RAIL BELT IN FLAMES

FOREST FIRES SWEEP BRITISH COLUMBIA FORESTS

CALGARY, Alta., Aug. 7.—(By Associated Press.)—The railway belt of British Columbia is aflame with numerous forest fires, some of them out of control. Reports at the forestry branch headquarters in Calgary today said there were many fires in the Revelstoke, Salmon Arm and Kamloops areas, while on the coast section of the belt although there are not so many fires, the prize is reported higher than it has ever been. Salmon Arm reports 20 fires, most of them out of control. More than 170 men are employed in fighting them but conditions are so hazardous that little progress is being made.

At Squm Baby, on Adams lake, fire burning through valuable timber is out of control.

At Kamloops slight improvement in conditions was reported, but serious fires still are being fought. A dozen large fires and a half-dozen smaller ones are burning in the Revelstoke area. A light ning storm last Sunday was responsible for starting many of them.

DELAWARE SOLON DEAD

GEORGE GRAY, 85, DIES FOLLOWING COMPLICATIONS

WILMINGTON, Del., Aug. 7.—(By Associated Press.) — George Gray, one of Delaware's most distinguished citizens, died tonight after an extended illness. He was a former United States senator from Delaware, a retired judge of the United States circuit court of appeals and a number of times had been mentioned prominently as the democratic candidate for president. He was 85 years old. Heart trouble and other complications following upon pneumonia last January had left him too weak to overcome an attack of the grippe which seized him last Tuesday.

TWO TOWNS IN DANGER

FIRE THREATENS MONTANA TOWNS IN PATH OF FLAMES

WALLACE, Idaho, Aug. 7.—(By Associated Press.)—Two small Montana towns, Taft and Saltese were threatened by a forest fire in the Saltese district which crossed the Idaho-Montana line late today. A stiff breeze is fanning the flames and early tonight the fire was burning on the ridge south of Taft. The town of Saltese, four miles farther east, is in the path of the flames. Nearly 200 men have been sent into the fire zone and calls for additional men have been received here. The blaze on the headwaters of Big Creek and Pine Creek 10 miles west of Wallace, virtually under control Thursday, broke control lines today.

Latest reports said the flames had eaten their way to a point but 2½ miles south of Kellogg Peak, near Wardner-Kellogg.

The fire in the north fork country was but a half mile from the vast white pine timber belt of the Rose Lake and Mountain Lumber company tonight. Forest officials are hopeful that the fires will be checked on the very threshold of the timber stand of 500,000,000 feet.

DRUGS DECLARED USED

MAN IN KIDNAPING CASE SAID TO HAVE BEEN DOPED

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 7.—(By Associated Press.)—Mrs. Pauline Stephens, wife of C. Z. Stephens, one of three men on trial for an alleged plot to kidnap Mary Pickford, screen star, testified today that her husband came home in a drugged and intoxicated condition after a meeting with Louis Geck, a police informer. The defense charged that Geck engineered the asserted plot as a publicity scheme for two Los Angeles detectives.

Mrs. Stephens qualified the statement which forged an important link in the defense chain, by stating that she had been a United States army nurse overseas, and had frequently attended patients under narcotics who were being treated for wounds.

She said her husband retired in a stupor which indicated to her that he had been drugged with liquor, and that she was unable to rouse him. She produced a partly filled bottle of liquor, which she declared Stephens brought home from Geck's asserted "party". It was introduced in evidence.

ENGINE STORY IS HOAX

LOS ANGELES ANNOUNCEMENT DECLARED FICTITIOUS

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 7.—(By Associated Press.)—Stories of the development of a new gasoline engine which would revolutionize the automotive industry and the production of a new fuel which would similarly affect motor power published in two Los Angeles newspapers yesterday afternoon and in one morning paper here today as announcements from the American Chemical society convention here, were denied at the society's headquarters today.

In connection with the purported announcement, the statements were credited in one publication to Dr. T. A. Boyd of the general motors research department," and were accepted in good faith until investigation by The Associated Press developed that there was no such person attending the convention and that no announcements such as those credited to him had been made at the society's sessions.

THEORIES BRING CLASH

SURGEONS OF BERLIN ARE UNABLE TO AGREE

BERLIN—Prof. August Bier, the eminent Berlin surgeon who performed the operations of the late President Ebert and Hugo Stinnes, has stirred up the allopathic fraternity by not only saying a few kind words for homeopathy, but also publishing his personal successes with the homeopathic treatment.

At the last meeting of the Medical Society, Prof. Bier was subjected to a scathing criticism. One member declared: "It is nothing less than unethical for Prof. Bier to champion the cause of homeopathy." Another asserted "Homeopathy is wrong because its adherents regard it as a system rather than a science. It is therefore to be condemned as a system." Prof. Bier unperturbed, replied to these and other reproaches with the statement that this problem could only be solved by means of continuous experiments. He declared that after a careful study of Hahnemann, the originator of homeopathy, he had come to the conclusion that from these text books the greatest wisdom as well as the uttermost nonsense was to be gleaned.
