heard some of the best speakers, musicians and dramatists occupying the American platform or stage.

The entertainments are all of helpful, attractive interest. Chautauqua deserves the full support of the citizens of this entire community. To its sponsors it is genuine responsibility. Its presence speaks well for the quality and progress of Salem's citizenship.

Everybody should feel it his or her special privilege and duty to attend and in every other way support it.

Place a strip of bacon lengthwise over the fish. Bake thirty-five minutes. To serve pour the sauce around the fish.

Bits For Breakfast

The Salem hog— He has become a factor of importance in the progress of Salem. Not the Salem hog of bad repute of the old political days, but the porker of high degree converting waste into dollars.

So may his tribe increase till there are no slacker acres or waste places.

The Salem canneries are mighty busy now. What would they have done with a bumper crop of fruit of every kind, when they are about covered up with work as it is?

It is very plain that our canneries must increase their capacities, and that we must have more of them, to say nothing of other fruit and vegetable handling concerns.

The Slogan pages of The Statesman for next Thursday will be about goats. It will be the annual goat Slogan number. Both branches, Angoras and milk goats. Both imported. The Slogan man is gratified to see growing evidences of a coming boom in milk goats here, to make Roquefort cheese. If that industry can be boosted long and strong enough, you are going to see it bring in many millions of dollars annually to the Salem district. The idea is taking faster and faster.

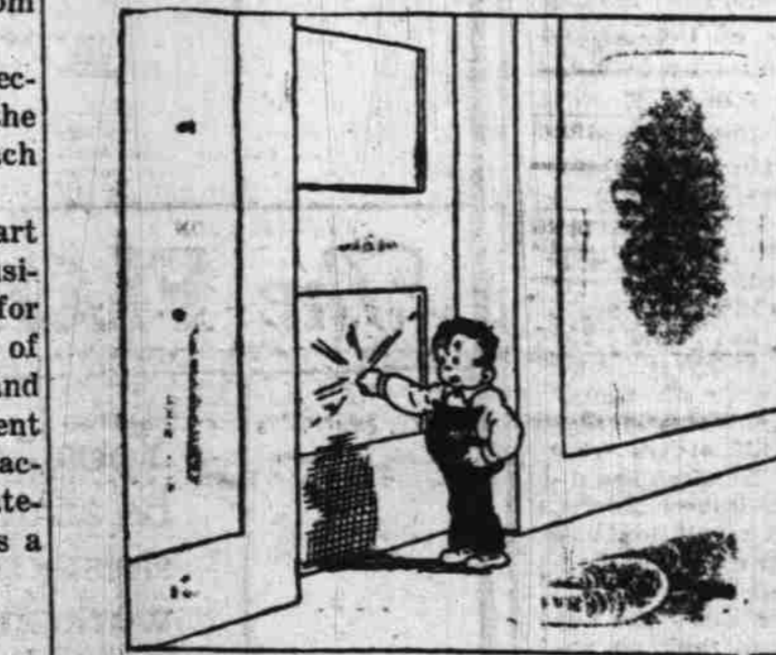

It would be a fine thing for all Salem people having visitors or directing tourists from the east, to remember the million dollar highway. The Labish section is one that shows solid wealth and great prosperity in agriculture as few other sections of the country can.

Salem has sent some of the finest black cherries ever shipped to the big cities of the east. This is a branch of the cherry industry that ought to have more attention. And there should be protection in the form of compulsory spraying.

BETTING FALLS OFF

VICTORIA, B. C., July 8.— Betting on horse racing the first four days of the sport here this year dropped $5,868 over the same period last season, figures made public today showed. The figures were $366,132 for this year and $372,000 last. The provincial government netted $17,833 revenue from the turf meet held last week.

DINNER STORIES

"During my absence," says a physician, "my two youngsters got into my consulting room, where they began to play at being doctors. Presently one of them unlocked a door and disclosed a skeleton to the terrified gaze of his father.

"Pooh! What are you 'fraid of?" he asked. "It's nothing but an old skellington."

"Wh—wh—where did it come from?" asked the other, with chattering teeth.

"Oh, I don't know. Papa's had it for a long time. I expect it was his first patient."

One of the usual four for bridge had failed to turn up and a friend from next door was persuaded to fill the gap.

She had slight knowledge of the game, and before long played the king unnecessarily on her opponent's ace.

"But, partner," exclaimed the host, "a king cannot beat an ace!"

"I know that," was the reply, "but I thought I'd let it have a try!"

A number of little girls were boasting about their respective families. They had passed from clothes to personal appearance, then to interior furnishings, and finally came to parental dignity. The minister's little girl boasted: "Every package that comes for my papa is marked 'D. D.'"

"And every package that comes for my father is marked 'M. D.'," retorted the doctor's daughter.

Then followed a look of contempt from the youngest of the party. "Ho!" she exclaimed, "every package that comes to our house is marked 'C. O. D.'"
