

DEMPSEY IS BARRED FROM OTHER BOUTS

All Fighters Signing With Dempsey Before Wills' Match Are Banned

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The bars of ineligibility, lowered against Jack Dempsey for his alleged dilatory tactics in signing for a title match with Harry Wills, were reinforced by an added barred-to-day when the New York state athletic commission ruled it would suspend any boxer who meets Dempsey before the champion signs articles of agreement and posts a suitable forfeit for a match with Wills.

Playing Dempsey's letter writing tactics as an intentional evasion of the Wills issue, Chairman James Farley said the commission would "wash its hands" of the whole situation until such a time as the champion or his legitimate manager binds a match with Wills with a certified bond.

"We cannot suspend Dempsey," declared Chairman Farley, "as he holds no license with this commission. We cannot declare the title vacant because we haven't the power, but he is already on the ineligible list and will remain so until he signs for the Wills match. If we could declare the title vacant we would."

"We received his letter by airplane mail today but will ignore it. We will answer neither his offer nor his latest wire. We are not concerned with his personal affairs, but he agreed to fight Wills, and until he takes some steps to bind this match his status with us will remain the same—namely, ineligible."

"However, we have taken an additional step to bring Dempsey to terms. Any boxer who fights Dempsey before the champion definitely binds himself to a match with Wills, will be promptly suspended or declared ineligible by this commission."

"This ruling likely will be effective in states where a working agreement exists with this board. Massachusetts, Connecticut and Pennsylvania all have a working agreement with us."

Mickey Walker, world's welterweight champion, whose tactics in evading a match with Dave Shadle, places him in a similar category with Dempsey, was not disciplined by the commission today, despite advance reports to the contrary. Walker's signed agreement that he will meet Shadle on or before August 15 is still on file with the commission, and the board ruled that it would take no action against Walker until the expiration of the time limit for this match.

CHANNEL SWIM IS LOST

GIRL GIVES UP WITHIN SHORT DISTANCE OF SHORE

DOVER, England, Aug. 4.—(By Associated Press.)—Mlle. Slon, the French girl swimmer, failed tonight in her effort to swim the English channel. She was within a mile and a quarter of Dover when she gave up.

Mlle. Slon was overcome by the low temperature of the water. She was taken aboard the escorting tug, which turned about and started back for France.

Although she failed in her effort, Mlle. Slon set a record for women swimmers in the channel as the nearest one of the several members of her sex who have attempted the feat has come to the English shore was five miles.

Weather and water conditions were favorable when Mlle. Slon took her plunge at Cape Gris-Nez at 8:10 o'clock this morning.

The sea was unusually calm. By mid-afternoon she had reached a point approximately half way across the waterway, and early in the evening had thrashed her way to within a point five miles from the pier at Dover.

The sea still remained calm, but adverse tides were holding back the swimmer.

The final effort brought her to within a mile and a quarter of Dover, but the rushing tide and the coldness of the water forced her to give up. She was pulled aboard the accompanying tug which did not come into the pier here, but put about and started back for France.

Mlle. Slon left the water at 9:40 p. m., having been swimming for 13 hours and 30 minutes. This is a record for submerison by women.

BOULOGNE, Aug. 4.—(By Associated Press.)—The British Colonel Frieberg started from Cape Gris Nez at 8:25 p. m. to swim the English channel. He will attempt to break the record of Enrique Tirabochi, who crossed the channel in 1923 in 16 hours 33 minutes.

ATLANTA BOXER GETS KNOCK-OUT IN SECOND ROUND

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Aug. 4.—(By Associated Press.)—William L. "Young" Stribling of Atlanta, Ga., knocked out Johnny Lee of Chicago, in the second round of a scheduled 10 round bout here tonight. Stribling weighed 176 1/2, and Lee 156 1/2.

Lee went down for the count of nine in the first round and a long powerful right at the beginning of the second ended the affair.

In the semi-final windup, Frankie Buffington of Salt Lake won a decision over Babe Stribling, young Stribling's brother, in six rounds. The decision was unpopular.

GODFREY BEATS HERMAN

NEGRO HEAVYWEIGHT WINS TECHNICAL K O IN THIRD

VERNON, Cal., Aug. 4.—(By Associated Press.)—George Godfrey, negro heavyweight, won a technical knockout over Tiny Herman in the third round of a scheduled 10-round bout here tonight. It was Godfrey's fight all the way, Herman hitting the canvas five times before his seconds threw in the towel.

FLOOD DANGER GREATER

HEAVY DOWNPOURS MENACING TEXAS TOWNS

EL PASO, Texas, Aug. 4.—(By Associated Press.)—Dispatches to the El Paso Times from Duran, N. M., says that flood warnings to farmers in lower valleys of the Pecos river and the Rio Grande are being sent out because of a heavy downpour which fell over central New Mexico tonight.

Reports indicate the storm attained cloudburst proportion from the Sandigo on the north to the Fria Cristobal and San Andrea ranges on the south.

Creeks were turned into rampaging rivers. Heavy rains on the western slope of the Chupadren Mesa and Oscura mountains and unusual floods coming down the sides of Sanles peak presage another rise in the lower Rio Grande.

DEMPSEY TO MEET WILLS NEXT YEAR

Fitzsimmons Declares He Has Contract for Fight on July 4 Next

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 4.—(By Associated Press.)—Floyd Fitzsimmons, fight promoter who yesterday failed to get Jack Dempsey's signature to a bout with Harry Greb in September, announced tonight after a conference with the champion that as a result of Dempsey's banishment by the New York boxing commission, the heavyweight champion had agreed to fight Harry Wills for him "somewhere near Chicago" next July 4.

The match, of course, depends on Wills' willingness to meet the champion at Fitzsimmons' terms, the latter explained, adding that he had wired the negro's manager, Paddy Mullins, and hoped to hear from him tomorrow.

Pending conclusion of negotiations with Mullins, Fitzsimmons declined to reveal the details of the offer accepted by Dempsey, except to say the champion was entirely satisfied with the financial features of it.

Fitzsimmons' announcement was supported by a similar one from Rob Roy Benton, Dempsey's press agent, who added that his distinguished client was "through with the New York commission."

"Since the commission did not even have the courtesy to reply to Dempsey's telegram and letter," he said, "the champion is through trying to deal with it."

Benton stated that if for any reason Wills refused to fight Fitzsimmons, Dempsey need not find time hanging heavy on his hands, since he today had received an offer of $7,500 a week for a 30-week appearance in vaudeville.

DARROW REJECTS FEE

NO MONEY TAKEN FOR PART IN EVOLUTION TRIAL

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—(By Associated Press.)—Clarence Darrow, chief defense counsel in the Scopes' trial at Dayton, Tenn., today notified the Civil Liberties union, which financed the trial, that he did not desire to be reimbursed for his expenses.

"I don't want you to think about my expenses," he wrote. "I could afford it and I never got more for my money."

Mr. Darrow expressed his belief that the trial was of great educational value.

Heavy expenses in bringing witnesses to Dayton have made necessary continuance of its drive for funds, the union announced. As a result of requests from abroad and all sections of the United States the high lights of the trial will be published in book form by the union under the supervision of Arthur Garfield Hayes, defense counsel.

To be tired is a blessing in disguise.

A tricky device hangs itself, sooner or later.

EVOLUTION BATTLE NOW QUIETED DOWN

Injunction Is Sought to Prevent Enforcement of Tennessee Statute

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Aug. 4.—(By Associated Press.)—With the fanfare of oratory now but a peg in the Tennessee evolutionary history, the battle against the anti-evolution law dissolved here today into a simple determination of the constitutional questions involved.

The filing of a petition with John T. Scopes as plaintiff with the clerk of the southern division of the eastern district of Tennessee federal court, seeking a temporary order enjoining state authorities from further enforcement of the anti-evolution law marked the first step.

Even as this brief formality gave voice to a plea from the youthful teacher "and all others similarly situated," another bill already had been drawn to give vent to a similar prayer for injunction from Robert F. Wilson and four other taxpayers of Rhea county.

Filing of the second was delayed until after affidavits could be received from the four additional petitioners.

The bill filed by Dr. John R. Neal, chief of defense counsel for John Thomas Scopes, convicted at Dayton several weeks ago for violation of the teaching statute, named as defendants Governor Austen Peay, Attorney General Frank Thompson and Solicitor General A. T. Stewart of the Rhea county circuit.

It detailed the expense and efforts gone to by the petitioner to procure an education in which scientific subjects predominated.

Allegations of the petition contended that the theory of evolution is a central feature of science as taught today throughout the world. It is a feature and an integral part of scientific instruction in every school, college and university.

It is an inseparable feature of the modern science of zoology, biology, medicine, anatomy, embryology, geology and chemistry. Your petitioner could not honestly fulfill the duties to which he had been appointed, to which he has undertaken as an instructor of science and ignore and fail to expound the theory of evolution as an integral factor and inseparable feature of all modern science.

Your petitioner further alleges that the theory of evolution denies and is in conflict with the story of divine creation of man as taught in the Bible and your petitioner further alleges that it is not part of his duty as instructor in science to concern himself with anything except the conscientious and accurate imparting to his pupils of such knowledge as has been achieved by mankind in the various fields covered by his duties as instructor and in such views and theories as are earnestly and seriously received by respectable and conscientious workers in the field of science.

OIL LAND INQUIRY SLATED BY SENATE

Comprehensive Investigation to Be Carried on by Public Lands Bureau

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—(By Associated Press.)—The senate public lands committee has decided to enter upon a sweeping investigation of all matters affecting the administration of the public lands including oil.

Beginning at Salt Lake City August 25, the committee will conduct a series of hearings in practically every public land state in the west. Its itinerary announced today, calls for hearings at Helena, Mont., August 21; Missoula, Mont., August 21; Yakima, Wash., September 2; Seattle, September 4 and 5; Portland, Ore., September 7, and 9; Pendleton, Ore., September 10; Baker, Ore., September 11, and Boise, Idaho, September 12 and 14. Its program for holding hearings in California, New Mexico, Colorado, and Wyoming is not to be announced until after it reaches salt Lake City.

Starting on an investigation of grazing in the public domain, the committee has decided that its authority is broad enough to include all public lands and it will go thoroughly into mining, Indian affairs, timber matters, proposed legislation for the disposition of public lands, forest reserves, reclamation projects, power sites and the national parks.

Committees from the American wool growers and the national livestock associations meeting in Salt Lake City, August 24, will appear before the committee at the opening hearing.

With the public lands totaling 420,000,000 acres of which 97 per cent are in 11 western states, most of the committee expressed the opinion today that congress should regulate its administration by laws instead of by rules made by the interior department.

More than one third of the area of some of the western states consists of reserved public lands which will never come into private ownership. Since much of this is in national parks, its management of these will be closely studied.

Plans for inquiry into oil matters were announced by senator Walsh of Montana shortly before his departure for Europe. The committee he said, expects to hold meetings after his return from the west to go into the administration of the Salt Creek oil fields near Teapot Dome, with particular attention to the entry of the Midwest Oil company into those fields.
