THE NEWS OF THE WEEK FROM THE LIVE POLK TOWN OF FALLS CITY

The Schools of Falls City Open on September 14th, With Good Teaching Force—The Comings and Goings and General Doings of the People of the Western Section of Polk County

Falls City Schools to Open Sept. 14th—Several changes in the Teaching Corps. Both high and grade schools will open this year on Sept. 14th. There are a number of changes in the teaching personnel this year. Fred J. Patton, a graduate of Willamette university, comes as superintendent of schools. Mr. Patton taught last year at Enterprise, being engaged in high school work there. Mr. Patton will be athletic adviser and coach. Mrs. Mabel Hatch will be assistant principal. Mrs. Hatch has taught a number of years in Falls City high, and everyone knows her work.

The department of home economics will be in charge of Mrs. Phyllis Palmer Patton, who had this department in Falls City high school last year.

Dorothy Ostrander, whose home is in Salem, and who is a graduate of the University of Oregon, will have the English department. Miss Ostrander was a member of the faculty of the Falls City high school last year.

The grade school will have as principal this year Mrs. Kate G. Boyd, who comes here from Portland. Mrs. Boyd is a graduate of Idaho State Normal, with a life diploma in that state. Mrs. Boyd served as superintendent of schools of Owyhee county, Idaho. She has taught in Oregon also. Mrs. Boyd will also be supervisor of music and art, which will be added to the source of study in the eighth grade the coming year.

The other teachers employed for the grade school are as follows: Mrs. Eunice W. Logan, who has taught in the grades here in former years; Mrs. Frances Spear, from Monmouth Normal school, but who has had practical experience in teaching; Miss Dorothy Cooke, a Monmouth Normal school graduate; Mrs. Jessie Meyer, whose work in the schools here is too well known to need mention; Pauline Jobes, who taught successfully in our grade school last year, and Ina B. Graham, who will again teach the primary grade. Miss Graham has taught continuously in the schools here for fourteen years, having been principal of the grade school during a part of that time, but always having in charge the beginners in school.

J. C. Frink will be janitor of the high school again this year, while P. H. Gottfried has been selected to serve as janitor of the grade school and of Victory hall.

Family Reunion August 16th—The Buell, Yocom and Thorp families held a reunion on Sunday, August 16th, on the Yamhill river, near Ballston, at which there were a hundred present. If all those related to the three pioneer families had been present it is probable the number would have been three times as many. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Buell, their sons Ernest, Cecil and Hathaway, with their respective families attended from Falls City. On Saturday the Henry Buell home was the scene of a gathering of cousins and other members of the Buell and Yocom families. Mrs. F. E. Yocom, with her sons Grandall, his wife and two sons, and Paul came over and visited, going on the next day to the reunion near Ballston.

Mr. and Mrs. Hathaway Buell are here for the summer.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Cole had as guests the following relatives of Mrs. Cole, who drove down and spent the day at the Cole home: Peter P. Colgaard, wife and mother-in-law, Mrs. Erickson, from Elmira, Oregon; Elmer Skoog, wife and daughter Dorothy, from Veneta, Oregon; E. Freed, wife and son and daughter, Walter and Dorothy, and Mrs. Anna Dewey and daughter Dorothy, all from Eugene; and Mrs. McAllister, from Boise, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Meyers, small son Jody, and Mrs. M. Huffman, Mrs. Meyers' mother, were in town Monday, transacting business and calling on their friends. They were on their way to Newport. Mr. and Mrs. Meyers will have a five piece orchestra dance at the Independence armory during the hop picking season, beginning August 22nd, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening. They will be at the Riverside park for the last time Saturday evening.

Mrs. A. A. Muck returned last Friday from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. R. L. Spaeth, and family, in Alameda, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Frink and Mrs. Scott Leavitt visited relatives in Newberg Monday.

Mrs. J. F. Dunlop had as a week end guest her father, F. W. Goodrich, of Portland.

Among other notables visiting the Epworth League institute were Dr. Clarence True Wilson, a nationally known figure in prohibition work, who was here two years ago, and whose headquarters are in Washington, D. C., and Dr. McCoy, pastor of Centenary Wilbur church of Portland.

George Campbell, accompanied by N. Mosier of Lafayette, Messrs. Feely of Lafayette, and Coffy of McMinnville, passed through Falls City Monday, their objective being the Hazel Dell and Mountain View Goat Ranches, and the Roquefort Cheese plant. All of these gentlemen enjoyed their visit very much. They are all owners of milk goats. Mr. Mosier is also the owner of a nursery at Lafayette. Mr. Campbell has been interested in milk goats ever since his return from China about ten years ago, taking up the raising of the goat, and investigations regarding milks goats to have a hobby to keep him out of doors. His investigations have proved so interesting that he has written a number of articles for Goat Journals.

Mr. Campbell is the father of P. W. Campbell, who taught commercial subjects in the Falls City high school for two years. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Campbell recently visited Dayville, in the John Day country, and Mr. Campbell will teach there the coming year.

Mrs. W. W. Ward, daughter Opal, Chester L. Ward, wife and children, all returned home Monday from Portland, where Mrs. Ward and daughter have been attending camp meeting for the past ten days.

The many friends of Mrs. Wilbur Rhodes will be pleased she has so far recovered from the recent severe operation she underwent in Portland that she is leaving the hospital on Monday, going to the home of her brother, George Sullivan, in Vancouver, Washington, where she will remain until next Sunday, when Mr. Rhodes will drive down and bring her home.

Mrs. Daisy Hunter was up from Portland a few days last week, the house guest of her mother, Mrs. Wm. Alderman, and sister, Miss Ritts.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rogers, Grandpa Treat, and Uncle Chas. Travis came up from Monmouth Sunday and spent the day at the Gordon Treat home.

Coye Morris passed through town Tuesday on his way home to Vale, having enjoyed a vacation trip through McKenzie pass and other scenic points in southern Oregon.

Mrs. Henry Griffin returned to Portland Monday, after enjoying a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Walter Clark.

John Boozer and family of McMinnville have moved into the Cora Page property on South Main street. Mr. Boozer is an employe of the Southern Pacific, and will be employed on the section force under A. G. Adams.

Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Walters and family returned home Monday from attendance at the Free Methodist camp meeting held between Portland and Beaverton. They were gone over a week, and enjoyed the time very much. At their services last Sunday it is estimated there were probably eight hundred present at the morning service and over six hundred in the afternoon. About 130 tents were on the grounds.

Orland Walters returned to work Monday, following a month's enforced idleness following an injury received to his right hand while employed in logging operations.

Divorce Is Asked

Leda Joy has filed suit for divorce from Claude Joy, charging cruel and inhuman treatment. In her complaint she charges that on numerous occasions her husband voiced the desire that she would die or at least go away and leave him. She also alleges that he remained away from home at late hours and loitered around pool halls. They were married in Hillsboro in February, 1925. Mrs. Joy asks for her maiden name of Leda Ramsey returned to her.

Action Is Filed

Dr. O. L. Scott has filed action against Dr. H. B. Scofield in the circuit court for the return of an electric sign, made in the shape of a human form, and equipped with a small electric motor. According to the complaint, Scofield now is in possession of the device, although Scott declares he owns it. He places a valuation of $250 on the sign. Both men are local chiropractors.

Auto Is Wrecked

While coming south on the Pacific highway near the Hayesville school about 9 o'clock last night an automobile driven by Charles Knight went into the ditch. The driver escaped uninjured but his companion, A. W. Steiger, received several cuts on his head, necessitating several stitches to close the wounds. According to Steiger he was nearly asleep when he heard the shriek of brakes and the first thing he knew the car was on its side. He believed the driver had dozed for a few seconds. Both men live in Portland and said they were on their way to Roseburg where they were to meet their wives who had been visiting in Los Angeles.
