

County News in Brief

Auburn

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Branson was the scene of a prettily appointed wedding when their son, Earl, and Miss Lucile Lons were united in marriage, Rev. W. N. Blodgett officiating. The beautiful ring ceremony was used. The bride carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations, and wore a dainty gown of silk, covered by a wedding veil caught with a pink rosebud. Pink and white draperies and pink hollyhocks and white Shasta daisies, and a large United States flag composed the decorations of the room and wedding canopy. Only a few relatives and close friends were present. The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lons; the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Branson; the groom's grandmother, Mrs. I. C. Hewitt; the groom's great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Galentine of Portland; the bride's sister, Miss Miller of Chicago with her young son and daughter; the groom's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. Carver of Eugene, and Rev. and Mrs. W. N. Blodgett of Hopewell. Ice cream and cake, with fruits, were served by Mrs. Carver and Mrs. Miller. The happy couple left by auto for northern points and will be at home to their friends at the home of the groom's parents by the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dowd have as house guests Mr. Dowd's cousin from Wisconsin.

Mrs. J. A. Pooler has sold her ranch here, the buyer taking possession immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cady were guests at the Hazel Green church Sunday where a tentative program was drawn up for the Sunday school convention which is to be held there in September.

Mr. Miller, who has been promoted to the position of principal keeper at the state penitentiary, is preparing to move with his family to Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Lindbeck are to attend the poultry convention at Corvallis this week, leaving his poultry ranch here in charge of W. A. Pettit.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lee will attend part of the sessions of the poultry convention at Corvallis this week.

Little Faith, daughter of Mrs. Phillips, has been suffering from a severe attack of tonsillitis but is somewhat better.

Sidney

Herman Frieze is building a large barn on his ranch near Sidney. Also two large silos, when completed it will be an up-to-date dairy barn.

On account of the unusually hot weather and high winds the spring grain and "garden asst" are badly damaged. Lots of the late sown grain will not get tall enough to cut for grain.

The busy hum of the threshing machine will soon be heard in this neighborhood for the fall sown grain is in the shocks. The weather is ideal for drying it.

Charles Hartley has a fine large horse that met with a serious accident. A ten penny nail was run in the foot to such a distance as to cause an open joint wound which is very painful. Under the care of Dr. Fred W. Long the horse is doing well.

R. H. Farr is a very busy man as he has the only hay baler in this locality. It is said his baler makes a nice smooth bale and the danger of fire is reduced to the zero mark by the use of a tractor to furnish the power.

The section crew on the Oregon Electric was called to Sidney Sunday from Orville to fight fire on the right of way. Matches, cigarette and cigar stubs should be "sure out" before throwing on the ground.

Mrs. Bertha McCulley of Alberta, Canada, is visiting at the home of her son, Wilber Anderson. Mrs. McCulley is a former resident of this neighborhood.

W. H. Scott attended the BPOE convention in Portland and reports a good time with a bumper attendance.

The Sidney baseball team met the Jefferson nine on the Marlotte diamond Sunday afternoon. Jefferson was defeated by a score of 6 to 4. Sidney has a good team, but has no desire to meet the New York Giants or Detroit Tigers. Having no enclosed field the expectations of the boys are partly met by the liberal contribution of the onlookers. Those leaving before the hat is passed miss the best part of the game.

Hazel Green

The revival meetings being held by Rev. S. S. Turley and wife are increasing in interest. Two were converted at the morning service and seven at evening. The following will be the subjects for the coming week: Monday, The Power of the Gospel; Tuesday, The Man God Called a Fool; Wednesday, The Man in a Horrible Pit; Thursday, Joy in Heaven; Friday, No Difference; Saturday, Excuses; Sunday, A City Captured Without Gun or Cannon; And Preparation to Meet God. There will be baptismal services at the pool in the park at 8 o'clock Sunday, July 26.

Mrs. Turley conducts a very interesting service for the children each evening. Special music each service by Mrs. Turley, singing evangelist. A number from Labyrinth Center attended Sunday evening.

Frank Van Cleave of Spokane, Wash., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Cleave, and son Ralph Van Cleave.

Mrs. Rudolph Wacken and baby and Mrs. C. A. Kobow were guests of Mrs. Fellein of Salem on Sunday for dinner. Late rthey all went to Spong's landing.

Mrs. Anna Wheeler and children of Salem were visitors at her father's, Herman Wacken.

Turner

Flax pulling in the vicinity is at its height, the earliest flax is being delivered in Salem; the late and irrigated is not ready for harvest. Bail Brothers keep their puller running early and late—counting eight acres a day a good average.

C. A. Bear delivered his first picking of cucumbers to a Salem pickle firm Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Carron of Salem spent the week end with a friend, Mrs. W. T. Riches.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stewart who left for Spring Valley, Minn., June 27, arrived July 11, having spent two weeks enroute.

Mrs. J. F. Lytle spent a few days in Portland recently.

Lee Crawford of Salem is batching with his uncle, B. F. Funston for a time and is hardening his muscles in his father's wood lot near by.

Mrs. H. N. Barnett has returned from a weeks visit to her mother's home near Plainview.

CHERRY PRICES FOUND GOOD IN EASTERN MART

LOCAL ASSOCIATION GETS 16
CENTS FOR FRUIT

Price Received Highest in Years;
Cherries Are Found Free
From Worms

O. E. Brooks, manager of the black cherry association, has received word from Chicago that a car of cherries sold there for the association would net members 16 cents per pound. The cherries were near the last of those shipped by the local concern and as it was feared that they might not reach Pittsburgh in good condition, they were ordered sold in Chicago. This price is higher than has been received for cherries shipped by local shippers for a number of years.

Further word has been received by Brooks stating that one car of cherries had been sold in New York by Schobel & Day for $3.20 a box f. o. b. New York, and another for $3.07 f. o. b. Chicago.

Word from V. B. Bonney in regard to an inspection of cherries made for the association to determine just how much the use of spray might affect the cherries for shipping purposes, states that hardly a trace of arsenic is discernible and that the cherries are absolutely free from worms.

HARDING TOMB PLANNED

LATE PRESIDENT AND WIFE
WILL REST IN MARION

NEW YORK, July 21.—(Associated Press.)—A circular mausoleum of granite, 80 feet in diameter and 49 feet in height will be erected at Marion, Ohio, to contain the bodies of the late President Warren G. Harding and his wife.

Details of the winning design were announced today by the Harding Memorial association. Two colonnades will encircle the memorial, which will have no roof. The exterior will be of Greek Doric design and the interior of the Greek ionic order. In the center of a circular cloister will be placed the sarcophagi.

Beautifully your home. Help to make Salem the Garden City of the state.

The monkey trial—
That brain storm being over, what will be next to occupy the summer silly season?

The Slogan pages of tomorrow, giving the annual edition on our schools, will show that Salem is more of an educational center than ever before, and becoming still more so all the time.

That idea is one that cannot be exploited too much. We cannot get too much education, nor too many good institutions devoted to educational interests.

Nearly everybody from nearly everywhere was at the band concert last night.

Salem strives to serve. We are here to please. We are not going to lose any manufacturing concern for a little thing like filling up a ditch. Bring on the factories.

Marion county is going right on with her paved market road program. Going to, everlastingly. If you want to see the difference, travel over any other county in Oregon or any old state that has no paved market roads. It is like the difference between this generation and the dark ages.

The places in Salem that sell the milk malt drinks (beer with less than a half of 1 per cent of alcohol) are doing about as much business as the old saloons, and it is fast increasing. Push that, long and hard enough, and the hop business will come back to stay.

Seventy-one men and 11 girls were recently arrested in New York City and vicinity for counterfeiting. And not one of them had an American name.

CULL OUT THE LOAFER HENS

Don't Kill the Layers, Market the Culls, and Save Feed

Nearly fifty per cent of the hens in every flock do not lay a sufficient number of eggs to pay for the cost of their feed alone. Nearly fifty per cent of the male birds in every flock are not worth breeding from. Therefore, one-half of the poultry owned by the average poultryman consumes the profits that he makes on the other half of his flock.

The most important thing that should be known to every poultryman is to tell how to select his good layers, how to pick the birds that consume food but do not lay, and how to pick birds that should be held over as breeders.

During the next few weeks is the important time to cull out these loafers. Hens that have ceased to lay eggs should be disposed of at once. By culling out these hens now you will not only save feed but you will get higher market prices for the culled out hens. The longer you keep these hens, the lower the market price will be and the more feed they will eat.

Cull them out and sell them as soon as they cease egg production. Keep the hens that lay late in the summer and into the fall months. It is easy and simple to tell these hens if you have the plain methods and secret given in

"The Call of the Hen"

A new revised edition of this book by Prof. T. E. Quisenberry, gives all the latest information on culling out the non-layers, selecting for heavy egg production, culling, etc. Hundreds of thousands of copies of earlier editions of this book have been sold and gave entire satisfaction. It is worth $100.00 to any poultry raiser.

The new revised edition is strictly down-to-the-minute in selection by color changes, bodily changes, pigmentation, head points, changes in moulting—all the latest authoritative information is worked out by state investigators and leading poultrymen.

Endorsed by leading authorities—government and state, county agents, farm bureaus, poultry clubs, and experienced poultrymen everywhere. Next to the trapnest itself, this is the best known method. Will positively tell the good from the bad. Contains many illustrations showing just how to cull out loafers, how to tell good producers without trapnests, how to select the breeders to keep over, etc.

It will prove ten times what you pay for it in a single season. Even if you raise but a few hens on a back city lot, you need this book. The method is so simple that a child can apply it.

Guaranteed absolutely to please you or your money refunded. Hundreds of thousands have been sold with this positive money back guarantee and not a book was ever returned. Send $2.00 for a copy, postage prepaid. Address all orders to the
