

PAPERMAKERS WIN FIRST OF SERIES

Eagles Defeated in Sundown League Game Last Night by Score of 3 to 0

The Papermakers defeated the Eagles by a 3 to 0 score last night at Oxford park in the first game of the Sundown league championship series.

Lauterback almost pitched a no-hit, no-run game for the Papermakers, striking out 13 men.

Dick Schackman scored the first run in the first inning on Gross's hit, when the Eagle's right fielder stumbled over a rock and dropped the ball.

Dick Schackman and the Gross brothers played stellar ball for the Papermakers. The Eagles had a good bunch of players, but by having to substitute other players their team was materially weakened.

The umpiring of Dr. Laird and F. Mason was the best seen on local diamonds this year. The lineup for the game follows:

Papermakers: Verastog, Lauterback, Wilkerson, Mootry, Limpkins, Schackman, Horton, Gross, Gross, Chapman. Eagles: Schultz, Hagedon, De Sart, Anderson, Snellley, Brown, Teck.

Load of Lumber Hides 3,000 Cases of Liquor

The lumber barge Nanticoke here to Astoria, N. Y., recently with what appeared to be a well-stored load of lumber. Curiosity of members of the customs boat "Liberty," prompted search of the vessel, which resulted in the unearthing of 3,000 cases of liquor. The photos show the Nanticoke, tied up at the army base dock in Brooklyn, with the "Liberty" alongside and customs men unloading the illegal cargo.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

"Long Jim" Barnes is a happy man these days. He has finally caught the will-o-the-wisp. He is watching the sparkling bag of gold at the end of the golfing rainbow.

Which is to state that Barnes finally wears the British open crown, won a few days ago.

Americans all were glad to see an American—at least one we choose to call an American—win the British event.

Barnes had captured all the other major golf titles. He had tried in vain to win the British. Twice had Long Jim won the national pro title.

Three years had he won the western open, next in importance to the two national tourneys.

And once had he basked in the limelight that goes with the national open. Not that Jim likes the limelight. Golfing is a hobby and a business with him.

It's getting to the point where the Bill Tilden-Vincent Richards clashes in tennis will soon outnumber the meetings between Jack Britton and Ted Lewis.

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., July 15.—(By Associated Press.)—In the role of sightseers, President and Mrs. Coolidge today visited the 200-year-old city of Quincy where John Adams and John Quincy Adams, the only two other presidents of Massachusetts to become president, were born and buried.

Later the party crossed to an adjoining yard where stood the modest frame dwelling where John Adams was born.

Before going back to the yacht for the return cruise to Marblehead the president and Mrs. Coolidge visited the First Parish church, in the basement of which is the resting place of both John Adams and John Quincy Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge were accompanied by Melville E. Stone, their house guest, Secretary Sanders and a dozen photographers, who made the trip at the express invitation of the president.

DEMPSEY-TUNNEY FIGHT IS SUGGESTED BY CHAMP

HEAVYWEIGHT AND WIFE RETURN FROM EUROPE

NEW YORK, July 15.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion and his wife, returned from Europe this afternoon on the liner Homeric.

Dempsey said he was prepared to fight once this year, probably in September, with Gene Tunney, American light heavyweight champion as his opponent.

Asked about a fight with Harry Willis, Dempsey said he would be ready for him next year.

Dempsey said he had had an offer from Floyd Fitzsimmons for a fight at Michigan City, Ind., on Labor day with Bartley Madden as an opponent, but wanted time to consider this before accepting.

Relative to his status with the New York state athletic commission, Dempsey said he expected to straighten matters out with the commission some time next week.

His contract with Jack Kearns did not expire until September 1, 1926, and that Kearns would book any matches for him.

DISPUTE OVER PRAYER IN COURT IS FINISHED

MODERNIST PREACHER DELIVERS INVOCATION

Darrow Admits Charge of Being Agnostic; Denies Being Infidel

DAYTON, Tenn., July 15.—(By Associated Press.)—The dispute over the practice of opening the Rhea county court each morning with prayer, which repeatedly has agitated the proceedings in the trial of John T. Scopes, appeared tonight to have been settled.

The prayer today was offered by the Rev. Charles Francis Potter, modernist preacher of New York, who with other visiting churchmen, had protested to the court against the daily prayer by those he called fundamentalist ministers.

Dr. Potter was chosen to lead the prayer today by the Dayton Ministerial association.

It was presumed tonight that the local pastors, in compliance with petition of modernist group would select a preacher of fundamentalist beliefs to open the proceedings of court with devotion tomorrow.

Dr. Potter and his assistants refused that the morning prayer be given alternately by representatives of both groups of religious believers.

Clarence Darrow renewed his objection to the prayer and asked that his exception to the ruling of the judge that daily prayer would be offered should be noted in the record.

Lawyers insisted this custom prejudiced the case of the young school teacher.

Sue K. Hicks, replying for the state to Mr. Darrow's objection today called on the court to have the record show his final ruling in order that "this daily heckling by defense counsel" might be discontinued.

The judge indicated that the matter was settled.

Mr. Darrow made a brief statement in court today with reference to the terms "agnostic" and "infidel" which have been heard during the proceedings of the trial this week.

"I do not object to counsel for the state calling me an 'agnostic,'" Mr. Darrow said. "I am an agnostic. But the fact that I am an agnostic ought not to weigh in the balance which determines the guilt or innocence of Mr. Scopes."

The Chicago attorney said the word "infidel" had no indefinite meaning that he could almost say it had no meaning whatever.
