HOUSEHOLD HINTS

MENU HINT Breakfast Oranges Sliced Prepared Wheat Cereal with Cream Toast Coffee Luncheon Macaroni Pimento Cheese Sandwiches Strawberries and Pineapple Oatmeal Cookies Milk Dinner Veal Loaf Potatoes Lettuce and Peas Custard Pie Tea, Hot or Iced

TODAY'S RECIPES Macaroni—Cook the macaroni in salted water until very tender. Drain and blanch. Beat two eggs thoroughly, add two tablespoons milk and turn into a hot well-buttered skillet. At once add the prepared macaroni, stir, then allow to fry until a golden brown. There is no need of heating the oven for its preparation—a thing worth considering in summer time.

Veal Loaf—Three and one-half pounds of veal, one cup bread crumbs, one teaspoon salt, one teaspoon onion juice, one-half pound ham, two eggs, one-half teaspoon sage, one-half teaspoon cloves, one-half teaspoon allspice. Chop the uncooked veal and ham very fine; add to them all the other ingredients, the eggs (well beaten), mix thoroughly and press into a square pan or mold. Turn it out on a baking pan, brush it over with beaten egg and bake in a slow oven for two hours, basting three or four times while baking with a tablespoon of butter melted in one-half cup boiling water. Serve cold, cut in thin slices.

Lettuce and Peas—One small head lettuce, two cupfuls peas, one tablespoonful chopped onion, one cupful bread-crumbs, one tablespoon butter, melted, one-half teaspoonful salt, pepper. Prepare lettuce cups by slipping one leaf of lettuce inside the other. Mix the other ingredients and fill the cups. Tie together with string and steam one-half hour.

Custard Pie—Line deep pie plate with best pie crust, being careful to spread it smoothly, leaving no air beneath it. Sprinkle lightly with nutmeg. Separate three eggs, beat into the yolks a half cup of sugar and add a pinch of salt. Pour into this enough rich milk to fill prepared crust. Beat whites stiff and stir well into milk and egg mixture. Pour all into crust, place pie in oven and add a few spoons of milk to bowl in which you made custard. With this fill crust as full as possible without running over. Bake slowly as this bakes easily.

SUGGESTION When blanket-stitching around a centerpiece, spread, etc., you find it saves time and patience to take a ruler and mark (just a dot with a pencil) all around the article about one-quarter inch apart or wider if desired. It saves time, also your work will be truer.

Menu Hint BREAKFAST Oranges Toast Jam Coffee LUNCHEON Toasted Cheese Sandwiches Lettuce Berry Roly Poly Milk DINNER Baked Hash Potatoes au Gratin Green Beans Tomato Salad Cup Custard Lemonade

Today's Recipes Berry Roly Poly—Three eggs, one cup fine sugar, one cup flour. Beat yolks until light, add the sugar, then two tablespoons water, a pinch of salt. Sift one heaping teaspoon baking powder with the flour, stir in one-half the body's weight, and if this perfect balance is interfered with the foot is thrown out of perfect alignment. The inner edge of the sole should form a straight line, and there should be plenty of room ahead, so that the toes do not jam into hard leather when the child jumps about.

When doing the spring cleaning, take a few scraps of each kind of material and sew together like a crazy quilt. Keep it in the dirty clothes basket and put it through with the family wash each week. If any accident befall any of the garments during the summer you will find you have a "patch to match," instead of one conspicuous by its brightness.

JURORS ARE CHOSEN IN EVOLUTION CASE (Continued from page 1) start in with an open mind. The minister admitted he had preached on evolution. "Against it or for it?" asked Darrow. "I am strictly for the Bible," was the reply.

Mr. Darrow repeated his question and Mr. Massengale answered to the court, but it was held a fair question. "Well, I preached against it, of course," Applause of considerable volume brought an admonition from Judge Raulston.

Mr. Darrow was assured that anyone who applauded would be excluded. Defense counsel was augmented today by W. O. Thompson of New York and Frank McElwee, Rockwood, Tenn., and G. C. Harris, a Springfield lawyer.

Visiting attorneys participating in the trial were welcomed by Judge Raulston. These included on the defense side, in addition to Mr. Thompson, Clarence Darrow, Dudley Field Malone and Arthur Garfield Hayes.

The prosecution, including William Jennings Bryan and his son, William Jennings Bryan, Jr., were introduced. The defense in adding two lawyers increased the total only one as John L. Godsey, Dayton attorney, had withdrawn after representing Scopes since his preliminary hearing.

CAMP MEETING SLATED CHURCH OF GOD CONVENTION WILL BE AT WOODBURN The 30th annual state camp meeting of the Church of God will be held on the camp grounds just north of Woodburn, July 16 to July 26.

The ground is equipped with auditorium, storage building for camp equipment, a store where foods and confections may be purchased, and a book store. Tents will be for rent and meals served cafeteria style.

The outlook for attendance is unusually bright. Rev. John Myers of Woodburn will have general charge. He will gladly furnish information.

When a woman was arrested in Mexico for planning to kill the president a letter was found on her addressed to the president's wife asking pardon for the killing. Who said Mexicans always put things off until "manana"?
