

CHAMPIONSHIP WON BY SALEM SENATORS

Luckenbach Team of Portland is Defeated Here by Score of 7 to 4

Disputing almost every play and protesting every decision, the Luckenbach ship company baseball team of Portland lost their chance to win the pennant of the Interstate league on Oxford field Sunday and left the Salem Senators the big end of a 7 to 4 game and the championship of the league.

Twice during the game Carroll, Luckenbach manager, became "peevy" at the ruling of the umpire and threw down his bat in anger. This paved the way for Spec Keene, who accidentally dropped his bat in the eighth inning, and Umpire Rankin having seen too much of this sort of thing, ruled Keene out of the remainder of the game.

The Senators drew first blood in the second inning but the score was tied by the visitors in the following canto. In their half of the inning the Senators annexed three more tallies and chalked up a run in their half of the fourth and a brace of them in the fifth, which ended the scoring for the locals, though they threatened in nearly every inning.

While the game Sunday ends the playing in the league for the season, Manager Edwards is trying to line up some other good teams for the remaining weeks. Efforts are being made to get the Cyclone team here Sunday. This team is the winner of the Greater Portland league, completing the season with 12 victories and no defeats.

Summary of the game— R. H. E. Senators 7 12 7 Luckenbach 4 8 4 Batteries—Barham and Edwards; Zweifel and Helmke.

STORMS SWEEP ISLANDS WOMAN DEAD; PROPERTY DAMAGE DECLARED HIGH

HONOLULU, Aug. 3.—(By Associated Press.)—One woman was killed and three men threatened with death yesterday and last night when unusually high winds swept the Hawaiian islands and churned surrounding waters into foam. Mrs. Yazu Suyetsugu died in a hospital here today of injuries sustained when her automobile was blown off the hillside at the heights at suburbs last night. David Kahanamoku, brother of Duke Kahanamoku, the internationally known swimmer, was adrift at sea with two companions in a disabled launch, 13 hours before being rescued.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

MacDonald Smith, who failed once more to win the British open golf tournament this year after starting the final round an almost certain winner, comes out frankly with the statement that the disorderly gallery which handicapped him in his play and threw him off his game was engineered by a "smuggling ring" which would have lost many thousands of dollars had he won the coveted championship. Smith exhibits English newspaper clippings to bear out the stories of the uncontrolled gallery.

This betting condition is an unfortunate one for the game if true. It strikes the first body blow at a sport that so far has been held above the machinations of the unscrupulous—the kind we have associated with in other sports. Golf has always been a gentleman's game. It must be to hold its prestige. Betting on the game has been handled on that basis, by men to whom a bit of money "up" adds spice to the game.

If the "sure thing" gamblers who are utterly devoid of sportsmanship or a wholesome love for any game, are now breaking into the sport, and drastic steps should be taken immediately to rid the game of them.

Bartley Madden, long a trial horse for ring champs and near champions, may get another chance to star in that same role. Jack Dempsey, apparently in the mood to re-enter the ring, has indicated a desire to take on Madden or some other trial horse as a preliminary to the now talked of bout with Harry Wills or Gene Tunney.

Dempsey explains that he wants not only a couple of months active training but one or two warning-up fights before he meets either one of the last named men.

Therein Dempsey shows himself a shrewd gent. He is aware that

PRISON WINS SHUTOUT PORTLAND TEAM IS DEFEATED 6 TO 0 SUNDAY

The prison baseball team won a shut-out game from the Portland Independents on the state penitentiary grounds Sunday afternoon.

Foster, pitching for the penitentiary, allowed but two hits, while he struck out 19 batsmen. The entire prison team played errorless ball and will be a hard team to beat from now on. J. B. Carey, manager of the prison players, has challenged Frisco Edwards and his Salem Senators for a game any Saturday afternoon. In their present form the prison team has a good chance to beat the Senators.

Score— R. H. E. Independents 0 0 2 3 Penitentiary 6 9 0 Batteries: Bade, Heitsman and Turple; Foster and Fike.

training alone would not tune up his punching, his timing and his judge of distance. Only actual soaking in honest-to-goodness battles will do that. Dempsey is wise enough to realize that he would be handicapping himself to take on a man of Tunney's youth, ruggedness and ability without being in perfect shape. A champion immediately finds himself under a psychological handicap when he becomes aware of the fact that his aim is bad. He loses confidence in himself. And the battle is partly lost.

In Madden Dempsey would find a good opponent for tyout purposes. Bartley is clever and rugged. He has never been knocked out. The champ can try out his short-arm punches to Madden a few times without fear of shattering the gentleman's ribs. Madden is fast enough to force Dempsey to shoot his blows quickly and accurately.

And Madden is good enough at punching to make Dempsey fight a cautious battle until he finds himself. Nothing would give Madden greater happiness or prestige than to knock Dempsey on his haunches for a count of two or three.

President Hickey of the American Association, has decided that when a manager is barred from the playing field by an umpire the banishment must be complete. From now on the naggy pilots mustn't even peek through their fingers.

Reports that Nick Allen, suspended manager of the St. Paul team, wigwagged signals to his players from a box while doing his penance, prompted Hickey to forbid suspended pilots from occupying "vantage points" in the stands during their layoffs.

Now, the question is raised, just what is a vantage point?

DEMPSEY, WALKER TO BE SUSPENDED

Commission Will Match Gibbons and Tunney for Heavyweight Title

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—(By Associated Press.)—Jack Dempsey and Mickey Walker will be indefinitely suspended by the New York state athletic commission tomorrow if they do not appear in person before the commission and sign articles of agreement for title matches with their outstanding challengers, Harry Wills and Dave Shade. This was learned from a reliable source close to the boxing commission tonight.

Dempsey's presence on the Pacific coast prohibits his attendance, while Walker, it was learned tonight, will not accept the commission's invitation to a conference until the arrival of his manager, Jack Kearns, who is now on his way east and is due to arrive here the latter part of the week, or the first of next week.

Both Dempsey and Walker will come under an ineligibility ban which is virtually the same as a suspension. It was further learned that Tommy Gibbons and Gene Tunney, American light heavyweight champion, will be matched for a fight, the winner to be declared the "world's heavyweight champion," until such a time as Dempsey personally appears before the commission and posts a bond and signs articles of agreement for a match with Wills. While the commission would like to take more definite drastic action against both Walker and Dempsey, it realizes that it cannot strip the title from either fighter, and to bring both to terms it will declare the titles open until the real champions are ready to defend their titles.

Tex Rickard, Madison Square Garden promoter, still holding Dempsey's proxy, will attempt to forestall action against the heavyweight champion by appearing before the commission, but this proxy will not be honored, it was intimated. Rickard said today that Dempsey positively will not fight this year either outdoors or indoors.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3.—(By Associated Press.)—Another visiting fight promoter came away from Jack Dempsey empty handed today. He was Floyd Fitzsimmons, who journeyed to Los Angeles in the hope of signing the champion for a bout with Harry Greb at Michigan City, Ind., in September. Dempsey told him that he had only one fight in mind at present—the 1926 bout with Harry Wills—and that he would not consider any other bout until he had straightened out the Wills affair with the New York boxing commission. Only a few days ago Jimmy De Forrest, matchmaker at the Polo grounds, likewise failed in attempts to negotiate with Dempsey. He wanted to stage the Dempsey-Wills fight next July 4, but the heavy king replied that Tex Rickard already had an option on that, and until Tex resigned there was nothing doing.

Fitzsimmons said he had offered Dempsey more than $400,000 to fight Greb at Michigan City and that he would remain in Los Angeles long enough to find out what chance he had of obtaining the Dempsey-Wills match.

PARK PURCHASE AIRED SPECIAL ELECTION TO DETERMINE FINAL ACTION

Salem voters will have the opportunity of ratifying or rejecting the tentative purchase of a seven-acre city park in the Englewood district, if action initiated by the city council last night finds eventual approval. Acting on the request of Thomas B. Kay, owner of the property, that some action be taken, the council ordered the city attorney to draw up an ordinance that would submit the question to the voters in case a special election is held in October.

Tentative purchase of the property was made last year by the council at a price of $8,000 plus interest, with the understanding that final action would be taken the first of this year. No provision in the purchase was made in the budget for this year and consequently funds for it are not now available. The motion instructing the city attorney to draw an ordinance covering the question was adopted by a vote of 8 to 5. The ordinance must stand debate in the council later.

No, that's just a superstition fostered by the comic strips. And the idea that there is something mysteriously better about "eastern" automobile lubricants simply because they are made in the east and coast more is another superstition—which a majority of motorists in the Pacific Coast states have come to disregard.
