

Money In Your Pocket

Our moderate prices never deplete a man's purse

The man who buys his outfitting here will always have money in his pocket.

We secure the best clothing that we can buy—clothing that is absolutely right

G. W. JOHNSON & CO.

469 STATE STREET

BEN SEZ

He has a 1920 Dodge touring — lots of extras. A real buy at $350—See it today that has been in this section to the Chamber of Commerce office yesterday. One bunch of the flax measured 5 1/2 inches and will average three tons to the acre, according to Mr. Bradley. He stated that he has six acres of flax that will average three tons to the acre and 80 acres that will average two tons to the acre. The Bradley farm is located one mile south of Aumsville.

VICK BROS.

Will Pay Cash—
For used piano. Phone 1659. 123

At Poultry Convention—
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck of the Auburn district are attending the convention of poultrymen in Corvallis this week. Mr. Lindbeck is Salem correspondent for the Oregon Journal and a poultry raiser.

Free—
Cozy Corner electric lamps given absolutely free with each complete set of lighting fixtures purchased from us. Only a limited number left. Salem Electric Co., P. S. Barton, owner, Masonic Temple, phone 1290. 123

Desks Are Stored—
In order to make room for extra clerical help to take care of the great amount of additional work caused by the creation of the certificate of title act by the last legislature, desks in the house of representatives are being stored and the room equipped for members of the motor vehicle department of the secretary of state's office.

Governor in Corvallis—
Governor Pierce was called to Corvallis Wednesday to speak before the convention of poultrymen.

School Head Visits—
Josephine Corliss Preston, state superintendent of schools of the state of Washington, was a visitor at the office of J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of schools, Wednesday.

Student Party Here—
In charge of Roy R. Hewitt, a group of political science students from the OAC summer school was in the city yesterday visiting various state institutions. At the penitentiary a group photograph was taken on the office steps by the prison photographer.

You Telephone Us, 119—
We'll deliver it, no matter how small the item. Capital Drug store. 1221f

Army People Transfer—
Capt. and Mrs. Allen Pitt, who for the last six months have had charge of the Salvation Army work in Medford and Jackson county, have received transfer orders directing them to report for work in this city. Salem is the second largest Salvation Army corps in the matter of importance in the state and the transfer is regarded as a promotion for the Army people.

Lieutenant Pays Fine—
When Lieut. Clark L. Huffner, of the 11th United States cavalry, appeared in police court yesterday to answer a charge of having liquor in his possession he was fined $75 by Police Judge Poulson. Lieutenant Huffner was arrested on Highland avenue by T. A. Rafferty, chief state traffic officer, who checked him at 43 miles an hour.

These Potter in Town—
T. J. Potter, 18 East 41st street, New York, is the way his card reads now. But in the old days he was to his Salem friends Thede Potter; and he had a lot of them. He was born and lived in Salem to mature manhood. For 22 years

Carlson Visits City—
Victor D. Carlson, relief manager for the Western Union Telegraph company, was a Salem visitor yesterday. He left for Port Angeles, Wash., last night where he will relieve the office manager there for two weeks.

Overlands and Willy-Knights—
New models will be demonstrated today and tomorrow. Take advantage of this opportunity to ride in one of these wonderful cars. Vick Brothers, High street at Trade. 123

Fine Flax Exhibited—
A. E. Bradley of Aumsville brought in some of the finest flax

REDUCED SUMMER RATES TO CALIFORNIA BY PICKWICK STAGES
San Francisco, one way, $15.50 Round Trip, $29.00
Los Angeles, one way, $27.25 Round Trip, $50.00
Special Rates to Parties of Eight or More
For Information and Reservations phone 496, or call at CENTRAL STAGE TERMINAL, Salem, Oregon

WOODRY Buys Furniture
Store Number and Norway Streets Phone 511

LADD & BUSH, Bankers
Established 1899
General Banking Business
Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

he has been with the Standard Gas Equipment corporation. He now has special charge of the hotel range department. He was for some years in Boston with this company, but has for a long time been in New York. Mrs. Potter is with him. She was a Boston girl. They have a married daughter with children in New York city. Mr. Potter left Salem in 1890, but he has visited here every few years, and has at every visit found many improvements. Mr. and Mrs. Potter are with his brother, L. W. Potter, route 5, box 47, on the southern extension of Twelfth street, and they will be here for about ten days.

Hospital Has Smallpox—
Because of a single case of smallpox, ward No. 1 at the state hospital was placed under quarantine Wednesday by Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent. The victim of the disease is Walter Bondell, an attendant. All inmates and employes who have been exposed will be vaccinated today.

Mullen Back in Salem—
W. A. Mullen, who has charge of the real estate department in the office of the state insurance commissioner, has returned from California where he met with a number of real estate officials.

Clinics Are Continued—
A clinic will be held at Pratum today by the Marion county child health demonstration. A two-day clinic was completed at Brooks yesterday.

Fred Being Salvaged—
Salvage of between 100 and 150 tons of feed, said to be worth about $20 a ton, has kept a crew of eight or ten men busy at the ruins of the Cherry City Milling company which was destroyed by fire July 12. The work is being continued this week and an additional 100 tons is expected to be salvaged. A fire hose has been kept on the smoldering ruins ever since the blaze in an effort to drown the embers.

Mrs. Crossman Dead—
Mrs. A. B. Crossman died in Portland Saturday, July 18. Mr. Crossman was postmaster in Salem when the postoffice was in the present Statesman building. He was afterwards postmaster at Portland and is a business man of that city. Mrs. Crossman was as a girl in Salem Linnie McCully, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McCully, Salem pioneers. The Crossman home in Salem was at the corner of Center and Winter streets, and it was a most hospitable place. Mrs. Crossman was a woman of fine character and a great favorite. She was for one term president of the Salem social club in Portland, which meets once each year to renew friendships.

Continue Sunday Series—
The fourth sermon in the series on "Through Nature to God" will be given in the First Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. F. C.

OBITUARY

Heim
Leslie Ralph Heim, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Heim, died at 2470 Walker street, at the age of 1 year, 1 month and 11 days. The remains are in care of the Terwilliger funeral home. Funeral announcements will be made later.

Funerals

Pemberton
The funeral of Nancy Pemberton will be held at the Rosedale church Sunday, July 26, at 2 p. m. Interment will be in the Rosedale cemetery. Webb funeral parlors in charge of arrangements.

GABRIEL Powder and Supply Co.
Paints and Varnishes
175 South Commercial — Phone 728

Electric Cafe
For EATS

Woody & Woody
Pays Cash for Furniture
Phone 75

LADD & BUSH, Bankers
Established 1899
General Banking Business
Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Taylor, on next Sunday morning. The subject will be "God's Trees," and will consider the palm tree as the best type of the Christian life. The other subjects have been "God's Fields," "God's Mountains" and "God's Rivers." These messages have attracted large congregations during the month of July. The pastor has been granted a vacation by the church board and will attend the Knights Templar convocation in Seattle next week, and also the Epworth league institute at Falls City in August. The family will accompany Rev. Mr. Taylor on these motor trips north and to the coast.

Horace Terrell of Newberg is in the city conferring with school officials.
Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Young of Seattle were Salem visitors yesterday.

Complete Vision Lenses

Now that the Cross complete vision lens has proven itself we are ready to recommend them to our patients

Ask to see the New Bifocal

Staples Optical Company

Portland—Salem
Corner State and High Streets Salem, Oregon

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Our Weather Man

Cloudy
Generally cloudy with moderate temperature; gentle winds, mostly west and northwest. Wednesday—Max. 76; min. 49; river, 1.4; stationary; rainfall, none; atmosphere, cloudy; wind, southwest.

At The Theaters Today

Oregon—Richard Dix in "The Shock Punch."
Grand—Star cast in "It Is the Law."
High—Eva Novak in "The Beautiful Sinner."

Mattresses Demanded

Six mattresses have been received at the Salem auto camp grounds to meet the demands made by tourists. It is said that when the visitors, in many cases, found they would be unable to receive a mattress, they proceeded to another camp. The mattresses will be furnished to those asking for them without additional charge to the camper.

Trover's Studio

122 N. Com'l St. 124

Going to Tillamook

Friday Dr. Walter Brown, head of the Marion county health department, will go to Tillamook to participate in the home makers' institute. He will speak on "Community Health." The institute is held under the direction of the University of Oregon extension service.

Loans Wanted

$1800 and $2000. Brand new homes; 6% right now. Becke & Hendricks, L. S. Bk. Bldg. 124

Requisition Is Honored

Governor Pierce yesterday honored a requisition from the governor of California for the extradition of Harry Van Gelder, arrested in Salem several weeks ago with Lester Williams, who was extradited two weeks ago. The two men were wanted in Los Angeles on a charge of embezzlement.

Dance Saturday Night

Stanton Community club open air pavilion. A wonderful place to dance—delightfully cool. Tallmadge's All-Stars playing. 123

Washington Nurse Here

Miss Wither, public health nurse at Walla Walla, Wash., has arrived in the city to study the methods used by the Marion county child health demonstration.

Cutworm and Earwig Bait

Pearcy Bros., 237 State St. 124

Daughter is Born

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Briscoe, of Brooks, at a local hospital last night. The baby has been named Sylvia. Mrs. Briscoe was formerly Miss Sylvia Jones, of Brooks.

Opportunity Day

A ride in one of the new Overlands or Willy-Knights awaits you. Take advantage of it today or tomorrow. Vick Brothers, 123

Will Settle Dispute

Settlement of the dispute over the location of the St. Paul highway will be made July 28, according to J. P. Hunt, county judge. The question is over the selection of the route, two of which are available. The first is whether the proposed Fairfield-St. Paul route should be placed in the five-year program, or whether a four-mile stretch, completing the paving between Salem and St. Paul, should be completed. Delegations interested in both proposals have appeared before the court.

Opportunity Day

A ride in one of the new Overlands or Willy-Knights awaits you. Take advantage of it today or tomorrow. Vick Brothers, 123

Acting City Treasurer

While C. O. Rice, city recorder, is on his vacation, Miss Edith Birch, stenographer at the city hall, is looking after the affairs connected with his office.

Vietrolas for Much Less

From now on. Moore's Music House. 126

Editor Attends Meet

W. C. Connor, editor of the Northwest Poultry Journal of Salem, is attending the third annual convention of the Oregon Poultry association at Corvallis. A three-day session will be held. The convention this year is said to be the largest gathering of poultrymen in the history of the association. Over 150 have registered to date.

One License Issued

A marriage license was issued by the county clerk yesterday. It was taken out by Walter H. Blinnegar of route 7, Salem, and Amanda Barstad of Woodburn.

Trover

Is making photos. 124

Patient Is Returned

Attracted by the peculiar actions of a young woman on Fairgrounds road, Officer Putnam approached and questioned her. She replied to his questioning that she was Mrs. Thelma Beckman of 103 E. Water street, Portland. Officer Putnam was not satisfied with the result of his investigation, however, and accordingly took the woman to the state institution for the insane. It was discovered later that the woman had escaped from the institution earlier in the day.

Vacation Days in a Studebaker

Light 6 touring. See a good used one at the Certified Motor Car Market on North Church St. 1211f

Flax Expert Visits

Lester Dewey of the department of agriculture at Washington, D. C., was a Salem visitor yesterday. Mr. Dewey is one of the country's best flax experts, and was sent by his department to investigate flax conditions in the Willamette valley. At a meeting of flax growers and business men held in Aumsville last night, Mr. Dewey and Prof. J. H. Hyslop of Oregon Agricultural college were the principal speakers.

Dr. Marshall

Osteopathic physician and surgeon. 123

Emmons Due Friday

W. W. Emmons of the Scotch Woolen Mills store is expected back from an extensive pleasure and buying trip through the middle west. Supplies for the store were purchased in Chicago, while relatives were visited in Canada.

A Real Sacrifice

2 1/2 acres, all cleared, fenced, barn, on rock road, 3/4 mile from pavement and town, must be sold at once—$2500. If interested reply at once through Statesman office. Owner, L. D. C. 123

Firm Members Retire

Five members of the Central Motor Bus line have retired from membership, according to papers filed in the county clerk's office. Those leaving are Dave Austermahl, M. A. Reed, J. H. Brown, J. C. Paddock and A. Morgenson. The stage company operates between Salem and Eugene, with headquarters in Salem.

Woody Buys Furniture

Store at Summer and Norway streets. Phone 511. 1151f

Turkey Back on Job

Charles Huddleston, turnkey at the state prison, has returned from a two weeks' vacation, part of which was spent in Portland and part in Salem. He will be back on the job today.

Overlands and Willy-Knights

New models will be demonstrated today and tomorrow. Take advantage of this opportunity to ride in one of these wonderful cars. Vick Brothers, High street at Trade. 123

Motion Day Is Set

Saturday, July 25, has been set as motion day in the circuit court, when the calendar will be rearranged and new cases set for trial. Several hearings were crowded out by the lengthy Miller case, which was finished yesterday.

Hawleys Take Trip

Returning from Astoria Tuesday afternoon after a conference with Secretary Wilbur relative to the naval base at Tongue point, Congressman and Mrs. W. C. Hawley and two children, Anna and Willis, will leave this morning for Cascadia where they will take a two weeks' vacation.

Administrator Named

B. W. Macy has been appointed administrator of the estate of John B. Simmons. The appraisers named by J. T. Hunt, county judge, are Brasier C. Small, W. E. DeLong and Carl T. Pope.

Writ Is Granted

A writ of habeas corpus was granted yesterday by Judge L. H. McMahan for Harry Van Gilder of Los Angeles. The paper alleges that Van Gilder, who was arrested here on receipt of a message from the south, was being imprisoned illegally.

Trover Has

Patience with the kiddies. 124

Scout Executive Visits

Harold Ware, Boy Scout executive, returned to the Scout camp at Cascadia last night. He reports things at the camp going nicely and every one having a fine time.

Dr. J. Ray Pemberton

Wishes to announce that he is not the Dr. Pemberton who is moving to Dallas. 123

Carlson Visits City

Victor D. Carlson, relief manager for the Western Union Telegraph company, was a Salem visitor yesterday. He left for Port Angeles, Wash., last night where he will relieve the office manager there for two weeks.

Overlands and Willy-Knights

New models will be demonstrated today and tomorrow. Take advantage of this opportunity to ride in one of these wonderful cars. Vick Brothers, High street at Trade. 123

Fine Flax Exhibited

A. E. Bradley of Aumsville brought in some of the finest flax

WOODRY Buys Furniture

Store Number and Norway Streets Phone 511

"The Beginning of the End Is at Hand"
Thursday—Friday—Saturday are the
LAST THREE DAYS
of our
First Birthday Sale

3 Final Groups
Dresses
We have assembled in this lot the most charming dresses of Printed Crepes and Voiles in a wide range of color combinations. Priced ridiculously low at—$4.85

Dresses
In this lot you will find an array of dresses of quality in every conceivable style and fabric and at this low figure you will surely buy more than one—$9.85

Coats
In this lot we have grouped together at this price Coats that sold as high as $39.50 including the celebrated Prince of Wales models in all the new shades and weaves. Priced now at—$10

MILLINERY
All of our Summer Millinery that sold from $10 to $25 is included in one large group to sell these last three days at—$4.85

The Smart Shop
WHERE STYLES ORIGINATE
115 North Liberty