AMERICAN IS KILLED BY CHINESE BANDITS

tors had permitted Dr. Howard to apply first aid.

Morgan Palmer's body was recovered and buried under a great oak near the ranch house, together with that of the Chinese boy who Palmer held in great affection.

Dr. Howard's captors crossed the Sungari river, foiling the efforts of Chinese troops to encircle them and now are believed to be in the Kirin mountain district.

Samuel Sokobin, American consul at Mukden, Howard Baldwin and Roger Greene, business director of the Rockefeller hospital, are remaining at Funchin pending efforts to locate Dr. Howard and bring about his release. Funchin is 450 miles from Harbin and 20 miles from the Palmer ranch.

PRE-WAR BEER SAID FLOODING THE EAST destroyed moonshine, wine and beer said to be worth $10,000.

Before Cle Elum was awake to the fact that the biggest raid in its history was in progress the officers were rushing their prisoners to the city jail or were wading through the foaming puddles of beer which marked their paths through several establishments.

Frank Carolla, 46, a member of the Cle Elum city council, was one of those arrested and charged with possession of and intent to sell intoxicating liquor. Ella Oddin was taken into custody when she was discovered running about the town spreading a general alarm. She and a boy were released after being held a short time.

The raid had been planned for a month, the officers met near Cle Elum this morning, search warrants were obtained and plans laid for the raid. At 11:15 they set out from their rendezvous and swept down on the little coal mining city.

The 28 prisoners were brought to Yakima tonight where they were to have been arranged before B. P. Borger, resident commissioner for the east district of the federal court, but a change in plans was made necessary and they will be called up tomorrow morning to plead.

TACOMA, Aug. 13.—Fifty-five cases of assorted Scotch and British liquors, together with two trucks in which the whiskey was said to have been stored, were seized by members of the dry squad in a garage here today.

No arrests were made.

The whiskey, it was stated, is of high grade quality and is valued at $5280 at "retail" prices.
