

TWILIGHT SERIES RACE STILL CLOSE

Legion Defeats Bankers 1 to 0; Deciding Contest Slated Monday Night

The American Legion took the United States Bankers into camp last night at Oxford park, in one of the fastest and cleanest baseball games seen here. The American Legion won by a score of 1 to 0. The winning score was annexed in the last frame when Hooper, pitcher for the Legion, was hit and went to first, and then made the rest of the journey around the diamond on Pearmine's double.

"Toughly" Frazier, playing third for the Bankers, tried hard to score but failed. On his first trip to bat he connected for a two-bagger and then died on third because his team mates could not deliver. The second time he stepped to the plate he repeated his first success with another double. This time he got to third and with none down, seemed sure of scoring. Fate was against him, however, as the next man fanned and the next hit a hot one straight down third base line and into the third basemen's hands for a double play.

Bloomer, pitching for the Bankers, and Hooper for the Legion, broke about even in the division of honors. Bloomer, if anything has a little edge on his opponent, allowing two hits to the three allowed by Hooper. Both pitchers struck out 5 men. The Bankers made 2 errors, and the Legion 1. Umpires were, Mason, and Frisco Edwards.

Last night's win ties the series for the Twilight league championship at one up. The deciding game will be played Monday night. The Bankers won the first game of the series by a 3 to 2 score.

The line up for last night's game follows:

Bankers—Thompson, c; Blumberg, p; Humphrey, ss; Lucas, 1st b; Thompson, 2nd b; Frazier, 3rd b; G. Thompson, lf; Weeks, cf; Rheinhardt, rf.

Legion—Pearmine, c; Hooper, p; Parker, ss; Acton, 1st b; Sullivan, 2nd b; Ruzgics, 3rd b; Gibson, lf; Laird, cf; Gabrielson, rf.

ERROR IS CORRECTED

JOSEPH BAWER SHOULD HAVE BEEN JOSEPH BAKER

Whenever the Statesman finds an article that is worth using in the evening contemporary it compliments that publication by using some of the article. Unfortunately, nearly every time that such an article is used in part, the Statesman is forced to apologize to its readers for carelessness upon the part of the staff on the other paper.

Joseph Baker enjoyed his 86th birthday Thursday. Through negligence the proof-reader on the evening paper permitted the name to appear as Joseph "Bawer." Not knowing Mr. Baker personally, the re-write man on the Statesman, in good faith, announced to the world that Joseph Bawer, a mythical character, had passed the 86th milestone in his life's journey.

In further good faith correspondents for the Portland papers felicitated the mythical Mr. Bawer instead of Mr. Baker.

The evening paper a few months ago broadcast the imaginary arrival of a set of triplets and went so far as to search records to show how many sets had been born in the past.

DANISH HARBOR BURNS

FIRE DESTROYS SHIPS AND QUAY; DAMAGE IS HIGH

ODENZ, Denmark, July 24.—(By Associated Press.)—A great fire which started Thursday in the harbor district of Odenz still was raging tonight but the fire brigades hoped soon to bring it under control. The damage thus far was estimated at 10,000,000 kroner.

Two ships were reported burned and others in serious danger. During the conflagration the heat was so intense that a quay on the opposite side of the harbor became ignited.

Efforts of the firemen were hampered by collapsing walls.

JACK DELANEY DEFEATS BURKE; FIGHT STOPPED

BURKE FLOORED 3 TIMES; REFEREE ENDS BOUT

Losers Swings on Official After Decision Is Made to End the Battle

NEW YORK, July 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—Jack Delaney, light heavyweight of Bridgeport, Conn., tonight scored a technical knockout over Jack Burke of Pittsburgh in the ninth round of a 10-round contest.

Delaney, who has been matched to fight Paul Berlenbach for the light heavyweight championship next month, floored his opponent three times before the referee saved the Pittsburgh man from further punishment. Burke objected strenuously to the decision and made a swing at the referee, but seconds jumped into the ring and led him to his corner.

Delaney floored Burke twice in the first round and again in the fifth. Each time Burke was saved by the bell, but in spite of Delaney's efforts later to end the match by a knockout, Burke refused to go down for the count.

EAGLE TEAM PROTESTS PAPERMAKERS' PLAYER

SCHACKMAN DECLARED TO BE INELIGIBLE TO PLAY

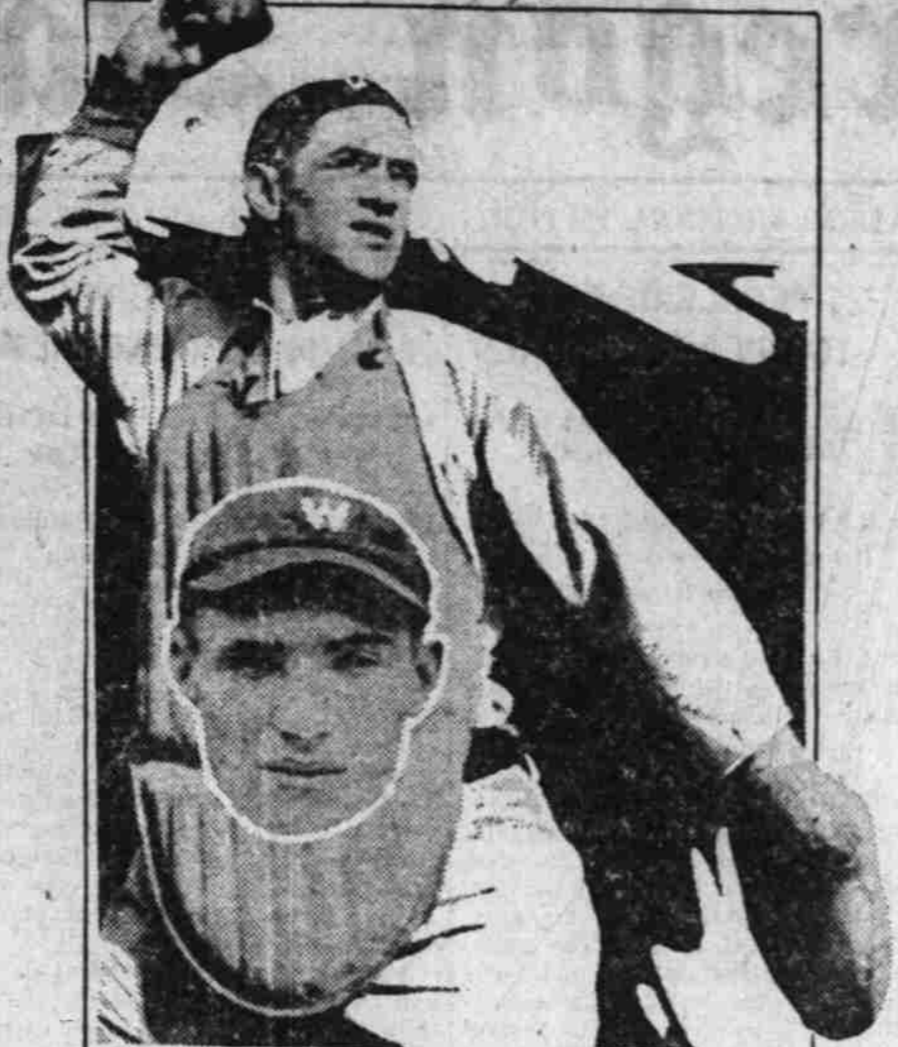

Team Faithful and Deserves Fair Chance at Title, Says Manager Willett

On behalf of the Eagle players, Steve Willett, manager, got busy yesterday to prepare a formal written protest which, under the by-laws of the Sundown league, must be filed with the president of the league, Dr. L. E. Barrick, within 24 hours following a game. The Eagles are protesting the Papermakers' game on the ground that one player is ineligible. The game Thursday night, which was won by the Papermakers, was played under protest.

According to Manager Willett, Shackman, who brought in the winning tally for the Papermakers is a regular player on the Senator team and as such is not eligible to play in either the Sundown or Twilight league. He cites the ruling made against Luke Gill, while not a salaried player for the Senators, practiced with them regularly, and because of this was barred from participation in the city leagues.

Manager Willett declares that his team has been faithful and hard players during the season and have a right to meet the winner of the Legion-Banker game

Gone but Not Forgotten

The Cleveland Indians, two years ago, decided Steve O'Neill was about done as a catcher. Last winter they let the veteran spitballer Coveleskie go. Right now the team could use both. Poor catching has handicapped the team. Covey has won more games than Sherry Smith, veteran southpaw retained by the Tribe.

to decide the championship of the two leagues. He believes that his men are not having a fair show, and incidentally that they can defeat the Papermakers if Shackman is out of the lineup. It is in justice to the team, he said, that the game was protested and the written protest sent to the president of the league.

SECRETARY HAS NERVE

MAYOR OF MANILA SEEKING COPY OF STATUTES

The nerve of an insurance agent has nothing on the nerve of Mr. Paywall, secretary to the mayor of the city of Manila, Philippine Islands.

That worthy gentleman recently sent a short letter to the mayor of Salem in behalf of the mayor of Manila, requesting that the ordinances and the municipal records of the city of Salem be sent by return mail. It was specifically stated that there was to be no charge or obligation incurred by this demand.

In checking over the matter it was found that there are some few thousand ordinances on the statute books of the city. What was meant by the municipal re-

COOK SENT TO JAIL FOR NEXT 3 MONTHS

CHANGES PLEA AND RECEIVES SENTENCE FRIDAY

Judge Percy Kelly Denies Motion for Parole and Denounces the Defendant

William Cook, one of the principals in the contributing to delinquency cases that have occupied the courts here for some time, appeared in the circuit court yesterday and changed his plea of not guilty, to guilty. He was sentenced to three months in the county jail by Judge Percy R. Kelly. Cook has already been in jail for 112 days.

A motion for parole was made by Cook's attorney, who said that relatives in Montana had provided a job for the defendant, and that he had agreed to leave the state. It was also declared that Cook took no active part in the escapades which involved minor girls, but that he had merely accompanied the party.

Judge Kelly denied the parole. In commenting on the case the court declared that while Cook may not have actively participated in the contributing case, and that while he, himself, may not have plied the girls with liquor, his responsibility was in no way lessened. The defendant was scored for permitting the others in the party to misconduct themselves without offering a remonstrance.

"It is time for the younger generation to learn to protect its women," Judge Kelly declared. "The fact that it is lax in this cannot be overlooked. We must not only watch our own conduct but we must watch the conduct of others when it concerns girls and young women. A passive witness to a crime or misdemeanor can be just as guilty as the person actually committing the crime." Cook, the father of a small child, was recently divorced by his wife.

STRIKE MAY BE AVERTED

TERMS MAY BE ARRANGED BETWEEN OFFICERS, SAID

LONDON, July 24.—(By Associated Press.)—Although the miners federation has announced a strike of colliers on July 31, and only a bare week remains for a possible cessation in coal production, the situation tonight appeared more hopeful for a bridging of the chasm of the dissection between the miners and the coal mine owners.

Mediation by W. C. Bridgeman, first lord of the admiralty has been so effective that today he persuaded the disputants to meet in conference next Wednesday in an endeavor to smooth out their troubles. In addition Premier Baldwin has agreed to meet on Monday a special committee of the trade union congress which has been given full command of the miners' case in the impending struggle.

Another hopeful sign tonight was that the mine owners had agreed that in the event the negotiations with the miners still are in progress at the end of the month they will carry on the existing wage agreement from day to day until a new agreement is negotiated, thus in practice postponing the posting of lockout notices. It is not known if the miners will agree to continue work on these conditions and doubtless much will depend on what develops at Wednesday's conference.
