SALEM FRIENDS are receiving with interest word of the marriage of Frank M. Erickson, Jr., eldest son of Professor and Mrs. F. M. Erickson, to Miss Dora Grace of Los Angeles, the ceremony having been performed on Saturday, August 8 in the presence of only immediate relatives. The bride is associate professor of Spanish at the University of California while the groom is connected with the San Francisco Telephone company as an engineer in long distance transmission. Although receiving his education in Idaho Mr. Erickson is known in Salem from his visits here.

Mr. and Mrs. Erickson will be at home in Berkeley.

* *

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reeves were guests over the week-end of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Forgey of Gresham. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Reeves and Mr. and Mrs. Forgey, accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. Oakes and children, Carol, Evelyn and Judd, motored up the Columbia River Highway.

* *

The Court St. Christian church held its monthly business meeting at the church Friday evening. After the business meeting a social hour followed. After games light refreshments were served.

* *

One of the attractive affairs of today will be the MacDowell club silver tea at the home of Mrs. W. E. Anderson, 1491 Court street. Four talented young musicians who are home from study in Chicago, New York, and Seattle—Miss Dorothy Pearce, Miss Lucille Ross, Miss Iva Clare Love, and Miss Marian Emmons, will be the day's honor guests.

* *

Mrs. Elizabeth Scrogge and Miss Myrtle Scrogge of Vancouver, Washington, were dinner guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hodge.

* *

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Baker left yesterday for their summer home at Seal Rocks where they will be domiciled for the next several weeks.

* *

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Meyers left Sunday for a motor trip to Wallowa Lake in the Blue Mountains. Accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Meyers were Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Cheney. The party will return by way of the Mount Hood Loop.

* *

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Conner returned home Sunday evening from a week's motor trip to Newport and over the Mount Hood Loop, going the early part of the week to the beach resort and during the latter days up the Columbia Highway. Mr. and Mrs. Conner were accompanied by their son, Claire Conner and by Miss Gladys Harbert.

* *

The young married couples of the First Presbyterian church will hold their annual August picnic Wednesday evening at Hager's picnic grounds. The committee in charge have completed arrangements for games, swimming, program and best of all, the picnic lunch. The committee will bring the desert, make the coffee and roast the "dogs" while each family is asked to bring a covered dish, a few buttered rolls and "tools." The Young Married Couples club includes all married couples (and families) from fifteen to fifty, or over, and due to the excellent time enjoyed by all at their last picnic, a large turnout is expected, and all members of the church and friends are invited to be there. Lunch will be served promptly at 6:15, swimming being on the program previous to the lunch.

* *

Mr. and Mrs. Knight Pearcy left yesterday for a week's vacation in Centralia and other Washington points. They are making the trip by motor.

* *

Large plans are being made for the annual Scotch picnic on Thursday at the state fairgrounds. A picnic supper will be served at six o'clock.

* *

Mrs. W. F. Fargo returned home Sunday from a week's vacation at "The Old Playground" at Newport.

* *

The Ladies' Aid society of the Christ Lutheran church will hold an ice cream social Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. L. C. Hockett, 1603 N. Commercial street.

* *

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Morris and Mr. Alva Morris left Sunday morning for Salinas, Calif., where they will be the guests of Mrs. Martin's aunt, Mrs. Ina Cornelius, for two weeks.

* *

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hodge, Miss Frances Hodge and Miss Josephine Bross returned home Sunday from a motor trip that was particularly delightful. A week ago today the group left for Crater Lake by way of Roseburg and Grants Pass, camping a night at the resort before leaving for Diamond Lake, a scenic point of five thousand feet altitude, where boating, swimming and fishing—especially for rainbow trout—are at their best. From Diamond Lake, the motor party went on to Bend, making the return trip over the McKenzie Pass.

* *

Reverend F. W. Launer and Linden Launer are in attendance at the convention of Evangelical churches at Jennings Lodge. Tomorrow Mrs. Launer will join the group for the Sunday school convention. Miss Effie Grimes will also leave for Jennings Lodge on Wednesday, Miss Grimes being the official Endeavor delegate.

* *

Mrs. F. W. Launer, Miss Beulah Launer, and Franklin B. Launer were guests from Salem last night at the wedding of Miss Gertrude Braden and Mr. Lester Wilcox in Albany. The wedding, which was performed at the Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock in the evening, was one of the most elaborate nuptial events of the season. Mr. Launer played at the reception and Mrs. F. W. Launer presided at one of the tables. Miss Launer was a member of the bridal party.

* *

Mrs. A. M. Chapman, and daughter, Ruth, Ardeth Colwell, and Charles Parker plan to leave this morning for a week's outing at Foley Springs.

* *

Miss Zoe Stockton was the inspiration for an attractive dinner party last Friday evening in Newport on the occasion of her birthday, when Mrs. C. K. Spaulding entertained at the Spaulding summer home for her pleasure.

* *

A letter this week from Mrs. G. F. Frankl, state treasurer of the Oregon Federation of Woman's clubs, states that she will be pleased to accept the invitation of the Salem club to be one of the speakers on the winter's program. B. F. Irvine has also been invited to be one of the speakers during the coming club season.

Aside from the activity of the calendar committee, the work of the health committee is of current interest. Mrs. F. A. Elliott, chairman, called to order a meeting of the latter committee last week, with another planned for the near future.

The work at the children's playground continued last week under the direction of the civic committee. Mrs. A. M. Chapman, the chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Janet Leigh, Mrs. Robert Dann, Mrs. H. S. Gile, Mrs. Ronald Glover, Mrs. L. O. Clement, and Miss Ethel Fletcher.

This week Mrs. LaMoine R. Clark of the legislative committee, assisted by Miss Ola Clark, is in charge of the story hour.

* *

The Ever Ready Birthday club will meet on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. T. W. Hall, 1496 Ferry street, for an all day meeting. A pot-luck dinner will be served.

* *

Miss Edna L. Sterling returned to her home in Seattle after a two weeks' visit in Salem. She was entertained as the house-guest of Mrs. Paul B. Wallace.

* *

Miss Eugenia Zeiber, Miss Charlotte Zeiber, and James Hay of Berkeley, California, left Sunday for a two weeks' trip into the interior of Alaska. They made the trip north as far as Seattle by motor.

* *

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pearcy and little son, At Lee, are home from a three day motor trip to Newport, Waldport, and Seal Rocks.

* *

The Salem War Mothers will hold an important called meeting at three o'clock this afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

* *

The Delta Alpha class of the First Methodist church will postpone its meeting, which was to have been today, till Tuesday, September 2.

* *

A delightful meeting of the Amicitian club was that held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy Jennings, at her home at 620 Electric street. Mrs. Nancy Jennings, the mother of the hostess, who is here from Kansas City, Mo., was the honor guest of the occasion.

Bowls of pink roses were used about the rooms where needlework and conversation were enjoyed. Dainty refreshments were served at the tea hour.

In the group were: Mrs. Nancy Jennings, Mrs. Earl Kennell, Mrs. Milton Eckman, Mrs. Chester A. Downs, Mrs. Francis Sullivan Mrs. Arnold Krueger, Mrs. Ed R. Vlesko, Mrs. Knight Pearcy, and the hostess, Mrs. Roy Jennings.

At the next meeting of the club on August 17, Mrs. Krueger will be the hostess.

* *

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Willson and sons, Donald, Jr., and Ward, of Portland, were guests at the home of Mr. Willson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Willson of Salem Heights over the week-end.

Of interest in local, social and musical circles is the following news from the Portland Telegram of the marriage of Miss Helen Caples, pianist, who appeared during the spring on one of the most interesting musical programs of the Salem Woman's club:

Miss Helen Caples and Randall Stuart Jones were married Sunday morning in Westminster church at an unusually preety wedding. It was artistic in its simplicity and was attended by hundreds of friends and relatives of the couple, with many out of town guests making the trip for the occasion. The Rev. E. V. Poling officiated. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Kenneth Lancefield sang a bridal hymn, and a trio composed of Mrs. Beulah Stevens, organist, Mrs. Lora Teshnor, Eugene, 'cellist, and Miss Alberta Potter, Eugene, violinist, played the wedding march.

The bride, a musician of note, and a popular maid in social circles, was gowned in a modern creation fashioned from her mother's beautiful silk wedding gown, made ivory with the years. It was embellished with rare lace and carried a long court train. In lieu of a veil the bride's coiffure was banded with a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a shower arrangement of bride's roses, lilies of the calley and sweet peas.

Miss Alice Bowman was maid of honor. She wore a gown of khiva georgette and a large picture hat of straw. Her bouquet French type of pastel flowers. Victor Risley was best man, and the ushers were Donald Peek and William Peek.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Caples. Mr. and Mrs. Jones will make their home temporarily in Eugene, where the former is completing his course in law at the University of Oregon.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Don Edgar of Hood River, Mrs. Mildred Nichol of Dayton, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Young and Miss Flora Mason of Albany.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of Sunday was the picnic dinner party in Marion Square which celebrated the 64th birthday anniversary of D. W. Morley. In the group were: Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Findley and Florence and Tommy Findley of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Morley and family and Mrs. Bertha Marsters and family.

Quaint Gown Has Uneven Hemline

The distinctive thing about this quaint little white taffeta dancing frock is its uneven hemline. The bodice is embroidered in pink roses and the rose motive is repeated on the shoulder straps.
