

County News in Brief

Auburn

The "call of the road" is heard through our fair land. The population of Auburn is quite depleted at present.

Mrs. August Grimm has gone to Cross Field, Alberta, Canada, to visit her daughter Mrs. Frances Harnack.

Mr. Hood is wooing several suitors. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Walling and family who plan to make the loop, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lindbeck, who are to visit many points of interest, Crater Lake, Oregon Caves, Gold Hill, Goose Bay and many other points. Mr. Frank Gerod will take charge of the ranch during their absence.

Mr. Harvey Armstrong and family are now occupying the Jones home.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathis have returned to their home here.

Mr. Wm. Ramsden has chosen Oakland, Cal., for a trip.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Labrauche have returned from the coast.

Miss Valma Armstrong underwent an operation for tonsils Monday.

Mrs. Roy Hammer has returned from a visit with her mother in Dakota.

There will be no preaching in Auburn Sunday on account of the Jennings Lodge camp.

Miss Mabel Barnes of Portland is to teach in the new five-room school at Orient, near Grosham, this winter. She will also have charge of the music classes. She is well known here being a niece of the late Mrs. A. Williams.

Evangelists of the Missionary Alliance are occupying the Sherman residence while resting.

We do not favor the "head in" parking system.

The mile of new paving and east from the asylum is completed and open for traffic.

Stayton

J. W. Mayo, and family have returned from a vacation trip spent at Crater and Diamond lakes.

F. J. Jones, with Mrs. Jones and their son Harry, motored to Jefferson where they attended a gathering of the Holt clan on Sunday.

Miss Mary Peebler of Portland was among those from a distance who attended the funeral of William McKinnon here Sunday. Miss Peebler is an aunt of the deceased boy.

Norman Davis and wife and their son Cornelius, were here Sunday from Portland, and spent the day at the James F. Davis home.

Edward Bell of the First National bank, and his family, left Sunday for Newport where they have rented a cottage and will enjoy the salt air at the beach for the next 10 days.

Melford Allen of Springfield, was here the first of the week visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Allen. Mr. Allen is engaged in the undertaking business in that city.

George Mielki and wife of Portland are spending the week here as guests of their respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mielki and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Crabtree. Mr. Mielki is an employe at Olds, Mortman & King's store.

Joe Spanial and family motored out to the Cascade mineral springs Sunday where they spent a pleasant day and enjoyed the refreshing water of the spring.

Dr. C. H. Brewer and wife, Miss May Stamp and a girl friend, left Sunday for Newport where Mrs. Brewer and the young ladies have taken a cottage for a month. The doctor returned home on account of his large practice and will make week-end trips to the beach during their stay.

Stayton

Dell Dinmore and wife of Portland motored over Sunday morning and spent the day with Mrs. Allie S. Cain, returning home in the evening.

Frank Lesley and family returned Sunday afternoon from a motor trip through the eastern part of the state. They were absent from home several weeks; the major part of the time being spent at Hilday springs near Pendleton, where they spent a month last year. The return trip was made via Crater Lake.

William Crabtree and wife were hosts Sunday to a number of out of town friends who motored in to spend the day at their hospitable home. Among them were Mrs. Crabtree's mother, Mrs. Mary Ewell of Albany who will make an extended stay with her daughter, Mr. Lester Powell of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Townsend of Salem and their daughter Gwendolyn Mielki and her son, George Edward of Portland.

Mrs. F. T. Mathisen was a charming hostess Sunday when she entertained a party of friends in honor of her husband's birthday. The occasion was planned and carried out as a complete surprise. Mr. Mathisen was absolutely speechless when he entered his home to find the group of relatives gathered there to do honor to his natal day. Those present were his brother, Lester and wife of Etnaville, Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer and Joanie Lewis of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Buck and Miss Julia Hook of Salem; Mrs. C. N. Forester and son of Shaw. A large cake bearing 59 candles centered the prettily appointed table.

Funeral services were held in the chapel at the Weddle mortuary Sunday morning at 9:30 for William Peebler McKinnon, the 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. McKinnon whose death occurred on Thursday morning of last week in Salem. The boy is said to have died to death following an operation for the removal of tonsils and adenoids. Rev. Hay of the Christian church conducted the services and the body was taken to Lebanon for burial.

R. G. Wood, whose battery shop was burglarized in broad daylight by a party of tourists, who registered at a local hotel as "Jones and party," one day last week, has recovered the stolen goods in a novel manner. Mr. Wood received information through different channels as to the identity of the party, and sent a tracer after them and on Saturday morning's mail was surprised to find the stolen goods had been returned to him by parcel post, bearing no other markings except those showing they had been mailed from Meier & Frank's store.

Stayton

On last Wednesday evening the Birthday club met for an enjoyable time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cannoy. Various games were played in the beautiful garden about the house. Late in the evening delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. Gosha returned Sunday after a week visit in Salem.

Dr. Woodruff of Railhead was in town Thursday.

Stayton

The banks of Battle Creek made a lovely place for the Christian Endeavor social which was held last Wednesday evening at the W. Ed Way's place. Out of door games were played and a bonfire added to the enjoyment of the evening.

A number of Rosedale young people attended the picnic dinner Saturday evening at the Sunny-side home of Mr. and Mrs. Heckart honoring the birthdays of Ellen and Max Pombertson.

Part of the Harris family spent most of last week at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and family have moved to Salem.

The Bilston family have returned home from the coast for a short time. However they plan to leave soon for the beaches again.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bloom and their motor guests returned recently from their trip to Washington county.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bates were beach visitors recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bales and family of Sunnyside were Sunday

Stayton

made a trip to Mt. Hood last week-end.

Miss Henrietta Pias of San Francisco is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Pias and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Holmes and family of Silverton visited Mr. and Mrs. Herman Landwing Tuesday evening.

Funeral services for Harve Columbia, who passed away in Salem Monday, July 27, at the age of 78 years, were held at the Friends church here Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Sims of Salem, conducted the services. Interment took place in the JOOF cemetery. Besides his widow, Anna Ombrowski, he is survived by a granddaughter, Mrs. Charles Sharback of Mt. Angel, and a brother, N. Commons of Idaho, besides a host of friends.

John Brougher has returned home from a six weeks' stay at Camp Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Conlisen and family attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Twin Rocks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Dixon and daughter Jenn left Saturday for Alberta, Can., where they will visit friends and relatives for a couple of weeks.

Stayton

On Thursday, July 23 the Ladies' club met at the home of Mrs. J. A. Neal. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in needlework after which ice cream and cake were served by the hostess.

Mr. Roy Stenberg has sold his interest in the barber shop to Mr. Osborn.

Mr. Stenberg and family left for Albany Tuesday where they will visit relatives before going to Canada where they expect to make their home. The Stenbergs formerly lived in Canada.

Mrs. Brookman was taken to an Albany hospital where she has undergone a very serious operation. For several days she was in a critical condition but is getting along very well at present.

Dr. E. C. Wilson is in Eugene for several days.

Mr. Gosha returned Sunday after a week visit in Salem.

Dr. Woodruff of Railhead was in town Thursday.

Stayton

On last Wednesday evening the Birthday club met for an enjoyable time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cannoy. Various games were played in the beautiful garden about the house. Late in the evening delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. Gosha returned Sunday after a week visit in Salem.

Dr. Woodruff of Railhead was in town Thursday.

Stayton

The banks of Battle Creek made a lovely place for the Christian Endeavor social which was held last Wednesday evening at the W. Ed Way's place. Out of door games were played and a bonfire added to the enjoyment of the evening.

A number of Rosedale young people attended the picnic dinner Saturday evening at the Sunny-side home of Mr. and Mrs. Heckart honoring the birthdays of Ellen and Max Pombertson.

Part of the Harris family spent most of last week at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and family have moved to Salem.

The Bilston family have returned home from the coast for a short time. However they plan to leave soon for the beaches again.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bloom and their motor guests returned recently from their trip to Washington county.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bates were beach visitors recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bales and family of Sunnyside were Sunday

Stayton

made a trip to Mt. Hood last week-end.

Miss Henrietta Pias of San Francisco is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Pias and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Holmes and family of Silverton visited Mr. and Mrs. Herman Landwing Tuesday evening.

Funeral services for Harve Columbia, who passed away in Salem Monday, July 27, at the age of 78 years, were held at the Friends church here Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Sims of Salem, conducted the services. Interment took place in the JOOF cemetery. Besides his widow, Anna Ombrowski, he is survived by a granddaughter, Mrs. Charles Sharback of Mt. Angel, and a brother, N. Commons of Idaho, besides a host of friends.

John Brougher has returned home from a six weeks' stay at Camp Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Conlisen and family attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Twin Rocks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Dixon and daughter Jenn left Saturday for Alberta, Can., where they will visit friends and relatives for a couple of weeks.

Stayton

On Thursday, July 23 the Ladies' club met at the home of Mrs. J. A. Neal. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in needlework after which ice cream and cake were served by the hostess.

Mr. Roy Stenberg has sold his interest in the barber shop to Mr. Osborn.

Mr. Stenberg and family left for Albany Tuesday where they will visit relatives before going to Canada where they expect to make their home. The Stenbergs formerly lived in Canada.

Mrs. Brookman was taken to an Albany hospital where she has undergone a very serious operation. For several days she was in a critical condition but is getting along very well at present.

Dr. E. C. Wilson is in Eugene for several days.

Mr. Gosha returned Sunday after a week visit in Salem.

Dr. Woodruff of Railhead was in town Thursday.

Stayton

On last Wednesday evening the Birthday club met for an enjoyable time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cannoy. Various games were played in the beautiful garden about the house. Late in the evening delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. Gosha returned Sunday after a week visit in Salem.

Dr. Woodruff of Railhead was in town Thursday.

Stayton

The banks of Battle Creek made a lovely place for the Christian Endeavor social which was held last Wednesday evening at the W. Ed Way's place. Out of door games were played and a bonfire added to the enjoyment of the evening.

A number of Rosedale young people attended the picnic dinner Saturday evening at the Sunny-side home of Mr. and Mrs. Heckart honoring the birthdays of Ellen and Max Pombertson.

Part of the Harris family spent most of last week at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and family have moved to Salem.

The Bilston family have returned home from the coast for a short time. However they plan to leave soon for the beaches again.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bloom and their motor guests returned recently from their trip to Washington county.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bates were beach visitors recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bales and family of Sunnyside were Sunday

Stayton

made a trip to Mt. Hood last week-end.

Miss Henrietta Pias of San Francisco is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Pias and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Holmes and family of Silverton visited Mr. and Mrs. Herman Landwing Tuesday evening.

Funeral services for Harve Columbia, who passed away in Salem Monday, July 27, at the age of 78 years, were held at the Friends church here Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Sims of Salem, conducted the services. Interment took place in the JOOF cemetery. Besides his widow, Anna Ombrowski, he is survived by a granddaughter, Mrs. Charles Sharback of Mt. Angel, and a brother, N. Commons of Idaho, besides a host of friends.

John Brougher has returned home from a six weeks' stay at Camp Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Conlisen and family attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Twin Rocks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Dixon and daughter Jenn left Saturday for Alberta, Can., where they will visit friends and relatives for a couple of weeks.

Brooks

Mrs. Shaw and son Guy motored to Cottage Grove and spent the week end with her daughter Mrs. Ivan Lorange and family.

Mrs. C. Y. Ashbaugh and Mrs. Dan Cronan were week end visitors in Vancouver.

Visitors at the Dunlavy home on Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. F. Sylvester of Berkeley, Calif., Mrs. M. E. Korten, Miss Stella Karkren, Mrs. Edna Aldrich, J. T. Sneed and Louis Walker of Portland, and Mrs. C. D. Naytor, and Miss Minnie Vogt of Gervais.

The Ladies Aid society met at the home of Mrs. A. E. Harris on Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent sewing. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Brooks

The Turner Flax Co. has made another shipment of tow.

Harn Ritches who has been in Salem under the doctor's care for a number of weeks, has returned to his home.

F. M. Bear and wife drove down from Plainville Wednesday. Carol Kiser returned with them.

Ben Funsion was in Salem Thursday as a witness in the Kelly trial.

5 shirdutaoincmwypaouaouoo

Miss Ethel Given is still visiting in Seattle.

Arthur Salisbury, a chemist in the Camps paper mill is home for his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Small attended a funeral in Silverton Friday.

Mrs. Giffin of California, who has spent some weeks with her sister, Mrs. F. C. Delsell, has returned home.

C. O. Bates and family spent Sunday near Lebanon.

P. E. Thomason has returned from a business trip to Portland.

Mrs. Ernest Moore entertained Tuesday evening with a luncheon shower for Miss Emma Moore.

Mrs. Kiser and daughters are visiting at the C. A. Bear home.

J. N. Duncan and wife were out from Salem Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hill were in Salem Monday.

The Epworth League recently held a very interesting social, and business meeting. A number of them plan to go to Falls City the coming week to attend the state conference.

Mrs. M. T. Miller has returned from Portland.

Brooks

Charles Hardley was visiting out around Macleay this week. He says they have very good crops out that way. They are going to thresh out in there pretty soon.

R. H. Farr has pulled his hay baler in after a long and successful run.

I want to thank the substitute correspondent very much for carrying on the news writing, and he did very well in writing and explaining things fully for the benefit of everyone. The correspondent was camped with some friends about two miles over in Clatsop county. Our nearest town was Nehalem, and that was about seven or eight miles away. We saw some very large mountains and some of them were all rock. Everything is nice and green, and the sun only shines once a week. But we had a good time anyway.

Brooks

The Woman's Missionary association of Salem district will hold its annual meeting August 13 under G. G. Looney's able vice. There will be a program of music and addresses by members of local of Salem, Hazel Green and Hopewell.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Portland were week-end guests at Ben Clements.

Leister Clino and family and brother Monroe of Parker and Eldon Raymet of California were guests at Mr. Wacker's Sunday.

John Van Cleave had a 80 foot well drilled last week.

There will be service Sunday evening, also water meeting and workers' class Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Campbell of Portland visited Mrs. Campbell's mother, Mrs. Martha Wolf, and son Archie McCorkle. A pleasant party was arranged for Mrs. Campbell at Sprou's Landing. These

Brooks

made a trip to Mt. Hood last week-end.

Miss Henrietta Pias of San Francisco is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Pias and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Holmes and family of Silverton visited Mr. and Mrs. Herman Landwing Tuesday evening.

Funeral services for Harve Columbia, who passed away in Salem Monday, July 27, at the age of 78 years, were held at the Friends church here Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Sims of Salem, conducted the services. Interment took place in the JOOF cemetery. Besides his widow, Anna Ombrowski, he is survived by a granddaughter, Mrs. Charles Sharback of Mt. Angel, and a brother, N. Commons of Idaho, besides a host of friends.

John Brougher has returned home from a six weeks' stay at Camp Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Conlisen and family attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Twin Rocks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Dixon and daughter Jenn left Saturday for Alberta, Can., where they will visit friends and relatives for a couple of weeks.

Brooks

On Thursday, July 23 the Ladies' club met at the home of Mrs. J. A. Neal. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in needlework after which ice cream and cake were served by the hostess.

Mr. Roy Stenberg has sold his interest in the barber shop to Mr. Osborn.

Mr. Stenberg and family left for Albany Tuesday where they will visit relatives before going to Canada where they expect to make their home. The Stenbergs formerly lived in Canada.

Mrs. Brookman was taken to an Albany hospital where she has undergone a very serious operation. For several days she was in a critical condition but is getting along very well at present.

Dr. E. C. Wilson is in Eugene for several days.

Mr. Gosha returned Sunday after a week visit in Salem.

Dr. Woodruff of Railhead was in town Thursday.

Brooks

On last Wednesday evening the Birthday club met for an enjoyable time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cannoy. Various games were played in the beautiful garden about the house. Late in the evening delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. Gosha returned Sunday after a week visit in Salem.

Dr. Woodruff of Railhead was in town Thursday.

Brooks

The banks of Battle Creek made a lovely place for the Christian Endeavor social which was held last Wednesday evening at the W. Ed Way's place. Out of door games were played and a bonfire added to the enjoyment of the evening.

A number of Rosedale young people attended the picnic dinner Saturday evening at the Sunny-side home of Mr. and Mrs. Heckart honoring the birthdays of Ellen and Max Pombertson.

Part of the Harris family spent most of last week at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and family have moved to Salem.

The Bilston family have returned home from the coast for a short time. However they plan to leave soon for the beaches again.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bloom and their motor guests returned recently from their trip to Washington county.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bates were beach visitors recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bales and family of Sunnyside were Sunday

Brooks

made a trip to Mt. Hood last week-end.

Miss Henrietta Pias of San Francisco is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Pias and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Holmes and family of Silverton visited Mr. and Mrs. Herman Landwing Tuesday evening.

Funeral services for Harve Columbia, who passed away in Salem Monday, July 27, at the age of 78 years, were held at the Friends church here Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Sims of Salem, conducted the services. Interment took place in the JOOF cemetery. Besides his widow, Anna Ombrowski, he is survived by a granddaughter, Mrs. Charles Sharback of Mt. Angel, and a brother, N. Commons of Idaho, besides a host of friends.

John Brougher has returned home from a six weeks' stay at Camp Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Conlisen and family attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Twin Rocks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Dixon and daughter Jenn left Saturday for Alberta, Can., where they will visit friends and relatives for a couple of weeks.

Brooks

On Thursday, July 23 the Ladies' club met at the home of Mrs. J. A. Neal. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in needlework after which ice cream and cake were served by the hostess.

Mr. Roy Stenberg has sold his interest in the barber shop to Mr. Osborn.

Mr. Stenberg and family left for Albany Tuesday where they will visit relatives before going to Canada where they expect to make their home. The Stenbergs formerly lived in Canada.

Mrs. Brookman was taken to an Albany hospital where she has undergone a very serious operation. For several days she was in a critical condition but is getting along very well at present.

Dr. E. C. Wilson is in Eugene for several days.

Mr. Gosha returned Sunday after a week visit in Salem.

Dr. Woodruff of Railhead was in town Thursday.

Brooks

On last Wednesday evening the Birthday club met for an enjoyable time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cannoy. Various games were played in the beautiful garden about the house. Late in the evening delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. Gosha returned Sunday after a week visit in Salem.

Dr. Woodruff of Railhead was in town Thursday.

Brooks

The banks of Battle Creek made a lovely place for the Christian Endeavor social which was held last Wednesday evening at the W. Ed Way's place. Out of door games were played and a bonfire added to the enjoyment of the evening.

A number of Rosedale young people attended the picnic dinner Saturday evening at the Sunny-side home of Mr. and Mrs. Heckart honoring the birthdays of Ellen and Max Pombertson.

Part of the Harris family spent most of last week at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and family have moved to Salem.

The Bilston family have returned home from the coast for a short time. However they plan to leave soon for the beaches again.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bloom and their motor guests returned recently from their trip to Washington county.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bates were beach visitors recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bales and family of Sunnyside were Sunday

Brooks

made a trip to Mt. Hood last week-end.

Miss Henrietta Pias of San Francisco is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Pias and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Holmes and family of Silverton visited Mr. and Mrs. Herman Landwing Tuesday evening.

Funeral services for Harve Columbia, who passed away in Salem Monday, July 27, at the age of 78 years, were held at the Friends church here Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Sims of Salem, conducted the services. Interment took place in the JOOF cemetery. Besides his widow, Anna Ombrowski, he is survived by a granddaughter, Mrs. Charles Sharback of Mt. Angel, and a brother, N. Commons of Idaho, besides a host of friends.

John Brougher has returned home from a six weeks' stay at Camp Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Conlisen and family attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Twin Rocks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Dixon and daughter Jenn left Saturday for Alberta, Can., where they will visit friends and relatives for a couple of weeks.

Brooks

On Thursday, July 23 the Ladies' club met at the home of Mrs. J. A. Neal. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in needlework after which ice cream and cake were served by the hostess.

Mr. Roy Stenberg has sold his interest in the barber shop to Mr. Osborn.

Mr. Stenberg and family left for Albany Tuesday where they will visit relatives before going to Canada where they expect to make their home. The Stenbergs formerly lived in Canada.

Mrs. Brookman was taken to an Albany hospital where she has undergone a very serious operation. For several days she was in a critical condition but is getting along very well at present.

Dr. E. C. Wilson is in Eugene for several days.

Mr. Gosha returned Sunday after a week visit in Salem.

Dr. Woodruff of Railhead was in town Thursday.

Brooks

On last Wednesday evening the Birthday club met for an enjoyable time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cannoy. Various games were played in the beautiful garden about the house. Late in the evening delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. Gosha returned Sunday after a week visit in Salem.

Dr. Woodruff of Railhead was in town Thursday.

Brooks

The banks of Battle Creek made a lovely place for the Christian Endeavor social which was held last Wednesday evening at the W. Ed Way's place. Out of door games were played and a bonfire added to the enjoyment of the evening.

A number of Rosedale young people attended the picnic dinner Saturday evening at the Sunny-side home of Mr. and Mrs. Heckart honoring the birthdays of Ellen and Max Pombertson.

Part of the Harris family spent most of last week at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and family have moved to Salem.

The Bilston family have returned home from the coast for a short time. However they plan to leave soon for the beaches again.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bloom and their motor guests returned recently from their trip to Washington county.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bates were beach visitors recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bales and family of Sunnyside were Sunday

Brooks

made a trip to Mt. Hood last week-end.

Miss Henrietta Pias of San Francisco is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Pias and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Holmes and family of Silverton visited Mr. and Mrs. Herman Landwing Tuesday evening.

Funeral services for Harve Columbia, who passed away in Salem Monday, July 27, at the age of 78 years, were held at the Friends church here Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Sims of Salem, conducted the services. Interment took place in the JOOF cemetery. Besides his widow, Anna Ombrowski, he is survived by a granddaughter, Mrs. Charles Sharback of Mt. Angel, and a brother, N. Commons of Idaho, besides a host of friends.

John Brougher has returned home from a six weeks' stay at Camp Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Conlisen and family attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Twin Rocks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Dixon and daughter Jenn left Saturday for Alberta, Can., where they will visit friends and relatives for a couple of weeks.

Brooks

Brooks

made a trip to Mt. Hood last week-end.

Miss Henrietta Pias of San Francisco is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Pias and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Holmes and family of Silverton visited Mr. and Mrs. Herman Landwing Tuesday evening.

Funeral services for Harve Columbia, who passed away in Salem Monday, July 27, at the age of 78 years, were held at the Friends church here Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Sims of Salem, conducted the services. Interment took place in the JOOF cemetery. Besides his widow, Anna Ombrowski, he is survived by a granddaughter, Mrs. Charles Sharback of Mt. Angel, and a brother, N. Commons of Idaho, besides a host of friends.

John Brougher has returned home from a six weeks' stay at Camp Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Conlisen and family attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Twin Rocks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Dixon and daughter Jenn left Saturday for Alberta, Can., where they will visit friends and relatives for a couple of weeks.

Brooks

On Thursday, July 23 the Ladies' club met at the home of Mrs. J. A. Neal. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in needlework after which ice cream and cake were served by the hostess.

Mr. Roy Stenberg has sold his interest in the barber shop to Mr. Osborn.

Mr. Stenberg and family left for Albany Tuesday where they will visit relatives before going to Canada where they expect to make their home. The Stenbergs formerly lived in Canada.

Mrs. Brookman was taken to an Albany hospital where she has undergone a very serious operation. For several days she was in a critical condition but is getting along very well at present.

Dr. E. C. Wilson is in Eugene for several days.

Mr. Gosha returned Sunday after a week visit in Salem.

Dr. Woodruff of Railhead was in town Thursday.

Brooks

On last Wednesday evening the Birthday club met for an enjoyable time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cannoy. Various games were played in the beautiful garden about the house. Late in the evening delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. Gosha returned Sunday after a week visit in Salem.

Dr. Woodruff of Railhead was in town Thursday.

Brooks

The banks of Battle Creek made a lovely place for the Christian Endeavor social which was held last Wednesday evening at the W. Ed Way's place. Out of door games were played and a bonfire added to the enjoyment of the evening.

A number of Rosedale young people attended the picnic dinner Saturday evening at the Sunny-side home of Mr. and Mrs. Heckart honoring the birthdays of Ellen and Max Pombertson.

Part of the Harris family spent most of last week at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and family have moved to Salem.

The Bilston family have returned home from the coast for a short time. However they plan to leave soon for the beaches again.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bloom and their motor guests returned recently from their trip to Washington county.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bates were beach visitors recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bales and family of Sunnyside were Sunday

Brooks

made a trip to Mt. Hood last week-end.

Miss Henrietta Pias of San Francisco is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Pias and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Holmes and family of Silverton visited Mr. and Mrs. Herman Landwing Tuesday evening.

Funeral services for Harve Columbia, who passed away in Salem Monday, July 27, at the age of 78 years, were held at the Friends church here Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Sims of Salem, conducted the services. Interment took place in the JOOF cemetery. Besides his widow, Anna Ombrowski, he is survived by a granddaughter, Mrs. Charles Sharback of Mt. Angel, and a brother, N. Commons of Idaho, besides a host of friends.

John Brougher has returned home from a six weeks' stay at Camp Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Conlisen and family attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Twin Rocks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Dixon and daughter Jenn left Saturday for Alberta, Can., where they will visit friends and relatives for a couple of weeks.

Brooks

On Thursday, July 23 the Ladies' club met at the home of Mrs. J. A. Neal. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in needlework after which ice cream and cake were served by the hostess.

Mr. Roy Stenberg has sold his interest in the barber shop to Mr. Osborn.

Mr. Stenberg and family left for Albany Tuesday where they will visit relatives before going to Canada where they expect to make their home. The Stenbergs formerly lived in Canada.

Mrs. Brookman was taken to an Albany hospital where she has undergone a very serious operation. For several days she was in a critical condition but is getting along very well at present.

Dr. E. C. Wilson is in Eugene for several days.

Mr. Gosha returned Sunday after a week visit in Salem.

Dr. Woodruff of Railhead was in town Thursday.

Brooks

On last Wednesday evening the Birthday club met for an enjoyable time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cannoy. Various games were played in the beautiful garden about the house. Late in the evening delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. Gosha returned Sunday after a week visit in Salem.

Dr. Woodruff of Railhead was in town Thursday.

Brooks

The banks of Battle Creek made a lovely place for the Christian Endeavor social which was held last Wednesday evening at the W. Ed Way's place. Out of door games were played and a bonfire added to the enjoyment of the evening.

A number of Rosedale young people attended the picnic dinner Saturday evening at the Sunny-side home of Mr. and Mrs. Heckart honoring the birthdays of Ellen and Max Pombertson.

Part of the Harris family spent most of last week at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and family have moved to Salem.

The Bilston family have returned home from the coast for a short time. However they plan to leave soon for the beaches again.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bloom and their motor guests returned recently from their trip to Washington county.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bates were beach visitors recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bales and family of Sunnyside were Sunday

Brooks

made a trip to Mt. Hood last week-end.

Miss Henrietta Pias of San Francisco is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Pias and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Holmes and family of Silverton visited Mr. and Mrs. Herman Landwing Tuesday evening.

Funeral services for Harve Columbia, who passed away in Salem Monday, July 27, at the age of 78 years, were held at the Friends church here Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Sims of Salem, conducted the services. Interment took place in the JOOF cemetery. Besides his widow, Anna Ombrowski, he is survived by a granddaughter, Mrs. Charles Sharback of Mt. Angel, and a brother, N. Commons of Idaho, besides a host of friends.

John Brougher has returned home from a six weeks' stay at Camp Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Conlisen and family attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Twin Rocks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Dixon and daughter Jenn left Saturday for Alberta, Can., where they will visit friends and relatives for a couple of weeks.

Brooks

On Thursday, July 23 the Ladies' club met at the home of Mrs. J. A. Neal. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in needlework after which ice cream and cake were served by the hostess.

Mr. Roy Stenberg has sold his interest in the barber shop to Mr. Osborn.

Mr. Stenberg and family left for Albany Tuesday where they will visit relatives before going to Canada where they expect to make their home. The Stenbergs formerly lived in Canada.

Mrs. Brookman was taken to an Albany hospital where she has undergone a very serious operation. For several days she was in a critical condition but is getting along very well at present.

Dr. E. C. Wilson is in Eugene for several days.

Mr. Gosha returned Sunday after a week visit in Salem.

Dr. Woodruff of Railhead was in town