

ARCTIC RADIO GIVES ANSWER TO QUERY

First Attempt at Radio Interview Is Completed by Associated Press

FIVE QUESTIONS SENT

MacMillan Party Replies to All Interrogations; Distance By Way of Air Is Over 3700 Miles

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, Ill., Aug. 5.—(By Associated Press.)—The first Arctic radio interview ever attempted was successfully completed at 1 a. m. (eastern standard time) today by The Associated Press when Lieut. Commander E. F. McDonald, Jr., of the MacMillan Arctic expedition answered five questions.

The first question was sent and answered within eight minutes. This accounted for a rate of 16 words per minute, international code, over the 3700 miles distance north from Chicago to Etah, Greenland, where the expedition is anchored.

The questions were sent direct by The Associated Press from station 9XN of the Zenith Radio corporation here to station WAP aboard the steamship Peary at Etah. A wave of 40 meters 1,000 watts was used on both the transmission and reception. Lieutenant Commander McDonald is president of the Zenith Radio corporation.

The first question asked was: "What point and greatest distance have you heard or transmitted human voice by radio would be of interest to The Associated Press newspapers?" "I have heard code from New Zealand," McDonald replied. "Have worked code England, France, Holland, Sweden and Catalina Island. Heard voice Chicago and Schenectady in daylight. Transmitted voice and have been reported heard in Seattle, New England and London."

"Have missionaries begun using radio receivers and what do they say about it?" was the second question. "We only found one missionary using radio. Rev. Perritt, Hopevale, Labrador, who has been to his home in London only three times in 32 years, gets mail seldom and says radio is a great boon. I presented missionaries with sets when they most needed them. They could not buy radio as they have insufficient funds to buy other necessities desired."

McDonald answered the question: "Is the Eskimo guide Itookashu with you?" (Itookashu was a guide with Peary and MacMillan on a previous expedition.) "Itookashu now with us," was the reply. "Will it be possible to reach your planes by radio?" the next question referred to the three planes carried by the expedition in its attempt to reach the north pole.

"Have difficulty in maintaining two-way communication with planes, but expect to eradicate this," the answer came.

"Do Eskimos fully appreciate radio concerns?" the last question, brought the reply: "He just accepts it as another great work of the white man and to him it is not more wonderful than the phonograph."

The questioning from start to finish consumed an hour and a half, beginning at midnight, eastern standard time. Prior to the transmission of the questions, the human voice was heard at station 9XN from WAP, saying "WAP—Etah." Shortly thereafter a concert of phonograph music radiocast from the Arctic was distinguished. Those at 9XN familiar with the personnel of the expedition did not recognize the voice, which was a deep bass.

SEATTLE, Aug. 5.—(By Associated Press.)—P. K. Leberman and W. J. Calamatta of the Radio Sales corporation here reported today that they have been in daily touch with the MacMillan Arctic expedition, which is exploring between upper Greenland and Alaska.

Leberman said that nightly programs were being broadcast by the expedition. "I get them every night from about 6:45 until nearly daybreak. But the ordinary receiving set would not be able to get them as the MacMillan set is on a new wave length of only 40 meters, while the average station receives on from two hundred to six hundred.

POLAR PLANES TAKE OFF RADIO TESTS MADE, MESSAGE FROM ARCTIC STATES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—(By Associated Press.)—A message reporting that the "work is progressing well," was received from the MacMillan Arctic expedition late today by National Geographic society. The report, picked up by the navy's experimental radio station here, NKF, said: "All planes in the air for radio tests. Sky heavily overcast with rain at intervals. The thermometer at 41 degrees Fahrenheit. Signs of clearing. Kane basin, north of Littleton Island, unbroken field of ice. Good north wind will clear this out in a few days. Work progressing well. All well and happy and anxious to get away for first base in Axel Heiberg."

RAY ABLE CONVICTED BY POLICE COURT JURY

(Continued from page 1) admitted that when he was taken to the station he had offered to give Night Sergeant George Edwards all of the money he had if the sergeant would leave Traffic Officer Edwards in the cell with him for five minutes in order that he could give the traffic officer who had made the arrest the beating which he thought Edwards deserved. In relating the story from the witness stand Able admitted a statement that he would "repeat the offer when he was sober." This was held up to the jury as a positive admission of his intoxication at the time.

Able was arrested by Traffic Officer Edwards early Sunday morning when his attention was attracted to the machine by the reckless manner in which it was being driven. The defendant was first arrested for reckless driving. On the way to the police station Able attempted to escape, and shortly after his failure to do this a liquor bottle was thrown from his car and smashed on the pavement. One of his two companions has since been convicted on a charge of breaking the bottle. Able was taken to police headquarters where it was found that he was drunk and where he was booked for reckless driving, possession of liquor, and operating a car while intoxicated. The first two charges were held in abeyance until a verdict could be secured on the more serious charge of operating a car while under the influence of liquor. Able pleaded not guilty and demanded a jury trial.

Under city law it is mandatory for Judge Paulsen tomorrow to impose a sentence of not less than 5 days in jail, a fine of $50 and to suspend his drivers' license for 90 days. The maximum under the law is six months in jail, $500 fine and suspension of his license for any period set by the court.

ENTIRE TOWN DELUGED SWELLED CREEK SWEEPS VILLAGE; DAMAGE IS LARGE

KIOWA, Colo., Aug. 5.—(By Associated Press.)—Practically the entire town of Kiowa was inundated tonight when the waters of Kiowa creek, swelled by a cloudburst of unusual proportions, rose to the highest level in the history of the village and swept through it. Sixty of the seventy buildings in the town were damaged, most of them standing in four feet of water.

The water rose to its high level in the space of 10 minutes, giving the populace of 250 persons but little time to heed warnings. First reports were that there had been no loss of life but that the initial damage probably would amount to $10,000. Many small structures were washed into the streets and several bridges taken out by the water.

HOUGHTON IS DECLARED SECURITY PACT AUTHOR

TREATY FIRST SUGGESTED BY AMERICAN AMBASSADOR

Pact Between England, France and Germany Inaugurated by U. S. Legate

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., Aug. 5.—(By Associated Press.)—The members of the Institute of Politics today heard a declaration from one of its lecturers, that Alanson Houghton, recently American ambassador at Berlin and now ambassador at London, was the "spiritual author" of the security pact now pending between Great Britain, France and Germany.

Professor Bernacotte E. Schmitt of the University of Chicago made this statement at a conference on the recent foreign policy of the United States in the course of a discussion after an address by Professor Edwin F. Gay of Harvard.

"If one asks in well-informed circles," the professor said, "one is told that the present ambassador of the United States in London, who was until recently our ambassador in Berlin, is spiritual author of the negotiations now proceeding between Great Britain, France and Germany in a pact of security."

Professor Schmitt supplemented his remarks after the conference with the statement that "certain persons in Europe informed him that Ambassador Houghton suggested to Herr Stresemann, German foreign minister, the idea of the security pact." Institute members recalled that only last week William R. Castel, chief of the western division of the state department, gave his pronouncement on this country's foreign policy and included mention of the European pact. He said that while the United States could not become a party to the pact, President Coolidge had expressed his hope for its success.

NEW PROFESSORS NAMED THREE ARE ADDED TO FACULTY BY WILLAMETTE

Prof. R. D. Burroughs, M.A., has been elected assistant professor in biology at Willamette university. He is a graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan university, where he served as an undergraduate laboratory assistant. He has the master's degree from Princeton university where he has been an assistant in biology. Dr. Conklin, the great American biologist, commends his scholarship, character and teaching ability.

Miss Pauline Gabriel, B.Sc., is to be in charge of physical education for women. She went from Ward-Belmont college, Nashville, Tenn., to Battle Creek college, Battle Creek, Mich., where she graduated. She has served as instructor in various departments, has a knowledge of nursing and will be associated with the university physician in caring for the health of the women students.

Dr. C. A. Downs has been elected as university physician. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon, 1910, and of Johns Hopkins medical school, 1914. For two years he served as interne at Hartford, Conn., and then went with Yale university to Chang-sha, China, for one year. During the war he spent two years in the army at camps in America and overseas. Dr. Downs, in cooperation with the professors of physical education for men and women, will examine all matriculating students and chart their health conditions at stated periods. His office will be in the Masonic building, where he will have daily office hours for students. All students are to consult him without charge for examination or office consultation. The university in establishing a health service department expects to render invaluable aid to students in promoting and conserving their health and instructing them how to maintain physical efficiency.

GRANT DIMMICK CITED OREGON CITY MAN ORDERED TO APPEAR HERE

Grant B. Dimick, alleged Oregon City absconder, is ordered to appear in the Marion county court on August 7 at 10 o'clock to show cause why he should not be discharged as administrator of the estate of his brother, Ralph C. Dimick, who died October 22, 1911, is a citation of the probate court yesterday.

The citation was issued upon the petition of another brother, Harold E., who desires to be named administrator so that the estate may be closed. Ralph C. Dimick left an estate valued at $4100 in real property and $642 in personal property in Marion county.

Grant Dimick, it is charged, absconded from Oregon City in May, 1924, after a long period of speculation with money received at his bank on mortgages and after being engaged in a number of dubious transactions. It is claimed that at the time he carried away with him a sum estimated by various people at between $50,000 and $200,000.

No word has been received from him since his disappearance, and relatives believe that he is dead.

AIR MAIL PILOT FALLS FLYER NEAR DEATH AS RESULT OF CRASH OF PLANE

BLOOMSBURG, Penn., Aug. 5.—(By Associated Press.)—A west-bound mail plane piloted by Harry A. Chandler of New Brunswick, N. J., crashed here at 11:15 tonight. Chandler is in the Bloomsburg hospital with a fractured skull. His condition is serious. The cargo of mail fell into the Susquehanna river. The plane was demolished.

Fourteen bags of mail were found in the waters of the river. The number carried by the machine is not known. Chandler was en route from New York to the Bellefonte, Penn. field. He had lost his bearings in the dense fog and had landed in a field of oats. Learning his position from campers, he attempted to rise again, but struck a tree on the river bank and was catapulted into the stream. He was pinned beneath the plane in four feet of water, with only his head above the surface. Campers extracted him, cutting away parts of the plane.

The Burnett Jewelry Store Celebrates With Real Cakes and Astonishing Values

THIS morning the Burnett Jewelry Store at 457 State Street begins what promises to be the most original and enjoyable business festival ever staged in this city.

The Bakerite Bakery has prepared a thousand birthday cakes which are to be given away to all who call. It is not necessary to buy anything in order to receive a cake. Each day the Bakerite Bakery will deliver approximately three hundred cakes to the Burnett Jewelry Store, every cake as fresh as the morning—and this distribution will last till Saturday.

What is of greater importance than the cakes, however (for cakes are soon eaten—and alas—soon forgotten) is the fact that a host of remarkable values have been assembled. The purpose of the "party" is not to make money—but to make friends. The cakes and the special values—many of which are to be sold for far less than half price—are intended to show the Store's appreciation for the many blessings and the many friends it has won in the City of Salem.

And no money will be needed—visitors may select Diamonds, Watches, Silver and Gold—all they can afford and pay as they are paid. For this is the "secret" of Burnett Bros. success—every Burnett Store takes the position that everybody is entitled to credit—unless they themselves have already shown that they are NOT!

Therefore, the readers of this paper can select gifts that endure and endear and pay for them as may be convenient. The Birthday Party opens at 9 o'clock this morning and all are welcome.
