ONE OF THE MOST ATTRACTIVE affairs of the mid-summer weeks will be the garden "at home" this afternoon and early evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Smith, 475 N. Summer street. From 2 to 3:30 o'clock this afternoon Mrs. Orris Fry, Mrs. Walter J. Kirk, and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., will preside at the table. During the later afternoon hours their places will be taken by Mrs. F. M. Poorman, Mrs. Karl Becke, and Mrs. Frank Myers. The hostesses of the evening will be: Miss Edith Hazard, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. E. O'Riaghain, Mrs. W. H. Dancy, and Mrs. H. T. Love. Mrs. G. G. Brown and Mrs. H. M. Styles will also assist in the garden.

Social Calendar Today First Congregational church missionary meeting and picnic. Mrs. E. A. Miller, hostess. Missionary society, First Presbyterian church. Mrs. C. P. Bishop, hostess. Garden club "open garden" at home of Homer Smith, 695 North Summer. Women's society of the First Baptist church. Mrs. S. Willis of Hayesville, hostess. Missionary society and Loyal Women's class, First Christian church, 2:30 o'clock. Three Link Club, Fairgrounds. Picnic dinner at 6:30 o'clock. Past Matrons' association picnic. Graber's grove on Jefferson road. Last year. Francis Hackett, born in Kilkenny, and for several years literary critic of the New Republic, has written "That Nice Young Couple," which, recently published by Boni & Liveright, went into a second edition before publication. His sister Florence Hackett wrote "With Benefit of Clergy," published by the same firm some months ago which was received enthusiastically by the critics. And a week after "That Nice Young Couple" was published, a book on "Health Maintenance in Industry" by another brother, J. D. Hackett, was published. Miss Nina Marshall is in attendance at the International Christian Endeavor association in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Albert and family motored to Portland on Wednesday for the Christian Endeavor convention. Mr. and Mrs. G. Ed Ross were among those from Salem in attendance at the National Baptist convention last week in Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Madden and children, Edward, Robert and Alice will arrive tomorrow from Sharon, Pa., to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harbison. Mrs. Madden is a sister to Dr. S. A. Bowman. The Maddens have come west for the "Elks" convention. They plan to be in Salem for a week. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goulet and son, Homer, Jr., are leaving today for Long Beach, Wash., where they will spend the coming week end. They will join friends in Portland who will make the motor trip with them. Professor and Mrs. M. E. Peck are on a vacation trip in southeastern Oregon. Dr. and Mrs. Mark S. Skiff, Jr., are settled at Breitenbush Springs for the month. Later they plan an interesting trip south. Mrs. E. W. Lazell is planning a picnic supper at Oswego lake next Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Alice Wilbur Summers of St. Paul, guest of Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur, and of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dickinson Moore (Lucille Elrod.) About 20 of the younger set are to be invited. The Woman's society of the First Baptist church will hold its regular bi-monthly meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. Willis at Hayesville. Cars will leave from the church at 3:15 and at 3:30 o'clock. The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Miller, 1500 South High street, will be the scene of the annual gathering of the congregation of the First Congregational church. The women of the missionary society will meet in the afternoon and at 6 o'clock the families of members will join the group for a picnic supper. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Lamport are on a motor trip into the Puget sound country. The First Presbyterian church Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. C. P. Bishop this afternoon for the July meeting. On opening day of the Chauntauqua Wednesday, the new Federated Women's club building, adjoining the big auditorium, was well patronized. Tea was served during the afternoon, the organizations proudly displaying the new silver tea service recently presented by Mrs. Esther Allen Jones, and the set lent by Mrs. G. J. Frankel. New china also sparkled on the prettily arranged tea table and presidents of clubs throughout the state visited with each other and enjoyed the tea hour. Mrs. Rosina Fouts Evhns is official hostess and spends all her time at the federation building. Each day she is assisted by groups of club women, the Oregon federation, through its president, Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, providing the refreshments. There is still need of certain articles of furniture such as chairs and small rugs, as well as china and linen. Any woman desiring to donate these articles may notify Mrs. Dunbar, Broadway 2673. Saturday, being observed as Oregon Federation day, there will be a special program, "Echoes of the Marshfield Convention." A symposium will be presented by five of the delegates, each representing a large organization in the federation, and the usual tea hour, from 4 to 5, will follow. Every one is made welcome at the federation building, and all members are urged to visit it and enjoy its comforts and refreshments. Portland Telegram. Mrs. Ida M. Babcock has returned home from Portland after a visit of two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Maulding. Mrs. Charles Butz and little daughter, Betty Jane, of Modesto, Cal., are house guests for the summer at the home of Mrs. Butz parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Blake at Willow Lake. Mrs. Butz will be remembered as Alice Blake. Mrs. Butz and little daughter made the motor trip north with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blake of Pasadena. On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waters will join the party, the group motoring to Portland for the Elks' convention. Mrs. Butz will be in Salem till the 1st of October. The Three-Link club will hold its annual picnic in the camp grounds at the state fair grounds this afternoon and evening. A picnic dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock. All Rebekahs and their families will be cordially welcome. All are asked to bring well-filled baskets and own service. The committee in charge includes: Mesdames Evelyn Bremmer, Edith McElroy, Elsie Townsend, Blanche Saunders, Lillian Fleener, and Madeline Nash. Mr. and Mrs. G. Ed Ross have as their house guests Mrs. Ira Hassell and daughter, Geraldine, of Yakima. Mrs. Hassell is a sister of Mr. Ross. PEOPLE AND EVENTS SILVERTON

SILVERTON BOX SILVERTON, July 9—(Special to The Statesman)—Meetings of the congregations were held in both the St. Johns and Trinity Lutheran churches Wednesday night, the meetings being called largely for the purpose of discussing the question of union of the two churches. The question was brought up by the Lutheran Brotherhood society which asked the churches to consider the question. Following the suggestion of the Brotherhood a committee of five was elected from each congregation. The ten men are to attempt to formulate some plan whereby union may be realized, if possible. The committee from St. Johns church is: A. A. Ulvin, O. Sebo, Lars Opendahl, Carl Lee, and Ole Dahl. Men on the Trinity committee are: J. C. Goplerud, M. J. Madsen, Silas Tervend, Tom Hansen and Hans Jensen. Mr. and Mrs. John Severson are leaving Silvertown this week for South Dakota after having been here for a little over a year. The inability of Mr. Severson to find work to his liking and the fact that they have a farm in Wisconsin are the reasons for their leaving. They plan to visit enroute to the old home as the farm is rented and they cannot begin immediate occupancy upon their return. Friends of Miss Helen Selig, violinist, and of Miss Ruth Bedford, pianist, will be interested in the radio concert which they will give Saturday evening jointly over station KGW between 6 and 8 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. G. Ed Ross have as their house guests Mrs. Ira Hassell and daughter, Geraldine, of Yakima. Mrs. Hassell is a sister of Mr. Ross. Stans Hill, postmaster of Williamsport, has received a letter from a man now living in California who wishes to make restitution for a basket of edibles which he stole from a picnic ground in Williamsport 38 years ago. The Californian declared that he has joined the Salvation Army and that the memory of the wrong he did years ago was recalled to him by his changed life. He desires to square his debt with the owner of the basket, which he stole while passing through Williamsport in August, 1887. Postmaster Hill has made some inquiries but has been unable to discover who lost the lunch basket. West Sentinel—Wanted: Room by gentleman in modern home. Breakfast optional. effort to listen in than it does to read. The Heart of Home O, home is a wonderful thing! In all the world so wide There's never a place With half the grace Of the spot where our own abide! And always we see it clear, Wherever we may roam: For home is the heart Of the world's great mart— And love is the heart of home! O, hard may the struggle be, Against the wind and tide; The waves may dash, And the thunders crash, As the world's rough sea we ride; But ever we gain toward shore Where a light shines over the foam, And love's own strength Shall win at length, For love is the heart of home! —Minnie Leona Upton.
