

THE RIVALRY SOCIETY

By AUDRED BUNCH

Phone 106

It is perfectly probable that there will be more Salem folk in town over the week-end at hand than on any previous week-end this summer. The reason is obvious. "The Rivals," for one limited night only, is to play tomorrow at the Grand theatre. To see "The Rivals," a play so timeless in theme that after a century and a half it is playing to record houses throughout the country, will be both a distinction and a pleasure. To miss seeing "The Rivals," Richard Brinsley Sheridan's extraordinary comedy, is to miss the most magnificent dramatic opportunity of the season. To stay at home the one and only night "The Rivals" plays ought to be as much as impossible it seems, one could almost say, remembering the greatness of the actors who are to play, a physical impossibility. Notable among the actors is Mrs. Fluke who has been noted for two decades. A number in Salem have already been favored enough to have seen her unparalleled acting, and will welcome a new opportunity with double pleasure. Chauncey Olcott as Sir Lucius will be Chauncey Olcott most superb. Thomas A. Wise will take the part tomorrow night while the characterization of Bob Acres will be delivered through the personality of James T. Powers. Lola Fisher, Lotus Robb, Marie Carroll, Kenneth Thomson, Fred Eric, Gerald Rogers, George Twade, and Herbert Twade complete an exceedingly brilliant assemblage of actors. It is doubly interesting that the role Mrs. Fluke is carrying was taken in the famous Jefferson all-star cast of 1896 by no other than Mrs. John Drew while the part of Lydia Langrish was memorably enacted by Julia Marlowe Taber.

According to Clayton Hamilton who was a guest here last Saturday, "The Rivals" is experiencing a remarkable tour. Box receipt records for thirty-six years were broken in the Grand street theatre in Philadelphia.

The Salem management for the event has the enthusiastic support of the American Association of University Women who are practically unanimous in their feeling that to see "The Rivals" is the all-star cast in which it is now appearing will be one of the remembered events of a life-time.

Friends of Mrs. W. F. Fargo are interested in the appearance of her poem, "GIRL," in the current issue of McClure's magazine.

Miss Edna L. Sterling of Seattle is the house-guest of Mrs. Paul B. Wallace. Miss Sterling arrived here yesterday.

A garden tea at which widow mothers and their daughters will be the guests is the delightful affair which Mrs. W. E. Anderson has planned for Saturday afternoon and early evening from 4 to 8 o'clock. As hostesses, Mrs. Anderson has chosen these particular hours in order that daughters who are working will have an opportunity to come after their offices have closed. Invitations have been issued to a large group for the occasion.

Mrs. E. J. Miles has been the guest for the past week of her daughter, Mrs. Will Knight in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Toothace are spending the month of July at Cascadia.

About 25 members of the Young Married People's class of the First Baptist church motored to Hager's grove for a delightful picnic on a recent evening. Baseball and swimming were the chief diversions till 7:30 o'clock when a delicious luncheon was served.

Mrs. F. L. Spurrier of Pasadena is an interesting visitor in Salem at the home of her sister, Mrs. Alice Coolidge.

Mrs. W. E. Anderson entertained as her guests on Tuesday Mrs. F. W. Keeler of St. Joseph, Mich.; Mrs. J. A. Campbell and Mrs. R. E. Kleinsorge of Silverton, and Mrs. T. W. Creech, the group motoring about Salem for a visit at the attractive garden spots. Mrs. Keeler is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Campbell, in Silverton. Mrs. T. W. Creech and Mrs. Campbell were girlhood friends together.

Mrs. Mary Lee Jenett of Long Beach, Cal., is a guest at the home of Mrs. A. L. Brown for the next two weeks. Later she will leave for Newport for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Page, will have as their house guests over the week-end a group of friends from Portland. In the house-party will be Mr. and Mrs. George Weber, Miss Margaret Brown, Miss Mathilda Jensen, Miss Bertha Cronk, Mr. Nat Higgins, Mr. Arthur Voight and Mr. Thomas McDonough.

Mrs. Mary E. Crawford of Chicago has arrived in Salem to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Henry and of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crawford for the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. Cecil Hawley and children, Willis and Annabelle, have gone to Cascadia for a couple of weeks.

One of the most interesting places to be found in Salem is the children's playground during the summer weeks where on the hottest days more than 100 children gather for swimming, games, and the story hour. At the invitation of the playground board which, appointed by the mayor, includes in its personnel Fred Erixon, C. A. Kells and Mrs. La Moine Clark, the Salem Woman's club for the remainder of July and through-out August, has assumed charge of the story hour for children up to the age of 9 years.

Mrs. Roy Burton opened the week's program on Monday in such a pleasing manner that not only the little girls, but also the younger boys have arranged to join the group for this period in the afternoon's program. On Tuesday Mrs. W. H. Byrd delighted her youthful audience with her choice of stories, and on Wednesday Mrs. A. L. Wallace won for herself a most cordial reception. Yesterday Mrs. Grant R. Honell was surrounded by a large number of eager listeners. This afternoon Mrs. Ray L. Farmer will be in charge of the hour, and tomorrow Mrs. F. A. Elliott, chairman of the public health committee, which is the "pioneer" group for this phase of the club's work, will close a first successful week.

Next week Mrs. Frank M. Erickson's committee—the institution committee of the Salem Woman's club—will sponsor the story-telling hour. On Monday Mrs. Paul H. Acton will be in charge; on Tuesday Mrs. S. M. Endicott; on Wednesday Mrs. R. K. Ohling; on Thursday Mrs. Frank M. Erickson; on Friday Mrs. J. C. Nelson, and on Saturday Mrs. E. F. Fluke, or.

The Three Link club will meet this afternoon in the club room at the IOOF hall. The hostesses will be Luella Egstrom, Sarah Oliver, Mollie Bush, Hattie Patterson and Lela Peablies. The committee in charge of the program includes Grace Weber, Louisa King and Laura West.

Unusually attractive among the summer social affairs was the 16-cover bridge luncheon on Wednesday at which Mrs. E. M. Page was the hostess, entertaining for the pleasure of Mrs. Arthur Pike of Phillipsburg, Mont., and Mrs. R. V. Vallion of Portland. A color scheme of pink and lavender was delightfully carried out on the table. Pink and lavender sweet peas were used as the center flowers, while lavender candles burned in sterling holders. The same color note was used in the nut cups and in the colonial girl place cards.

Four tables of bridge were in play throughout the afternoon, the first and second prizes going to Mrs. Phil Newmyer and Miss Zoe Stockton, while Mrs. Pike and Mrs. Vallion received the guest prizes.

Those invited for the luncheon and the afternoon of bridge were Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, Mrs. Lester Barr, Mrs. Carl Webb, Mrs. Leo Page, Mrs. Paul V. Johnson, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. Karl Kuzel, Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. Walter Page, Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. Merrill Ohling, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Miss Zoe Stockton, Mrs. Arthur Pike, Mrs. Ribot Vallion, and the hostess, Mrs. E. M. Page.

Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn and Franklin E. Lauper were guests yesterday afternoon in Corvallis.

The Golden Hour club met on Monday evening in Hager's grove for an enjoyable picnic meeting. In the group which motored out for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Abrams and children, Betty and Bobby, Mrs. Mason Bishop and daughter, Miss Henrietta Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Butler and daughter, Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ingrey and son, Homer, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Roy Pemberton and daughters, Mary Esther and Rachel, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stewart and children, Bess and Junior, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sprague and Richard, Mrs. E. C. Van Slyke and children, Bobby and Jean, and Dr. and Mrs. Ellis and children, Katherine and Frederick.

Mrs. L. A. Blaisdell is entertaining as her house guest her mother, Mrs. Edith Miles of Emmett, Idaho. Mrs. Miles arrived in Salem Saturday to spend the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hucklestein are domiciled at Rockaway for a fortnight.

The birthday anniversary of Merwin Stolzhise was the occasion of one of the enjoyable social gatherings of the month when a group of Willamette University

NEW HOTEL PLANNED

STAGE LINE TO FIRST BUILDING AT KLAMATH FALLS

EUGENE, Or., July 22.—Bids will be called within 30 days on an eight story, 147-room hotel at Klamath Falls, according to announcement tonight of Richard Shepard of Eugene, secretary and treasurer of the Stage Terminal & Hotel company of Oregon which is to erect the structure.

The McDonald property on the northeast corner of Sixth and Main was purchased for $60,000 as a site for the hotel, which is to cost another $190,000, according to Shepard. The company is operating hotels and stage terminals in several Oregon cities now.

PEOPLE AND EVENTS SILVERTON

LILLIE L. MADSEN, Statesman Correspondent

SILVERTON, July 23.—(Special to The Statesman.)—Verte Henry Hay died at the Silver Falls timber company camps Wednesday noon as a result of his chest being crushed by the log-loading machine. The young man had been employed at the camps but a short time, about 10 days. Hay lived he would have been 18 years old next week, having been born in Silvertown on July 30, 1908. Funeral services will be held from the Silvertown undertaking parlors Friday at 2 o'clock, with Rev. J. A. Bennett officiating. Interment will be in the Silvertown cemetery. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hay and four sisters and four brothers survive.

Preliminary plans for a community fair such as was held last year were discussed at a meeting held in the Silvertown Chamber of Commerce rooms last night. The meeting was called originally for the purpose of learning if a fair was desired by the people of the city and surrounding country. As the sentiment was favorable, a number of decisions were made. The general committee will be the same as that of last year. Charles J. Johnson will be chairman. He will be assisted by George Hubbs, and by Ernest Starr, who will be secretary of the fair. Dates of the fair will be September 10, 11 and 12.

Premium lists and other information concerning the fair will be available about the middle of next week. Much interest was shown in the fair of last year which was sponsored by the American Legion and which was held on the grounds and in the auditorium of the Eugene Field school building. The legion voted in favor of the fair this year at their meeting last Monday night.

Work preparatory to paving was begun this week on that part of West Main street which is at present unpaved. The contract was awarded some time ago to Harmon & Wilson and it is expected that the pavement, which is to be of concrete, will be ready for use within a few weeks.

The improving of the street up west hill or Liberty Hill, as it is also called, will mean that all of the principal streets leading into Silvertown are paved. Improvement of the hill has long been urged, as most of the traffic into town from South Silvertown and Walds Hills was over this hill. Always rough and with a curve near the bottom, the street was particularly bad to drive over. Complete relief from the roughness of the street will not be afforded, however, as there will still remain unpaved the portion between Sprague avenue out to the city limits where the county pavement begins.

Mrs. B. Faurge, Nora and Grace Hansen, Mrs. Christina Jacobson and Mrs. Josephine Jacobson drove to McKeg Monday for a visit at the Andrew Johnson home. Mr. Johnson is reported as being quite ill. He is suffering from hardening of the arteries and has been confined to his bed for several weeks.

A number of Silvertown residents left for Gladstone park Wednesday morning to be in attendance at the all-Lutheran chaletauqua now being held there. Rev. George Henriksen has charge of the boy's encampment, the enrollment of which is expected to be about 300. He will be assisted by a number of teachers and recreational directors. The girls' encampment is headed by Mrs. M. G. Gundersen of Silvertown. Mrs. George Henriksen is one of the instructors in the daily classes for girls and Miss Theodora Henriksen is a camp lieutenant. Mrs. O. Ormbeck will be at the park during the week and take charge of an ice cream booth.

Among the girl scouts from Silvertown camping at the park are: Sylvia Larson, Ingaborg Goplerud, Louise Henriksen, Ethel Larson, Martha Thompson, Helen Thompson, Norma Olson. Others from Silvertown are Einar Ormbeck, Norman and Marvin Jensen, all Boy Scouts, and Mrs. Hans Jensen. Chris Hansen, Nora and Grace Hansen and Alfred Nelson, who are visiting at Silvertown from Hammingford, Neb., are also at Gladstone. Although conducted by Lutherans the chaletauqua is not limited to Lutherans only.

When Farmers Need Money

—They can obtain it at a very low interest cost here at Hawkins & Roberts, providing it is for legitimate purposes.

We mean by this the increasing of the beef or dairy herd, the purchase of the much needed soil and the extra land for pasturage or some profitable crop, and for such equipment as is needed to efficiently carry on farm operations.

Come in the next time you are in Salem, Mr. Farmer, and tell us your needs.
