CULMINATIVE in the social events of a full summer season was the wedding at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon of Miss Luella Patton, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Cooke Patton, to Mr. Ellis Carl Charlton. The impressive service was read at the Court street home of the pastor, Rev. Charles E. Ward, pastor of the First Congregational church, officiating.

Lovely baskets of zinnias in the golden and ochre shades blended with the palms and ferns in a pleasing effect for the background. The bride party stood before an illuminated window ornamented with a profusion of zinnias and fern. Immediately preceding the ceremony Mrs. Merle Rosecrans sang "My Desire" (Cadmian) and that lovely bridal number, "At Dawning." Mrs. Florence Reed followed with Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," improvising softly throughout the ceremony.

The bride was beautifully gowned in an ensemble mode of rosewood tulle, adorned with summer squirrel. She wore a becoming hat of the same shade. Her corsage was of Cecil Brunner and Ophele roses. Mrs. C. K. Knickerbocker (Polly-Hald) of McMinnville, attractive in green satin back gown, attended the day's bride as maid of honor. Mr. Asa Fisher attended the groom as best man.

Forty relatives and friends of the young couple were present for the ceremony and the reception that followed. The dining room for the occasion of a study in old gold and bronze, snapdragons, zinnias and asters filling the basket that centered the table. Mrs. Hal D. Patton was hostess in the rooms. Mrs. R. L. Guss of Woodburn presided at the urns, while Mrs. R. L. White cut the ices. Miss Valerie Briggs, Miss Mollie Schwabauer and Miss Helen Moore served. Greeting the guests at the door were little Miss Jeanette and little Miss Marie Patton.

After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Charlton will return to Salem to make their home where both are prominent in a large circle of friends. Mr. Charlton is connected with the engineering department at the Oregon state penitentiary, while Mrs. Charlton has been connected with many local activities of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles have as their house guests Passmore Elkinton and Miss Rebecca Elkinton of Philadelphia. The visitors were honor guests at an attractive informal reception early in the week, when 20 called for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Harwood Hall arrived home on Wednesday from a six weeks' motor trip into California. Leaving July 3, the Halls made stops at Santa Rosa and Santa Barbara en route to Hollywood and Los Angeles where the greater part of their time was spent, although they also made many other interesting visits in Pasadena, Santa Monica, and especially Riverside, their old home. In Hollywood Mr. and Mrs. Hall enjoyed a visit with their daughter, who has the interesting position of critic and corrector for stories and continuities for the Universal Film corporation. On their way home Mr. and Mrs. Hall made stops at both Fresno and Sacramento, making a stop at the Indian headquarters in the latter place.

The engagement of Miss Helen Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard N. Jones, to Walter R. Hart of Pittsburg, was formally made known this afternoon to Miss Jones' Portland friends at a large tea for which her sister, Mrs. Eugene P. Steinmetz, gave for her. Eugene P. Steinmetz, sister, Miss Fay Steinmetz of New York. Miss Jones has spent the past three years in Egypt, and her engagement was announced in Cairo in April before her departure for the United States. Mr. Hart is the son of Dr. and Mrs. S. G. Hart of Cairo, Egypt. No date has been set for the wedding.

About 100 society matrons and maids called during the tea hours to meet Miss Jones and Miss Steinmetz. The tea table, which was centered with sweet peas, was in charge of Mrs. J. C. Elliott King, Mrs. Arthur W. Chance, Mrs. W. W. Allen of Mill City and Mrs. L. E. Steinmetz, assisted by Mrs. William Steiner, Mrs. Adolphe Neu, Mrs. Robert Jones, Mrs. S. Anderson, Mrs. Estes Snedecor and the Misses Margaret Rodgers of Salem; Constance King, Ethel Mitchell of Honolulu, and Mildred Steinmetz.—Portland Telegram.

The juveniles of the Women of Woodcraft will meet this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the WOW hall for their business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley and daughters, Dorothy and Mary Patricia, and sons Tommy and Rodrick, are home from a two weeks' visit in Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

Miss Josephine Baumgartner is the guest at Newport of Miss Eva Randall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Coughlin and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Howard of Los Angeles, are at Yachats for the week.

Mrs. Henry B. Thielsen and Miss Nell Thielsen are enjoying a two weeks' period of recreation at Wallowa lake, in the Blue mountains.

Guests at the F. W. Lauer home one evening this week were Miss Frances Tucker, Miss Anna Bolander and Clifford Hulsey.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Galloway returned home Sunday evening from a week's motor trip through British Columbia, followed with a week at Foley Springs. At Foley Springs the Galloways were joined by Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Fox.

The Mizpah class of the Jason Lee Methodist church Sunday school will hold a picnic at 6:30 o'clock this evening at the home of Mrs. C. A. Gies, 2440 Fairgrounds road.

The marriage of Miss Grace Darling Bruce, daughter of Mrs. Grace E. Bruce of Portland, and Prof. C. E. Pierce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pierce of Junction City, was an attractive affair of last Tuesday evening at the Seventh Day Adventist church. Elder N. C.

Ernstson performed the ceremony beneath an arch of pink roses, fern and other greens. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Carl Hartley sang "At Dawning," accompanied by Miss Alta Harmer. Mr. Jack Randall of Portland sang "Oh, Promise Me." He was accompanied by his brother. The wedding march was played by Miss Alta Harmer. The bride made a beautiful picture in her wedding robe of white satin back crepe caught at the side with orange blossoms. Her wedding veil of embroidered tulle was gracefully draped from a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of pink rosebuds and sweet peas. Miss Olga Bruce of Victoria, B. C., sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and was very attractive in her gown of salmon pink crepe de chine. The little flower girl, Ruth Grettle, was in canary yellow georgette and carried a basket of pink sweet peas. Little Marion Pierce, brother of the bridegroom, was flower boy. Glenn Pierce acted as best man. A reception followed in the parlors of the Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity house, with Mrs. Grace E. Bruce, Mrs. Edgar Thrane and Miss Marlene Lawson receiving the wedding party. Mr. Jack Randall of Portland sang, and Miss Hazel Hawkins gave a reading. Refreshments were later enjoyed.

After a wedding trip Professor and Mrs. Pierce will take charge of the Yakima school, where Professor Pierce has the position of principal.

The sixth birthday of little Miss Jewell Minier was the occasion for the delightful lawn party of Tuesday afternoon at which Mrs. Walter Minier was the hostess in her daughter's honor. After an afternoon of games the group gathered at the tea table for birthday refreshments. The appropriate number of candles gleamed on the attractive cake which was cut for Jewell Minier, Maxine Holt, Carol Potter, Daphne Potter, Peggy Thompson; Loren Hicks, Dorothy Dillon and Billy Dillon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Albert and two daughters, Mary Jane, and Josephine, Mrs. J. C. Griffith, and Mrs. Glenn Sigel and little daughter of Portland, are on a ten day vacation at Twin Rocks.

Reverend F. W. Lauer performed the wedding ceremony which united in marriage Mrs. Nellie Townsend and Mr. Jake Bauman, the impressive service being conducted at 8:15 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's son, Clifford Townsend. The couple were unattended. Only the immediate relatives were in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Bauman will be at home to their friends after September 1.

Mrs. S. Levy and Miss Elizabeth Levy are home from a ten-day vacation at Tillamook and Seaside. At Tillamook Mrs. Levy and Miss Levy were domiciled at Lake Lytle Hotel; they were also guests of Senator and Mrs. Arthur Beals. They motored home from Seaside by way of Portland.

Silverton

SILVERTON, Aug. 20.—(Special to The Statesman.)—Robert Wales, who was killed at the Silver Falls timber company camp Monday afternoon by having his head crushed, is still at the Jack & Ekman mortuary, and as yet no trace of relatives has been found. All the information anyone at Silverton has of him is that he is 28 years of age.

Fifteen acres of the Frank Morley hop yard lay down Monday afternoon. Silverton folk claim the hops were overcome with pride. Mr. Morley is the largest individual hop grower in the state and the Silverton yard is said to have the heaviest yield of hops that any yard in Oregon has this season. Endeavors are being made to raise the hops sufficiently for picking. Picking in the early hops in the Morley yards began today.

Mrs. F. Randall who is visiting here from Arizona is being quite extensively entertained. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Randall was guest of honor at a little party given at the home of Mrs. Daniel Dybbetter. Other guests for the afternoon were Mrs. O. S. Hauge, Mrs. Esther Weaver, Mrs. Gilbert Underdahl, Mrs. M. G. Gunderson, Mrs. Hans Jensen, Mrs. Elmer Olsen, Mrs. John Goplerud, Mrs. Christine Hansen, Mrs. Andrew Hall, Mrs. John Moo, Mrs. Clara Baltimore and Mrs. Martha Gunderson.

Bits For Breakfast

It keeps right up—
Salem's building boom—
And the growth will be justified, if the increase in the dinner bucket brigade is continued. And it must be.
Slogan man must tell about grain and grain products next Thursday. If you know of any creditable grain yields, please report them. Or if you can help the Slogan editor in some other way, please do so.

Ellis McMunn and her mother knew Harry Tracey, Oregon's most notorious outlaw, who died with his boots on a number of years ago, when he was a very small boy in Colorado. He was a holy terror when he was five years old. His mother nursed him up to that time, and when she was a little slow about it, the little fiend would curse and kick her. His father was a drunken good-for-nothing. Few desperate criminals get that way all at once. They, generally grow up to it getting hard-boiled gradually. But they all die with their boots on.

It is a crowded Statesman this morning (with ads) and business in this respect for August is keeping up much better than it did the same month of last year, Salem is going to be still more prosperous; will grow faster and faster.

TRADING SHIP IS SEIZED

RUSSIAN ARREST CAPTAIN FOR DEALING IN FURS

NOME, Alaska, Aug. 20.—Seizure by Siberian authorities of the cargo of the Nome trading schooner Ram, and arrest of Sam Malsage, well known Russian trader, and two members of the crew of the Ram, was related here today by Captain Victor Jacobson, well known throughout Alaska

Malsage and the sailors were charged with taking furs out of Siberia illegally. They are to be transported to Petropavlovsk on a Soviet freighter for trial. Captain Jacobson said the only reason he could assign for his release by the Russians was that he talked longer and louder than his captors. The crew of the Maud, Captain Ronald Amundsen's Arctic exploration vessel, which is at East Cape awaiting refueling, are well but are anxious to return to civilization so they can get fresh vegetables and fruit to eat. They have been living on tinned foods and such animals as they could kill since 1922 when they were sent by Captain Amundsen to attempt to drift across the north pole.
