

County News in Brief

Brooks

When hauling a load of mint hay from the still on Lake Labish, J. S. Dunlay and his helper, Mr. McCall, had the misfortune to overturn when the wagon struck an uneven place while turning on the Pacific highway near R. E. Jones' residence. Both men were thrown off, Mr. Dunlay landing directly in front of a passing Ford. By quick work he saved himself from being run over, and added to a few bruises, neither suffered any injuries.

The team became frightened, and had a clear track, as all auto-lets took to the ditches and road-sides. They were stopped near Brooks' campers with no damage done.

Mr. John Hackit of Seattle, Wash., is visiting his aunt and uncle, Robert and Ellen Hackit, this week.

The lot on the corner across from the old store building next to Carl Aspinwall's residence is being cleaned up in preparation for the new postoffice building. Mr. Aspinwall has purchased the site and intends building a neat frame structure 15x24 feet, which he thinks will be ample to care for the growing district for some time to come. The present quarters have been in use about 1908 and are considered too small to allow for any expansion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Blakely and Paul Blakely of Hollywood are California auto tourists who are spending some time here at the home of their father, Frank Blakely and wife.

Frank Thomas was here from Mill City Sunday looking after his business interests. Mr. Thomas has secured the contract for painting the old school building at this place and will begin the work as soon as his Mill City work will permit.

The copious downpour of rain which began falling at noon Saturday and continued throughout the night was fine for this section, pasture and all vegetation will be greatly benefited. Even the people feel refreshed by it.

W. R. Tapscott and family left Saturday for San Francisco where they will visit for a couple of weeks with relatives. Mr. Tapscott is bookkeeper for the Mountain States Power company's plant at this place.

The L. C. Mills family left last week for Portland where they will reside. Mr. Mills is engaged in carpenter work in the city. Mrs. Mills has been associated with the Mack millinery store here and her absence will be regretted by the patrons.

J. Forrest Mack, who has been critically ill the past two weeks from slow poison, is showing signs of improvement, which is encouraging to his family and friends. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mack, left first of the week for their home at Siletz.

Pringle

The Coburns held their annual reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Coburn Sunday. There were a goodly number present and they feasted on the fat of the land and visited and recalled to memory many other such occasions past and gone.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Stewart and daughter, Cecil, arrived home Saturday evening. They have just returned from a 6900 mile auto trip. Persia Angered at Soviet Declares Teheran Report

BERLIN.—An official report received by the Persian Legation from Teheran on the recent Turcoman conflicts conveys a bitter arraignment of the Soviet authorities.

The Russians are accused of willfully violating many of the agreements of the Russo-Persian treaty. Numerous instances of non-recognition of existing boundaries in northern Persia are mentioned. Attacks on the Persian border police at Aleppou, Kouschab and Chat and the establishing of Russian border posts on Persian territory are recorded.

The worst infringement of Persian inviolability is considered to be the deflection of the only river supplying three villages on the Chorassan border with water. This has been a cause of much suffering among the inhabitants of the district, besides creating serious economic and hygienic disturbances. To all complaints from Teheran, the authorities at Moscow are said to have given evasive and dilatory replies.

PAVILION OF FRENCH SHOW IS FEATURE OF EXHIBITS

HAVRE—Have wood importers and carpenters have provided one of the most interesting exhibits of the Decorative Arts Exposition. At the request of the minister of colonies they have built a pavilion fashioned entirely out of French colonial woods.

The various woods contained in the pavilion came from the Ivory Coast, Indo-China, Siam, the Congo, French Guiana, Southern Gabno and Madagascar.

Skilled workmen, mostly graduates of the Havre technical school were selected to build the pavilion.

BERLIN TRIES STREET BUS

BERLIN.—The first London bus has arrived in Berlin. It is introduced as an experiment and should it prove satisfactory, 200 of them will be put in operation.
