

Society

AUDRED BUNCH
Phone: 106

CONSOLATION

However meager is my worldly wealth
Let me give something that will aid my kind,
A word of courage or a thought of health,
Dropped as I pass, for troubled hearts to find.

Let me tonight look back across the span
Twixt dawn and dark and to my conscience say:
"Because of some good act to beast or man,
The world is better that I live today."
—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

A WEDDING of interest to many Salem people is that of Miss Irene Curtis, daughter of Mrs. L. G. Curtis, and Stanley E. Allen of Santa Cruz, Cal., and son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Allen, which was solemnized at 8 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride, Rev. E. H. Shanks of the First Baptist church officiated at the ceremony which was attended by only the immediate families of the couple.

The bride was charming in a gown of taupe crepe romaine, headed in bronze and rose. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. There were no attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen are well known in Salem. Mrs. Allen has resided in Salem many years and has always been a popular member of the younger set. She is a graduate of the local high school and of the Oregon Agricultural college and is a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority. For two years she was a member of the Salem high school faculty, having charge of the home economics department. Last year she was a member of the home economics department of the Portland high schools. Mr. Allen is an upper classman at the North Pacific Dental college in Portland. He is affiliated with the Psi Omega dental fraternity.

After a tour of northern points which will take them as far as Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Allen will make their home in Portland.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner motored to Portland Friday. They returned that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Dally (Dorothy Esch) will arrive in Salem the first of this week from their home in Oakland, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. Esch are former residents of Salem where they have a host of friends. They will be the house guests of Mrs. Dally's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Esch.

Mrs. Earl Coulson Flegel, who will soon depart for her home in Honolulu, and Mrs. Louise Chapin of San Francisco, who has been the house guest for several weeks of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dancy, were complimented with a one o'clock luncheon Thursday at Hagberg's grove at which Mrs. G. G. Brown and Mrs. H. H. Olinger were hostesses.

Following the luncheon which was served amid a rustic background bordering the mill race, bridge and mah jongg were played. Mrs. O. C. Locke won honors at bridge while Mrs. W. H. Dancy received the mah jongg prize. Mrs. Flegel and Mrs. Chapin received the guest prizes. Covers were placed for 20.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reinhart of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. James Pixlee of Fulton, Mo., were house guests the latter part of the week of Mrs. C. E. Reinhart. Mr. Pixlee, who is a nephew of Mrs. Reinhart, is head of the physical education department at Westminster college at Fulton.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinhart, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Pixlee, enjoyed a motor trip the past week up the McKenzie river and over the McKenzie pass, from where they went to The Dalles and over the Columbia River highway. Mr. and Mrs. Pixlee motored to Portland yesterday from where they will depart for their home in the east.

Mrs. Mary L. Newland, who has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Cordelia Hager, departed early in the week for her home in Portland.

A recent guest at the home of Mrs. J. A. Bernardi was her sister, Mrs. A. F. Hendricks of Hillsboro. During her short visit she spent a day with relatives in Monroe and Sublimity. Mrs. S. L. Jones of Portland and Harold Hertz of Portland were also guests at the Bernardi home recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Canfield and Mr. and Mrs. William Cravatt of Portland recently enjoyed a motor trip which took them around the Mt. Hood loop.

Of interest in Salem musical circles is the recognition which came recently to Dr. John R. Sites from Madame Ernestine Schumann-Heink, world famous contralto. During her visit in Portland recently Dr. Sites spent an afternoon with her renewing old acquaintances. She gave two concerts in the auditorium at this time before a large meeting of the German-American musical societies of the northwest. Not long ago Dr. Sites received a large autographed photograph from Madame Schumann-Heink. Dr. Sites is an old friend of the prima donna and studied with her in conservatories abroad a number of years ago.

Mrs. Joseph H. Albert, Mrs. J. C. Griffith and Mary Jane and Josephine Albert are sojourning for several days at the Albert summer home at Mehama, on the Santiam.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene left early in the week for a two weeks' outing at Netarts, on the Tillamook coast.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hill and daughter, Mrs. Ernest Watkins of LaGrande were house guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Elliott. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Watkins are well known in the city. Mrs. Watkins, formerly Mary Alice Hill, has many friends among the college set. She is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Elliott were dinner hosts last Sunday honoring Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bogue and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Darter of Markon, Indiana. Covers were laid for twenty-two, with most of the guests former residents of Grant county, Indiana.

Out of town guests at the affair included: Mrs. Birney Smith and children, Richard, Leroy and Peggy of Milwaukie, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Holmes and two daughters, Jean and Phyllis of

New Hats Have Little Trimming

The new hats are not overburdened with trimming, even the large straw "picture" hat (above) with satin edge is merely banded with ribbon with a posy or two at the side. The tiny felt hat (center), of turquoise blue has a single tailored bow, and below the Napoleonic chapeau is briefly trimmed with a silver binding.

Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson of Corvallis and Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Smith of Clackamas.

Additional guests calling later in the afternoon were A. J. Baldwin, Mrs. A. A. Underhill, Charles Parker and Miss Ruth Chapman.

Early in the week the honor guests enjoyed a trip up the Columbia River highway. They departed Thursday for Tacoma for a few days' visit with relatives and friends and from there will return to Indiana by way of Yellowstone National Park.

Friends of Miss Martha Moore and Mr. A. D. Tillson will be interested to learn of their marriage which was solemnized last Monday afternoon in the parsonage of the First Christian church. Rev. J. J. Evans officiated. Following a short sojourn in Portland Mr. and Mrs. Tillson will make their home in Eugene.

Mrs. Clifton D. Mudd was a charming hostess last Wednesday evening honoring her husband on his birthday anniversary. The table was attractive with a center piece of sweet peas and Shasta daisies. Covers were placed for eight.

An event of interest in the Sidney district was the marriage of Miss Oral E. Moore of Turner to Richard H. Farr of Sidney, at the First Congregational parsonage last Thursday morning. Rev. Ward officiated at the service.

Mrs. Farr is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moore of Turner and is well known there, having attended the local high school. Mr. Farr is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Farr of Sidney and has spent most of his life there.

Following the ceremony the couple drove to Sidney where a wedding luncheon was served at the Farr home. Only immediate members of the family were present at the ceremony and luncheon. After a tour of the Oregon beaches Mr. and Mrs. Farr will make their home in Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Downing, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Minto and son, Jack, have returned from a two week's motor and camping trip. Several days were enjoyed at Foley Springs on the McKenzie from where they went over the McKenzie Pass to Bend. After touring the Metolius river district and Wasco country they crossed into Washington from Hood River to White Salmon and took a number of side trips into southern and eastern Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tyler have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Tyler and son, Royal, of Iowa. They came from the east to participate in the annual reunion of the Tyler family which is being held here today. They will depart for their home tomorrow.

Mrs. John J. Roberts, president of the local YWCA, made the announcement recently that Miss Marion Wyman, who resigned from the secretaryship several months ago to take up Girl Reserve work in southern California, will again hold that position.

Miss Wyman came from El Centro, California, several weeks ago at the call of the Salem organization. At the present time she is in charge of the Girl Reserve camp at Taylor's Grove near Mehama. She will resume her duties as secretary early in September.

At a simple ceremony performed in the First Christian church Miss Winifred Brown became the bride of Milton Gralapp last Sunday. Rev. J. J. Evans officiated at the service which was witnessed by Miss Myrtle Brown and Mr. T. F. Gundersen.

Mrs. Gralapp is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brown who reside on the Garden Road. Mr. Gralapp is a graduate of Willamette University and is assisting during the summer months at the Buster Brown shoe store. Following a trip to the coast they will go to Roseburg to make their home where Mr. Gralapp is a member of one of the school faculties.

A wedding of interest to Salem people is that of Miss Ethel May Goodman and Ellis J. Hill which took place at the parsonage of the First Christian church last Monday evening. Rev. J. J. Evans officiated at the service. There were no attendants. After a short trip to the Oregon beaches Mr. and Mrs. Hill will make their home in Mill City.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Ward and three children, Billy, Donald and Charles, left early in the week for a ten-day visit in Ashland with Mrs. Ward's grandmother, Mrs. Minkler. They will return to Salem and will go directly from here to one of the Tillamook beaches to spend the remainder of the month.

The first family reunion of the Looney and Doty families was an event of last Sunday on the banks of the Santiam. A delightful time was spent in conversation, games and swimming. A basket dinner was served at noon.

At a meeting following the dinner it was decided to organize and make the reunion an annual event. W. H. Doty was chosen president and W. E. Doty secretary. The gathering will be known hereafter as the Looney-Doty reunion and will be held on the second Sunday of July each year.

Those attending the affair last Sunday were: Mrs. A. V. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hastings and daughter Thekla, Joe Hastings, Chester Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pugh, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Locke and Mrs. Alice McMan, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Looney and daughters Mary and Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Myrvel Looney and children, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Doty, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Doty and baby, and Mrs. Mary Looney of Albany; Mr. and Mrs.

(Continued on page 8)

"I Wouldn't Dare Cross the Street Without My Glasses"

The Optometrist hears this every day yet so many people are without an extra pair of glasses
Don't Risk Total Disability—Have an Extra Pair
Staples Optical Company
PORTLAND—SALEM
Cor. State and High Streets Salem, Oregon

Hotel Marion

SUNDAY, AUGUST 9, 1925

Table D'Hote

- | | | |
|--|--------------------------------|-------------------|
| Potage Imperial | Seafood Cocktail | Consomme Princess |
| Crisp Celery | White Radishes | Mixed Olives |
| | Filet of Sole au Vin Blanc | |
| | Duchesse Potato | |
| | Choice of: | |
| | Baked Cascade Ham, Yorkshire | |
| | Fried Squab Chicken, Gouvenour | |
| | Roast Spring Lamb, Mint Jelly | |
| Candied Sweet Potato | Yellow Corn au Gratin | |
| | Marion Special Fruit Salad | |
| Choice of: Cherry Marshmallow Ice Cream and Chocolate Layer Cake, Pie, Frozen Del Monte Peaches, Whipped Cream | | |
| | Demi Tasse | 5:45—8 P. M. |

With this convenient knob the focus is under control up to the limit of exposure

Graflex

CORRECT FOCUS is just one of the Graflex advantages. The focal plane shutter has lightning speeds, as fast as 1-1000 second. Hardly any action is too swift for Graflex to catch.

And the ground glass in the hood shows the image, picture-size and right side up, so you know exactly what you're getting.

Drop in for a Graflex Demonstration

CAPITAL DRUG STORE
465 State St., Corner Liberty Salem Oregon

The Smart Shop
WHERE SATISFACTION IS THE ONLY BUSINESS

115 N. Liberty
Presenting
Dresses
Coats
Millinery

for the Woman and Miss

TRULY ARISTOCRATIC IN THEIR SUBDUED ELEGANCE AND PERFECT TASTE.

Fall Opening NOW SHOWING

The More Important Things That We See so Little of

The most important part of any undertaking is the foundation and so it is with milady's dressing. She cannot hope to wear her frock to best reveal her charm if she does not start with a good foundation.

We would suggest:

- | | |
|--|--------|
| New Modart Girdles and Combinations | $3.00 |
| Others up to $7.50 | |
| CORSELETTES, from $1.48 up to | $4.98 |
| BRASSIERS, both wide and narrow models | 49c |
| Others up to $1.48 | |

Shipley's

Fashionable Coats for Small Women

This season we have placed in stock a good assortment of sizes especially designed for small women, in spite of the fact that they are hard to get.

These coats are products of several manufacturers who cater exclusively to small women. Each model evidences the care and thought given to its fashionable lines. Elegant materials, smartly and attractively trimmed with fur.

You should make your selections early if you wear the small women's sizes

Kofoury Bros.
THE STORE FOR THE FUTURE

"CAN AND DO"

SALEM STORE 466 State Street PORTLAND SILK SHOP 383 Alder Street

SALE

The French Shop
Millinery and Gowns

Our Entire Stock of Millinery will be placed on sale at $5.00 each. No hat in stock, Meadowbrooks included, will be over $5.00.

35 Hats, including felts, etc., at $1.50 each
35 gowns of all silk and crepe materials at $16.75. Smart models, some numbers selling as high as $45.00

This sale will be of financial interest to all buyers
We have a limited number of dresses at $7.50

Dresses
25 Gowns of Silk Crepes, Georgette, Crepe Satin, Kasha, etc., at $10.75
Sale Opens Monday Morning

The French Shop
Masonic Temple M. Buffe Morrison 115 High Street